

Chapter 704

Karen's original plan was for Loomis to become the head of the Yeager family. She did not want a person like Sabina, who could reinforce the strength of the Yeager family, to become its head.

Therefore, if Karen was here, Sabina would definitely be killed!

Sabina frowned and said, "I came here to find you, and this is all you can say to me?"

"Oh, do you want to pull some strings? You want me to ask my mom to let you go," Chuck understood her instantly.

Otherwise, why did Sabina look for Chuck?

"I want to talk to Karen," Sabina repeated coldly.

"But she will kill you!" Chuck reminded her. This was so important that Karen wouldn't let her go easily.

"Please ask Karen to come over. I'll talk to her. As for whether I'll be dead or alive, I'll leave it up to fate! That's it. I'll wait in the room next door!" Sabina turned around and left, looking for someone to help her check into the room.

"You're not trying to trick me, are you?" Chuck asked. If she had set up a trap, Chuck would not want to put Karen in danger!

"There's no need for me to play any tricks!" Sabina was infuriated.

"If I had played tricks, I would have killed you a long time ago! You slept like a pig last night!"

If Sabina stabbed him the night before, Chuck would die. Even without a dagger, she could have strangled him!

"Well, I'm just reminding you," Chuck shrugged.

"What the hell are you talking about? Hurry up!" Sabina was mad.

"You want a room? It's 800 dollars per night, you..."

"Why is it so expensive?" Sabina was speechless that she dismissed the idea of getting a room.

"It's still fine. Hey, where are you going?"

"Bathroom!" Sabina said as she walked away.

After thinking about it for a long time, Chuck decided to tell Karen about the matter. He called her and told her that Sabina wanted to meet her.

"Oh, she's pretty smart then. Okay, I'll come over!" Karen said.

"That..." Chuck stammered, not saying anything further.

"Tell me later if you have anything to say. I need three hours to get there. Chucky, you can rest first."

"Got it."

Chuck hung up and went back to his room before saying, "Rest up. My mom will be here later."

Black Rose stared at Sabina who was a distance away. She then snorted and went back into the room.

After that, Chuck tried sleeping on the couch. However, he suddenly thought of Sabina. Hence, he went to check if she was done. When he saw her outside, he pulled her into the room. Sabina was furious and frowned, "I'll walk by myself."

With that, Sabina went in.

"There is the couch, the floor, and the bed. Where are you going to sleep? Black Rose is a patient, so she needs to sleep in the bed. I'm also hurt, and I'm going to sleep on the couch, so..." Chuck allocated the places for each of them to rest.

"Why don't you just tell me that I'll sleep on the floor?" Sabina squatted in a corner.

She hadn't had a good sleep for a long time and the floor was clean. It was not like she hadn't slept on the floor before. She had experiences sleeping in caves in the wilderness, so it was fine.

Chuck smiled and said, "Come over. You're a lady. How could I let you sleep on the floor?"

"You don't need to pretend to be kind. Let me tell you, Chuck Cannon. You have killed the Yeager family members and caused us trouble. I will never let you off easily!" After saying that, Sabina closed her eyes.

Chuck was speechless. He sat down beside her and tried talking sense into her, "There's nothing I can do about it. Your family provoked me in the first place!"

Sabina opened her eyes and replied, "Then you should just wait and see. From now on, I'll play your games with you! Let's see if you can bear with it!"

"Whatever! It sounds interesting," Chuck said as he placed his arms around Sabina's shoulders.

Sabina knocked the daylights out of him.

Chuck couldn't take it anymore. If Sabina decided to hit him seriously, he would definitely spit out blood. She had no mercy when she was hitting someone.

Hence, he went to the couch to sleep silently.

On one end, Black Rose couldn't sleep, so she kept her eyes locked on Sabina.

She had been staring at Sabina all this time.

"It's useless for you to stare at me. You better get some rest and recuperate," Sabina said with her eyes closed.

Black Rose snorted and closed her eyes.

Then, there was a dead silence. All three of them fell asleep.

Until there was a knock on the door.

Sabrina opened her eyes and Black Rose too.

Chuck finally opened his eyes in a daze and asked, "Mom?"

"Yes, it's me. Open the door for me," Karen's voice could be heard from the outside.

Sabina was a little nervous as Chuck went to open the door. Karen and Betty were standing outside and the two of them stepped into the room.

Karen was a little puzzled and surprised. She didn't expect that the three of them were actually staying in the same room. Did someone sleep on the bed, another on the couch, and the other on the floor?

"Chucky, why don't you get another room?" Karen asked.

"She said it's too expensive. Apparently, she can't afford it," Chuck said.

Karen looked at Sabina again.

"Mom, that's her, Sabina Yeager," Chuck said as he pointed at Sabina.

"Alright, you and Black Rose can step out first," Karen nodded.

When Black Rose got off the bed, Karen said, "Take this shot."

It was the latest and most effective painkiller as of date. Karen knew Black Rose had been severely injured.

"Thank you," Black Rose said and walked out with the painkiller.

"Mom..." Chuck said softly.

"I know."

He heaved a sigh of relief and looked at Sabina for a brief moment. She was biting her lip nervously. Chuck then left them in the room.

Betty followed them out and asked, "Young Master, are you also injured?"

"I'm fine," Chuck shrugged.

"You should rest more."

"Alright, Betty."

Chuck smiled.

Then, the door was closed.

Inside the room, Karen stared hard at Sabina.

Sabina did not move and said, "I know you."

"Oh, what do you know about me?" Karen was surprised.

"I know you're ruthless! Just like me!" Sabina said.

"Yes, I do when it's time for me to be ruthless! I don't think you're scared, so just tell me what you want," Karen smirked.

"Did you do something to my grandpa?" Sabina asked with a deep voice.

"Yes, I did. And it's pointless for me to lie anyways," Karen admitted it coolly.

The other members of the Yeager family could not tell, but only Sabina could. This only went to show that there was a huge gap among them.

"What did you put into him? I know that you own a technology company and have done research in many fields. It should include drugs."

Sabina analyzed it carefully.

She was sure she was right.

"Oh? It's useless even if I tell you. You're pretty bold. How dare you come to see me alone," Karen scoffed coldly.

"Give me the antidote!"

"Give you? Why should I give it to you? To be honest, you are not qualified to negotiate terms with me in this room!" Karen shook her head.

Sabina didn't refute her. Karen's combat ability was really strong. She knew that she couldn't beat Karen.

However, Sabina wasn't so easy to finish off either. Otherwise, she would not have risked her life coming here.

"I know, so I want to make a deal with you."

"What's the deal?"

"You should know. Why do you ask?" Sabina frowned. She knew Karen was smart. How could Karen not know what kind of deal she was going to make with her?

"Go ahead. Tell me."

"Me or Loomis. Who do you think is more suited to be the head of the Yeager family?"

"None of you are good candidates. At the very least, Loomis will bring me more benefits. If you are in that position, you will only cause me more trouble. So, I'm not going to agree to this deal with you," Karen refused her bluntly.

"Then, how are you so confident that Loomis can be the head of the family?" Sabina's tone was suddenly cold.

Chapter 705

"It's not confidence. Rather, it is because you are not clear about your situation. Without an opponent like you, why can't Loomis Yeager become the head of the Yeager family?" Karen said indifferently.

Hearing this, Sabina fell silent. She immediately understood Karen's meaning. If Karen killed her right there, Loomis would have no other rivals. With his ruthlessness, why couldn't Loomis become the head of the family?

Sabina stepped back, looking wary as she asked, "Wanna kill me?"

"What's wrong with that? Chuck tried to kill you last time, but I didn't expect you guys to have a good chat..." Karen didn't expect that to happen either.

Back then, Karen allowed Chuck to go kill Sabina because she wanted to give him a chance to train. But in the end, he did not kill Sabina. Instead, they became friends!

Was that so?

Sabina frowned.

"I could have killed you the last time, but my son let you go."

"Let me go? He betrayed me. He called you!" Sabina was annoyed whenever the incident was mentioned.

"Yes, he did. But with Chuck's ability, he could trap you or follow you. When I got there, do you think you could still escape if that happened?" Karen analyzed calmly.

Sabina was astonished and denied, "He... he couldn't follow me or catch me. So he could only let me escape."

"No, you don't know his ability. I could imagine that if he really wanted to stop you, you wouldn't be able to escape," Karen was very certain.

Previously, Chuck was knocked out by Elise and was trapped in the Amazon. However, he still managed to escape the highly protected room, caught Elise and escaped. He even survived in the Amazon. Karen then realized Chuck's potential.

Chuck only used a very short time to learn combat skills. If he had enough time, he would become the world's number one combat master in just a matter of time.

Sabrina's furrowed brow relaxed. She remembered the fearless look in Chuck's eyes when she first met him. What was the scariest thing about combat? A man who wasn't afraid to die.

Therefore, in that sense, Chuck was really terrifying!

"Okay, fine," Sabrina admitted. If Chuck insisted on stopping her, he could. At the very least, even if she ran away, he could catch up to her!

Was it possible that he couldn't catch up?

Chuck was fearless. Of course, he would manage to catch up if he put his mind to it.

With that in mind, Sabina knew that Chuck really let her go after the phone call that day.

"Then what are you trying to say?" Sabina asked directly.

"Aren't you afraid of me?" Karen shrugged and found a place to sit down.

"Why should I be afraid of you? We only live once, and we all may die in the near future. No one will be able to resist the attack of weapons and firearms, and no one can guarantee that they can kill their opponents. So what is the point of being afraid?" Sabina had always thought about it, which had become one of the reasons she was able to survive for so long.

If Sabina was afraid of everything, then how could she survive in such a harsh environment?

Looking at Sabina, Karen wasn't surprised. If Sabina didn't think so, she would have been dead long ago.

Sabina sat on the floor instead of the couch. It was as if she was a student meeting her class teacher during the parent-teacher conference. The atmosphere in the air was cautious and tense.

Karen smiled, "Tell me, what do you think?"

"The Yeager family is not as simple as you think!" Sabina answered firmly.

"I never thought that anything was simple," Karen shook her head. She had never looked down on people. That was one of the main reasons she had grown so quickly in just 20 years.

"It's good that you know. The Yeager family is a hidden family. Our heritage is profound, and it won't be easy for Loomis to become the head of the family!"

"I don't think so. Loomis is ruthless. If he kills all his opponents, then the position will be his," Karen interrupted Sabina.

"So you're just as ruthless as him as well!" Sabina's eyes glimmered with killing intent.

"You may think so. It doesn't matter," Karen shrugged. She would not say that she was a good person because she had killed people before. However, she didn't think that she was a bad person.

After all, she had done good things too.

"Go on," Karen said.

"Well, if Loomis becomes the head of the family with your help and manages to disrupt everything in the Yeager family, you will seize the opportunity to invade them when the time is right. However, have you ever thought about the possibility of Loomis really making an effort and leading the entire Yeager family to fight with you? Would you be able to withstand his attacks?" Sabina said coldly.

"You don't have to worry about that. It's better than you being the family head anyways! There's a huge difference between you and Loomis. He'll make your family deteriorate, while you can improve your family's strength. That is the difference."

Sabina was startled. Karen was really capable. She could see things clearly and thoroughly. Over the years, Sabina had too many thoughts and ideas in her mind on how she was going to improve the Yeager family so they could surpass the Whitlock family and become the top hidden family in the world!

Karen's judgement also proved that Sabina really had that kind of talent.

"But I'm telling you, even if Loomis becomes the family head, I'll pull him down for sure!"

"That's too far for you to say. It's already a question whether you can leave here today alive or not, isn't it?" Karen stood up, her gaze filled with calmness.

"No, I don't really detect much killing intent from your gaze. You don't really want to kill me," Sabina was confident.

Karen was stunned and asked, "So?"

She was right. In many ways, Karen appreciated a girl who grew up the hard way. No one was there to help her grow, and in a sense, didn't Karen grow like that too? She didn't rely on the Lee family and had ventured on her path alone, up until now.

"I know the reason. It is largely due to Chuck."

"Yes, it's because of him. But so what?"

"Give me my grandfather's antidote, and I'll become the family head. I'll give you three years to improve and develop your skills! Then, I'll settle things with you and what you have done to my family. You have my word."

"Three years? Your grandfather seemed to have said the same thing," Karen shook her head.

"Yes, but you can trust me. Aren't you a person of your word?" Sabina offered.

"Indeed, I can trust you. But if I develop myself over the three years, won't you also develop the Yeager family's strength as well? Thus, I think it's better to make Loomis the head of the family. The risk to me is smaller."

After Karen finished, she approached Sabina and attacked.

Sabina was expressionless. She really wanted to fight with Karen. It was a feeling of excitement, not fear. She appreciated the chance to cross paths with a master in combat.

Sabina faced Karen's attacks head-on, but soon, the gap between them could be evidently seen. Sabina was astonished. She thought that she was a match for Karen, but when she actually fought her, she realized that the gap between them was only growing bigger. What the hell was going on?

Suddenly, Karen reached out her hand and tried to grab Sabina's neck!
