Chapter 153

Chuck Cannon immediately put his mobile phone in his pocket and thought in his heart, "It shouldn't be like that. Did Yvette find out that I am the 'Baller'? So she sent a message to test me on purpose?"

Chuck was a little nervous. He did lied to Yvette Jordan about this matter on WeChat. He wondered what expression would she have when she knew that he was actually the Baller.

But....

Yvette came over with an anxious look on her face, and her eyes were looking at Chuck. Chuck subconsciously looked around and he was frighten when he looked out.

The principal, was actually outside. What was she doing? Was she paying a visit to inspect during the exam?

And she was looking at Chuck.

Chuck groaned in his heart and thought, "Has his cheating been discovered? So, Yvette suddenly came over, was to remind him that the principal was outside but not telling him that she had discovered he was the Baller?"

Chapter 153 1/1:

His wife was helping him in cheating. Chuck heaved a sigh of relief and held the slip of paper that Queenie Carson had thrown at him tightly in his hand.

Queenie also became nervous. She was also worried that Chuck would be found cheating in exam.

Yvette was cold and nervous. She saw the principal was outside. Did the principal found out that Chuck was cheating?

Cheating was a serious problem in the university. If they were caught cheating in exams, they would either be barred from examination or be given demerits which had a great impact during graduation!

"Honey, you have to work harder!" Yvette sighed in her heart.

Chapter 153 2/12

However, at this time, the exam was over.

The principal came in and said directly, "Chuck, come to my office!"

Then the principal went out.

Chuck had no choice but to go to the principal's office. Yvette was anxious. Chuck was only a freshman. If he cheated and was recorded, how could he continue on the future days ahead?

Chuck had no choice but to stand up and go out.

"Chuck..." Yvette stopped him in front of the whole class.

He turned around.

"Calm down," Yvette said seriously.

Chuck nodded. He had no choice but to be calm. Chuck had to see what the principal would say. If he really couldn't settle this problem himself, he could only call his mother, but...

"It's not glorious to be caught cheating. If my mother knows it, she will be very disappointed in me. Forget it, I should bear the consequences," Chuck thought in his heart.

Chapter 153 3/12

Yvette was worried.

"What did the principal called Chuck for?" A student asked.

"Didn't you notice? Chuck cheated just now," another student answered.

"He is very daring to cheat in the exam!" A male student said.

"Considering his result, if he doesn't cheat, he can only submit an empty question paper," Another student laughed.

"That's right, but he's too unlucky. He cheated and was caught red handed by the principal. He'll get into trouble no matter what he does. Let's just wait and see!" A student said.

"Haha, I think it's better to expel him right away!" Some of the students said.

The students in the class burst into laughter and laughed at him.

Chapter 153 4/12

"Are you done? Is it that funny that Chuck had cheated? Harley, Kurt, and the three of you. Do you think that I didn't notice when you cheated just now?" Yvette's expression turned cold as she said.

Those students who were called by Yvette blushed and felt ashamed.

The other students were unhappy to be scolded by Yvette and muttered in their hearts,

"Why has Yvette been putting up good words for Chuck recently?"

"Humph, Chuck, you deserve to be caught by the principal!" A student said softly.

Lara Jean curled her lips and said, "Teacher, what do you like about Chuck? Is it because he is rich?"

...

Chuck followed the principal nervously.

"Chuck, do you know why I asked you to come here?" The principal said as she walked.

"I know," Chuck bowed his head.

"You know? It seems that she's really looking for you!" The principal muttered to herself in surprise.

When Chuck entered the principal's office, he was stunned because there was a woman who was wearing a mask and sunglasses sitting on the sofa. Although she was just sitting, the lines of her seductive legs and hips were still easily outlined by the tight jeans.

"Is it him?" asked the principal.

"Yes," the woman stood up and said.

Chuck was surprised. "Who are..."

The woman took off her sunglasses and mask, revealing her beautiful face. Chuck was surprised to see her. "You, how did you find me here?" He asked.

The principal was surprised. How could Zabrina Yalden, the popular celebrity, come to their school? Was she going to shoot a movie in their school? After all, the scenery of their school was good, it was an opportunity to advertise for their school.

Chapter 153 6/12

The principal was very happy. She was waiting for Zabrina to mention it, and she would agree right on the spot.

However, when she heard that Zabrina was just here to look for someone named Chuck, she was stunned.

Why did a top celebrity come looking for an ordinary student?

"I came to see you for a mater. Is it convenient for you to talk to me now?" Zabrina asked. She had spent a huge effort to find this place!

She really wanted to act in that movie very much, so she found a lot of connections and inquired about it.

Before Chuck arrived, she was a little nervous. She couldn't understand why Chuck was in this school. With his background, he should be studying in a school where 'Baller' goes to.

But Chuck was here. She couldn't believe that he was really studying at this school.

Chuck had no choice but to nod.

"Headmaster, I want to talk to him alone. Could you please give us some time? I'm preparing for a new movie now. If we make a deal with the investors, I'll consider shooting in your school," said Zabrina.

"Well, well, you can talk freely here," the principal was delighted and immediately walked out. But she was curious about why Zabrina came to find Chuck. Just now, she thought that she was wrong but it turned out that the girl was really the popular and beautiful Zabrina.

When the principal went out, Chuck asked, "Do you really want to perform in that movie?"

"Yes, I do. I really want to cooperate with Director Yannic. Please give me a chance. I'm still popular now. After the movie is released, the profit should be good. And I don't mind pay. I don't mind it at all. You can give it to me as you like. It's okay to just pay 10,000 or 20,000 dollars," Zabrina said.

This was what she was confident about. She was really popular now. Every movie that she was asked to act as the main female character would always be a big hit when the movie was released. She was always the investors' first choice!

Chapter 153 8/12

This was her confidence and capital when she came to talk with Chuck face to face.

Chuck was silent for a few seconds and said, "Okay, tell Director Yannic that I agree. You will be the main female character in this movie!"

Chuck said as he walked outside. Zabrina was stunned. How could he agree to it so quickly?

The principal was surprised to see Chuck came out so quickly. She thought that Zabrina had found the wrong person. Or else, why would Zabrina come to find Chuck?

She hurried into the office. She wanted Zabrina to come to their school to shoot for the movie!

Chuck went to the classroom. In fact, he had thought about it for a long time. Zabrina's beauty was really suitable for the female lead character in the movie. Besides, she also had a certain appeal to the box office. It was indeed the best choice for her to act in the movie, but he would give her as much as she deserved for the movie.

As Chuck thought so, he had already returned to the classroom.

"Chuck is back," a student announced.

"Judging from his dejected look, he must have been scolded by the principal," one student laughed.

"I think he's expelled," a male student sneered.

The students expressed their opinions. If cheating was discovered by the principal, would there be any good results? The students laughed at Chuck.

Chuck sat down and Queenie immediately asked nervously, "Chuck, what did the principal say? Have you been given demerits... I'm sorry, I shouldn't have sent you a note just now..."

Chuck shook his head.

After Yvette put away the test paper on the podium, she sighed. "Was he given a punishment? No, Chuck is only a freshman. He can't be punished in his freshman year," Yvette decided to go to see the principal and plead for Chuck.

Chapter 153 10/12

However, just as the whole class was laughing at Chuck for being called to the office by the principal, a very beautiful figure appeared at the door of the classroom. Yvette was stunned, and the whole class was also surprised.

"Who, who is this? She's Zabrina Yalden, Zabrina!" A student exclaimed.

"What? Oh my god, it's really Zabrina. What is she doing in our school?" Another student yelled.

The class was in a heated discussion immediately. It was too unexpected for Zabrina to come to the school. What more, she stopped at their classroom door. Who was she looking for?

The whole class immediately gathered around her.
They wanted to take pictures with her and get her autographs!

But Zabrina stood on her tiptoes and said, "Sorry... Hey, Chuck, you've promised me. Don't go back on your words!"

Chapter 153 11/12

Swish!

The whole class was shocked. What? Did Zabrina, the popular star, come here to look for Chuck??

Chapter 153 12/12

Chapter 154

At this time, the whole class was dumbfounded. How could it be possible!

How could Zabrina Yalden come looking for Chuck Cannon?

Was it an illusion?

At that moment, the class was in dead silence!

Because they didn't expect that Yolanda Lane, the campus belle, and Zabrina, the popular celebrity would come to find Chuck. They were envious about Chuck.

What kind of charm does Chuck have? Wasn't he just a loser?

Yvette Jordan was also stunned and could not believe what she saw. She looked at Chuck with dull eyes.

"Hubby, why did Zabrina come to find you? Why?" Yvette asked in her heart.

Chapter 154 1/1:

Queenie Carson was also shocked.

Only Lara Jean muttered, "Do you think it's so great to be rich? How could you get involved in the entertainment circle? Now that Teacher Jordan finds out, let's see what you can do!"

Chuck nodded helplessly. What was she doing in the classroom?

Zabrina was relieved. Ignoring Chuck's classmates, she turned around and left.

At this time, after a moment of silence, the students in the class looked at each other in dismay.

"Did Zabrina just come to find Chuck? Did I see it wrongly?" A student said.

"It's easy to explain. In my opinion, that person is Zabrina," another student said.

"Ah, why do you say so?" Some of the students asked curiously.

"Now, there are so many imitation shows, who knows if that girl was just imitating Zabrina or not? She's wearing such large sunglasses. Who can tell who she is?" The person explained.

"I also think she's a fake. Zabrina is so popular. What would she come to our school and look for that loser! She must not be Zabrina," the student said bitterly.

"Humph, he actually hired a fake celebrity to show off in front of us. She must be quite expensive to hire, isn't she? Chuck is really a wimp that can't be saved..." Francis Gellert sneered and said. He didn't believe that the person was Zabrina. Chuck was driving an ordinary car which was borrowed from others. How could the real Zabrina be here to find him?

After the whole class analyzed, they despised Chuck even more.

Not only did he borrow a car to show off, but he also spent money to rent a fake celebrity to show off. He was basically wasting money!

"So, that girl was not Zabrina?" Yvette thought in her heart.

She was not interested in the entertainment circle,

Chapter 154 3/12

so she couldn't be sure. Then, she frowned and said, "Stop talking, we're going to start the next exam soon!"

The whole class finally stopped and the exam continued.

Yvette took the test paper and went to the principal. When she arrived at the principal's office, she went in and saw the principal was happy. She was surprised in her heart. It was a good chance to tell her that Chuck cheated.

"Principal..." Yvette said coldly.

"Well, what's the matter?" The principal asked.

"It's regarding to what happened to Chuck in my class just now..." Yvette hesitated.

"Chuck? It's Zabrina who made a mistake. It's okay..." The principal shook her head. Chuck had come out of the room in less than half a minute. Zabrina must have made a mistake!

"What? Was she really Zabrina?" Yvette was surprised. "But the students in my class said that it's not the real person. If she was the real person, why did Zabrina look for Chuck?"

"Of course she is Zabrina. She said she was going to shoot the movie in our school. Haha, our school is going to be popular. At that time, there must be a lot of students coming here for fame," the principal said happily, "By the way, Teacher Jordan, what can I do for you?"

After Yvette was shocked, she said, "Chuck just..."

"What happened to him just now?" The principal asked.

"It's nothing. Principal, I'm leaving now. The next exam is about to start..." Yvette said coldly as she walked out.

It seemed that the principal didn't punish Chuck for cheating because she was in a good mood.

Yvette returned to the classroom and looked at Chuck in the corner. "Hubby, why did Zabrina come to you?" She thought in her heart.

"Are you suddenly lucky at meeting beautiful women?" Yvette muttered to herself.

Yvette sighed helplessly and started the exam.

In the past few days of the examination, Queenie had been secretly handing over a note to Chuck and Chuck took them secretly. Yvette glared at him but did not say anything. Her eyes were telling Chuck not to be discovered.

Chuck, of course, snickered. How wonderful it was to have a wife as a teacher! He could cheat at will.

Also, since the lead actress had decided to be Zabrina, the lead actor had been found and the photo had been sent to Chuck. After Chuck looked at it, he felt that the actor was suitable. At least, that actor was much better than the previous lead actor, although it was not very famous.

Director Yannic had wanted Chuck to come over to attend the press conference but he refused. He was not suitable for such an occasion as he would not know what to say on stage. It was better for them to deal with it themselves.

Director Yannic didn't force him. She said that she might come to the plaza to shoot the first few scenes. Chuck was a little surprised as this was the best time for him to advertise the plaza. Chuck didn't ask much from Director Yannic. He just asked her to include the name of his plaza and the beautiful places into it!

Director Yannic agreed and said she would find a way to do that.

Chuck was also looking forward to it. If there was a crew coming to his square for filming, it would surely attract many customers.

On this day, the exam was finally over.

Chuck let out a sigh of relief. Queenie's grades were very good. With her help, it would not be a problem for Chuck to pass all the tests.

"Wow, the exam is finally over. It's summer vacation. Let's go to the KTV to celebrate!" Said the class monitor.

"Do you need every student to pay for it again?" Other students also said. They had been studying for the exam. So when it was summer vacation, they naturally would want to gather and have fun together.

"Isn't there a classmate with a gold card in the KTV of the City Square? It's free. Why don't we go there?" Said the class monitor.

"Yes, anyway, our classmate has a golden card. It's free. We should go there. Hehe, who is the owner of the KTV golden card? Take your classmates out to relax!" A student said.

The whole class looked at each other. No one stood out, but everyone was excited. They had to relax. What's more, they didn't have to pay for it. It was free. They could drink some good wine. Everyone would want it.

"That's not right. Now that we have a free gold card, we should take our classmates out to relax. We are all in the same class, so we have fun together," said the class monitor.

"Yes, don't hide it from us. Harold, Wyman, Zion... You are the only people who have the ability to be the gold card holder. Please tell us if you have it!" A student said.

The ones who were called, looked at each other, shaking their heads and saying they didn't have it!

"Why are you still pretending. We're all classmates!" The class monitor said.

"Yes, you should bring us out and relax. Anyway, it's free," another student said.

But these students had no choice but to admit that they didn't have it. The students in the class frowned and immediately muttered, "You're so stingy. Since it's free, what's wrong with taking your classmates out to relax?"

"That's right! He's so stingy!" Another student quickly added.

Lara secretly looked at Chuck and found that he had packed up his things. He was ready to leave.

"Hey, who is the gold card holder? Just admit it! Everyone is waiting for you! Don't let your classmates feel sad!" The class monitor continued.

the gold card holder. Please tell us if you have it!" A student said.

The ones who were called, looked at each other, shaking their heads and saying they didn't have it!

Chapter 154 9/12

Chuck ignored him and went outside with Queenie. In the past few days, Queenie had been staying at Yvette's house. Chuck thought, "Anyway, it's the holidays now. I should let Queenie and her sister move to Yvette's house which I've bought. In that way, I would have the opportunity to sleep at her house!"

Of course, Chuck would not do anything to Yvette before the time was up.

"Hey, why are you all hiding your card? Lara, you're the only one who knew who had the gold card. Tell me, tell me who he is!" The monitor walked up to Lara Jean.

Lara didn't dare to say that. She was afraid that if she had said, the whole class and even the whole school would see her naked photo the next minute.

"I don't know," Lara shook her head and said.

"You don't know? It was you who said it last time. It's impossible that you will not know. Tell us now!" The class monitor urged.

Lara shook her head. "I really don't know. I'm going to the plaza now."

Chapter 154 10/13

Lara said as she walked outside. The monitor frowned and said, "Lara, stop! I'd like to see who this person is today! All of you shouldn't leave this class until we find this person today!"

"Yes, we should find this person. He's obviously from a rich family, and has a free gold card, but he doesn't take his classmates out to relax. Is this how one treats their classmates? We must find the person out!" Other students also agreed.

Chuck frowned and stopped. So did Queenie. Lara had no choice but to stop. At this time, everyone in the class was staring at the people who were suspicious just now. They shook their heads and explained that they really don't have it. But how could the people in the class believe it?

They were definitely pretending. It was definitely one of them!

"Chuck, Queenie, you two can leave now. It's none of your business. Anyway, you two could never have the gold card," the class monitor waved his hand and said. He didn't believe that the gold cards belonged to Chuck or Queenie. The others in the class also waved their hands to let Chuck leave.

"Why should I leave?" Chuck suddenly asked calmly.

Chapter 155

"Humph, do you still need me to tell you why you two should leave?" The class monitor said.

He sneered, "It's because you two are poor! Poor!"

"Yes, how can two poor people be the KTV gold card holder? Hurry up and leave! Don't waste our time!" The classmates said impatiently.

It was fortunate for them to have a rich student in the class. They had to find this student as soon as possible! After all, the exams were over, so they should relax, and better yet, for free. They really wanted to go out.

As long as they found out who the gold card holder was, they could sing, drink, eat for free, and play for the whole night!

Queenie Carson's face suddenly turned red. She was very angry. She didn't understand why she should be criticized just because she was poor. She was still a student, she couldn't choose to be rich or to be poor.

Only when she graduates from school and begins her career, could she be judged on her success!

"Don't go overboard!" Queenie said angrily.

"Overboard? Everyone in class knows that you both are the poorest kids in class! When these two f*cking go to the canteen, they won't even order any meat but only vegetables for lunch! How could they be the gold card holders? Is this a joke?" The class monitor said to the class condescendingly.

"You!" Queenie was so angry that her face turned red!

"Huh! You have nothing to say! Why don't you leave now?" Francis Gellert snorted softly.

The other students were also very impatient. They wanted to drive Chuck and Queenie out so they could stop wasting their time on them.

The classmates' mocking voice made Queenie, who had been under a lot of pressure for the past few days, very upset. Tears swirled in her eyes. She felt wronged. She and Chuck were ready to go out and have some fun, but they were bullied by their classmates.

"Then who do you think is the owner of the gold card?" Chuck asked calmly.

"Anyway, it can't be the both of you! Beggars!" The class monitor sneered.

The other students laughed at them more rudely.

"Hurry up! What are you still doing here?" A student said.

"They also want to sing and drink at the KTV. Of course, they have to stay here," another student laughed.

"Humph, the KTV is an expensive place for entertainment! Those who don't have money shouldn't go. What if they get addicted but can't afford to pay?"

"If they're addicted to it, they should go in and work as a waiter. Then they can go there every day," a student mocked.

Chapter 155

"Haha!" The classmates laughed.

Their ridicule made Queenie's eyes turn red. She felt wronged. She thought that they were all classmates, so why should they look down on people this way?

"What a coincidence. I am indeed the gold card holder," Chuck said.

Queenie's eyes widened. What? Chuck was the gold card holder?

Lara Jean, who was still in the classroom, was also stunned.

"You? Haha!" The class monitor burst out laughing.

"Damn it. We let the issue pass, when you borrowed someone else's car and said it's yours. And, when you asked the fake Zabrina to come to look for you. How can you lie to us that you are the gold card holder now? Why don't you lie and say that you're a big boss and that the whole KTV or even City Square belongs to you?" Francis snorted.

The other students were too lazy to say anything, and after laughing at him, they became even more unhappy.

"Didn't you just want to go to the KTV with us? You should have told us earlier! You don't have to tell lies like this," the class monitor came over and said with disdain.

"What if it's mine?" Chuck asked calmly.

The class monitor frowned.

"Just leave! Even if you say that the gold card is yours, someone has to believe it. If the gold card is yours, I'll go eat sh*t!" A classmate said.

"Remember what you said," Chuck glanced at him.

"Yes, that's what I said! Do you think the gold card, the KTV and City Square belongs to you?" The classmate sneered. "But if it's not yours, do you dare to eat sh*t?"

"Haha!" The others laughed.

"Of course Chuck doesn't dare to agree, because those can't be his. He will need to eat sh*t now. Hahaha!" A classmate mocked.

Chapter 155 5/12

The students burst into laughter, as if they wanted to see Chuck make a fool of himself.

Queenie was nervous. This was too much. Eating sh*t? How could a person eat sh*t?

"Sure, no problem," Chuck smiled.

The student snorted, "Then you can go eat sh*t now! Don't waste our time!"

"There's no hurry!" Chuck shook his head and looked at the monitor. "Monitor, what about you?"

The class monitor's twisted as he said, "If you are really the gold card holder, I will not be the class monitor anymore! I will kneel down to you in front of everyone and bow to you and call you 'father'! But if not, then you will disappear from my sight forever and even leave school!"

"Okay, no problem! Let's go! Let's go to KTV now!" Chuck smiled and said to Queenie. She was stunned. She bit her lip and nodded and went out with Chuck.

The whole class looked at each other in dismay!

Chapter 155 6/12

"Why is he so confident? Is the gold card really his?" A student asked.

"It's impossible! Don't you know who Chuck is? He never wears branded clothing and when he eats, he never orders any meat. If he is the gold card holder I will eat my own sh*t!" Francis said crudely.

"That's true, but he's so confident. He's really putting on an act," a male student said.

"Let's go, let's go and see what Chuck is going to do today! Don't let him slip away later. He must eat sh*t today!" Another student said.

"That's right. He walked so fast. He may have escaped. Everyone, hurry up!" The class monitor urged.

The students stood up. They wanted to witness Chuck making a fool out of himself. They were waiting to video him eating sh*t so they could post it online later.

The class monitor's face was particularly terrible and he asked, "Lara, who on earth is the holder of the gold card?!"

Lara shook her head. "I don't know. You will know when you get there."

She walked outside.

The class monitor snorted and looked at his classmate, who was the boy who had struck a deal to eat sh*t. The classmate came over and said, "Class monitor, could Chuck really be..."

"Oh? Is it even possible?" The class monitor sneered.

"That's true. Hehe, I'd like to see how he eats sh*t!"
The student smiled very happily.

The students all went outside. Some of them were going to take the bus, while the class monitor was going to catch a ride in Francis's car.

When they arrived at the parking lot, the class monitor saw Chuck and Queenie sitting in their car. Could this kind of car still be driven on the road? The class monitor was even more confident that such a person would not have the gold card.

What a joke!

"Class monitor, this guy is just pretending! Don't pay attention to him!" Francis sneered.

"Well, drive now! I can't wait to see him disappear from my sight," said the class monitor.

Francis nodded and drove to the City Square.

Chuck called Yvette Jordan, but she said that there was a meeting in school and there would be a party at night, so she couldn't come. Chuck had no choice and said that he would pick her up at night. Yvette agreed.

He could only take Queenie to City Square. However, as soon as he started the car, Chuck saw Lara passing by and she also saw him. She was curious why Chuck would drive such a car!

It was very strange.

Lara saw Chuck driving away with Queenie. She stamped her feet in anger. She was angry that Chuck drove the car away when he saw her.

"Chuck, is the holder of the gold card really you?"

Queenie asked in a low voice.

"Yes, it's me," Chuck nodded and Queenie was stunned. When did he become so powerful?

Soon, they arrived at City Square. After Chuck parked the car, he and Queenie came out of the parking lot of the plaza. Because Chuck drove very slowly, when they arrived at the KTV outlet at City Square, many students who took the bus had already arrived. Francis and the class monitor were the first to arrive, and everyone was waiting for Chuck at the entrance.

"Haha, he's coming, he's coming. Hey, who's having diarrhoea today? Be sure to go to the toilet later, or Chuck won't be able to eat enough sh*t!" Francis said.

"Haha, I've just done that!" A student laughed.

The classmate laughed loudly. They really wanted to see Chuck make a fool of himself. Chuck and Queenie walked over. She had already known that Chuck was the gold card holder. She was a little nervous, but she was not afraid.

"I thought you had taken the opportunity to run away. Can we go in now to prove that you are a gold card holder?" Said the class monitor.

Chapter 155 10/1

Chuck glanced at him and went straight inside.

When he arrived at the front desk, all the students followed him in and whispered, laughing at Chuck.

When the receptionist saw so many people coming in, she was happy. This would mean a large bill! And when she saw Chuck walking in front of her, her eyes lit up.

"Hey, beauty, this person is my classmate. He said that he has the gold card from this place. Is it true? I suspect that he is dreaming! Please help me wake him up!" The class monitor scoffed while speaking to the receptionist.

The other students couldn't wait to see what would happen. Of course Chuck would not be the gold card holder. How could he be, when even normal people couldn't obtain it?

The receptionist didn't even look at the class monitor. She directly said to Chuck with utmost respect, "Sir, welcome. I'll have a VIP room prepared for you! We have a new batch of red wine coming in today. How about a bottle for you to have a try?"

Chapter 155 11/12

"There's no need for wine. Tell them, am I a gold card holder here?" Chuck said.

"Of course, you are the biggest VIP at our store!" The receptionist smiled respectfully.

Chuck nodded, then turned to look at the others and said faintly, "Do you believe it now?" .
