

Chapter 403

She absolutely does not allow any woman to violate her mother's territory.

Suzi was still absent-minded: "Yeah."

Just chatting with my daughter, a family of three arrived at the old house of Fu's family.

This is the third time Suzi has come here.

The first time, on the day she was just released from prison, she was taken here by Arron in a daze. She still remembers that the backyard here was where the Fu family's servants lived, and then there was the mountain stream gorge, which can be descended along the vine. The kind deep in the bottom of the mountain.

Thinking of this, Suzi couldn't help but sigh in his heart that the Fu family is really rich. It is impossible to build such a magnificent mansion on this place close to the top of the mountain, and to be able to climb up and look far away, there is a mountain stream behind him, and it is impossible for anyone to come up and robbery.

The rich are the rich.

Even the domestic helpers who go in and out of this house are different from what ordinary people wear. Suzi thought to himself that if he can be a domestic helper, his salary should be at least a few thousand per month, right?

Suzi still remembers that when she entered this house for the first time six years ago, several young maids in it treated her with contempt and contempt.

Now, what would the maids think if they knew that she and Arron were married and had a child?

However, seeing his outfit again in a blink of an eye, Suzi couldn't help but laugh at himself.

Shen's only mother, Arron's wife, but you still have no status.

It is also possible that a senior maid here has a higher status than you.

When he walked outside the main entrance of the Fu's Villa with his only hand, Suzi involuntarily stopped.

Because Suzi suddenly remembered the situation where she was accused by the whole upper class six years ago.

She didn't have the courage to step in again.

"What's the matter?" Arron looked at her. The only one raised his little face and looked at Suzi: "What's the matter, mother?"

"That..." Suzi rarely lied, so for a while, she couldn't think of a reasonable lie. After a few seconds, she had an idea: "I...I ..."

"What the hell is going on!" Arron asked.

"I'm on an official holiday." Suzi said with a blush.

Arron: "..."

"Just now, I can feel that I have to find a place to buy sanitary napkins. I see a supermarket at the foot of the mountain. I will buy a pack. Otherwise, I will make a fool of myself later." This argument is reasonable.

Suzi admired his wit.

Arron's eyes were obviously displeased, and even Suzi could see something in his eyes, disappointed?

Why are you disappointed?

Do you really want to have a second child?

That's it!

However, he said to her: "I called Christopher to pick you up and asked him to take you to buy it. He was waiting for you at the gate of the supermarket. He didn't know what you bought when you brought the bag. He sent you back here."

Suzi: "...". Although Christopher followed, she couldn't escape, but at this moment, it's a moment to escape.

Christopher came, drove Suzi to buy sanitary napkins, and soon returned. Christopher sent her to the house and said to Suzi before leaving, "Madam, in fact, Master brought you here today. The only purpose of the house is to let the people in the old house know the identity of your Mrs. Fu."

Suzi smiled faintly: "Really? Thank you Assistant Yan. You go back, my daughter is here, I will not leave."

"Good madam, I'll wait for you in the car outside the gate."

Christopher left, and Suzi stood alone by the flowerbed in the yard, and did not want to go in for a long time.

At this time, a sharp voice suddenly came from behind: "Where do you come from, how come you stand here cringingly, how do I think you are so familiar?"

Chapter 404

When Suzi turned around, he saw a strange woman.

"What are you doing, rushing into your private house, you are not afraid to beat you to pieces!" The woman yelled at Suzi very fiercely.

The woman had dark skin and was wearing an apron, but the scornful expression of superiority in her bones suddenly made Suzi uncomfortable. The woman is obviously dressed as a domestic helper, but this domestic helper is really confident.

It is true that working as a domestic helper in a wealthy house is more powerful and powerful than a small boss and a small manager who has no power and power even though he runs a commissary.

Not long ago, Suzi dared to watch a costume TV series.

In the plot, there is a brother of the emperor, who is a prince. He meets a powerful minister in the palace. Not only does the minister refuse to pay the prince, but the prince wants to step aside to make way for the minister.

The prince's little follower was not angry, so he mumbled to his homepage: "You are a master and he is a slave. He should give you a way and bow to you."

At that time, the prince sighed with emotion: "When a prince is powerless, he is not as good as a slave, and if a slave is gaining power, he can live as much as a prince."

Now, when Suzi looked at the rough maid in front of him, he thought of what the prince said in the plot.

This is true when used.

Suzi is Arron's wife, but her wife is really unsuccessful.

She doesn't even have the right to decide to wear a suit.

Not to mention that she can offend a domestic helper here.

Suzi cleared his throat: "I...I am today's guest."

"You?" The arrogant housemaid gave another sharp stern: "Do you know where this is? Where did you get out of here, ah! Look at your outfit, new temporary worker, new I have never seen you as a temporary worker. The new temporary workers are recruited by my master. If I saw you like this, I would have blasted you out. Who on earth are you! Don't tell me anymore. , I asked someone to break your leg!"

"We have seen it." Suzi said.

Female domestic helper: "..."

After a long while, the female domestic helper suddenly thought of something like: "Yes, yes, I said, why do you look familiar? You are the female prisoner six years ago! You were bought by our four young masters as soon as you were released from prison. That woman.

Yo! Are you not dead yet?

I heard a while ago that you were captured by our Fourth Young Master from a field, why are you still alive?

Come to Fu's old house?

How? Do you still want to piss our old man again?

Suzi!

You little cousin, you are capable enough. I heard that you gave birth to a daughter for our fourth master? Do you think that if you give birth to a daughter, it is expensive for mothers and daughters? As a result, you were still captured by our Fourth Master, and you were not even given a status. You are still so stubborn, not a human or a ghost?

What are you here for!

If you don't say anything today, you will be beaten to death with sticks and throw you into the smelly water ditch! "

Suzi: "..."

She was sucked away in anger.

I was speechless for a while.

The shouting of the female family immediately attracted another maid.
