Chapter 2327

The rumbling voice reverberates in the body of the old naughty boy. At this moment, the old naughty boy does not say a word, enjoying this pain!

That is pain, but it also represents a new life! < /br>The invigorating feeling is so comfortable!

The old naughty boy trembled fiercely, every inch of skin on his body was floating, as if there was a breath, flowing wildly in his body, it was shocking to see!

“It’s amazing. I didn’t expect that the water in this longevity pond has such a powerful vitality.”

Andrew couldn’t help but said.

He just brought a kettle of pool water back, and it had such a magical effect that an exhausted old man who was on the verge of death could be reborn.

How much vitality will that pool of water give birth to?

Andrew didn't dare to think that the former Longevity Pond was the most important thing in the Tiangong. It can nurture extraordinary vitality. It is enough to see that the Tiangong was powerful at the beginning, but now it is in ruins.

What kind of enemy is it that can make Tiangong like this?

“Huh—”

The old naughty boy was twitching badly. Obviously, the pain he was experiencing at this moment was beyond ordinary people's imagination, but he still didn't make a sound.

Andrew knew that he was afraid that Jiang Yao outside would be sad when he heard it.

This old man, stubbornness is stubbornness, but sometimes it is quite cute.

He didn't dare to leave,? Xiran closed Xidi Wuerpa? Just stood there and waited quietly, the old naughty boy was transforming, lest there be any accidents, he could deal with it in time.

As time passed, the movement of the old naughty boy gradually became smaller, and the red light on his face gradually increased.

He slowly opened his eyes and exhaled a long breath, carefully feeling the wonderful changes in his body.

“How?”

Andrew asked.

Looking at the expression of the old naughty boy, he must have succeeded. He may not live long, but at least he can live longer and live longer.

“Excellent!”

Feeling the surging blood in his body, the old naughty boy felt as if he had suddenly become younger.

That kind of feeling, I haven't felt it for too long.

He raised his hand, squeezed his fist, a powerful force, as if he couldn't hold it back, he wished to find someone to fight now and give it a good vent!

It's amazing!

“The longevity pond is really magical, it turned out to be real,” the old naughty boy said, “Jiang Ning, thank you very much, you gave me my life.”

When he got older, Andrew just smiled, but he didn't dare to pick it up.

It is absolutely impossible for him to give the life of the old naughty boy.

“Jiang Yao is not willing to accept you as a master. I am a father, and there is no other way.”

He joked.

“Hahaha, my baby apprentice loves me!” Speaking of Jiang Yao, the old naughty boy couldn't help it, jumped out of bed and walked towards the door with strides, “Yao Yao! Yaoyao! Master is here! Hahaha, Master is here to play with you!” Seeing the cheerful old naughty boy, Andrew finally felt relieved.

After a while, Jiang Yao's excited cry came from outside.

“Master! Master!”

It was Jiang Yao's voice and the old naughty boy's laughter.

Andrew followed and went out. On the lawn, Jiang Yao happily ran around the old naughty boy. The old naughty boy seemed to be happy to show Jiang Yao that he was young, wishing that his beard turned black.

He hugged Jiang Yao, kicked his feet, and the whole person sprang up!

“Ahhhh!!! The heart is about to melt, holding Jiang Yao like a flying swallow, and showcasing his light footwork, the whole lawn is full of their joyful laughter.

It’s fun to be old and young.

“It is really unexpected that the water in the Chang Sheng Pool is so amazing,”

Daniel Yuming came over, “Brother, can we all live forever?”

Chapter 2328

Andrew gave him a white look: “What do you think. There are certain usage rules for this kind of thing? I can’t bear it, ordinary people can’t bear it.” She smiled brightly: “I’ll follow the exercises now, can I still have time?” Andrew didn’t bother to care about him. He frowned slightly, the old naughty boy is alive, but he also knows more troublesome things. “Perhaps, you have a point. Even if you can’t live forever, it’s necessary if you can make people go further.” He murmured. Daniel Yuming was just joking, but seeing Jiang Ning’s serious expression, I knew that things were definitely not that simple. Andrew went deep into the tunnel this time. He must have gone through a lot of things with Greed Wolf, and he must have known a lot. He has been with Andrew for so long, so I don’t know what Jiang Ning’s expression represents. “Are you in trouble?” Daniel Yuming asked. “It’s kind of.” Andrew nodded, “It’s also possible, it’s a big trouble.” The memory in his mind is not good. In addition to the scenes of war, those scenes of swords and swords, blood flowing in a river, there is also a name. The crypt! Just like the existence of a heavenly palace, there is also a mysterious place called the catacombs! And Tiangong is the hands of those who crawled out of the cave! Having an almost buggy thing like the Longevity Pond, the Tiangong was still destroyed and turned into a ruin, enough to see how terrifying the people in that cave were. Andrew doesn't know how much trouble it will become if so much is involved now, but at this point, it seems that there is a destiny in it, no matter how he chooses, he will eventually come to this point. Daniel Yuming took a deep breath, but said indifferently: "In this situation, don't they see too much? From the South Estopia to today, it has been troublesome all the way." He laughed, "I don't think I'm used to it if there is no trouble someday." Andrew glanced at him and then laughed as if it was really the case. Trouble? They never lack trouble. As long as there is trouble, it is to solve it. Anyway, it is not on the road to solve the trouble, or on the road to find the trouble, and they never stop. He stretched out his hand and patted Daniel Yuming on the shoulder without saying anything. Andrew needs to sort out the memory clearly by himself, to understand what the crypt is, what kind of people there are, and how his body has changed after passing through the white jade dragon chair. All this has surpassed his cognition a long time ago. He knows that in the future, such things will only increase and will only continue to exceed his own cognition. Because of the true face of this world, it is gradually appearing before my eyes. This is a challenge, but also an opportunity. It depends on how you grasp it. Andrew turned around and went back to his room. He didn't see anyone. He stayed quietly in the study, thinking about the problem, and no one bothered him. They all know that Andrew now is a little different from the past. They want to give Andrew more time and more freedom for himself. In the study room. Andrews at there cross-legged and closed his eyes. In my mind, that memory is constantly rolling, and the scenes are played in a loop, over and over again, he wants to capture some important clues, but he can't catch it all the time. Except for the two words in the crypt, he doesn't know anything. What is the crypt? Where is the crypt? How to get in again? Will the people inside come out again? How the Tiangong was destroyed in the first place, all of this is unknown. In that memory, there is no clue at all. For a long time, Andrew let out a breath opened his eyes and shook his head. "There is no other way except to be prepared."
