

Chapter 446

Zhang Quanzhen reminded: "Lin Yuanwang's father, Lin Yundong, everyone he knows called Master Dong. He used to be a sturdy person and friends from all over the world. But then he suffered a lot from studying, so he got it. After 30 years of jail time, the society has become a mess after he came out, so I returned to Xiangxi to live a stable life. He was the savior of Mu Hairan and me back then."

Qin Ming squinted his eyes and said, "Zhang Quanzhen, are you suggesting that I want to take action? Do you repay you?"

Zhang Quanzhen smiled and said, "Xiao Qin, don't you talk about business? Lin Yuanwang ran around for more than two months and got nothing. He was humiliated and blinded everywhere. He experienced the scorching state of the world and distrusted you. You just talk to Lin Yundong. Isn't it okay? With this abacus, you don't lose money, you have money to make money, and you have favors. Maybe you can smooth out Lin Yurou's affairs after you slept."

At the end of this sentence, Zhang Quanzhen's words were very fine, and Lin Yu and Mu Xiaoqiao didn't let Lin Yu and Mu Xiaoqiao listen, but Qin Ming was still frightened and kicked Zhang Quanzhen.

"Ah." Zhang Quanzhen was caught off guard and fell directly into the river on the side of the road.

People around him looked at Qin Ming strangely, why did he kick people?

Qin Ming said haha, "It's okay, I have a sudden leg cramp. Miss Lin, you can lead the way. Let's go, Zhang Zhenren will come up by himself."

Zhang Quanzhen was actually not annoyed, and accompanied the smiling face and said to the person behind: "Eh, whoever, help, help."

Lin Yurou took everyone to a greenhouse where insects were raised. From a long distance, I saw surveillance cameras, barking wolf dogs, and some security personnel patrolling back and forth.

From a distance, it seems to be a glass house with many plants.

Lin Yurou led Qin Ming and others and said, "My grandfather is a biologist and has won many international research awards. He now likes to study bugs and various rare plants the most. I hope you will not take photos later."

Qin Ming turned around and said to everyone, "Have you heard it? Don't mess with Miss Lin."

When he came to the greenhouse, the layout here gave Qin Ming a feeling of being separated from the world. It was like a scientific research base deep in a mountain, a laboratory, and many glass bottles in the eye. The ground here is spotless, and every staff member is dressed cleanly. Shoes, dust-free work.

The greenhouse is planted with various plants that Qin Ming can't name, and there is a high-tech numbered storage box. The glass mirror shows all kinds of spiders and insects inside.

Qin Ming said jokingly, if he wants to be bitten by these spiders, will he mutate into a spiderman?

When everyone was attracted by the dazzling array of plants and insects, an old man with white hair and rough edges walked out.

The old man had a loud voice and said, "You can try it, hahaha, if something goes wrong, I will be responsible for curing you."

Qin Ming looked human, Lin Yurou immediately introduced: "Mr. Qin, this is my grandfather, Lin Yundong. My dad was stimulated just now, and I am sorry that he did not listen to you, so I asked my grandfather to come forward and hope you can Discuss with our Lin family about the cooperative investment."

Lin Yundong said: "Your dad, like me, doesn't look at people. He borrows so much money and hasn't made a few reliable friends. You have to help Zhang Zhenren. Huh? Zhang Zhenren, why did you fall into the water??"

Zhang Quanzhen touched the water on his face, haha, and said, "Oh, my feet slipped just now, it's not in the way. Come, Master Dong, let me introduce to you, Mu Hairan's grandson-in-law, the wealthy boy Qin Ming."

Qin Ming glared at Zhang Quanzhen irritably, and said, "Hello, old man Lin, I'm Qin Ming. Let's talk straight to the point. Actually, I have already understood the matter of your Lin family. I am willing to carry out friendly cooperation. A loan of 100 million yuan is not a problem, but I can't lose too much either."

It was no problem for Lin Yurou to hear Qin Ming open her mouth for 50 billion yuan. She was so happy that she did not believe the wrong person. This Qin Ming is different from those rich and young.

Lin Yundong smiled ho ho, "Okay, young people nowadays are really rich and rich. Qin Ming, when our Lin family is alive and dead, you are willing to lend a helping hand, what conditions do you want?"

Qin Ming said: "I'm not good at taking advantage of the fire. My loan is the same as the bank interest rate, so your burden will not be too heavy. The time can be divided into five and ten years. At the same time, there is an additional condition. This additional condition only requires Lin. Father help."

When Lin Yurou heard that Qin Ming was willing to borrow, and the interest rate was the same as that of the bank, she was happy and felt that the Lin family was saved this time. Although she was annoyed that Qin Ming was a "heart-wrenching man", she didn't care about that much under the power of money.

However, the conditions Qin Ming mentioned, asking Lin Yundong to help, is really a bit strange. Wouldn't the two meet for the first time?

Zhang Quanzhen's expression was startled, and it seemed that something unexpected was about to happen, but he was not a god, but he didn't know what it would be.

Lin Yundong said amusedly: "Hahaha, Mr. Qin is quick to speak, and is refreshing enough, you say, I have old bones in Lin Yundong, and apart from the ability of living creatures and herbs, I also worry that there is no heir."

Obviously, Lin Yundong thought that Qin Ming wanted to apprentice.

Qin Ming, a student of economics, would naturally not be interested in biology, plants, and especially these Gu worms.

He said: "Master Lin, in fact, I have known Zhang Zhen for a long time. I have always wanted to invite him to serve as a consultant for our group, but he kept saying that he would not be willing to travel to Hongchen. I also have a big headache, as long as he is open. Chrysostom, I beg Zhang Zhenren to join our company as a consultant. The 50 billion loan will be credited immediately."

Shocked, everyone in the greenhouse where the plants were cultivated looked at Qin Ming strangely, what are the conditions? Too jumping, right?

But only Qin Ming knew in his heart that he would never come again when the opportunity is not to be missed!

Qin Ming waited for the opportunity for a long time, and finally counted Zhang Quanzhen, the stinky Taoist priest.

The signs of this trip were on the surface, and even he accidentally revealed that Zhang Quan was really dragged down by human sentiments. He had received Lin Yundong's life-saving grace that year, so Qin Ming was taken over by Zhang Quanzhen's routine.

Zhang Quan really handled it very well, and Qin Ming was really interested in the Lin family, and everything naturally became a business deal.

But Qin Ming also tried Zhang Quanzhen's routine. It is okay to ask him to repay favors, but you can do it afterwards!

This is equivalent to turning the favor into Qin Ming's possession.

Lin Yundong would naturally not refuse for the Lin family, but Zhang Quanzhen would not agree to save the Lin family and return his lover?

He didn't agree, and Qin Ming left, and the Lin family couldn't be saved.

Zhang Quanzhen looked at Qin Ming, shocked and helpless. In the end, he laughed helplessly. Qin Ming had counted him in. How could he not see it?

Moreover, this situation also made him quite passive, it was like driving a duck to the shelves, making him dilemma.

Zhang Quan said sincerely, "This stinky boy deserves to have the fate of the ninety-five-year-old. He is brave enough to even dare to surrender?"

Chapter 447

No one could predict Qin Ming's conditions.

No one thought that Qin Ming didn't care how much the Lin family's interests were. On the contrary, he admired Zhang Quanzhen.

Qin Ming felt that he had a lot to learn from Zhang Quanzhen, otherwise he might not be able to manage the Universe Century Group in the future. In fact, when he first came to Lin's Dazhai and met Zhang Quanzhen, Qin Ming had this idea.

Now, if you take the opportunity, don't you let him in?

"Oh? It turned out to be this." Lin Yundong was quite surprised, thinking that Qin Ming wanted to approve his teacher. In fact, Qin Ming didn't know him Lin Yundong at all, and didn't know how big his city was, so Lin Yundong made his expressions in vain.

In fact, Lin Yundong is also quite embarrassed. He invited Zhang Quanzhen to fight the fire this time. Although he has the kindness of the year, he can't be too forceful. He should persuade Zhang Quanzhen to be a corporate consultant. To put it bluntly, he wants to work for Qin Ming?

But he did not speak, Qin Ming decided to find an excuse not to save the Lin family.

Lin Yundong pulled Zhang Quanzhen over and asked curiously, "Doesn't Mr. Qin know your identity and status?"

Zhang Quanzhen sneered: "Two months ago, he was an inconspicuous ordinary student in the vast crowd. Once rich and honored, his current status has become extraordinary. It's not surprising that I don't know me, but I really like this kid. There are still many shortcomings, but it is indeed a manufacturable material."

Lin Yundong said again: "What do you mean by that real person? My Lin family is currently troubled internally and externally, and has offended the old Qin family. How many rich and young people dare not come with us. I also have to take down my old face, please save my Lin family That's it."

Lin Yundong spoke very tactfully, but he also begged Zhang Quanzhen to follow Qin Ming.

Zhang Quanzhen pinched and said, "Don't worry, don't worry, I'll make a decision after a while. If I have a relationship with him, I don't need you to intercede, I will naturally come together."

"Oh? What's going to happen in a while?" Lin Yundong asked suspiciously, "Zhang Zhenren rejected my kind words? If you don't agree, I will reject Mr. Qin. That is my Lin family. Damn it, I don't blame you."

He didn't complain, but Lin Yundong's eyes and tone were more anxious than anyone else.

Zhang Quanzhen didn't know anything, and could only say: "I saw your son Lin Yuanwang just now, his Yintang was black and his eyes were crowned evil. I am afraid that there will be a catastrophe. Your Lin family needs the Tai Sui star for this disaster. The judgment should be Qin Ming, this stinky boy, and let's see how he handles this matter. If it's appropriate, I will listen to you and serve as a consultant for him."

The two murmured on the sidelines, everyone knew that they were discussing, and Qin Ming was not in a hurry. Since he was going to set Zhang Quanzhen off, he still had something to do, and Zhang Quanzhen had to follow him.

However, the two elders hadn't finished their conversation, when Bai Ying's wife suddenly ran outside.

Sister-in-law Bai Ying said breathlessly: "Miss, old man, the big event is not good. Those creditors have come to the door and are forcing the patriarch. The patriarch is now climbing the sorghum bridge and is about to jump off the building."

When everyone heard that Lin Yuanwang was forced to jump off the building?

Everyone didn't care about that much, so they had to rush out. The main building is five stories high, but the fifth floor is not a room, but gray tiles on the eaves. Generally, you can't get it up, but Lin Yuanwang climbed up. Standing on the beam, as long as one foot is empty, the head is down, and the two bloom.

The setting sun at dusk, as red as blood, illuminates the village, a piece of sadness.

"Yuanwang, when you come down, what's the hurdle that you can't step through?" An old lady cried worriedly. It seemed that it was Lin Yuanwang's old mother, with gray hair. How could he bear the white-headed person sending the black-headed person.

"Yuanwang, don't do stupid things. Our son just called and raised money. He is coming back. You have to hold on." A woman who looks quite young and beautiful should be Lin Yuanwang's wife. It may have been smeared. Meiyuan insect paste, looks similar to Lin Yurou's two sisters.

"No Patriarch..."

"Uncle Lin, no, we trust you."

"Uncle Lin, come over again? You come down quickly."

The villagers were surrounded by the tall buildings, and they all persuaded Lin Yuan to look down, but Lin Yuanwang seemed unheard of.

He wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes and cried to the setting sun: "I, Lin Yuanwang, have been doing good deeds throughout my life. The charity donation alone is no less than tens of billions. The school built supports the medical development of the province. The advanced equipment I gave is no less than tens of billions, and I never take money seriously. Hoho, in the end, it was forced by the money to a ruin."

Lin Yuanwang said sadly, but everyone was sad.

He added: "I have made friends and helped countless people. I have never done that bad thing in my life. Why did I end up like this? What did I do wrong? What did you do wrong?"

"I'm not convinced! God thief, I'm not convinced, I want to go to hell, I want to make it clear to you."

Everyone listened to Lin Yuanwang's grieving and angry accusations facing the sky, and they shook their heads. After more than two months of rushing for help, they only raised 5 billion yuan, which was not even enough for the liquidated damages. Normally, he was full of friends. When something happened, those friends were all different. They all became head-shrinking turtles because the Lin family and the old Qin family in Haishi had a quarrel.

The other party was too strong, and he didn't want to accidentally let himself happen for the Lin family.

Lin Yurou didn't know who broke her body and couldn't find that person, and made Lin Yurou a laughingstock among the rich. She had broken shoes and always loved her daughter. Lin Yuanwang, who wished her daughter to marry the rich and enjoy the wealth, was even more shocked.

Although they knew that the murderer was Qin Weiyuan, there was no evidence, but now they rely on the old Qin family in the sea market, they have no fear, they have no way to sue, and can only suffer losses.

Everyone was still trying to persuade them, but the following creditors quit, holding the contract signed at the beginning, and said: "Boss Lin, it's not that we rush to kill, we can't ship the goods, and it's not easy to explain to the big boss. If we do, we also have to pay liquidated damages."

"Boss Lin, I went bankrupt and signed the glamorous insect paste with you, as well as the longevity gu worm. If I can't deliver it, my company will collapse, and I also have my difficulties."

“Lao Lin, you a hundred-year-old family, won’t you really fail to pay out my one billion liquidated damages? This is only double the liquidated damages. They have more, but mine. Do you want to pay me back, okay? So are we? Brothers for many years, you can’t cheat me, brother.”

“Wow...” The dogs in the village barked at these people, but they were dragged by the villagers, so they didn’t dare to bite people.

Qin Ming saw that these debt collectors turned out to be a group of more than 30 creditors.

He asked in confusion, “Isn’t the Lin family Dazhai someone who doesn’t know the specific location? Lin Yuanwang usually works in a tourism company in Dayong City, right?”

Everyone around him looked at him, not understanding what Qin Ming was suggesting.

Qin Ming continued: “These people are obviously organized and premeditated. Behind them I am afraid that someone familiar with the Lin family’s Dazhai will help secretly.”

Zhang Quanzhen moved in his heart and asked, “Xiao Qin, you mean, Qin Weiyuan is here?”

Qin Ming said: “After Qin Weiyuan has gained power, don’t get a divorce and leave the Lin family? Do you think he will give up the mysterious insect-raising sutra of the Lin family? After all, he is an outsider. After entering the family, he must know that there is a Gu insect in the Lin family. I am afraid that I want to use this knowledge and advantages to gain a firm foothold in the old Qin’s house in Haishi.”

Zhang Quanzhen nodded and replied: “It makes sense, it seems that this is lively.”

Mu Xiaoqiao said, “Husband, the Lin family is also pitiful. If you can help, don’t you?”

Before Qin Ming answered the question, one of the crowd stood up and said loudly in public: "I have the ability to help the Lin family tide over the difficulties!"

Chapter 448

Lin's Dazhai is located in a small valley deep in Miaojiang Town. It was once isolated from the rest of the world. Between the mountains, the gurgling stream and the quiet river are intertwined with each other, like a beautiful scroll drawn by a painter who is good at tracing.

Since Dazhai is located in a valley in a remote area, it is necessary to go through three unusually rugged and difficult journeys of bamboo rafting, Xiangwang Cave, and Huangshuipo before entering the village. It is also easy to walk into the ghost valley, where the complex magnetic field may cause electronic equipment to malfunction and get lost. .

Therefore, Qin Ming insisted that these creditors came to the door at the same time. There must be someone who instigated and led the way. I am afraid that he wanted to force Lin Yuanwang to hand over the insect-raising scriptures of Linjia Dazhai in Xiangxi, which was the most profitable way.

Qin Ming whispered to Bi Yuan: "Eight of you go find a set of local costumes and wear concealment, then go and watch all the ships that come, block the intersection, remember all suspicious people, and look for the photo of Qin Weiyuan by the way. , That guy should be here. If you see it, grab it for me."

Zhang Quanzhen on the side saw Qin Ming's operation, apparently not just for lending to the Lin family, so he asked, "Xiao Qin, what are you doing?"

Qin Ming smiled faintly: "Zhang Quanzhen, you are a terrible old man, can't you see what I want to do? Naturally, I want to raise a bargaining chip for myself. People often say that luck will only come to those who are prepared, but I think I have to wait. Fortunately, people are starving to death long ago. Those who do big things talk about planning far-reaching, working on the ground, increasing bargaining chips for themselves, and increasing it to a certain extent, even if the enemy's luck can't be defeated. Never think about being a human being. When luck comes, luck will be the icing on the cake."

Zhang Quanzhen smiled and did not respond. He also wanted to see how far Qin Ming wanted to handle the matter.

If Qin Ming handled it beautifully, he would appreciate it very much, and in order to save the Lin family, he had to bend down to do something for Qin Ming.

If Qin Ming doesn't handle it well, no matter how Qin Ming does it, he won't agree.

The people here in Lin's Dazhai are still persuading Lin Yuanwang not to jump down. Although he is only five stories high, he really jumped down and knocked his head to death.

"Boss Lin, I have the ability to help you Lin family, don't you believe me?" Suddenly, Bai Haocheng stood out from the crowd, looking up at Lin Yuan and said: "As long as you let Lin Yurou marry me, I will take it out. Ten billion, as a betrothal gift, and then I will tell my family to ask my dad to spend another 10 billion, a total of 20 billion, to marry Lin Yurou."

The Bai family's 20 billion is only enough for the Lin family to breathe, not enough to save the Lin family.

"Boss Lin, our Zhang family only needs one of the production lines of beautifying insect paste. You send someone to stare at them to ensure that your business secrets will not be revealed. Ten billion is a very cost-effective deal. Why don't you agree to it? 15 billion, how about it?"

Zhang's abacus also worked well, and Qin Ming had seen the effect of that beauty insect paste, which definitely has a deep market prospect. It would be unwise to establish a strong competitor for himself with 15 billion yuan.

Then Shao He, Shao Huang, and Shao Ma also came out to discuss the terms again, all of which were the same just now, but they made some concessions. In fact, they still couldn't let the Lin Family accept the terms.

“Lao Lin, when you see so many people helping you, you agreed, so we can take the liquidated damages and pay our customers.”

“Boss Lin, don’t you have to top up your son after you die? You can’t get rid of this debt. We have been working together for many years, would you not cheat me like this?”

“Why don’t we go to the Worm Valley and look for it, maybe there is something in stock. The Longevity Gu, which I ordered, is out of stock. I’m in trouble.”

“Yes, where does the Worm Valley go?”

“Walk around, go to Worm Valley to find goods.”

All these creditors had to go to the Worm Valley of the Lin clan, but the villagers of the Lin clan held wooden sticks and hoes to stop the people.

“You want to go to our Worm Valley, don’t think about it.”

“Who brought them in?”

“Stop for me, otherwise we will be welcome.”

“Wow...”

The villagers also had a tough attitude, surrounding these debt-collecting businessmen, but there were many debt-collecting people, plus a few wealthy young masters such as Bai Haocheng and their bodyguards, the number was really not small, and the two sides pointed at each other and cursed.

Lin Yuan looked at the beam standing upstairs, very sad. He was really forced to do nothing. He looked at the old mother and his wife and daughter who were crying for him to come down. He only felt very sorry for them.

He used to be outspoken. He regarded money as dung and didn't know how to leave a way for himself, so that nowadays, there is no money to borrow and no one can borrow, and he also hurts his relatives.

"Mom, Xiaoping, I'm sorry for you." Lin Yuan looked at a big old man, weeping: "As long as I die, they won't be so tight anymore. Qin Xiaoguang's old fellow probably will be the one who was back then. Friendship will help us again, but how can I see him send someone to humiliate me? Mom, my son is incompetent, and I will be filial to you in the next life."

An old mother below shouted hoarsely: "Looking far away, no, no matter how big things are, our family will also be able to carry it over."

The villagers took out many quilts to drape Lin Yuanwang, but the creditors ignored them and kept calling Lin Yuanwang to pay the liquidated damages.

Suddenly, Lin Yuanwang stood up straight, and everyone was startled. They seemed to expect Lin Yuanwang to make the next move, either climbing or jumping.

Suddenly, Qin Ming's pupils shrank, and he immediately pushed Along, saying: "Along on the other side, hurry, hurry, go and catch him."

Along was startled, but he immediately understood what Qin Ming meant on the other side. The high-rise building on the horizontal bridge is against the mountain wall. One section is a village road, one side is a small river, and the small river is full of stones. There are almost six drops down. Lin Yuanwang is bound to die if the phone is high on the floor and his head touches the ground first.

Along walks fast, grabbing a bamboo pole on the way.

And the moment he ran away, everyone screamed and exclaimed, because Lin Yuanwang, as Qin Ming guessed, ran away thinking about the other side of the tall building, and then fell headlong.

“Ah!” everyone screamed in fear.

Suddenly, only Qin Ming expected that Lin Yuanwang would jump in the opposite direction.

When Lin Yuanwang’s body fell, Along suddenly picked up the bamboo pole in his hand, and a pole vault came, showing a parabola flying from bottom to top.

When everyone exclaimed, Aaron had already grabbed Lin Yuanwang’s body with one hand and crashed into the wooden window on the third floor.

Wow, Along hugged Lin Yuanwang and rushed in.

Seeing this scene, everyone gave another “Wow” surprise, and immediately rushed into the main building to rescue Lin Yuanwang.

After a while, Lin Yuanwang was rescued, and both of them were unscathed.

Lin Yuanwang, who was rescued, was very decadent, and he was clearly determined to use his own death in exchange for hope and future for the Lin family, but he did not die.

He looked at the creditors rushing to collect debts, Lin Yuanwang was helpless again, his mouth was dry.

Qin Ming looked at Lin Yuanwang, who was tightly surrounded, waved his hand, and said, “Along, open the way for me.”

“Yes, Master.” Along responded with a mighty voice.

Suddenly, Aaron grabbed one in the back and threw all the creditors who blocked the road. Several bodyguards, rich and young, frowned, trying to stop Aaron.

But Aaron is too violent, talk about the veteran king who doesn't reason with people like you at all. With a punch, he will disperse all the bodyguards of Bai Haochen and others.

Along's violent fist cleared a way, and everyone finally saw the gracious Qin Ming.

He walked up slowly and said, “Boss Lin, our business hasn't been over yet, so why bother to die?”

Lin Yuanwang looked at Qin Ming, in despair, he did not remember that Qin Ming was introduced by Zhang Quanzhen.

He still didn't take Qin Ming seriously, and said: “You are Mu Hairan's grandson-in-law, you saved me, but you are a door-to-door son-in-law, what can you do for me? What can you do?”

Qin Ming smiled and said, “Indeed, I have no abilities, I just have a lot of money.”

Chapter 449

Qin Ming didn't bother Lin Yuanwang for neglecting him.

After all, Lin Yuanwang had been running around for two months, and he had experienced the warmth and warmth of human relationships. When he was forced to jump off the building by his creditor, he would take anyone seriously, unless the person directly took tens of billions of dollars to slap him in the face.

Qin Ming smiled and said, "Indeed, I have no abilities, I just have a lot of money."

Lin Yuanwang looked at Qin Ming and said dully, "Then how much money do you have?"

Qin Ming said confidently: "There are so many you can't imagine."

Upon hearing that Qin Ming had money to support the Lin family, all the creditors stopped for a while.

"Really or not, is this a rich man who is rich or young? Oh, it's a kind of talent."

"Yeah, Lao Lin, people have money to save your Lin family, why didn't you say it earlier?"

"Young man, how much do you pay for it?"

Qin Ming didn't care about these people. They were all vampires and would only squeeze the interests of others.

However, Bai Haocheng walked out next to him and said, "Boss Lin, don't be fooled, he, the son-in-law of Mu family, wants to empty the glove White Wolf."

Zhang Shao also said, "No, what money can he have? No money to buy clothes. Seeing that the shoes are broken, he is the son-in-law who comes to the door, holding a chicken feather as an arrow."

He Shao also said: "I think he is a liar, he is deliberately delaying time, boss Lin, you can relax a little."

Qin Ming frowned. These people were chattering. He had no chance to talk to Lin Yuanwang. He waved his hand and said, "Along, let them shut up."

Along responded, and immediately set off to grab a stick on the ground, and then turned around and swept, regardless of whether these people reacted or not, swiping would fall down.

"Ahhhhhhh!" Most of them are pampered bosses, rich and young, how can they react? All was swept down by Aaron with a stick.

Several bosses yelled: "Grass, your mother, give it to me."

Bai Haocheng and other rich young masters cursed: "Go together and beat this dog to death."

"Stop!" But Lin Yurou stood up to defend Qin Ming and directed the villagers to present a protection circle of a half-moon arc and protect Qin Ming and others inside.

Lin Yurou is very domineering scolding: "This is my Lin Family Village. It's up to you to play in the wild? Everyone stands up and protects Mr. Qin. Don't let them lean in."

Bai Haocheng was swept with a stick by Aaron, his face was red and swollen, he was ashamed and annoyed, and cursed: "Lin Yurou, I don't dislike you, but also gave out 10 billion beauties. What else are you dissatisfied with? You are yours Is it impossible to be studded with diamonds? Do you really think you can get the lintel of the old Qin family?"

"You..." Lin Yurou was angry and annoyed, but didn't know how to refute it. She was afraid that Bai Haocheng would say more and more so that everyone would know that Lin Yurou didn't know which man she was sleeping.

Bai Haocheng cursed: "What are you doing? Did I make a mistake? Didn't you sell out for money in the first place..."

Suddenly, Qin Ming picked up a stone on the ground, made three steps in two steps, and knocked down his forehead towards Bai Haocheng.

“Bang” Bai Haocheng was yelling excitedly, but he didn’t realize that Along’s bodyguard had fallen down long ago, but Qin Ming slammed it down and no one stopped him. He splashed three steps on the spot.

“Ah! You scumbag, you are just the son-in-law of the Mu family. I am not even afraid of the Mu family. The old Mu Hairan was a mourning dog back then. He was driven out of Beijing by me. A door-to-door son-in-law, fuck your mother, ah!”

Bang!

The scolding Bai Haocheng offended Qin Ming’s Ni Lin and insulted his family. Qin Ming couldn’t take it anymore. Is the Baishui Town Little Overlord an ordinary person? Qin Ming hadn’t been afraid of anyone in terms of fighting fiercely.

In Qin Ming’s second blow, Bai Haocheng fainted on the spot with a stone, causing blood to flow all over the place.

Qin Ming dropped the blood-stained stone and said faintly, “Which one is not afraid of death?”

Uh... the people around them were shocked when they saw Qin Ming knocking people unconscious. The subordinates and bodyguards around them were knocked over by Aaron just now, so they couldn’t end the fight in person, right?

Everyone shut up and said nothing, and persuaded.

Qin Ming clapped his hands and turned around and said, "It's too late to clean up, is it finally quiet? I can talk now, right?"

Qin Ming looked around and found that no one dared to speak anymore. He said slowly, "Boss Lin, please make a price. Our company can give you a loan. The annual interest rate is about the same as that of the bank. It's fine if you have conditions attached. I don't have anything special to your Lin family. If you have business dealings in the future, I hope you can give me the first priority in selling Hao Dingxi."

Everyone was startled, didn't Qin Ming give this condition in vain?

Qin Ming's offer was indeed for nothing, but it was also an offer of favor. Money was nothing to Qin Ming. Low interest rates could still earn hundreds of millions, but favors could not stop at this price.

Especially since he wants to bring Zhang Quanzhen under his command, he has to deal with the matters here, and he can't be too utilitarian.

The Lin family is actually very strong. There is a set of raising all kinds of rare and valuable insects, that is, it needs working capital to tide over the difficulties and recover its vitality. After a long time, the Lin family is relieved, and it is also a wealthy family.

Qin Ming borrowed money at a low interest rate, not just earning a few hundred million, this is a great favor.

The bosses who were waiting to collect their debts were stunned.

"How can it be?"

"Do you play double? Fudge us?"

“Then just wait for the money to be paid back.”

“Nowadays, young people are talking about it. It is estimated that the amount is 100 million and has not been seen, and it is tens of billions. Does he know what ten billion is?”

Those creditors still didn't believe in Qin Ming, and felt that Qin Ming was bragging.

But Qin Ming ignored them. He did not see how many tens of billions were, but Song Ying's report on the quarterly net profit of the industry in China for him was tens of billions of dollars.

Lin Yurou couldn't help asking: “Mr. Qin, my grandfather hasn't promised your additional conditions yet, do you, do you agree?”

Qin Ming sighed and said, “It's all done like this. If you drag it on, these people don't know what to do. Your dad will lose confidence and go to death again. My life is a matter of life. I will postpone it a bit Right.”

Zhang Quanzhen looked at Qin Ming's deeds and smiled secretly.

Lin Yuanwang breathed a sigh of relief, and said regretfully: “This time, Qin Weiyuan's white-eyed wolf gave us the Lin family a set of so many liquidated damages. He signed these large amounts of contracts, and he set the sky-high liquidated damages. As a result, He also bombed Worm Valley, and I used to trust him so much.”

“Mr. Qin, just lend me as much as you can.” After all, Lin Yuanwang still didn't trust Qin Ming in his heart, and just asked tentatively.

Qin Minghao smiled: "I heard someone dumped you for 60 billion yuan and you didn't pick it up. I'll dump you for 70 billion yuan. Is it enough for your Lin family to recover?"

Jing, Qin Ming's words made the surrounding atmosphere terribly quiet.

Qin Ming is too wealthy, right? Real people don't show their faces, and they don't show real people? Looking at the humble Qin Ming, is the real local tyrant?

No, is this bragging?

Lin Yuanwang was also stunned, and he had become dumbfounded when he had no hope.

At the scene, people like Bai Haocheng, Zhang Shao, He Shao, etc. also got 10 billion. This is already a very exaggerated fund. Without a background of big wealth, it is impossible to come up with such a large liquidity.

Qin Ming opened his mouth to 70 billion? He is a banknote printing factory?

It is the old Qin family who is a world-class giant, and the ranks of the world's top rich people have the confidence to take 60 billion yuan and it is not the same thing as ordinary domestic giants.

Isn't this Qin Ming the son-in-law of the Mu family? Is he still unfamiliar with Guangshi Mu Family? How could there be so much money?

Lin Yuanwang licked his lips and asked cautiously: "Mr. Qin, are you kidding me?"

Qin Ming said: "I never make a joke about this kind of thing. Our company has enough funds to make long-term investments. Ten billion investment is nothing but trillions of investment."

Guru, the people around you gulping wildly, trillions of investment, what is that? Is it a national livelihood project? Aerospace technology? Do you want to build a dam and build a high-speed rail?

But everyone saw that Qin Ming was still so calm, and said confidently, “Boss Lin, will you refuse me again?”

“I do not believe!”

Suddenly, there was a high-pitched ridicule from behind the crowd: “Lin Yuanwang, you shouldn’t sing double reeds here to delay time. I’ve had enough of your scenes. I will lose money right away!”

Chapter 450

“I do not believe!”

“Lin Yuanwang, you don’t want to sing double reeds here to delay time, I’ve had enough of your drama, and I will lose money right away!”

“The contract is your company’s seal. If you receive the money, you will have to compensate for the liquidated damages if you can’t deliver the goods. Can you take out the tens of billions of money and take it out soon? Now find a little boy to delay the time?”

“Yes, kid, don’t be so proud of you, but are you taking the money? We are a contract in black and white.”

“What’s the point of playing a trillion if you don’t have money? Look, you are a son-in-law, and you are also a poor man. What is it for you to sing a duo?”

Those debt-collecting businessmen spoke again and again, and Qin Ming frowned. These people's actions were too obvious, not necessarily for money, I am afraid the people behind the scenes instigated another purpose.

Qin Ming asked Along in a low voice, "Do they have any information, Bi Yuan?"

Along shook his head and said, "Not yet."

Qin Ming frowned. Is his idea wrong?

But it doesn't matter, what he has to do will not have an impact.

Qin Ming asked Aaron to take the satellite communicator and put it in front of Qin Ming after debugging.

Qin Ming dialed Song Ying's phone and told Song Ying to contact the legal affairs of Lin's Shenghui Tourism Group to draw up a loan contract as soon as possible, and make two payments in batches in Qin Ming's personal name. Ten billion was given to the company's account so that the Lin family could pay off the liquidated damages first and avoid lawsuits.

Qin Ming made a phone call in a deceptive manner, speaking bluntly, as if he really had 20 billion.

However, everyone took out their mobile phones, and Mom sold them, and there was no signal inside the mountain. How could you contact outside?

"You just blow it? I don't believe it."

“That kind of acting wants to send us away? There are three days left before the repayment date. How difficult is it for me to come here? I’m not leaving.”

“The level of this double reed is quite high.”

“Haha, don’t you still want to hide in Tuzhai to avoid us?”

But these people just finished laughing, a villager suddenly ran over to Lin Yuan and said, “The patriarch, the patriarch, there is a fixed-line call, and our legal counsel from Shenghui called and said that the World Bank wants to give us a loan and sign a contract. You need to cover it. Zhang. And there is a person named Qin Ming who has charged 20 billion to our company’s account in batches.”

Lin Yuanwang was startled. If Qin Ming was bragging, then his deputy and the legal affairs of Shi Shenghui Tourism Group could not brag.

Lin Yuan looked at Qin Ming with a complicated mood. Isn’t he Mu Hairan’s grandson-in-law? Hasn’t the Mu family already rejected him?

He has such a big say in Mu’s family? Can you get so much money?

Lin Yuanwang suppressed his mood and asked like a younger man: “Mr. Qin, can you borrow your satellite phone for a use?”

Qin Ming made a gesture of inviting. After Lin Yuanwang took it quickly, with trembling fingers, he immediately called the person from the Shenghui Tourism Group to ask his subordinates to check the money in the company’s account.

There really was so much money in this investigation, Qin Ming paid in batches of 20 billion in his own name.

Really rich!

After Lin Yuanwang finished the call, he was sluggish for a long time, more than three minutes.

Suddenly, Lin Yuanwang raised his head and laughed: “Hahahaha...hahaha...”

After Lin Yuanwang laughed, he danced, scratched his head, and kept shaking hands with Qin Ming, shaking hands with Zhang Quanzhen, shaking hands with Mu Xiaoqiao, shaking hands with his daughter, and shaking hands with the villagers. Everyone was a little scared.

Could it be that the ups and downs of adult life came too fast, Lin Yuanwang couldn't stand the stimulation, he was going crazy.

However, after Lin Yuanwang laughed, he took a deep breath and said, “Okay, very good! Everyone is listening, and all these debt collectors are driven out of my Lin family's Dazhai. The day to pay the money has not yet arrived. I am now I am afraid of you when I have money?”

“Yes.” As soon as the villagers saw that Lin Yuanwang had recovered his former domineering spirit, they also had the confidence to push these debt-collecting vampires frantically with the stick and hoe to drive them out of Dazhai.

Lin Yuanwang's performance was different from just now, and it also made the mood of the debt collectors more subtle.

Is the Lin family shocked and unsafe, and has been revitalized?

Zhang Shao muttered to himself: “No? A door-to-door son-in-law of the Mu family. It's impossible. It's absolutely impossible. He actually has more money than us.”

Huang Shao also said in surprise: "How could Lin Yuanwang change people without money? He was forced to commit suicide just now. Maybe he is really rich, and just give it 20 billion. Who is this Qin Ming?"

Bai Haocheng was just awakened by a bodyguard, covering his head and shouting pain: "Ah, my head, I'm going to die, Mu family son-in-law, you are dead, I want you to die, ah... who spit at me? Grass, Why is this saliva bloodshot?"

He Shao regretfully said, "Looking at Lin Yuanwang's response, he should have received 20 billion assistance. How come Qin Ming has never heard of this? Why is he so rich? There is no news at all? The last Meng Lanpen At the convention, there is no such number one among the country's giants."

Ma Shao's face flushed: "He is a door-to-door son-in-law, why is he so rich? Are we embarrassed now? It spreads out, where are the five of us facing? Was haunted by a door-in-law with money?"

Lin Yurou stepped forward annoyed, and yelled softly: "Several young and old, our Lin family's beauty insect paste is only given to distinguished guests, not to troublemakers. Bai Ying's wife, take everything back."

The old lady Bai Ying on the side replied, and quickly shot her, regardless of her age and body, but her movements were as vigorous as Along, she rushed in front of Bai Haocheng, Zhang Shao, He Shao and others, and touched her pockets one by one. After a while, I took out five bottles of precious beauty insect paste.

On the other hand, these rich and young bodyguards seem to be tall and magnificent, but they can't keep up at all. They can't keep up with the older sister-in-law Bai Ying.

Even Along who was standing next to Qin Ming exclaimed: "Huh? Good skill. This person looks old, but he is explosive."

Qin Ming asked, "Can you win?"

Aaron carefully said to you: "Of course, Master, you underestimate me? But I can be serious."

Zhang Quanzhen smiled instead: "I don't think it's necessary. If you are in the ring, you might still win. If you are elsewhere, you don't necessarily, unless you have a gun. When Lin Baiying was famous all over the country, your parents were still playing mud. ."

Hearing that Zhang Quanzhen was not optimistic about himself, Aaron was also aroused with arrogance, and said: "Zhang Zhenren, when I was performing missions around the world, there were a lot of strange people from all over the world, and there were many strange and deadly tricks. "

Qin Ming said: "Okay, I have a chance to discuss it, and let Aaron report for me the little grudge that affects my mind at the airport gate."

Within a short time, Bai Ying took back all the beauty and insect paste that she sent out. She also made a favor, presented it with both hands, and gave it to Mu Xiaoqiao: "Miss Mu, you are a distinguished guest who deserves to enjoy us. The most secret insect paste of the Lin clan, I hope you will stay young forever."

Qin Ming murmured inwardly: "Should you not hear me? This sister-in-law Bai Ying can really please people."

Lin Yuan looked at Qin Ming's funds and assistance, so confidently, he drove out these creditors, exhaled and raised his eyebrows.

But Qin Ming walked over and said, "Boss Lin, let them go like this, wouldn't it be cheaper for them?"

Lin Yuan was startled and said, "You can't keep them locked up, right? It's illegal."

Qin Ming laughed, "We are all decent people. How can we do things that violate the law and discipline? How difficult is it to walk back? I have tried it. You have to have a boat and a guide on the waterway, right? Here is the mobile phone signal contact. Not outside, only the landline in your village and my satellite phone, right?"

"Um..." Everyone was attracted by Qin Ming's words. It seemed that Qin Ming was planning something?

Qin Ming smiled calmly and said, "I mean, I have sent someone to control their boats just now. You have to take good care of your boats later."

Everyone was shocked, and they immediately wanted to understand what they were going to do. They all gave thumbs up in their hearts, Qin Ming, you're an old man.

Qin Ming smiled slyly, his abacus was far more than that, the show just started.
