

Chapter 814

"Are you kidding? How could it be Chuck?"

"Yes, it couldn't be him. He can't even compare to us. He wouldn't dare to lure the bear away. I don't believe it was him!"

"I don't believe it either! I don't think Chuck is willing to risk his life to save Tessa. It's impossible!"

"Well, I'm just saying, of course it's not Chuck. But only Chuck could do that though. There's no one else here other than him. Tessa, what do you think? Did you see who it was?"

The three girls asked.

Liliana sneered with a smile. Chuck?

What a joke!

How could it be him?

He only knew how to use petty tricks!

It was impossible that he would do such a good deed of sacrificing his own life for others.

Tessa shook her head, "I didn't see who it was, but I'm sure that it's definitely not Chuck!"

She said with a determined tone!

"Who else could it be then? We were the only ones here to train, right Coach? Is there anyone else here?"

"This place belongs to Wolfen Sect so there must be someone else in this mountain as well. It could not be Chuck!" Liliana said coldly.

"That's right! I'm sure it's not him!" Tessa breathed a sigh of relief.

"Who knows where he's hiding now? He's just a coward who likes to lie!"

"That's enough. A mere bear had scared you girls so much. How are you girls going to compete among the freshmen the day after tomorrow?" Liliana was angry.

These four women knew how to fight. They could have surrounded and attacked the bear to save themselves!

How could they just scream and run away?

Liliana was speechless and extremely disappointed. With their current capabilities, how could they bring honor to her in the competition?

There was no hope left for these four women, much less for Chuck.

Sigh!

This time, she was bound to be embarrassed.

"Coach..." Tessa was still in shock.

Tessa felt wronged after hearing what Liliana said.

"Don't call me 'Coach'. There were so many of you here, but all you guys did was running away when you get chased by a bear. What is this? You all need to get back to training now!" Liliana said coldly as she went to find a place to rest.

"Tessa, did you really not see the person who saved you?"

"No, he was running really fast when he lured the bear away!" Tessa's beautiful eyes flickered.

When she was in despair, someone suddenly appeared to save her. She wanted to know who the person was!

"That's noble of him. He did not even leave his name after rescuing you."

"I think it must be a handsome man!"

"Whether that guy is handsome or not, I'm very certain that he's not Chuck," Tessa said.

"That's right! Well, let's get back to training first! We shouldn't waste anymore time. This is a rare opportunity to train!"

The girls became bolder.

At the very least, after the shocking incident moments ago, they had become more confident!

The training was effective. After the incident with the bear, their potentials were activated.

Tessa and the other girls continued training.

As for Chuck, he was too lazy at the moment to fight with the bear head-on so he lured the bear away. It was apparent that the speed of the bear was far slower than Chuck's.

He did not even run with all his strength, but he had already left the bear far behind!

There was a good reason why Chuck saved Tessa.

It was not because she was beautiful, but because of her sacrificial action. She lured the bear away to save the three other girls.

This action told Chuck that Tessa was not a bad person.

At the very least, she had some humanity!

In times of danger, who would be able to do such a thing?

Therefore, it was a good enough reason for Chuck to save her life.

Perhaps that was Chuck's soft spot.

There was nothing to lose other than breaking a sweat anyway.

What's more, if Chuck really had fought with the bear, all he had to do was to use the dagger that Sophia gave him, and the bear would not even stand a chance to hurt him.

Chuck continued to go deeper into the forest.

He was intrigued by the unknown danger.

This was what he liked. Chuck liked to take risks in places like this!

It was when a person was constantly exposed to dangers that one's sensitivity towards their surroundings would be improved tremendously.

With his experience in the Amazon the last time, Chuck knew how to find food and where to seek shelter.

And like that, he made it out safely through the night.

During the morning of the next day, Chuck was about to leave.

Chuck was not interested to know Tessa and the other girls' conditions.

He needed to leave this place, go back and have a good rest. He needed to prepare and rest up for the competition.

After spending the night in the woods, Chuck could feel that some of his skills were enhanced.

It was enough.

"Roar!"

All of a sudden, Chuck heard a loud roar!

Chuck was stunned for a while, before he walked towards the direction where the sound was coming from.

He discovered that two huge black bears were surrounding a woman.

One of the bears had a bloody chest injury, and the other was injured too.

However, the woman who was surrounded was enraged as well!

It was Liliana!

The two bears found her while she was asleep in the forest.

Without a warning, they attacked her.

Liliana was down on the ground and she could not get up.

She was cornered.

Chuck smiled and thought to himself, 'It's finally her turn!'

Chuck shrugged his shoulders and continued to watch the scene. Liliana noticed that Chuck was there, and her eyes burst with flaming anger!

Chuck was watching her as it was a show!

Chapter 815

"Roar!"

The two bears pounced on Liliana aggressively.

Liliana was injured from the ambush. She could not fight two bears at the same time. She was furious!

How could Chuck just stand there and watch her from afar?

"Why aren't you helping me?" Liliana was exasperated.

"Help you? What if I help you and you end up attacking me instead?" Chuck's eyes flickered.

Chuck remembered the previous incident whereby he had saved her grandfather's life!

However, in the end, instead of showing gratitude, Liliana doubted his intention.

Chuck was really angry at that time.

Liliana shouted in fury, "Get out of my face then!"

"Of course I will," Chuck said as he shrugged his shoulders and walked away.

Liliana's eyes were about to burst in anger!

"Oh gosh! Is that Chuck?"

"It's him! How could he just walk away when Coach was in danger? Is he still a man?"

"I even said that he might be the one who saved Tessa yesterday. But it seems like it's not possible at all! What a loser he is!"

"He's really ungrateful. Coach trained him, and yet he'd turned a blind eye when Coach is in danger!"

"Let's stop discussing this matter. We need to save Coach first!" Tessa was the first to rush over to Liliana!

The other three followed suit.

The two bears were already injured in the first place.

Five women surrounded the two bears. One of the bears were stabbed to death, and the other, who was injured, fled.

"Huff..."

Liliana was out of breath but was relieved at the same time. She was saved.

"Coach, are you okay?" Tessa asked.

"I'm alright. Let's return to the base now!" Liliana was angry. "Chuck Cannon, that b*stard!" Liliana scolded inwardly.

Liliana thought that the only reason Chuck could have survived the night before was because he had hid himself in a hole like a mouse.

F*ck it!

By the time they arrived at the base, it was already afternoon.

Tessa and the others returned to their room.

"Humph, how can you still have the audacity to sleep?"

"Right! Well, it's not a surprise that a heartless man like him could fall asleep soundly! If I were him, I would not be able to sleep at all. I would even be ashamed to stay here."

Tessa and the other girls despised Chuck.

"Tessa, compared to the person who saved you, he's really useless."

"I agree with you!" Tessa shrugged her shoulders. At that instant, she really hated Chuck.

Chuck opened his eyes.

"What are you looking at? Do you think we are talking about you? We are talking about the man who saved Tessa yesterday!"

"That's right. How shameless of you, Chuck! If it were you, you will definitely run away faster than any of us here!"

"Isn't it a waste of time to say something like this to someone like him?"

Tessa loathed him. Then, they prepared to take a nap.

Chuck shrugged his shoulders and did not say a word. He thought that it would be better to rest up for the competition instead.

However, Tessa and the other girls still looked down on him.

Chuck ignored them, but they continued to talk behind his back. Chuck shrugged and said, "You guys are just annoyed that I didn't save Coach, aren't you?"

"Yes, you ungrateful b*stard. What a coward!"

"Why should I save her though?" Chuck asked.

"Why not? How can you say that with such confidence?!" Tessa despised Chuck.

"Why can't I? If I'm met with the same trouble, wouldn't you all do the same?"

!"

"Just admit that you ran away because you were scared. Why do you have so many excuses? Forget it, I don't want to talk about it anymore. I have to rest now."

Chuck was not bothered at all. They could just do whatever they wanted.

The next day, Liliana arrived at their dorm early in the morning.

She snorted loudly, waking Chuck and the others up.

"Let me tell you, you're not allowed to beg for mercy during the freshmen competition. You must hold on for at least a minute before you admit defeat!" Liliana warned coldly.

She did not want to be embarrassed for having incapable students.

"Yes, Coach!"

"Chuck, why aren't you answering me? Are you going to admit defeat already?" Liliana was angry.

"I won't. I will be the champion!"

"Hahaha! That's funny! You're going to be the champion? What a joke!"

Tessa and the others really looked down on him. How could he boast about himself when he did not even have the ability to be the champion?

Liliana shook her head. Champion? Dream on!

"We'll see. Coach, can we go now?" Chuck did not want to argue with them.

It would be better to prove it with his ability.

Let success make it's own noise.

There was no need to hide or to keep a low profile any longer because Chuck was determined to win the first place!

"Are you still asleep? Are you still dreaming? I'll be thankful if you don't embarrass me!" Liliana said coldly.

"Let's go! Follow me!"

Liliana spoke. At this time, her brother, Gaige, came in.

"Gaige, we're going over to the competition venue now."

"Okay," Gaige did not even look at Chuck.

For the past two days, Gaige was still completely clueless about what had happened to him. He was thinking about it so much that he almost lost his mind!

Who was the person who knocked him out and disappeared just like that?

He could not accept it at all!

"Listen to me. As a man, if you can't even make it into the top 30, then you'd better get out of this place!" Gaige spoke in an impudent tone as he stared at Chuck.

"Coach, Chuck said that he's going to be the champion!" Tessa smiled sardonically.

"Oh, the champion?" Gaige smiled, "Are you still dreaming?"

"No, I'm not."

"Well, I don't think so. Alright, let's go!" Gaige strode out of the room.

It was the same with Tessa and Liliana.

Chuck winning first place? It was impossible!

There was no way that that would happen!

Chapter 816

Chuck had no intention of defending himself. He would prove them wrong in no time!

"I will definitely be the champion of this competition!" Chuck thought to himself.

By winning this competition, he could request Miss Scarlett to be his coach!

"Look, Chuck could not even say a word. I knew he was just bragging. He even said that he will win the first place. Alas! I've finally witnessed how shameless a person could be!" Tessa said with a smile.

"I know right!"

The girls were looking down on Chuck.

Chuck turned his head and looked at Tessa. At that instant, Tessa was stupefied, and the mocking smile on her face diminished.

"What's wrong, Tessa?"

"It-it's nothing but why do I suddenly feel that Chuck's back looked somewhat familiar? It feels like I've seen it somewhere. He gave me an impression of...," Tessa said.

"What impression?"

"I don't know. When he looked back just now, I just felt like I've seen the same scene somewhere. It gave me a sense of... yes, a sense of security!" Tessa finally knew how to describe it in words.

"No way, Tessa. You're saying that Chuck gave you a sense of security? What are you talking about?"

"I've never felt this on him before. When Coach was in danger yesterday, all of us saw him running away in fear.

How can you get a sense of security in this kind of person?" one of the girls said.

Tessa thought about it for a while and said, "Well, I could be wrong! That's right, he could not even compare to us and he only knows how to brag. I really think that I'm wrong. Alas! However, when he turned back and looked at me just now, I did feel that it was him who saved me from the bear attack yesterday..."

Tessa couldn't believe the words she had just said. She laughed at herself and thought that she must be crazy!

"Haha, Tessa, I know you're thinking about that person a lot but please don't put your fantasies on Chuck!"

"If Chuck had really saved you, then why didn't he save Coach? She was also surrounded by the bears, but he chose to escape!"

"I don't know. Maybe I'm overthinking it."

"It must be!"

"It's probably a false intuition. Let's not think about it anymore."

"Alright."

Tessa and the others laughed as they followed Liliana and Gaige to the competition venue.

Tessa did not look at Chuck anymore. She thought that she must have gone crazy. Why did she think that Chuck was the one who saved her? That was impossible!

Was she blind?

The competition venue was crowded, like how it was during orientation.

There were about two hundred people there!

There were more men, compared to women.

Judging from the situation, it seemed like the competition might not end until afternoon!

Chuck wasn't sure if the competition was like what he had imagined.

At that moment, Chuck was a little excited. He quietly scanned through the sea of freshmen to see if there was anyone worthy to be his opponent!

"Hubert Mate!"

"I heard that he's the strongest among all the freshmen!"

"I heard that when he was 18 years old, he had beaten a cow to death with just three punches. The amount of strength he has is terrifying!"

"Really? That's amazing. I think Hubert will definitely be the champion today!"

"I think so too!"

The freshmen had already begun their discussion.

In the crowd, Chuck noticed a muscular man wearing a pair of sunglasses!

Chuck's expression turned serious. He thought that this man might be worthy to be his opponent.

It could be seen from the calluses on his hands that he was going to be his strongest opponent this time!

"Alas, they recruited students like Hubert, but we recruited these useless bunch!" Liliana felt helpless.

In her view, Hubert was a strong contender!

Gaige's eyes were cold, "Liliana, do you think that it was Hubert who knocked me out?"

Among all the freshmen, he was the only one who had the ability to do so.

"That's impossible!" Liliana denied it. But could it be him? Liliana wondered.

"I also hope that it's not him. Well, maybe the person who wins first place today is the person who knocked me out!" Gaige was enraged.

Previously, he was not well prepared and was knocked out by a single punch. It was a sneak attack and he was upset about it!

That would never happen if he was well prepared. Gaige thought.

"Tessa, in my opinion, it could be Hubert who saved you! Look at his muscles. I would feel more secure with him compared to Chuck."

Tessa stared at Hubert, nodding in agreement.

Hubert was much bigger than Chuck, but she did not have the sense of familiarity when she looked at Hubert's back.

Tessa was puzzled.

The freshmen were all talking about Hubert, and they paid no heed to Chuck.

However, Chuck was not bothered. He knew that they would be surprised by his performance when the competition starts.

"Silence please!"

At that moment, among the crowd, a beautiful woman appeared. Gaige's eyes burned with passion the moment he saw her!

"Wow, it's Miss Scarlett, the most beautiful coach in Wolfen Sect!"

Her appearance attracted many people's attention.

She was the main focus!

"I'll be in charge of today's competition! There aren't many rules, but they must be strictly abided by! All participants will have to stop immediately once your opponent admits defeat! If anyone dares to hurt his or her opponent on purpose, then don't blame me for taking strict actions!" Miss Scarlett said in a cold voice.
