Chapter 2247

"Freya, I didn't say that I would let Sarah take care of Dani, you can send Dani to Snow's old house."

Rodney looked at Freya for a while and sneered, "Freya, I know that you don't have time to take care of Dani. So I decided to go back to Dani's custody. I know you don't want it. When I arrive in Australia tomorrow, I will apply to the court. Before, I had no chance of winning but now it's different. Your family is not in the capital and neither is you. By Dani's side, for the sake of the child's mental health, the judge will definitely award the child to me."

"You dare."

Freya trembled with anger. Her eyes wishing to eat him.

Rodney gritted his teeth and said, "Freya, I'll be on a business trip for two months. That's it, you manage several companies and you don't often travel for business and socializing. I forgot to tell you that I met your good sister in country R and she wanted to vent your anger and put me on the line. The pressure was very tight and the project I was holding was taken away by her. She wanted me to have nothing. Since I have nothing left, I might as well go home and bring the baby. Freya, you want your career and your daughter also wants it, there are not so many things in the world that have the best of both worlds, I am here today, just to let you know that Dani's custody will be decided."

After finished speaking, Rodney turned around and left.

Freya felt chills all over her body and her pupils were filled with hatred that she had never felt before. "Rodney, you know how important Dani is to me and I have never hurt Sarah. So why can't you have a little bit of it for me? You have to force me like this."

"Who is forcing you?"

Rodney neither looked back nor dared to look at her.

He took his steps ahead without looking back.

Freya cried directly.

She didn't know what to do, her only thought wasn't to let Rodney take Dani away.

When she was in a panic and at a loss, Aunt Loretta suddenly called, "Miss Freya, it's Bad news, just now Mrs. Snow and Mr. Snow came over and took Dani away. Oh my God, Dani was crying It was so sad."

Freya's heart almost shattered and even a sense of despair came out of her heart and she was most afraid of happened about the thing.

"Aunt Loretta, don't worry, I'll be right back." Freya blurted out.

In any case, Rodney must not be allowed to take back custody and her daughter should not be spoiled by Sarah.

Freya quickly called Catherine, "Cathy, Dani was taken away by the Snow family. Rodney said that he wanted to fight with me for custody and I had to return to the Australia immediately."

"Freya, you I can't go back to Australia."

Catherine said calmly, "Once you leave, you will give up this training. The F country regards time and credit as very important and spread it out. Those professors have a bad impression of you. It's not good for you to study again in the future and you are the core member of the Freycatheli research team. I think Rodney not only wants to get back the custody of her daughter but more importantly he wants to force you to return to Australia and let Freycatheli's product development has been blocked."

"I expected what you said, I didn't expect him to be so despicable, but I can't lose Dani..." Freya said painfully.

"Didn't Ryan promise you to take good care of Dani? Have you asked him?" Catherine interrupted her.

Freya was startled, "Ryan must be at work now and once I get to court and travel for two months, the judge will indeed rule that I can't take care of my daughter..."

As she was talking, Ryan's phone call came in, "Cathy, I'll answer Ryan's call first."

After pressing the answer button, Ryan's voice was as gentle as always, "Aunty Loretta contacted me just now, she said you want to come back. Freya, Don't worry, I will give you Dani back, so you can study there with peace of mind."

Chapter 2248

Somehow Freya's flustered heart seemed to have found support all of a sudden and gradually calmed down, "Ryan, Rodney came to me just now. he said he wanted to apply for custody. I am now in Outside and also there may be no chance of winning."

Ryan smiled and said calmly, "Freya, the day you went out for training, I expected Rodney to know sooner or later. People like to plan ahead. If Rodney really appeals, I believe he will give up before the trial because he can't win at all."

Freya was stunned, "Why Rodney can't win?"

Ryan explained softly, "Because Sarah often secretly Animal cruelty, I have a lot of evidence against Sarah. Considering the safety of the child, the judge cannot award the child to him."

"Ryan, How did you know all this..." Freya was shocked.

"During this time, I've been staring at Sarah. She was originally a ruthless woman. After she was disabled, the doctor diagnosed her with psychological trauma. Rodney made her take medicine for a while. She's alright. In fact, she hides herself. When she's in a bad mood, she will abuse those stray cats and dogs in a cruel way."

"It was terrible."

Freya was horrified, "Wandering. A cat and a stray dog is not a life, Rodney knows."

"He must not know." Ryan said lightly, "That's why he dared to appeal confidently, thinking that he would win and when he comes back, I will naturally take it. He is a smart person and will give up."

Hearing what Ryan said, Freya was completely relieved, "Ryan, you are so amazing, I admire you so much, it seems that no matter how difficult it is, can be easily resolved by you, I really admire you."

If Ryan was by Freya's side, she would definitely kiss him fiercely.

I don't know since when this man seems to have become a harbor that can shelter her from the wind and rain.

"Okay, don't worry anymore, study hard and let me handle Dani's affairs, okay?" Ryan's voice was as gentle as a spring breeze blowing through her heart.

"Well, I believe you."

Freya took a deep breath, "By the way, Ryan, those stray cats and dogs are also very pitiful and Sarah can't be abused any more."

"I will handle it."

With him, I believe everything can be resolved.

By the time Ryan spoke to Catherine again, Freya had regained her composure.

"Freya, I thought about it, if it's a big deal, let Shaun be your lawyer when you go to court, he will definitely win." Catherine said.

"No need, Ryan has already grasped the evidence of Sarah's cruelty to animals, Rodney will not win." Freya answered in a light tone.

After being surprised for a moment Catherine smiled, "Ryan is really amazing, he notes everything."

"Yeah," Freya's heart was sweet when her boyfriend was praised, "He's really too much. Well, I don't think I'm good enough for him."

Chapter 2249

"Don't say that, Ryan is your boyfriend now, it's what he should do to shield you from difficult situations"

Catherine said with a boastful smile: "I was a little worried when you were with Ryan, but now I can rest assured. Now, he is such a smart person even if the Snow family finds out about your affairs in the future, I think he will be able to protect you well."

"I think so too."

Freya was startled and nodded.

She didn't quite believe the promises Ryan had made to her.

Regarding the matter of the two falling in love, she also has the idea of talking every day.

Now, she slowly believes.

In the future, if their relationship is made public, she will not be so afraid because Ryan will stand in front of her.

The feeling of being protected was the first time Freya felt from a man.

Australia, the capital.

After Ryan ended the phone call with Freya, he did not rush to the Snow family's old house.

Instead, she first arranged for Aunt Loretta to bring some of Dani's daily necessities.

Ryan didn't drive to the old house until he punched the card after get off work.

When I went in, it was almost dinner time. Wendy was playing with Dani, and Aunt Loretta was helping out. With Aunt Loretta around, Dani stopped crying a long time ago. Because the little guy was there, it was lively in the cold old house. After a few minutes, the old man came out.

"Grandpa, uncle, aunty." Ryan smiled and greeted several people.

Old Master Snow nodded, but Wendy and Jason were both calm, not too happy, and they didn't talk with him as enthusiastically as before.

"Okay, if the family has something to say, don't keep it in your heart." Old Man Snow spoke first, "Ryan, why don't you tell your uncle and the others about Freya's going abroad?"

"Is it Freya? Don't tell me." Wendy said dissatisfiedly, "Is she afraid that we will snatch Dani? You are all helping her hide from us. Ryan, find out who is your real family and besides, Are you and your uncle such a despicable person? Since we promised her at the beginning, we will not rob the child. At most, when she has no time to take care of Dani, we will take her back to the old house to take care of her for a few days."

"Yeah." Jason also nodded, "We also understand that Freya is guarding Sarah, so we agree that every time we come to the old house, we will not let Rodney take Dani out alone, and we also agree that the nanny will follow Dani and we have already done it. It 's a big concession."

"Uncle, aunty, calm down."

Ryan raised his hand. Ryan's face was always as warm as jade, making Wendy and Jason's embarrassed to say something ugly to him.

"Aunty, Freya was never the one to guard against you."

Jason explained warmly, "Freya once told my parents that she hadn't been on guard against Sarah, she wouldn't mind Rodney picking up Dani for a few days. God, even she hopes that Dani will be close to your grandparents. You may not know. After Freya's divorce, the Lynch family forced her to take her child back to live in Melbourne, but Freya disagreed. She considered If you go back to Melbourne, it will not be easy for the two of you to see your child, and her parents are worried about their daughter. So they have to compromise and decide to move to Canberra this year, and the house is about to be renovated."

"Freya's parents plan to live in Canberra?" Wendy surprised.

Chapter 2250

"Yeah."

Ryan nodded, "Today Freya didn't urge me after learning that you took Dani away, but I was afraid that you wouldn't be able to handle Dani, so let Aunty Loretta come over quickly."

Loretta, who was standing on the side.

When Aunt Loretta heard this, her eyes flashed with surprise and smiled secretly and had to admire the young master.

On the other hand, Wendy and Jason's expressions were much better and they were not as unhappy as before.

"Freya should have told us a long time ago."

Wendy said, "Since she's not here, Dani should be taken care of by our grandparents."

"She thought that if Brother Rodney found out, he would use her on a business trip. It's an excuse to fight for the custody of the child." Ryan sighed, "If you don't believe me, watch it. When Rodney comes back, he will definitely say that he wants to appeal to the court."

Wendy and Jason looked at each other.

At that moment, many thoughts flashed through each other's mind.

There was hesitation.

In fact, Rodney fought for the custody of the child, it would be fine. Freya was too busy with work and the child could be raised by the two elders. Anyway, Jessica is basically in charge of the Snow Corporation, and Jason usually does not Busy, Wendy wanted to get closer to her granddaughter.

Ryan saw through the couple's thoughts long ago, and smiled quietly without saying a word.

The living room was quiet for a while and Mr. Snow took the lead in expressing the thoughts of his son and daughter-in-law. "If Freya is busy, it's better to keep Dani in the old house with peace of mind. The most important thing in the Snow family is someone who takes care of the children."

Grandpa, I thought the same thing before, I was afraid that Brother Rodney wanted to pick up the child."

Ryan sighed, "Let me show you something, you will understand Freya's concerns soon."

Ryan turned on the phone, released a video and handed it to the old master Snow .

Mr. Snow squinted his eyes and saw that the woman in the video was using scissors to cut the cat's stomach alive and the cat was still alive and struggling all the time.

Wendy and Jason leaned over and took a look. As a woman, Wendy couldn't hold back the first scream, then turned around to find a trash can and vomited.

Old Master Snow and Jason couldn't see the cruel picture. So they quickly turned off the phone and their faces were unbelievably ashen.

Just now they recognized that face as Sarah at a glance.

Sarah has been to the old house a few times recently and every time she is soft and weak such a contrast makes the Old master Snow who has been through a lifetime of storms and furious.

"It was maddening."

The Old master Snow smashed the cup on the spot and pointed at Jason's nose and scolded, "Look at the good son you educated and found such a vicious woman. this is not only vicious but perverted. it's terrifying."

Jason's face was pale and he was obviously stimulated a lot.

Ryan smiled bitterly, "In the area where Brother Rodney lives, there have been a lot of strange disappearances of wild cats and dogs. This is just a small matter but someone notified the Animal Association and the association sent people to investigate before finding out about this. Fortunately, a friend I knew told me secretly that I paid in advance to cut the video otherwise it would spread out and have a great impact on the reputation of our Snow family."

"You did the right thing."

Mr. Snow applauded Nodding, "This matter must not be spread out, it will affect your father and the Snow Corporation."

"It's terrible." After Wendy vomited, her face was as white as paper, "Rodney, Why did she find this thing blindly, is she still a woman?"

Chapter 2251

Ryan sighed, "Aunty, now you understand why even my parents and I are helping Freya. When the custody of the child cannot be given to Rodney, the two of you may be able to take care of Dani now but At this age, if something happens in the future, Dani will still fall into Rodney's hands and Sarah can be so cruel to animals. Can you promise not to treat children?"

Wendy nodded. Also deeply aware of this possibility.

Jason added, "Although I don't understand psychology. I have heard that her behavior is definitely a psychological problem and sadism will give her inner satisfaction. After a long time, Not only want to abuse cats and dogs but more vulnerable groups."

"Okay Ryan, your uncle and the others are not unreasonable people."

Old master Snow returned the phone to Ryan, "We will never do it. Let Rodney fight for custody, Dani still lived with Freya. what happened in the past and what will happen in the future."

"Old master Snow, Thank you for understanding on behalf of Freya."Ryan said.

Ryan also smiled and said, "I also understood Aunty. She really wanted to spend more time with Dani.

Well, Freya is not here recently. Dani stays in the old house temporarily but Aunty Loretta has to stay and I will sleep here at night. Anyway my parents are busy and it's not interesting to live there alone. When Freya comes back, you have to send the child back."

"That's for sure."

Wendy was overjoyed after hearing this but she was not too happy about Ryan hiding her affairs but now not at all, on the contrary, she likes the nephew more.

He is obviously a few years younger than his son but he is much more sensible. he does things safely and can take care of his elders.

How can there be such an understanding child.

Much better than her two sons and daughters.

The Old master Snow was also full of praise. While he admired Ryan, he was even more disappointed with the other grandson, Rodney.

No, it's not just a disappointment, it's a complete loss of hope.

After dinner, Mr. Snow called Jason to him, "Sarah can abuse animals, she has done more than one bad thing. Rodney insists on tying up with this woman and we can't help it. But Sarah is a ticking time bomb and we don't intervene in Rodney's affairs in the future and when necessary, make preparations to cut so that he must not be implicated in the reputation of the Snow family." Jason said with a bitter face.

The Old master Snow sighed, "I also understand. After all, it is your child also but this child is really unsatisfactory. You think about Carson, Jessica and the Snow Corporation In the future Rodney will really have nothing. Just let him go to a small company under the Snow family as a manager as for the higher-ups of the Snow family, he can't be let in."

"Dad, I listen to you." Jason understood that the old master spoke up it, Rodney has been completely abandoned in the Snow family.

...

The other side.

The more Wendy thought about it, the more guilty she became. After returning to the room, she called Freya.

"Aunty Wendy..." Freya was apprehensive when she saw her calls, lest Wendy would trouble her.

She had a good impression of Wendy and didn't want to have a conflict with her.

"Freya, Aunty is here to apologize to you." Wendy said very apologetically, "I forcibly took Dani away in the morning it must have made you very worried and Aunty is too anxious but now I understood it."

"....."

Freya was stunned and understood something.

Wendy continued: "Don't worry, our Snow family will never compete with you for the custody of Dani. It is most suitable for Dani to grow up with you and Rodney is not qualified to be a good father and he will not follow to fight you for custody."

"Thank you, Aunty Wendy." Freya said ignorantly.

"Don't worry, I've already talked to Ryan. What about you? Although you can't be my daughter-in-law in this life but my aunt treats you like a daughter. I definitely won't let Rodney bully you and Dani."

After the two talked for a few minutes, Freya was still at a loss.

She sent Ryan a Whatsapp message: [Aunty Wendy called me, her attitude was very good, what did you do?]

Ryan: [I showed them the video of Sarah's cat abuse and they naturally understood. After this time, I and Aunty Loretta will accompany Dani to temporarily live in the Snow family's old house. this is best solution.]

Freya: [Dani can also live in the old house, I am very relieved to have you with me.]

Chapter 2252

Ryan: [Be good.]

Freya: [I love you, alright.]

Ryan: [I owe, come back and kiss me.]

Freya: [well.]

Without his reminder, she will kiss this man well when she goes back.

She looked at the calendar, only twenty days had passed and suddenly realized that she wanted to go home so much, not only because of Dani but also of Ryan.

She Really miss Ryan.

The next day.

Rodney arrived at the old house as soon as he got off the plane.

He saw Wendy holding Dani and playing in the yard, his heart almost melted.

"Mom, Dani..."

His eyes fell on his daughter and the little girl's face opened a little. Her eyes were like Freya's. Her mouth and nose were like her own. The beauty and merits were all concentrated in one piece.

"Dani, did you miss your Dad?"

Rodney reached out to hug Dani, Wendy took Dani and took two steps back then turned and handed it over to Aunty Loretta.

Aunty Loretta immediately carried the child into the house.

"Mom, why are you not letting me to hug Dani." Rodney said dissatisfiedly.

"Aren't you on a business trip abroad and why are you in a hurry to come back?" Wendy asked lightly.

"I want to come back to accompany Dani." Rodney frowned and said determinedly, "And I think Freya is so focused on her career that she can't take care of the children at all. I want to get back custody." Wendy showed a complicated expression.

Ryan was right.

My own son....

"Freya won't agree" she said.

"I've decided to appeal..."

Before Rodney finished speaking, there was a sneering sneer from Jason next to him.

"Dad, why are you laughing at?"

Rodney frowned, "You should support me."

Jason didn't say anything, just walked over raised his hand with a blank face and slapped him hard on the face.

"You still have the face to appeal, Rodney, do you think you will win?"

Jason has never been so angry, "How can someone as stupid as you have the right to raise a daughter."

"Dad..." Rodney covered his face in disbelief. Even Wendy watched indifferently from the side.

"Look at the good daughter-in-law you married."

Jason opened a video and threw his phone to Rodney. "Just such a vicious woman, the judge will award the child to you to support? It's embarrassing to appeal."

Chapter 2253

Rodney turned on his phone in a daze and saw the video. He was stunned even his hands were shaking that he couldn't believe that the woman inside was Sarah.

"How is this possible? Dad, is this synthetic?" Rodney asked blankly.

"Synthesis?"

Jason could not wait to give him another slap. "Rodney, You are blind but I am not blind. Now I finally understand Freya's concerns. A woman who protects you like a baby is a lunatic, please take her to get medical treatment and don't go to harm those cats and dogs. If it gets bigger, the reputation of our Snow family will be ruined.

Rodney's face was pale after looking Sarah's terrifying appearance at the video, he just felt very strange.

The strangeness made his pupils almost unable to find the focal length.

Sarah was his first love.

He will always remember that he saw her smile like a clean white camellia, pure and beautiful.

Now, how did she become like this?

He thought that the woman who abused animals was the wife he married.

Rodney felt that his scalp was numb and there was even a hint of terror.

He regretted it, really regretted it. He shouldn't have married this woman.

"Don't bring Sarah over in the future otherwise we will have to shut you out.

Rodney, you can go back now." Wendy said ruthlessly.

"Mom, if... .. If... this is true, I'll find a chance in the future and I'll divorce Sarah." Rodney finally calmed down and said stumblingly.

"But about the video, tell me where it came from?, I will never let people spread it out and affect the reputation of the Snow family."

After all, Jason was someone who had been in the mall for decades and quickly understood what he meant.

He was silent with a cold face.

Rodney clenched his fists tightly and said in a low voice, "Actually, I recently found out that Freya didn't hurt Sarah in the first place. I misunderstood Freya before think about it carefully. There are some things I do not many and...after marrying Sarah, I am also very tired. I think about Dani and regret hurting Freya. I think...I want to make up for them."

After saying these words, his whole body relaxed.

It turned out that this was what he was saying from the bottom of his heart.

He was fed up with this kind of life, especially seeing Sarah's terrifying appearance. he didn't want to go back to face this woman.

He has always thought of Freya these days.

He wanted to go back to that time.

"Mom and dad, you also hope that Dani can grow up in a healthy family. After Freya and I remarried, Dani will be able to accompany you as before."

Rodney looked at his parents hopefully. "Mom and Dad, I didn't want to divorce Freya at first. if I didn't think Sarah was hurt by her. I thought she was vicious to Sarah, we wouldn't be where we are today, I don't love Sarah anymore. I married her purely to make up for it but now I find that everything is wrong, it's ridiculous."

" Mom and Dad, Help me."

Rodney begged to say what was in his heart.

In the courtyard, only the chirping of birds on the eaves was heard.

Jason and Wendy looked at Rodney with complicated eyes at the same time.

Rodney felt uneasy when he was watching his Mom and Dad.

"Don't talk about it." Wendy held her forehead, "You want us to destroy the video for you and then there is no evidence. you can go to fight for Dani's custody without any worries. Freya is dedicated to the child. Maybe she will get back with you again, is that so?"

Rodney pursed his pale thin lips. He admitted that he was despicable but couldn't deceive himself. He missed the years when he was in love with Freya.

"My God." Wendy took a deep breath, "How could I give birth to such a brazen and selfish son as you, do you really think your parents are old enough to be shameless?"

Rodney was shocked and said embarrassedly: "Mom, I don't you like Freya's daughter-in-law very much."

"We like her but you don't think about the things you do."

Jason couldn't bear to scold, "Rodney, you cheated in your marriage and had a child also and then divorced Freya. you married Sarah in a week in a high-profile manner and you do everything without thinking about your ex-wife. You want us to support your divorce and find your ex-wife to get back together. What do you think of marriage? What, is it child's play?"

Wendy was so angry that he cried, "Rodney, why did you become like this?"

Jason said angrily: "I tell you, the video was sent by Ryan. I didn't say delete it. If you want delete it, you can. Don't look at me and get out from here. I never want to see disgusting thing in my life."

Jason grabbed the broom in the corridor and slapped Rodney.

Rodney stood numbly. He didn't feel any pain. The only uncomfortable thing was that when he met his parents' disgusting eyes, his heart trembled and couldn't stay any longer, so he turned and left the palace..

Is he disgusting?

Yes, he felt pretty disgusting himself.

But if nausea can bring him back to the past, he is willing to be disgusted once.

This kind of life is so tiring.

Why did he live like this.

Rodney's eyes were red.

When the driver took him back to the villa, Sarah was sitting in the restaurant enjoying the mutton soup which was cooked by the nanny.

Seeing Rodney coming back, Sarah's eyes lit up and she quickly greeted him in a wheelchair and held his hand, "Rodney, didn't you say it will take two days to come back?, I just made the mutton soup. Can you take a bowl of soup?"

Rodney looked at the beautiful little face in front of him with a complex mood, and he remembered her appearance in the video.

How can a woman be so fickle.

He suddenly dragged his hand, only to feel that the places she touched were cold.

"What's wrong with you?" Sarah froze slightly.

Rodney glanced at the nanny in the house, "You guys go out first."

Soon there were only two people left in the living room. Sarah tried to reach out to touch him but Rodney avoided it.

"Sarah, someone captured the video of your cruelty to animals." Rodney said complicatedly, "Will you be so happy by cutting the belly of a live cat with scissors?"

Sarah's body froze. she said these things It was all done in private and secretly, how could he know?

"Sarah, You don't have to deny it. I've watched the video and that was you." Rodney asked with a gloomy expression, "You are so scary, I spent so much money to heal your hands and not to let you kill your life."

"No... No, Rodney, I don't want this."

Sarah broke down and cried, "Since I was kidnapped by Eliza, I always have nightmares every night and I am very mad and depressed and need to vent but can't tell you. I'm afraid You're bored and sometimes I can't control myself."

"Then why don't you take medicine if you're a psychiatrist yourself." Rodney roared, "You are hurting animals, I thought oneday You will kill me instead of animals. Stop this non-sense things. you are my wife and remember it, once these video leaked, it will have a big impact on my company and I may even go bankrupt."

"No...it's impossible." Sarah was stunned.

"Why is it impossible? Since my divorce, my reputation has been very bad. Many women are boycotting Osher Corporation. If my wife's animal cruelty is exposed, it will not only cause a sensation but the Snow family will also be implicated."

Rodney couldn't control it any longer and said with crying, "Don't you understand the principle of getting treatment when you're sick? Did you know that I originally planned to appeal to get back Dani's custody. Now Ryan has your animal cruelty video in his hand and he will definitely help Freya and I have no chance of winning the appeal."

Sarah: "Rodney, Why are you crying? it's me who should be crying. Okay, you're being punished. Kidnapping and bodily injury have nothing to do with me at all. You caused Eliza's jealousy and hatred. For you, I took up my own marriage, children and even every time I went to Snow's house, my parents were scolded. Now I was slapped by him today."

Rodney: "Why did you come back in the first place?"

Sarah: "Because of you, my life has been ruined. Rodney, it was all your fault and you held a grand wedding. As a result, no one from the Snow family came over. Now the outside world thinks that I was abandoned by the Snow family. Because of this, I have repeatedly hit a wall in my work. Even when I went to R country this time, I was talk about it and It's gone."

"I beg you, can you please stop holding me back?"

"Every day, can you stop?"

"You look really scary right now, you know." The man's roaring voice echoed in the living room.

Rodney didn't want to endure it any longer, his dissatisfaction had all exploded these days.

Tears rolled down Sarah's face.

A panic surged in her heart, if Rodney didn't want her at this time then she would have nothing.

"It turns out... It turns out that Rodney, you hate me so much now, then I'll die. I won't hold you back anymore. It just so happens that I don't want to live for a long time."

Sarah turned around and resolutely turned aside. She slammed into the table and blood splattered from her forehead.

"Sarah..."

Rodney was startled and hurried over to support her.

Sarah looked at him weakly and desperately, "Rodney... I'm sorry, I'm too tired and let me die, and I... I hate myself now."

After speaking, Sarah pretended to faint.

Rodney quickly picked her up and rushed to the hospital.

When Sarah was sent to the rescue room again, Rodney leaned against the wall with a numb expression.

Tired, too tired.

Sarah was like a heavy burden, pressing him all the time and out of breath.

Now, Rodney can't get rid of it. He really got rid of it, in case Sarah committed suicide again.

Rodney covered his eyes with his hands and was feeling extremely decadent.

.....

Country F.

Freya returned to the apartment after get off work, she immediately threw herself on the bed and chatted with Ryan on the phone.

"What, Rodney told his parents that he wanted to divorce Sarah and then remarry me?"
Hearing this news, Freya shocked. No, it was not just a shock but disgust arrive.

"Well, Brother Rodney came to the old house today and Aunty Loretta secretly overheard what the three of them were saying in the courtyard."

Ryan told her without concealment, "Brother Rodney meant to let the uncle take out Sarah. without evidence of Sarah's video of animal cruelty, he can successfully appeal and when win the custody of your daughter, you will definitely be reluctant to bear Dani and maybe you will remarry him."

"It's too shameless."

Freya angrily scolded, "He is really a shameless bottom line that has been refreshed again and again, he was the one who cheated at the beginning and was the one who was going to marry Sarah. Now he wants to remarry me after the divorce. he's crazy, It is just kidding for marriage in his eyes. What is it?, is he playing?"

She was completely disgusted.

In the past, I felt that Rodney was too easy to be played around by the white lotus flower Sarah.

It was only now that she realized that Rodney's heart was beginning to crook and he was simply unscrupulous in order to achieve his goals.

Freya couldn't imagine that if Ryan hadn't helped her, Dani might have been taken away by Rodney.

At that time, she will definitely worry about the child and might be entangled by Rodney again.

Just thinking about it Freya trembled, "Then what about your uncle and the others? They won't support him."

"That's not true. Listening to Aunty Loretta, my uncle scolded him for being shameless and even kicked Brother Rodney out with a broom."

"That's good." Freya breathed a sigh of relief and afraid that Jason and Wendy would be pushed to success by Rodney.

Ryan smiled and said, "Uncle and the others are selfish sometimes but they still know how to be shameless. For some things, Brother Rodney has done too much and they don't have the face to turn you back."

"If they help Rodney I won't let Dani get close to them in the future." Freya said in a low voice.

"No, by the way, I received the news that Rodney took Sarah to the hospital. I heard that she was injured in the head..."

Freya pouted, "It must be Rodney who watched the video and went back to trouble her. She had no choice but used suicide to win forgiveness."

Ryan smiled lightly and teased, "You know her tricks very well. "

What's the use of committing suicide, it's just the beginning."

"Huh?"

"I mean let Rodney take a good look at it, what kind of devil woman has he gotten into? It will definitely make him miserable." Freya said lightly.

"Well, I think Brother Rodney seems to have... a lot of vicissitudes." Ryan paused then quickly said, "Freya, if Brother Rodney really gets divorced, he also knows it's wrong and wants to get it back. You, will look back. After all, you have a common child..."

Freya scolded coldly "Ryan, what do you think of me? Am I stupid? Rodney hurt me so much and I still look back, is there no man in the world? Isn't my current boyfriend good? My current boyfriend is younger and handsomer, gentler and smarter than him and considerate to his family, although he is not Dani's biological father but treats Dani better than her own. I was stupid to go back and pick up a dirty man who was married for a second time.

"You're right."

Ryan smiled happily over the phone.

He clearly understood that in Freya's world, Rodney had been completely kicked out even the father of the child.

After ending the call, Ryan held the red wine glass and looked at the bright moon outside the window. The moonlight reflected the exquisite light in his eyes, "Brother Rodney don't blame me, you killed yourself."

He knew very well that Rodney would come today, so he deliberately Let Aunty Loretta pay attention.

Sure enough, what Rodney did was always unexpected.

Originally, he didn't need to tell Freya these words.

However, telling her would make Freya even more disgusting with Rodney.

Even for the sake of the children, Freya would no longer give Rodney a chance.

What he needs to do is to completely cut off the relationship between the two people. What will Rodney regret in the future? if the regretful bowels come out, it will be useless.

...

the same night.

In Hill's Villa, Catherine was leaning lazily on the balcony with holding a phone in her hand, "Matthew, you can arrange for your friend to return to Australia, Yu'er is almost ready."

"Sister Catherine, isn't it a woman? I Move your fingers a little and you can easily disappear." Matthew's tone was full of disdain.

"Easy disappearing is sometimes a relief." Catherine said casually, "I like to watch her suffer slowly and my hands will not be stained with blood."

"Tsk, what a black belly." Matthew groaned but his voice laughed happily. "Okay, then I'll arrange to come over."

End the call.

A slender arm surrounded the woman's sexy body from behind.

"Cathy, fortunately I am honest and responsible every day now. Otherwise I offend you. I don't know how I would die." After Shaun's voice ended above her head, the man's arm turned around her body and kissed her on the forehead.

"It's good if you know."

Catherine raised her head and looked at the man's star-like eyes and hung her arms around his neck with a smile, "I have never been a soft-hearted woman."

"I understand, thank you for your forgiveness. He gave me a chance to be reborn."

Shaun hugged her deeply, "Cathy, I used to be stupid and did a lot of wrong things, I should have dated you but I shouldn't have treated Sarah. Sarah is so soft-hearted. when a man gets married and except for his wife, he should keep a distance from the opposite sex otherwise Sarah will not have the opportunity to take advantage of it."

"You should be glad that at least during the years I left, you didn't have an affair with Sarah. I didn't marry Sarah otherwise I wouldn't give you any chance."

Catherine pinched his waist angrily, "Shaun, I warn you, don't go to Rodney for my plan. Time to tip off."

"If you don't let me say it, I definitely won't say it. I'm not a stupid guy. you and the child are the most important things in my heart." Shaun hugged her while eyes darkened, "Sarah hurt you and your child so cruelly but now it's normal to take revenge."

"Well, it's not just me but Freya and Charity, I can't do that."

Catherine's eyes flickered coldly, " Since Rodney has decided to stand in front of her, I can only clear him as a stumbling block."

Chapter 2258

A week later.

Sarah was discharged from the hospital.

Since she was admitted to the hospital, Rodney has basically never been there except for the first day. Sarah stayed in the hospital and Rodney asked the nanny to accompany Sarah.

This made Sarah's temper more and more irritable.

After returning to the villa, Rodney didn't come back at all.

Sarah shied away from her work and asked the nanny to remind her to take depression medicine on time.

She went to the company to find Rodney but he was not in the company. so he always said he was busy on the phone.

At home, Sarah lost her temper hysterically every day and smashed things. Sometimes nanny couldn't bear it. If it weren't for the high salary, she would want to quit her job.

But Sarah didn't dare to lose her temper with Rodney anymore.

She was not stupid. she felt that Rodney didn't indulge her like before, because Rodney already knew that her injury was not caused by Freya and it had nothing to do with him, so he didn't feel so apologetic anymore.

She had trouble with Rodney again at this time, it was very likely that she would lose all the affection and Rodney might divorce her at that time.

When Sarah really leaves Rodney, she will have nothing.

She felt regretful when thought that Rodney, who was as stupid as a pig actually began to despise him.

She should never have come back but unfortunately she has no way back.

Rodney refused to come back and he couldn't abuse animals. Sarah couldn't take it anymore, so she could only go to the street to buy.

One day in the shopping mall.

When nanny pushed her to go shopping slowly, a foreign man looked down at his mobile phone and bumped into her directly.

"Sorry, are you alright?" The man hurriedly sounded with a reflex unique to foreigners.

Sarah suppressed her anger and wanted to burst out. She saw a Rolex watch on the other party's wrist and her heart tightened. It was a special limited edition launched in the past two years. It is said that it was only released worldwide. The price of this watch is as high as five million. In fact, it is more rare that the money can not buy it.

The reason was that she originally wanted to buy it for Shaun, but she didn't and Shaun comforted her later.

Unexpectedly, the man appeared in front of him.

What it means, it means that the absolute worth and status of the man in front of him are very unusual.

At that moment, Sarah quickly had an idea in her heart.

She frowned while covering her knees in pain. her little face looked painful, "My feet..."

"Your feet... What's wrong with your feet. "The man panicked.

The nanny behind her also said anxiously, "How do you walk? Is there something goes wrong...?"

Sarah interrupted her quickly, showing a weak look that she didn't want to embarrass the other party.

"Sorry, I'll take you to the hospital right away." The man said, and hurriedly picked up Sarah and ran to the elevator.

"Hey, wait for me." The nanny hurriedly followed.

Sarah secretly raised her head in the man's arms and looked at the man's appearance.

The young foreigner was already not bad. He was 1.9 meters tall with a burly body, blond hair, a very straight nose and a pair of eyes looked very honest. And his clothes were also expensive.

Chapter 2259

Although the man in front of him didn't have Rodney's pretty face, status also his worth, and prospects were definitely better than Rodney's.

It just so happened that Rodney didn't want to see her now, and it was time for her to get ready to leave.

Fortunately, my face is okay, as for my legs and feet....

It really doesn't work with hypnotism that she really wanted to take down this man.

After arriving at the hospital, Nanny anxiously wanted to contact Rodney.

Sarah hurriedly stopped her and said tearfully, "Don't bother him. if you contact him, he won't come. He dislikes me for being a lame man and I know that he's embarrassed."

Nanny did not say any more.

The man on the side was full of sympathy, "Your husband is going too far."

"It's normal for him to dislike me like this." Sarah covered her leg in pain and said.

"It doesn't matter, since I bumped into you, I will accompany you and bear the medical expenses." The man pushed her to go for the X-ray.

Sarah had something wrong with her legs but after a check-up in a hospital she had never been to the doctor prescribed some medicine.

After the inspection, the man took out his mobile phone, "Well, I'll tell you my phone number. If you still feel uncomfortable afterward, you can contact me again. My name is Gideon."

"Okay." Sarah wrote down his number and Put away the phone.

Gideon looked at her and smiled, "Aren't you afraid that I'll lie to you if you don't dial my number?"

"Ah?" Sarah was stunned for a while, showing her ignorance, "It shouldn't... , you are so good if you lied to me, you wouldn't have accompanied me for such a long time. Gideon, you are a good person."

Gideon showed an admiring smile, "You are quite fond of it, I will take you back."

Taking Sarah to the villa all the way, Gideon didn't leave in a hurry but waited for Sarah to enter, the corner of his mouth curled into an intriguing smile.

Not a long after leaving Matthew's phone came in, "How is it?"

"This woman is a b*tch."

Gideon smiled, "I haven't even started hooking her, she can't wait to approach me when she sees my watch."

"Haha, she definitely knows the watch that my sister was looking for." Matthew said, "But you have to be careful, don't show your tricks."

"Don't worry, she is more eager for watch than me, I just have to throw a bait. She will take the initiative to contact me. It is not difficult at all to kidnap her to bed."

"Brother, I have wronged you." Matthew said with a smile.

"What is there to be wronged? Anyway, a woman is needed to solve her needs but it's just a change of woman as long as she is not sick." Gideon thought about it, "this kind of woman can definitely be let go in bed."

"take it easy yourself."

The weather is getting warmer. and this time, Freya came back from training.

This time, the company personally dispatched a team to pick up the plane. Not only company colleagues but also several reporters were arranged to come to the scene.

Freya and Sylvie walked out of the exit gate. Colleagues outside held a piece of red silk and satin that read: [Warmly welcome the Freycatheli research team to return from Quel's Inspection.]

Inspection.....

Freya's mouth twitched, she wasn't knowing whether to laugh or cry but said that the difference between inspection and training is worlds apart.

Immediately afterwards, Catherine brought flowers to her and Sylvie.

When it was Freya's turn, she pinched Catherine's back speechlessly, "So many tricks, what's the matter?"

"As for the news later" Catherine whispered, "Let the outside world know that our Freycatheli is already in track with the big international brands."

Freya: "..."

After the end of reporter's interview, Freya had time to look around.

"What are you looking at? Get in my car." Catherine pulled her over and said with a smile.

"Ryan didn't come to pick me up, it's totally unreasonable." Freya lost her temper unhappily.

Chapter 2260

"Then did you say let him pick me up?"

"I said the company team will come to pick up, he doesn't have to." Freya snorted coldly, "But what the women say is the opposite? I'm on a business trip For two months, I said that if I don't let him come, I really won't come, it's too unqualified."

"It makes sense, why don't we break up." Catherine said calmly, "Isn't it just a man, three things? Legs are everywhere."

"..."

Freya blinked and said nothing.

Catherine "puchi" smiled, "Reluctant?"

She walked to her car, Catherine unlocked it.

Freya opened the door and answered bravely, "Cough, there is nothing to bear, after all this is not the president's son and another piece of fresh meat. it is a pity to split it up before I fall asleep."

Catherine, who was putting her luggage in the back, gave her a very subtle look, "Want to sleep with him?"

After Freya sat up, she found that the flower in her hand was too big so she wanted to put the flower in the back seat.

As soon as she turned around, he found that there seemed to be a tall figure sitting in the back seat.

She stiffened.

Until the man stretched out his hand, revealing a handsome and elegant face with a pair of dark pupils filled with a meaningful smile, "I'll hold it for you, baby."

"..."

At that moment Freya seemed to be killed on the spot. Cathy, let her calm down and think about what she said when she got in the car just now.

It is a pity to say that he was the son of the prime minister.

He also said that if you don't sleep, you won't sleep.

Omg, is there a thing that can turn back time.

Ah ah ah, why didn't Catherine remind her.

Is it still a sister or is it a man?

She didn't want to stay anymore.

"What's the matter, baby?" Ryan tilted his head with a smile, "I haven't seen you for two months and Freya, didn't just say you wanted to sleep with me?"

Freya: "... "

I came to the scene of the death of a large society again.

When Catherine came in, she only saw that her little face was blushing and dripping.

She "puchi" a smile. No one knows Freya better than her. Usually, she and her good sisters have no scruples in private but when facing men, they are cruel to women from good families.

Freya glared at Cathy "Ryan was in the car, why didn't you tell me?"

"Ryan said me as he wanted to surprise you." Catherine shrugged.

"Is this a surprise? This is a fright." Freya wanted to cry.

"You have to sit in the front, don't you sit in the back with me?" Ryan suddenly said with a smile, "After all, I'm still like a piece of fresh meat, so don't neglect me too much otherwise it's a pity to part with it."

"... .."

Freya had no face, curled up in the passenger seat, shivering and liked a hairless quail.

Chapter 2261

"Okay, don't make fun of her." Catherine joked, "Freya is just joking, why would I want to break up with you?"

"That's right, that's it." Freya said quickly, "It's just bragging."

Catherine: "..."

The good sisters are too timid, looking at this cautious appearance, the words on the lips are calm and the heart is tight.

"Okay, come sit in the back." Ryan hooked her fingers with smiled.

"...Uh, forget it. I'm too tired to move." Freya continued to shrink back into the chair and wishing to bury herself.

Seeing this, Catherine started the car.

Due to the presence of a man in the back, the topic of girlfriends has been restrained a lot.

"By the way, Eliza said to see if you are free today, please have a meal together." Catherine said jokingly, "We all know that you are definitely not in the mood today."

"Well, I miss Dani very much." Freya could not wait to fly to Dani for the first time.

"I brought Dani back to the ministerial Palace." Ryan added later.

"I don't know if that guy still remember me." Freya was full of excitement and anticipation.

Catherine winked at her secretly, then pushed her back.

She was stunned for a while but quickly realized that she was too cold to the man behind her by saying this.

However, Catherine was still in the car and she was too embarrassed to talk about it in private between some couples.

"By the way, what have you learned there during training time?" Catherine changed the subject, "Can you develop new products this summer?"

"Yes, absolutely yes. Sylvie and I have studied it privately and we have obtained A big breakthrough..." Then, Freya quickly introduced the efficacy of the new product in detail.

40 minutes later, the car drove into Ryan's house. Freya and Ryan had secretly visited several times before.

"Isn't it going back to the ministerial Palace?" Freya was stunned.

"Ryan asked Freya to take here also said his car is here." Catherine stopped the car and raised an eyebrow at Freya ambiguously, "Anyway, his car can't enter the ministerial palace, so I'll send it to you. Come here, you can go back by yourself."

"Thank you."

Ryan got out of the car and took out the suitcase from the trunk.

Freya became flustered. To be honest, she said such ambiguous words just now and suddenly asked the two of them to be alone and her nervous heart was beating wildly.

Catherine glanced at her with a smile also said in a low voice, "I haven't had a friend for the past two months and it's duty to go back from work to see her baby and I've helped to solve you in many things.

Thank you so much.."

"...Well."

Freya nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

Some things, she is just embarrassed.

Chapter 2262

In fact, Freya and Ryan haven't seen each other in the past two months and their relationship has grown by leaps and bounds. Some of the nasty things that were rarely spoken while chatting on Whatsapp.

When both two were on Whatsapp, the consequence was Ryan who was serious in the past also said some colorful words which was made her heart beat faster every time.

She was not disgusted with that state. After all, the two were in a relationship which was a very normal relationship between man and woman. But when the two met again, the embarrassment immediately pervaded.

Because Freya clearly understood that she and Ryan may not be able to return to the simple state of kissing before.

She wasn't disgusted either, a little flustered and overwhelmed.

After Catherine's car left, Ryan grabbed her two large suitcases from left to right and stared at the woman in front of him with dark eyes without any scruples.

He hadn't seen Freya for two months and she seems to be well maintained in country F.

She used to have fair skin but now she has become even whiter and has a smooth complexion with white cheeks and no blemishes. The collagen on her face was full of tenderness. A long skirt with a small gray suit on the outside, long supple hair draped over her shoulders and pulled behind her ears at the same time, the whole person has both a woman's capable and gentle temperament in an instant and a bright moving style.

"You... why are you looking at me like that?"

Freya, who had been staring at him. Unnaturally she wanted to brush the hair on the right and found that the hair had already been pulled over.

Her hands froze, and she let it go.

"Freya Look at you, you're more beautiful than before and your skin seems to have turned more white." Ryan smiled. His Adam's apple moving slightly in the parking lot with poor lighting.

"Really, I think so too." Freya showed a little smugness when she mentioned this matter, "Sylvie who went with me in our company also said that I turned white."

"You drank milk there every day." Ryan walked to the front and back of the black Audi and put her luggage directly into the trunk.

"That's right." Freya said, "The breakfast in the laboratory over there is matched by professional nutrition chefs. It was delicious and nutritionally balanced, especially milk and yogurt. They were delicious. I usually went to the laboratory and the apartment. and I didn't went out to eat those messy things. Now I feel that my skin has improved a lot and lost weight. My body is the most perfect now."

Ryan nodded, "I heard that those big In order for the researchers to maintain the best physical strength and the strongest brain at any time, the company eats and drinks the food and that has undergone the most detailed research."

"Yes, I told the company about the diet of the staff in the research room when I came back. Nutritionally balanced as well."

"Well, get in the car." Ryan covered the trunk.

Freya was stunned for a while. she thought Ryan would take her to the two-person world, which made her feel very nervous just now. "Why, don't you want to go back to the ministerial Palace?" Ryan raised his eyebrows narrowly, "I still want to go up." "Don't be kidding, I'm going back to see Dani." Freya blushed .

she gave a stern look on her face and got into the car in embarrassment.

Ryan took the driver's seat unhurriedly. After entering, he didn't rush to fasten his seat belt. Instead, he put his left hand on the steering wheel and looked at Freya in the back seat with a faint expression.

Freya's heart stunned when she raised her head and said, "What are you doing?"

"Baby, what you said at the airport was really hurt me." Ryan's face overflowed with deep grievances, "You talk about the relationship between us very casually as you don't care about me at all. Breaking up will not hurt you, it will only be a pity."

Freya was stunned but didn't expect that what she said casually before would make him brooding until now.

Freya, you think about it carefully, if it was her. I'm afraid it would be very uncomfortable.

"No, didn't I say it is just bragging."

Freya quickly explained, "Cathy and I usually speak out in private, so Ryan, You don't take it seriously."

"But.... ..I take it seriously and I'm also a little scared. I'm afraid that I'm not important in your heart at all."

His handsome face was gloomy, his jet-black eyelashes drooped down aggrievedly and landed on the beautiful lying silkworm.

In this world, there are several women who are indifferent when they see the sad picture of the handsome, good-looking and young little guy.

Especially this person is Freya's favorite and apologetic.

At this moment, Freya's heart become a piece of sadness.

She really doesn't have much experience in coaxing men.

After being overwhelmed, her brain became hot, she took the initiative to jump over to hug his neck and kissed him on the lips, "No, no, you are very important in my heart. I like you very much. I'm embarrassed to admit my feelings in front of my friends. I promise you, I'll never say that kind of thing again."

"I like it very much." Ryan continued to be wronged and disappointed, "You said on your phone that you love me. "

...

Freya's pretty face became hot. she gritted her teeth, summoned up her courage and whispered shyly, "I love you."

They bowed their heads embarrassedly.

Ryan lowered his head and stared at the top of her head. A smile flashed in his dark eyes, "Really, you love me, am I dreaming?"

He bent down and slowly looked for her little face.

Until he couldn't escape his eyes, Freya felt ashamed. She raised her hand and punched him lightly, "Enough is enough. force me again, I will ignore you."

"Where am I forcing you, I was just hurt by you and panicked."

Ryan held her small fist and clenched it into his chest, "I love you too, my love will only be more than you." After the low-mellow voice fell, he quickly leaned down and pressed deep kiss on her lips.

"You're not angry anymore?" Freya hugged his neck and her round eyes sparkling.

"I've never been angry at all. I only sad, understand." Ryan finished speaking and kissed again.

This time it was no longer a simple kiss but a long and passionate kiss after a long separation. He drove straight in and out like she deeply explained what is missing, what is excitement, and what is love.

Freya was hot all over by his kiss.

On the plane back, she thought about what it would be like to meet Ryan.

Is it like kissing each other as soon as they meet on TV, or hugging and circling.

She just imagined a picture like that, she was nervous and shy, and there was a little expectation.

"Baby, you just said that you are in the most perfect shape now, let me see."

Unconsciously, the kiss changed in quality.

There was the sound of rustling clothes in the car.

Freya scratched at him shyly, "Ryan, you are a stinky hooligan." The man's low voice sounded, "Well, it's really perfect, the places that shouldn't be fat have lost weight, and the places that should be fat haven't changed, I like it" The ambiguous words of "Boom" were like a lighter lit fireworks which exploded hot.

Freya was ashamed and took a bite on her mouth badly."

"Ryan, you said that I'm not a badass but like a little fresh meat. "

Chapter 2264

Ryan buried his face on her fragrant shoulders, "When will you let me dedicate myself to this little fresh meat, didn't you say that I won't sleep for nothing?" While Freya wanted to burrow into the ground, his heart was unsatisfactory.

Before she could react, Ryan's deep kiss fell again.

The temperature in the car rose. Freya was instinctively bewitched by the breath on her body and slowly kissed him back.

After a long time, her mind was like a mess.

Until her lips left a little, Freya could see his blushing handsome face clearly. The tip of his heart was scratched and she rushed out, "Okay, Next time, I didn't take a bath today..."

After finishing speaking, her whole body was indented into his chest.

Ryan hugged her tightly and laughed softly, "Okay, next time." He didn't plan on what to do today, he knew that Freya was worried about the child in her heart and she would be absent-minded if she was forced to take her up.

"Don't make me wait too long." Ryan kissed her forehead and said hoarsely.

Freya tugged at his zipper and whispered, "You've changed, it wasn't like this before."

"Well, you should be proud that you pulled a handsome gentleman down from the altar." Ryan chuckled, "You said Why are you so attractive? did you change from a fairy?"

"You are a fairy." Freya was amused by him, "In my opinion, you are not a handsome gentleman, you are pretending."

"I didn't pretend." Ryan said helplessly, "I used to think that I could be pure-hearted and have few desires and I could maintain a good self-cultivation with anyone. After meeting you, everything changed. At first, I just felt that I could touch it. Your head is enough and then I want to hold your little hand, and then I want to kiss you, and now...you know."

Ryan kissed again after speaking as he couldn't kiss Freya enough.

The two spent half an hour in the car.

When they were separated, Freya gradually adapted to the state that the two were in love like glue and paint....

These words flashed through her mind.

A small face that was originally beautiful even more radiant and radiant with love.

It turns out that Both were loving each other very much.

There will be no sense of security.

She can demand freely.

On the way back to the ministerial Palace.

Ryan directly showed his mobile phone to Freya to watch Dani's videos during this period.

Freya watched sweetly. After watching it before she reached her destination. she clicked on his Whatsapp again and then quietly glanced at Ryan which driving beside her, "I think it doesn't matter to know you mobile phone password."

The mobile phone password is "Add your birthday to our date" Ryan said generously.

That means she can just look at it.

Freya smiled, lowered her head and started fiddling with his mobile phone and then found that many women approached him on Whatsapp. some he ignored and politely refused. Some just ended the topic and also some leaving the conversation speechless.

"Can't you tell, you're quite popular?" Freya hummed, "Why are there so many girls Whatsapp messages on your phone and the photos are pretty good looking?"

"Some are rich family members and Some of the children of politicians, relatives, and colleagues at work. But I have no ambiguity and have not given them a chance. This shows that the person you love is not very bad and you have a good eye. Ryan explained with a smile."

"Freya rolled her eyes at him, "I want to block all the girls number on your whatsapp."

"Freya, As your wish." Ryan said nonchalantly.

"You really don't mind? These are all connections and resources " Freya was surprised.

Chapter 2265

"It's good if you know." Freya was sweet in his heart and leaned in and kissed him on the cheek.

His hand holding the steering wheel trembled and he reluctantly touched her little hand, "Dear Freya, I'm driving, don't tease me."

Freya blinked innocently, "It's nothing, it's just a kiss."

"I only... It's nothing for you."

Ryan chuckled and his voice full of doting.

Freya curled her mouth.

After divorced, she had always been quite unconfident in herself. Now the confidence was slowly regained from Ryan..

After returning to the ministerial Palace.

Freya immediately found Dani who was held by Aunty Loretta.

Dani, I haven't seen you for two months. you have grown up a lot and now you look more cute and beautiful than before and little face is more fleshy.

It can be seen that Dani had a good life when Freya was not there. She was sad and happy.

"Dani, do you still remember me, I'm Mommy." Freya kissed Dani fiercely.

Dani blinked her big black eyes ignorantly, as she felt that the woman in front of her smelled a little familiar but couldn't remember it. But that doesn't stop her from naturally liking her mother.

"Yeah..." Dani pulled her hair curiously.

"Ouch.."

Baby, don't pull your mommy's hair." Aunty Loretta said anxiously.

"It doesn't matter." Freya was in a bit of pain but now as long as her daughter is happy.

"Dani, Mommy bought you a lot of toys and milk powder as well as food and clothes." In fact, these things can be found in Australia. I bought it for you.

Before Freya came back, she went to the 'mother and baby shop' in country F and purchased many baby products and foods. Due to some large size boxes it could not fit to carry through flight and wanted to left those.

Just as Ryan came in pushing the suitcase, she quickly asked Ryan to open it.

There is a box full of them all belonging to Dani alone.

Dani saw so many colorful things. her eyes lit up and she shouted to go over to see it.

Freya took apart all the toys and showed them to Dani. Freya and Dani slowly got to know each other.

In the evening.

Nathan and Heidi came back.

Freya hurriedly sent the gifts prepared abroad, "Aunty, these are the bags and high-heeled shoes I bought for you. They are the latest models. You often attend various dinner parties, so you will definitely need them.

" Hey.."

Heidi nodded in admiration, these things must be very expensive to the touch but they are not luxury goods. they should be relatively high-end foreign brands that are not outstanding.

For her status as the Primeminister's wife, such a brand is the most suitable for her.

Nathan also said with a smile: "My sweater is pretty good too, it's just right to wear now."

Freya grinned and echoed: "It's my honor that the prime minister and the prime minister's wife can wear what I gave them. "

It's just your sweet mouth." Heidi joked with a smirk, "How about it? After spending two months abroad, have you met any handsome guys? Wouldn't you just focus on work and not fall in love?"

Freya Embarrassed. She glanced at Ryan subconsciously and said with a smile, "Mom, you are quite open-minded. Dad, you have to keep an eye on Mom, don't let her go abroad alone, it's not safe."

Nathan pretended to be angry and snorted, "Damn, I'm afraid that you will dislike me as a bad old man. Men from abroad are tall and fierce."

"I'm asking Freya, you have to pull me into the water. ." Heidi glared at Nathan angrily, "Don't I hope that she will start a new relationship as soon as possible. Freya, don't miss the most beautiful love years while you are young."

Freya felt a little guilty. She certainly did not miss it.

Heidi has already talked to Freya's daughter.

Chapter 2266

Nathan nodded, "Yes, you can talk about it when you meet the right one, don't be like someone..."

After finishing speaking, Freya's disgusting eyes fell on Ryan, "It's been there until now. Damn, if you dare to bring me a man back someday, I promise to break your leg."

"Dad, I'm either going off work or going to the old house every day during this time. So how can I bring you a man? Come back." Ryan said angrily.

"Snapped".

Nathan put the chopsticks down, "Just in time, Freya is back. Ryan, don't need to worry about Dani and you're messing around with those messy people again, I'll have someone transfer you to the ministerial Palace tomorrow. The chief secretary of the future strategy."

Freya was startled.

Ryan stayed for a few seconds, then smiled: "Dad, I did a good job at the grassroots level, and you said at the beginning, if I didn't get married and have children, you would let me work at the grassroots level for the rest of my life."

Nathan was an ugly face on the spot, "Do you think I want to put you at the grassroots level and idle around all day? everyone outside is saying that you are shameless. I can keep an eye on you and pack your things and roll over for me tomorrow."

"I know, I know." Ryan frowned and responded reluctantly.

"What's your attitude?" Nathan said unhappily, "How many people are jealous of the position of chief secretary and think that they don't have this chance. Don't be in the midst of happiness and not be ignorant of happiness."

"Dad, I was wrong. I must be by your side and Work hard."

Ryan quickly answered honestly.

"Be proud of yourself."

Nathan quickly ate dinner and left with a livid face to deal with government affairs.

Seeing this, Heidi sighed and said, "Ryan, you are not too young. you should be sensible even you can't be the president in the future. at least when your father retires, you can make some beautiful achievements and become a minister."

"Oh, I see."

Ryan bowed his head in response.

After eating, Freya stayed and chatted with Heidi for a while before returning to the residence.

Dani hasn't slept yet.

She took the gift and pushed Dani to find Ryan next room.

After ringing the doorbell for a while, no one opened the door.

When she wanted to make a call, the door suddenly opened.

Ryan was standing at the door wearing a dark blue nightgown. His short black hair had not been dried yet. It looked like he had taken a shower in a hurry. However, the bathrobe was tight and his chest was not half exposed. Freya wanted to see how his chest was half-open.

cough cough.

Freya's embarrassed face became slightly hot when she realized that such a ridiculous thought flashed through her mind.

She really can't blame her, who made Ryan look more fresh and clean after bathing and even eyes were like obsidian that had been washed in the deep night and bright and whole body was filled with a nobleness that could not be desecrated.

"Ah..."

Dani saw Ryan, her eyes lit up and she immediately waved her little hands to hug.

"Dani, Are you missing Uncle." Ryan bent over and hugged Dani in the cart, "Come in quickly, it's cold outside."

He took Dani and walked in first.

Freya awkwardly pushed the cart in. She hesitated for a moment and asked weakly, "Would you like to... close the door?"

Chapter 2267

"What do you want to do to me? Freya, you can close the door." An ambiguous smile flashed in Ryan's deep eyes.

"Bah, I should have said this to you, you are a scumbag, hum."
when Freya just finished speaking, she suddenly saw her little daughter naughty ripping off the neckline of Ryan's nightgown. she was revealing it. A large piece of pearly white skin and a man's looming pectoral muscles.

"..."

She was dumbfounded. It turned out that her daughter was the ultimate hooligan.

Wait, where is my daughter's naughty little hand touching.

She never touched it.

"stop Dani, I'll be very itchy if you do this." Ryan helplessly pulled away Dani's little hand.

Dani shouted "Eahahahah" as she thought that Ryan was playing with her and the trouble became more vigorous.

"Do you want to lift it high?" Ryan lifted Dani up high.

After playing a few back and forth, the Dani's laughter echoed in the living room.

Freya stunned when she looked at them.

Dani really likes Ryan but she is not so happy with herself.

She pursed her lips and said sourly, "Dani likes uncle more now."

Ryan hummed, "That's not very good, I want to be her stepfather in the future."

"who agreed with you to be her stepfather?" Freya scolded rudely.

"It's okay, I'll spoil her so much that I don't want anyone to be her step-dad." Ryan touched Dani's little nose "Dani, can you say it?"

Dani giggled.

That scene made Freya feel very complicated, so she hummed: "scheming man."

"There is no way to abduct the big beauty without a scheming." Ryan freed up his other hand and took her into his arms.

After Freya stared at Dani in his arms, her heart trembled.

This kind of warm and beautiful feeling was heartwarming.

It was as she and Dani finally had something to rely on.

But she only fell for a few seconds, then pushed his hand away and whispering: "Don't make trouble and the door is not closed."

"I knew you should have closed the door just now." Ryan smiled, "You come here. Do you have something to do with me or do you miss me?"

"After dinner, I saw it just now. what are you thinking about?" Freya said deliberately.

"Small and unconscionable." Ryan shook his head helplessly, "I just wanted to leave you, so I had to take a cold shower."

Freya: "..."

If you're going to take a cold shower, you shouldn't think about it....

Freya's face blushed under the crystal lamp.

"Why are you doing this now?" She glared at him annoyed.

"What's wrong with me?" Ryan's face was innocent, "I miss you so much, so take a cold shower to calm myself down. I don't miss you that much, can't I?"

"..."

That's all?

"Ah".

The man's playful laughter swayed coldly, "baby, What are you thinking? you don't think I..."

"Okay, don't say it anymore."

Freya almost jumped, she was not his opponent at all. If you continue to argue, you may want to sew in the ground again. "Ryan, if you keep talking, I won't give you the gift."

"It turns out that I also have gifts." Ryan said quietly, "My parents and Dani have received gifts but I didn't have them. I thought you forgot me. Am I so heartless?"

"Of course you aren't." Ryan pouted wickedly, "You deliberately gave it to me now because you wanted to use a gift to see me at night, right? You miss me."

"Ryan, that's enough... "..." Freya's face and ears were red. why was he guessed again? she had this idea, she deliberately delayed it until the evening so that she had an excuse to see him at night.

But Ryan was really annoying.

Is she shameless?

"Is that so?" Ryan's eyes lit up and hooked her lips happily, "Freya, I'm very happy, really happy."

Ryan repeated it several times and his face was full of joy.

Freya bit her lip and suddenly she wasn't so shy and replaced by a sweet taste.

"Well."

Ryan, I bought you a new set of clothes and a watch."

She handed over the bag hanging from the cradle.

"Come up, I'll try."

Ryan carried Dani and walked upstairs.

Freya hesitated for a moment and followed.

He put Dani on the bed in the bedroom then took off the bathrobe and exposing his n-a-k-e-d body to Freya.

"Ryan, you..."

Freya's face flushed instantly. she turned around subconsciously and complained, "Why don't you go for an interview."

"There are no outsiders." Ryan said low said with a smile. "...Dani is here. "She doesn't understand anything and the most important part is what I'm wearing. As for you...my body is originally It belongs to you, you don't need to dodge at all." Ryan forcibly turned his body around.

Freya's eyes just happened to see Ryan's hot figure, her body was inexplicably hot.

During the period of time when Freya was abroad, she would often look it up when she was alone in the apartment and even secretly put it into a confidential folder.

At this moment, the scenery in the photo appeared in front of her, which was even more powerful and made her heart beat faster.

"You...you go get dressed." She pushed him dodgingly.

Ryan looked at her face full of redness and shyness and was amazed.

Freya had already had children and she was shy in some ways like a little girl who had never experienced anything.

It's just that she makes Ryan want to stop.

If it wasn't for the wrong place, Ryan might really be out of control.

Soon, Ryan changed into the new clothes as Freya bought. It was a dark coffee-colored plaid suit with a light blue shirt and tie.

He rarely wears suits and occasionally attends banquets with his parents.

This was the first time Ryan wore such a youthful suit. He looked so handsome. His temperament is extraordinary and noble and even his eyebrows are noble and elegant under the light.

Freya was stunned.

The previous Ryan was still too low-key and reserved. He was the exact opposite of Rodney, one was high-profile and the other held back all the light on his body.

In fact, Ryan's appearance is not inferior to those of Shaun and Chester.

It's just that Ryan is too young, so he lacks the aura of a mature man.

But she knew that Ryan's intelligence was no worse than those people.

"What, are you dumbfounded?" Ryan raised his eyebrows and pinched the tip of Freya's nose.

"Oh, Handsome."

Freya hugged Ryan, "The clothes you used to wear are too old-fashioned."

"Well, this set is not old-fashioned. You can keep it as a bridegroom's outfit and wear it at our wedding in the future." Ryan said with a smile.

Chapter 2269

"Uh... don't need it..."

Freya was frightened.

A suit made him think of being a groom which is too jumpy.

Ryan's dark eyes flashed, "Why, never thought of marrying me one day?"

Freya was stunned, if it were any man, it would definitely be a proposition but it was her. Ryan didn't have so many concerns Instead her, "What I said that I didn't think about it?"

"I can only continue to work hard." Ryan laughed lowly, "I didn't make a woman want to marry me."

Freya suddenly felt sweet and moved, "I won't lie to you. I just got divorced not long ago and I have been hurt a lot in a relationship and it is impossible to step into it easily. Ryan, are you willing to wait for two years?"

Ryan said generously, "I'll be mature and most attractive 28 year-old guy after two years. At your age, you are not in a hurry. what else can I be in a hurry for?"

This is a flat tone.

Freya rolled her eyes at Freya angrily, "You're a amazing guy but I warn you, if you're sorry for me at all for chatting and dating with other women I will definitely not forgive you."

"Hey, I'm crazy, I already have a little rich woman who is willing to buy me a watch worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. Do I still need to find other women? Are they beautiful with you? Are they cute with you? who else can buy one get one free like you and the gift such a cute baby."

Ryan gently touched Dani's little head.

The neglected Dani didn't cry, she kept rolling on bed and playing around.

Freya smiled sweetly and said "I bought a beautiful watch for you as gift."

She gave it to Ryan.

"Will it be too expensive?" Ryan sighed, "This is the first time I have accepted such expensive things from a woman and I feel as I have been taken care of by you."

"Oh Come on, the watch you wore last time was quite expensive.

"Yes."

"It was given by Sister Jessica."

"Well, this one was given by your sister Jessica." Freya said with a smile.

Ryan rubbed his brows with a smile, "To be honest, I have never given you such an expensive thing."

"It doesn't matter, who made me rich." Freya said with a look on her face.

"Since you want to associate with me then you have to accept the gift."

Ryan made a gentleman's bow, with a charming smile on the corner of his mouth, "you can't let your money go to waste, right?"

He accepted the gift happily.

Freya looked at him, her pretty face blushing but she was still arrogant and stubborn. With a scalp, she said, "Wait, I've been busy recently when I returned to Australia. I will arrange for the secretary to find a time to pamper you."

"Okay, I'm waiting For."

With ambiguous eyes, Ryan held Freya's hand and kissed the back of her hand.

"Okay, don't make trouble. The gift is delivered to you. Now I have to leave." Freya felt her face getting hotter, and turned around to hug Dani.

Ryan sent her downstairs.

Freya suddenly remembered something and said with a smile: "By the way, I haven't congratulated you yet. I have become the secretary by the president's side. Although I don't know much about it. It seems to be quite powerful."

"Forget it, it's not my dad . I've been too tired recently. All the secretaries around him are working on small abacus and they can't handle things easily. There are quite a lot of small abacuses and they are still the easiest for me to use ."

Ryan shrugged, "Actually, I really don't want to go. Being a secretary is too busy and tiring. I still like to work at the grassroots level. There are not many things to do and I can clock in and leave work on time. I used to want to climb up to earn more money but now I don't need that. Well, after all, I've already been with a rich woman."

Freya: "..."

Ryan patted her head, "I try to help your brother more and let your Lynch Corporation be bigger in the future.

Your status is also higher as for me. I can be a salted fish behind you sooner and I am willing to be the man behind a successful woman."

"Puchi"

Freya couldn't help laughing, "Don't make trouble."

"Good to be honest, after I take office tomorrow, I will be very busy." Ryan sighed, "As you can see from my dad, I rarely go home for dinner."

Freya blinked, "Then what should I do? It's easy to come back..."

And wait for her to arrange a day to spoil her....

"That's why I said that I don't want to go. I'm not being favored by you. I'm not in the mood to do things well." Ryan winked at her playfully.

Freya finally fled. She is still not as thick-skinned as Ryan.

It's just that the favored thing will be postponed and she feels a little lost in her heart....

No, don't even think about it.

When did she become so pale.

Sure enough, he was brainwashed by Catherine.

...

Freya rested with Dani at home for two days.

On the third day, she was really bored and started going to work.

When Catherine saw her coming, she was very surprised, "Didn't the company arrange for you and Sylvie to accompany your family this week? You can come back to work next Monday."

"My family is not in the capital as for my godfather. Mom is busy every day in the office." Freya sighed, "Ryan has also been transferred to the ministerial Palace to be a secretary. He is very busy. He worked overtime and didn't return until 11 o'clock. I didn't see it, so I came to work when I was bored."

"...Well, I thought you would go back to date Ryan, and come for a firewood..." Catherine held her grudge against her. Looking at her, she hurriedly coughed twice, "Just kidding."

"Do I look so hungry?" Freya snorted, "don't think of me as you and Shaun."

"What happened to us, we all It's almost an old husband and wife." Catherine smiled, "But I didn't expect Ryan to be promoted so quickly. I'm afraid he's the youngest secretary of the ministerial palace, if you marry him in the future, maybe it's really possible to sit down Take the position of the Prime minister's wife."

Freya was startled, "What are you kidding."

"I'm not kidding with Ryan's ability and age. He will at least be able to sit at the minister's position in the future." Catherine reminded earnestly, "He's only in his twenties."

Freya was stunned, she really didn't think about the problem that far, "I was a few days ago. The meaning of chatting with the godmother is that I intend to let him train as a secretary for two years and when his qualifications are polished, he will be transferred to be a minister."

"Tsk tsk, I didn't expect it." Catherine looked at her with a smile.

"I didn't expect anything." Freya was inexplicable.

Catherine sais to freya, "It's okay, no matter whether you will marry Ryan in the future, Ryan will stand in that position and maybe your name will be in the books of the prime minister of Australia."

Also Catherine teased, "Maybe someone will write an autobiography for you from time to time and I have already thought of the title for you, "The Woman Who Can Handle the prime minister," "The Lover Who Will Never Forget in the prime minister's Life," and "The Life of the Youngest prime minister's Wife in Australia."

Freya was speechless.

Her mouth twitched, "Cathy, You can help me think about different kinds of destiny. It's amazing. You're not afraid that my relationship with Ryan will be shaken out and become his stain. Don't say continue If you rise up and you may be scolded to death."

"That's not in a hurry, I also helped you think of the title of the book, such as "The Absurd Life of the prime minister's Son and Goddaughter"."

Freya: "..."

She was no longer able to complain, "Cathy, I found that the prime minister who made your heart look so wronged you, you should be an editor."

"It's too young to be an editor." Catherine blinked. He blinked his eyes, as he should have said.

Freya was speechless again.

"Freya, Let me show you something." Catherine turned on her phone and clicked in the secret photo album and handed it to Freya.

Freya took a closer look and was inexplicable, "Who is this and Why are you showing me his bed photo?"

"Look at, this is Sarah. Okay, she looks like after plastic surgery." Catherine nodded at the desktop reminder.

"This is Sarah?" Freya remembered the last time when she met Sarah in the restaurant and it was quite scary at that time, "The scars on the face is gone, this plastic surgery technique is quite amazing."

Catherine had a black line on her forehead, "Is the key point now is plastic surgery technology? She was admitted by Gideon to bed."

"So soon...turned into bed?"

Freya's views were shocked, "You told me only a month ago to arrange for someone to contact her, which is too fast."

"It's us. It's too conservative. many adult men and women go to bed the next day and it's not that they've just rolled the sheets recently, they've just gotten to know each other for less than half a month." Catherine laughed, "Gideon said that Sarah took the initiative in this regard. he has a lot of tricks and contact every three or five times and every time he almost drains his little expert."

Freya was shocked, "How hungry is Sarah? Don't the two men satisfy her? I'm afraid she is so good in bed and Rodney can't stop after tasting it once."

After speaking, she deeply reflected. For a moment, "Rodney may think that our life is too boring in some aspects."

"Don't say that."

She suddenly felt so self-pity, Catherine suddenly didn't know how to comfort her, "Freya, this has nothing to do with you. It's a man In short and our plan was very successful."

Freya nodded and her feeling very complicated, "When will Rodney find out about Sarah's derailment? I'm looking forward to Rodney knowing that he is wearing a cuckold. For a moment, hasn't he always regarded Sarah as a goddess? if Rodney can see his wife hanging out with other men on the bed, the scene must be wonderful."

Hearing this, Catherine gave her a deep look, "I heard from Garrett that Rodney doesn't go back much now and Sarah is basically alone in the villa, it should be the last time. Rodney saw the cat abuse video which made him a little disgusted with Sarah."

Freya laughed, "Is this disgusting? If Rodney sees the picture of Sarah cheating, he will die of anger. After all, Sarah is his true love."

Catherine smiled and said: "Osher Corporation's situation is not very good and Sarah probably dislikes Rodney too. She feels that Sarah has a firm grip Gideon, she must file for divorce. After that Rodney saw through Sarah's true face and he would take care of it himself everything without needing us."

"Will he?" Freya frowned but not quite sure. "Rodney is very harsh to everyone except Sarah, who can forgive again and again."

"After so many things, you think Rodney will still be the Rodney who once married you. When is it?"

Catherine said meaningfully, "When he is with you, he has everything. It is no exaggeration to say that he is God's favorite, a beautiful wife, a lovely child, and the soon-to-be heir of the Snow Corporation. Outsiders hold him high and praise him as the youngest and most capable talent in the business world. Now, what does Rodney have? He has been completely abandoned by the Snow family and the position of the heir has also been taken by his sister. Others look down on him, neglect him and even marry a wife who will only do him a disservice. In such an environment for a long time, a person's mentality will change."

Freya's heart froze as she listened Catherine's meaningful words.

Freya remembered, how Rodney looked when she saw a few times before and became more and more selfish and unfamiliar.

Recalling the time when She and Rodney had the best relationship in the past. it seemed that they were getting farther and farther away.

She sighed with emotion, "I don't know how he has become like this?"

"Rodney is surrounded by a woman like Sarah. What is the best scheme that hypocrite is good at brainwashing? Obviously some things are his fault and Sarah has a way to wash him as someone else's fault. Over time, his views have changed. After all, Rodney has been well protected by his family in this life."

...

In the evening...

Freya, Catherine, and Eliza had dinner outside and then strolled around for a while before returning to the ministerial Palace at 8 p.m.

When she glanced at the building where Ryan lived was pitch dark, she took a picture of the building and sent it to Ryan in despair.

It was not until she coaxed Dani to sleep that she received a Whatsapp message from Ryan. It was also a photo but it was a pile of thick documents in the office.

Ryan: [I've been approving documents just now. This is today's work. I just finished it. Sorry, it's too late.]

Freya: [Hum, hard work.]

Ryan: [I'm hungry, is Dani sleeping? Do you want to go out for supper?]

Freya: [She fell asleep now]

Ryan: [Let Aunt Loretta watch for a while. You come her and accompany me, I miss you.]

"I miss you" it seems that there is no way for a person in love to refuse.

After Freya agreed, she immediately went to the dressing room to change her clothes. She didn't want to wear too complicated clothes when she went out at night. She simply took a pair of jeans and a sweater but hesitated for a few seconds when changing her underwear and wore something sexier.

Freya drove out in a car and Ryan was waiting for her at the gate of the ministerial Palace.

Under the street light, Ryan who wore the suit that bought last time was chatting and laughing with the police officers. Looking at the side profile, he was also very handsome.

Seeing her coming, Ryan got into the car generously in front of the police officers.

For the first time, the two went out on a date at 11 o'clock at night and Freya was still quite nervous, "Will we be too high-profile? others will doubt it."

"It's doubtful that relatives who live together go to supper at night." Ryan said while wearing his seat belt, "Outsiders will only say that our siblings have a good relationship. If we hide, it will make people more suspicious."

"That's true." Before starting the car, Freya looked his glanced. She hadn't seen him for several days, "You've been working overtime until late at night and you're going out for supper tonight, aren't you tired?"

Ryan held her little hand and smiled softly, "This is you. The benefits of finding a young man stay up all night and have enough energy."

"Don't rely on your youth to be able to do whatever you want." Freya couldn't stand his sullen appearance, "Be careful of the sequelae, if you have a problem I will abandon you at any time."

"Well, since you said, then I have to pay attention to my body." Ryan said quickly and earnestly, "Tomorrow, the blueberry and red dates health tea is ready to start walking."

Freya pouted, then started the car and asked, "Where can we go for supper?"

Every time she and Ryan went out to eat, he chose the place. He knew the capital was better and knew many delicious places...

So later on a date for dinner, Freya basically followed his arrangement.

Ryan thought for a while and said, "There is a night snack street behind the Mansion, and there is a shop that does good night snacks."

"Then let's go over there."

Freya nodded without thinking.

After the car drove a distance, she suddenly realized that the places recommended by Ryan were usually hidden in those rare courtyard houses or private restaurants. Why did she directly recommend the night snack street today?

And the place so coincidentally is in the backstreet of his house outside.

What does he mean...?

Could it be that he wanted to take him unknown place for supper?

Thinking of this possibility, her heart jumped wildly.

No, no, maybe her brain was too dirty and she was thinking wildly.

But if it were true....

She suddenly felt that the car was terribly hot.

He didn't even notice that the red light was on in front of him, he just ran over.

Until Ryan's voice sounded, "What are you doing, didn't you see the red light just now?"

"Is it... a red light?" Freya was startled.

"There's no car coming from behind." Ryan stroked his forehead, "What were you thinking about just now?" "I didn't think about anything, maybe my eyes dazzled."

Freya was desperately depressed, "It's a loss, come out for a late night snack, It also caused me to deduct points and I lost my deduction for a late-night snack."

"Be careful when driving next time, there will be heavy vehicle driving on this road at night." Ryan reminded helplessly, "The points will be deducted at that time. Now, take my driver's license."

"How many points do you have on your driver's license?"

"12 points, I've never deducted any points for 8 years of driving."

"Are you still human?" Freya blurted out in shock.

Ryan looked at her silently and tolerantly with a pair of gentle black eyes.

She was Realizing that what he said was too dignified, elegant and beautiful.

Freya hurriedly coughed, "I'm so excited, I'm sorry."

Ryan sighed softly, "You are a woman who wants to take care about all things."

Freya: "..."

Freya's face blushed silently for a while and finally gave Ryan a stern look, "You control me."

"Of course, you can't let you mess around outside."

To the night after the street.

Ryan hesitatedly took off his suit and tie and revealing the blue shirt inside.

"What are you doing?" Freya was puzzled.

Ryan pointed to the guests who were drinking and eating in the open air, "I want to go out in a neat suit. so I can definitely become an outlier."

"If anyone asks, you can say that you sell insurance." Freya said with a smile.

"Do I look like an insurance seller?" Ryan squeezed her little face lightly and kissed her on the lips again.

"Aren't you cold?" Freya put her hands around his neck.

"It won't be cold after a drink."

Ryan hugged her out of the car and took her to the small shop.

There were a lot of people sitting outside, the business was good, and a scent wafted over, and with the pictures of late-night snacks on the wall, Freya was immediately hungry.

When ordering, she looked at the supper on the menu and hesitated, "What should I do? I want to eat lobster, hairy crab, grilled fish, and barbecue but the two of us will definitely not be able to finish it."

Her inquiring gaze fell On Ryan, who was pouring hot tea?

"The lobster here tastes pretty good. You can order lobster and grilled fish and then order a few more kinds of barbecue." Ryan calmly raised his opinion, "It's better not to eat lobster and hairy crab together because too cold and the stomach may be affected. If you want to eat it, you can come again next time."

"Okay, I'm follow you what you said."

Freya nodded obediently, she just liked how Ryan could give her comfortable advice at any time.

Although, Ryan is not short of the money but in some respects, this man will not condone her unconditionally.

"Add two more beers." Ryan added.

After the supper was served slowly, Freya peeled off a lobster which tasted really good.

It's just that she has always been used to having a little beer with her sisters for supper...

Her eyes fell on the can of beer which Ryan was holding, "Is it delicious?"

"Want to drink?" Ryan raised her eyebrows and poured her a glass.

"But we both drank and drove back." Freya was a little worried.

"You can ask the driver to pick us up or you can ask for the price."

Freya was successfully persuaded by him. Anyway, this is not enough to get drunk.

It's just that two cans of beer are not enough when there are more supper.

Freya thought that she had already drank it anyway, so she simply brought two more bottles.

Ryan helped her peel the shrimp while helping her pick the fishbone.

It was a pleasure to eat this supper.

After the end, Freya was not drunk. This beer was not enough to make her drunk but her brain was a little excited and her dark eyes were burning brightly.

Ryan sat under the lamp and looking at her blushing cheeks and lips that were red and full and moist with peppers. A taut string in her heart was a little broken.

Ryan paid the money and took her into the car. Just the door closed, he covered his body and kissed her hard.

In the car was the voice of the two panting.

Freya hugged him more enthusiastically than before. Although she was shy but felt more exciting.

"Where's the driver? when will the driver come?" Freya asked hoarsely.

"I haven't notified the driver yet." Ryan's nose pointed to the tip of her nose and their eyes were familiar. "Would you like to go back to Mansion for a rest first."

"..."

Freya blushed and dripped.

She was no longer an ignorant girl who has not been deeply involved in the world.

Not going home in the early morning and going to a man's house to rest is definitely not as simple as lying in bed and closing your eyes.

In fact, on the way here, she also wondered why she chose the near place for supper.

But when this moment really came, she was still caught off guard.

She wondered if it would be too soon.

But Ryan was so kind to her and paid so much for her.

She didn't have the heart to reject him.

More importantly...I don't seem to be disgusted.

"Okay?" Seeing that Freya didn't speak. Ryan kissed her again and again bewitching her with a gentle voice, "I drank too much, I'll go back later."

"Well, good."

Freya was kissed by him was a mess and the lips moved and she agreed.

The hands on the waist tightened.

Ryan quickly took her out of the car again.

He walked in from the parking lot at the back of the community and arrived at the door of the apartment shortly after.

Along the way, he was well behaved.

After entering the house, just after the door was closed and the lights were not turned on, Freya was hit against the wall by him, and the overwhelming kiss fell violently.

"Don't, don't..." After realizing it, Freya remembered one thing, "I don't want to get pregnant..."

"You said this.... "

Ryan lowered his head and took out a packet of c-o-n-d-o-m from his pocket.

Her heart was probably beating wildly. because she had been drinking and she blurted out, "Is there only one?"

Ryan was stunned but when he came back, he hugged her and laughed softly, "It was my mistake, so there is one less.

" That's not what I meant..."

Freya wanted to bite off her tongue. ah, I'm going crazy. look at what she said in her mouth.

Shouldn't he think he's hungry?

Her image of nobility and grace was completely ruined.

"Don't worry, there are several c-o-n-d-o-m boxes bedside on my table."

Ryan picked her up and walked to the bedroom.

When she was thrown on the bed, Freya saw that he had opened the drawer and the corner of her mouth twitched hard, "Ryan, why do you buy so much c-o-n-d-o-m-s at home?"

Ryan smiled lightly, "I already have a girlfriend, so I'm not going to be silly. You don't understand why I brought you to my house before, this will be the love nest of the two of us."

"You are so scheming." Freya scolded softly with a blushing face.

"From now, this is the home of the two of us."

Ryan gently held up her little face, "Do you want to turn on the light?"

"Don't..."

She blurted out and whispered, "I'll be shy." These words were thrown into the firewood like sparks.

Ryan kissed her, "Okay, I won't turn on the light, Miss Freya, This's the first time, please give me more advice."

...

At late night and It was raining.

Chapter 2276

The rain drop hit outside the window.

Freya's brain had been mushy.

When she woke up and saw the rain marks on the window, she vaguely realized that it seemed like it was raining just now.

"Would you like to take a shower together?"

Ryan hugged her from behind and the man's voice after being satisfied was more hoarse...

"...No."

Freya was taken aback. She was tired and wanted to be sleepy at first but now he was awakened by his words and was no longer drowsy.

Ryan laughed lowly and his chest vibrating a little, "Do you still want to be like this?"

"I...I'm not used to it."

Freya dodged and got out of his arms and picking up a piece of clothing on the ground which turned out to be his shirt.

She put it on herself and ducked into the bathroom.

When water fell on her body, she came back to her senses in a trance.

She and Ryan really happened.

The cousin of his ex-husband, the nominal brother.

People outside will find it ridiculous.

But looking back on everything now, she doesn't regret it.

After dating Patrick for several years the existence of Linda, she and Patrick never had any room for further progress.

Later, when she was with Rodney, she felt that she had a child anyway and got married again. If the two of them had a lifetime, some things were inevitable.

She Only with Ryan, is the kind of love that comes naturally because she loved this person heartily and she was willing to give herself away.

And just now, she could really feel that Ryan was the first time, although he was very young and smart.

She felt sorry for him.

On such a quiet night, she didn't regret to meet him at her best time.

He gave her the most important thing.

She didn't.

"Freya, I have put your clothes by the door and there is a pink bath towel in the cabinet which I prepared for you." Ryan's voice came from outside.

She opened the cabinet and saw the towel.

She felt his deliberate care but also felt his careful warmth.

After changing his clothes and going out, Ryan was already dressed neatly and he was looking so elegant and noble that couldn't imagine that just over an hour ago.

Freya's face was a little red and couldn't think anymore, "Aren't you taking a bath?"

"Forget it, I'll go back to wash. it's already 3 a.m." Ryan stared at Freya, "Are you okay? "

I'm tired and sleepy...

"Go back, if we don't come back all night for supper, it will definitely spread to your parents' ears."

Freya shook her head, although she was very tired but now she has regained her senses.

When Freya put her hand on the doorknob and wanted to go out, suddenly Ryan hugged her from behind.

"Freya, I love you. thank you, I will definitely cherish you."

Freya got emotional after listening these words from Ryan and then she quickly turned back and hugged him, "Ryan, promise me that you won't leave me in the future."

"Okay, I promise in front of you, I will never leave you." Ryan stroked her hair on the temples, "Of course, I hope that neither of us will leave. I Falling in love with you. I have never wanted to play. I have wanted to be with you for the rest of my life but I know that you have no such idea and are not read, but I will always be waiting for you behind your back."

"Ryan, thank you."

Freya didn't know what to say so she could only hug him tightly.

Ryan clearly understood everything about her.

This night, the relationship between the two has undergone earth-shaking changes.

In the past, the relationship between two people was only based on spirituality but now it is also physical.

Early morning.

Both Freya and Ryan were separated in the parking lot of the ministerial Palace.

When Freya returned to the bedroom, Aunty Loretta slept with Dani there. When Aunty Loretta saw her back, she said softly, "I just got up and drank half a jug of milk."

"Don't cry." Freya asked.

"No."

"Aunty Loretta, thank you." Freya was very embarrassed. She was hanging out with Ryan at night. Aunty Loretta is Ryan's person and she must have known about the two of them.

Aunty Loretta said with a smile, "Young master is very good to me, that's what I should do?"

Freya was embarrassed, "Ryan is very good. In fact, I also know that the two of us shouldn't... sorry, Aunty Loretta, we can only let you cover for us at the moment."

Aunty Loretta sighed, "A few days ago, I often saw the young master come to accompany you and Dani, it really looks like a family of three. In fact, the two of you are a good match in age and appearance. Yes, it's a pity that I went around in such a circle but Miss Freya, you are so nice, the prime minister and the prime minister's wife like you very much. I believe they will accept it."

Freya also knew that Aunty Loretta was comforting herself, She also understands that some things are not that easy, but she still nodded and was thanking Aunty Loretta for her kindness.

After Aunty Loretta left, Freya just changed into her pajamas when she received a Whatsapp message from Ryan: [I saw you walking slowly, does it hurt?]

Freya's body suddenly turned into a fossil.

I really don't want to deal with this stinky man.

Freya: [Go to sleep, it's really annoying.]

Ryan: [You didn't say that in bed before, women are really fickle.]

Freya: [I ignore you.]

She was covered with a quilt, but she was so excited that she almost fell asleep until dawn.

She slept and felt like someone was touching her head.

She disliked the food, turned around and slept with the quilt.

When she woke up again and looked at the time, it was already 11 a.m..

She was startled and hurried downstairs to find that Aunty Loretta was playing with Dani.

She scratched her hair in annoyance, "Aunty Loretta, did Dani wake up in the morning without making a noise? I didn't hear anything at all.

" Take Dani down." Aunty Loretta said with a smile, "Dani also played with the young master for a while."

Freya was stunned, "What time did he come here in the morning?"

"7 a.m., now go to work. It's over." Aunty Loretta said distressedly, "Alas, I can't rest on weekends."

Freya also felt distressed. She didn't come back until nearly 4 a.m., so she could sleep for a few hours this night.

After going upstairs, when Freya was washing, she picked up her mobile phone and and saw a whatsapp message which was sent by Ryan at 10 a.m.: [Baby, are you up yet?]

Freya: [You just woke up, you didn't sleep much last night, are you alright?]

Ryan: [Well, I didn't sleep at all.]

Freya: [why didn't you sleep at all?]

Ryan: [After I went back, I was too happy at first too excited, and couldn't sleep. Later, I was uneasy and couldn't sleep.]

Freya: [? ? ?]

She was happy and excited that she could understand but she was uneasy and did not understand.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2278 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2278

Ryan: [I am worried that I didn't perform well last night. After all, I have no experience....]

Freya was embarrassed and didn't want to talk anymore.

Ryan: [Why don't you call me back, is it because I behaved badly and disappointed you.]

Freya: [You're so annoying, aren't you at work, why are you so free?]

Ryan: [Well, I'm at work but I can't work hard today, I'm thinking about you all time....]

Freya smiled secretly and replied: [Now, I order you, don't miss me. Work hard and get home from work early to rest.]

Ryan: [I really want to promise you, but I'm afraid I won't be able to do it today. As long as I calm down, all I can think about is what you looked like last night, very beautiful and charming.]

Freya: [Okay, don't talk about what happened last night.]

After a while, she hesitated for a while and then replied: [I thought you were pretty good last night, I liked it very much.]

Soon, Ryan replied: [Thank you baby, I will make persistent efforts.]

Keep up the good work....

Damn it again.

Freya shyly burrowed her little face into the quilt.

...

In the evening, Nathan and Ryan did not come back. Only Freya and Heidi ate together.

"Tomorrow is Sunday, are you free?"

Heidi suddenly asked with a smile while waiting for the dishes to arrive.

"I usually accompany Dani on weekends." Freya thought about it and said.

Heidi said "Freya, you will give Dani to Aunt Loretta tomorrow morning and accompany me to a charity event. In the past two days, couples from country N have visited and the first lady of country N will hold a fund to thank you tomorrow at noon. Ryan has no time, you can go with me."

Freya was stunned. she accompanied Heidi to several banquets but they were for some wealthy nobles like this and other countries. This is the first time for the First Lady's activities. After all, the nature of the activities is completely different from those in the past.

"Why, don't want to go?" Heidi picked up the chopsticks gracefully and asked with a smile.

Freya asked nervously, "I... I've never participated in such an occasion. so I'm afraid and feeling nervous." "Godmother, why don't you ask Nora Lynch to accompany you."

Nora Lynch is the daughter of Heidi's brother. currently holds an important position in the Huaguo Music Association, and Freya has also met several times.

Heidi sighed, "I asked Nora to accompany me at several events like this before but she was too nervous and too eager to show which made a little disappointed."

Freya can understand that at this kind of party where the two countries entertain. The hostess are all distinguished and those who accompany Heidi should be low-key when they should be smooth, and they must advance and retreat calmly.

But she also understands Nora's mood. Who doesn't want to brush their face on such an occasion. If they can get familiar with these ladies, their future prospects are limitless.

Of course, aside from the future being on the news can be envied by others.

"But... I'm afraid I will do worse than Nora." Freya's scalp was numb.

Heidi said with a light smile, "No, your ambitions are different from Nora's. Actually, I didn't plan to ask you to go at first. I know your mind is not in this regard but I heard that I have a job with my daughter, so I asked me to call you. You don't have to be too nervous. Go out and meet these people a few times and you will learn a lot. I'm not talking about connections but Vision and attitude towards people."

Freya was ashamed.

She has dealt with important ladies in the world. She estimates that when she goes out and sees everyone, she can be calm.

"Okay, then I'll make soy sauce. If it's not good, don't be angry."

Chapter 2279

"What about you, it's like meeting your godfather with me. Didn't you feel nervous when you saw us for the first time?" Heidi smiled when she saw Freya's nervous appearance, "Look at you now, how natural!, you will even joke with us."

"Isn't that living together and seeing each other often?"

Heidi smiled: "If you think about it this way, your daily life is to share breakfast with the prime minister and the prime minister's wife. So is it necessary to be nervous to meet a lady from N country?"

Freya nodded her head blankly.

Heidi said gently, "Freya, As long as you are dignified and generous. When I first met those ladies, I was nervous and didn't sleep all night but thinking about it on the other hand, they were probably nervous when they saw me. We all have similar identities and no one is better than the other. we don't have to rely on our status to embarrass anyone just do what we should do."

"Godmother, I finally know Ryan who looks like you." Freya said laughingly.

Ryan has the gentle and elegant temperament of Heidi even in the face of anything.

What Freya admires more is that Heidi has reached the position today. She is neither arrogant nor impetuous nor does she have the superiority of a superior person and she can even treat the people equally. She is really lucky to be able to sit on the table and talk to Heidi here.

"Ryan is more like me."

Heidi thought deeply for a few seconds then nodded with a smile, "I actually don't want Ryan to be like his father. The Snow family's style...too stubborn. That's it."

This was the first time Heidi raised her evaluation of the Snow Family in front of Freya and Freya was nervous.

Heidi sighed softly and said, "Freya, you don't need to be nervous at this table. Your godfather is my husband and the Snow Family is my husband's family. My husband only hopes that the Snow Family is prosperous and a little more patriarchal but there is no family that lasts forever in this world. Your godfather has been taught by my husband since you were a child and sometimes it is inevitable that you will be a little bit of a bullsh*t."

Freya said softly: "I can understand, who wants to sit in a high position? "Godmother, don't you want Ryan to be like his father?"

"My idea is to let nature take its course." Heidi's graceful face was dyed with a positive color, "The higher you sit, the heavier the burden will be. We can't focus on our own interests. we have to understand what the people need."

Hearing these words, Freya was immediately awe-inspiring, "Godmother, I decided to take you as my own in the future. You are an idol for me."

"You, little sycophant."

Heidi smiled and took a mouthful of porridge, "By the way, I heard that you and Ryan went out for supper last night?"

"Yeah."

Freya's heart skipped a beat and she didn't dare to look her eyes and after a while, said: "Godmother, I've been out for a few months and it's been a long time since I had a late-night supper."

"you both are in a good relationship but don't go out late night next time, it's not very safe."
Heidi smiled and bowed her head to eat dinner.

Freya raised her head slightly and seeing that Heidi didn't continue talking. she was relieved but also a little guilty.

Heidi was so kind to her but she deceived her.

If Heidi finds out the truth one day in the future, will she be very angry?

She suddenly found that she was reluctant to make Heidi sad and angry. She really likes this godmother from the bottom of her heart.

After returning home, Heidi sent someone to send some procedures and a list of attendees for tomorrow's charity event.

The above information is very detailed not only the identities of the people attending the event but even their hobbies.

Chapter 2280

Freya licked her tongue when saw the identities of these people are not simple.

"The secretary, Hans Fleming, since I'm participating in a charity event tomorrow, you see if I need to prepare something for donation and the price is probably appropriate."

Hans Fleming smiled secretly and laughing at Freya's simplicity and cuteness, "Miss Freya, of course you don't need to prepare these. The Prime minister's wife will let us all prepare. you just need to accompany you."

"Oh, okay."

Freya listen to Heidi but doesn't understand anyway...

After Hans Fleming left, Freya studied the materials in the room after taking a shower.

Aunty Loretta knew that she had business affairs, so she concentrated on playing with Dani.

When Ryan went upstairs, he walked to the door of the bedroom and saw Freya lounging on the chaise longue by the floor-to-ceiling window to read the documents and revealing a pair of small feet as white as suet.

She looked very seriously.

Ryan deliberately slowed down and walked over and staring at the swan neckline that was exposed below her white cotton pajamas when she lowered her head. Of course, it wasn't white, it was slightly transparent. so he could clearly see what was inside her. If she didn't wear it, then this pajamas would definitely be called fresh on her body.

As for now....

Ryan's eyes darkened slightly, he clenched his fist and coughed lightly.

Freya raised her head blankly and suddenly saw the slender figure standing beside her. She screamed in fright and all the documents in her hand fell to the ground.

Ryan quickly touched between her eyebrows, "What are you looking at? Also You are looking so serious."

Freya was stunned.

"Are you really scared?"

Ryan held up her little face and didn't expect that Frey read it so seriously."

"I'm looking at the information given by the godmother, okay? I'm going to accompany her to a charity event tomorrow." Freya slapped his chest angrily, "Let you scare me."

"My fault." Ryan grabbed her hand and put it on his lips and kissed it.

Freya glanced at the door subconsciously but found that the door was closed by him at some point. She felt nervous. After all, the two had had a relationship. Being alone with a man and a woman alone would inevitably make people even more nervous. "

Freya said, "Ryan, You didn't sleep last night."

I rested in the office for a while at noon. Don't worry, it's not that easy to die suddenly."
Ryan squeezed into the chaise longue and sat down.

However, the two of them were too crowded to sit, so he simply picked up Freya and sat on his lap then pressed the button on the wall and the curtains in the room closed automatically.

"Ryan, What are you doing?" Freya was startled instinctively but he wouldn't want to....

Her face flushed red and heart was full of resistance.

This is her room, there is no way she could be in the ministerial palace with him anyway...

"Ryan, You don't want people outside to see me hugging you, right? Although few people come here at night, it's better to be careful."

Ryan asked with a smile, "Otherwise, what do you think I'm doing?"

Chapter 2281

Freya shrank her neck in embarrassment and resolutely unable to admit her crimson thoughts just now, "It's still your thoughtful thinking, I didn't react."

"Oh, I thought about to you..." Ryan's eyes with a deep smile moved down slightly.

Freya instinctively hurriedly covered her chest. After this, she realized that she wasn't wearing bra inside, while Ryan's head was on top of her and her clothes were not buttoned up neatly, so Ryan would definitely be able to see a little bit of scenery.

Freya blushed and immediately wanted to go down to find a coat to put on, "You sit down for a while, I have something to do..."

"Don't look for the clothes, I've seen it all." Ryan grabbed her arm and wouldn't let her leave.

Freya lost face completely and angrily beat him on the chest, "Stinky r-a-s-c-a-l, how do you know what I'm going to do?"

"Your face is so red and your behavior is so obvious can I not guess." Ryan smiled and hugged her, "Freya, you are sometimes like a blank sheet of paper in front of me."

"You are too smart and sometimes annoying." Freya snorted.

"No, it's because you're too innocent in this regard, and you're too shy." Ryan kissed the end of her hair, "Sometimes you're pure and innocent like a woman who's never married and never had children."

Freya was embarrassed, "Don't you have to be unrestrained in that aspect after getting married and having children? I'm a woman and it's normal to be embarrassed in front of the opposite sex."

"I don't know what other women look like, I only know you. I can only see you alone." Ryan hugged her tightly and his chin resting on her head, "I got off work early today, I wanted to go home but I thought about you whole day and couldn't help coming over to see Look at you, do you miss me?"

"Hmph, I'm very busy." Freya said dutifully, "I'm going to see the lady of N country tomorrow, so I don't have time to miss you."

"My mother told me."

Ryan picked up the information on the ground, "Are you remembering this?"

"Yes." Freya's face wrinkled, "These foreigners' names are so hard to remember."

"If you don't want to remember this kind of banquet next time, just Don't go." Ryan said.

"It's not good. the Godmother kindly took me to see." Freya became distressed, "getting to know more people, maybe the promotion of our company in the world will be smoother in the future. After all, it is my own company and I can't Everything depends on leaning."

"But don't you say it's hard to remember."

"It's difficult. When I was studying in the past, the names of those complicated creatures were even more difficult to remember." Freya said, "Besides I'm still young, There are infinite possibilities in the future. It's okay to work hard and my godmother told me a lot tonight. I admire her very much and not to mention that I can become a person like her. I can learn a point or two from her and I will get benefit from it."

Hearing this, Ryan turned his head and looked down at her. her beautiful and charming little face was filled with admiration and longing that she didn't even notice.

His heart moved and the corners of his mouth twitched, "Alright, learn more from my mother, maybe you will be my wife in the future and I will be able to handle it with ease."

"Smelly, who wants to be your wife." Freya rolled her eyes at him.

"But I just want you to be my wife." Ryan pressed her arms and kissed her.

Freya only thought that he would kiss for a while but after a while, she realized that the kiss had changed.

"Don't make me trouble. I need to read the information. Please don't disturb me..." She pushed him pantingly.

"Those documents are too rigid, you might as well ask me. I know more details than the documents." Ryan said.

"Then you have to tell me too, what are you doing now?" Freya bit him angrily.

"Bite, it's bleeding, be careful my parents will ask you tomorrow." Ryan chuckled, "I just got my mouth out of your house."

Freya wanted to cry. She stared at him tearfully, “I don’t want to care about you anymore.”

Chapter 2282

“Freya, I just care about you.”

After Ryan finished speaking, he picked her up and put on the bed.

Freya was really frightened, “No, I really can’t.”

“Why not?” Ryan said while taking off his tie, Ryan’s face blushing, “Baby, I miss you, I’ve been thinking of you all day.”

Freya’s legs were weak by his stare and said: “What do you want to think about? I’m already yours and this is the ministerial palace and not your apartment, Dani is still downstairs and may someone come here with Dani this time, so always be careful.”

“I saw my parents before I came, they were resting and will not send someone over, Dani is watched by Aunty Loretta. Now, Aunty Loretta already knew about us, she won’t come up...”

Ryan pressed her lips and kissed repeatedly, “Don’t be delay.”

Freya scolded him for being a scheming man but he was fully prepared before coming in.

She is now like a meat on the chopping board and there is no escape.

However, Freya likes in the face of the domineering kiss of Ryan’s, she is also a little distracted.

After a while, Ryan unknowingly ate and wiped it off again.

after the fact.

Freya lay on the bed tiredly and trying to calm down the violent turmoil in her little heart.

The whole process, because of this awkward location made her nervous all the time.

Also because of the tension, it seems... inexplicably more exciting.

This feeling made her and Ryan both end faster. Of course, although the process was short, they were satisfied with each other.

She covered her face and feeling more and more depraved.

"Baby, you are so beautiful."

Ryan hugged her and a kiss of nostalgia fell.

"Ryan..."

Freya wrapped around his neck and she was dazed by the kiss. Ryan gently kissed her on the forehead and said, "Freya, you know, Every time I come to see you and staring at you in your bed for a long time and I tell myself that I will fall asleep with you properly oneday."

"Oh, it turns out that your filthy thoughts have been around for a long time." Freya Deliberately pinched his cheek.

"No, I've liked you for a long time." Ryan said, hugging her tightly.

In this rare and beautiful time, Freya didn't want to push him away.

That's all there is to it anyway, just wait.

A minute later, Ryan sat up and said with a smile: "Come on Freya, let me tell you about the people that you want to see tomorrow. Are you familiar with me? I knew about it when I was working in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. I even met the Prime minister and wife of N country with my dad yesterday."

"So you have already met the lady of N country. what kind of person is she?" Freya asked curiously.

Ryan slowly stated some of his impressions and opinions and then chatted about interesting things about N country, some of which were quite funny.

It didn't take much time for the people on the list to have a general impression in her mind.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2283 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2283

At 10:30 p.m., Ryan left the building where Freya lived.

The next day, when Nathan got up, the attendant of the ministerial palace informed him of this.

"It should be talking to Freya about entertaining the lady from N country today." Heidi stood in front of the mirror and casually said while changing her clothes, "I gave Freya a lot of information about today's event last night. Ryan came to visit me and before he left, he said he was going to see how Freya remembered."

"The two of them have a good relationship." Nathan hesitated, "But after all, Ryan and Freya stayed so late and two days ago, I heard that they ate supper together and didn't come back until late night..."

"Yes, Ryan really had a good time with her. after all, they were the same age and there was something in common." Heidi laughed, "there will be a good match If Freya married Ryan."

Nathan was serious, "If you talk too much, it will inevitably cause young people to have some thoughts that they shouldn't have. They are now siblings, so that's good."

"I know." Heidi nodded.

"Also, I have reminded Ryan in private always not to run to find Freya at night. Although the ministerial palace is clean and many people living here.

"The girl's family is thin-skinned and easy to think wildly."

Heidi put on a cheongsam and a very dignified coat before coming down.

After breakfast, she took Freya to the banquet hall by car.

After arriving, Freya found that in addition to the lady from N country, there were also the chairman of the foundation, the wife of the vice president, and senior officials of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of N. Not only that, there were several reporters in the banquet hall, including reporters and others.

This is Freya's official attendance at this kind of occasion, and she is still with Heidi. The reporter from Australia gave her a close-up, and a reporter from the country M asked the reporter from Australia in English "The wife of the president is close to her is looking very beautiful. is it a secretary or a family member?"

"That should be the goddaughter that the prime minister's wife recognizes."

"The goddaughter who can become the prime minister's wife must have a very unusual identity. I think she has a good temperament. The occasion is also very calm."

"The net worth is considered middle-low in the wealthy circle of Australia but she herself is quite capable. She created her own brand at a young age and developed a lot of skin care cosmetics. She is currently in the foreign beauty market. It's also considered a little famous."

"..."

Freya personally introduced the names of the dishes on the table.

Her actions not only surprised for the visitors of N country, but even Heidi was also very surprised.

the people of N country are not better in English. It is very convoluted. Coupled with its remote location and not rich, many countries do not bother to learn their language, let alone introduce the name of the dish, which is even more difficult.

the lady from N country turned to whisper to the translator and the translator said to Heidi, "Mrs. N said that your daughter is very good. She understood it very well and she is looking forward to this lunch even more."

"Thank you." Heidi smiled and nodded.

The reporter next to him quietly recorded the scene.

At the end of the charity event, Freya and Heidi rode back in the same car.

After being tired for a long time, Freya only felt very tired. She was not so tired after spending a day in the laboratory.

"Tired?" Heidi patted the back of her hand lightly, her tone softer than usual.

"A bit."

"You surprise me."

Heidi said with praise, "I only gave you the information last night, I thought you might not remember it, but I didn't expect that you not only remembered it, but also translated the name of the dish into the language of N country, which is very difficult. The names of our dishes in Australia are too complicated, even if you translate them into English, you will have to rack your brains and you have also learned a few everyday expressions in N, which are better than mine."

It is rare to be praised by Heidi like this, Heidi and Freya blushed a little.

Chapter 2284

In fact, Freya had to remember the translations of these dish names were given to her by Ryan.

However, Ryan left yesterday, he told Freya not to tell Heidi that he was to blame.

Ryan hoped that she could perform well in front of Heidi, she knew it.

"Ryan helped her last night but didn't sleep until late last night."

Freya lowered her head in front of Heidi and said that she stayed so late because she was with Ryan.

"Ryan stayed with her so late last night." Heidi was stunned and knew.

"Okay, Freya, you have to work hard than before. When you left just now, Mrs. N told me to let me take you to N country next time."

Freya was stunned.

Her hard work can be rewarded. Mrs. N quite satisfied on Freya's abilities. "Actually, She was a little nervous that time."

Heidi continued with a smile: "It's normal to be nervous. After all, it was your first time but nothing went wrong." "Actually, People of N country were not very confident in their visit this time. your words and deeds made Mrs. N feel valued and respected and I believe that the two countries will soon reach an important agreement."

Freya nodded.

As a part of Australia, it seems like a good feeling to be able to make a little contribution to Australia.

.....

That night.

Freya was bringing her baby at home, suddenly someone in the group of girlfriends saw her.

Catherine: [Wow..., Shaun was watching the news just now, and suddenly found out Freya on the news at 7:30 p.m. that was awesome.]

After speaking, Catherine sent a lot of screenshots.

Eliza was not to be outdone and dumped several screenshots of foreign TV channels.

Eliza: [I attended fashion week in country F and I was watching TV in the hotel with nothing to do. I happened to see you on an international channel. You are awesome, powerful, and big guy.]

Catherine: [F*ck... even abroad, I can't think of it. I'm still the president. someone has already stepped into the international political arena first, ehhhh!]

Eliza: [I debuted only on New Year's Eve last year in N Country and went to a TV show once. I was ashamed that watching me on TV that was pinnacle.]

Freya: [I didn't expect it. I only thought it was just an ordinary charity fund banquet.]

Catherine: [The meeting between the two wives is just an ordinary banquet? Just blow it quietly.]

Eliza: [I feel that Freya is different and has a unique aura.]

Catherine: [Yes, it smells like a prime minister's wife.]

Eliza: [Hold your legs....]

Freya: [Let me hold you. Don't worry and don't forget your wealth and honor.]

Eliza: [my thought is that Freya, you may be on the hot search on the social platforms tomorrow.]

Freya: [...Don't, I don't want to.]

It turns out that some things are not a question of whether she wants to or not.

But now the network is too developed.

Chapter 2285

A netizen posted a screenshot of Freya's photo on a TV to the Internet and posted a post with asking: [Can someone tell me who this beautiful, pretty and smelly woman next to the prime minister's wife is?]

Some Netizens quickly replied:

[It should be Nora Lynch.]

[It's not okay, Nora Lynch has attended several events before, I've seen, and she is not beautiful at all.]

[Which secretary is that?]

[Woh... this is Freya Lynch okay? I saw her at Freycatheli's live broadcast before.]

[I remember what you saying that. it's really a bit like Freya Lynch was wearing a dress before and this time wearing a cheongsam. Her temperament has changed but figure is so damn good.]

[Wow, if it's Freya Lynch, isn't it the ex-wife of that scumbag Rodney Snow?]

[I thought that after her divorce from Rodney Snow, she was no longer welcomed by the Snow family.]

[It's gold even if there is no man, she will shine. She is quite capable. She went to Quel's research headquarters for training a few days ago. What is Quel?]

[I heard that at this banquet, she also translated the recipes for Mrs. N in N languages, which made the other party greatly appreciate it and there was no translation throughout the whole process and the English answers were fluent.]

[What is this peerless little fairy, beautiful, talented and temperamental, is Rodney Snow blind?]

[Did you know that Rodney Snow was blind when first heard about it? I heard that Osher Corporation is not in a good condition at all right now.]

[I'm afraid he's an idiot. I watched the wedding video that he was marrying Sarah a few days ago. The two of them were so happy. Do they really have money in the world?]

[A company with such a brainless mind won't develop for a long time. Only a fool who can't think of it will cooperate with him.]

"..."

A group of people discussed in the tea room of Osher Corporation.

The topic gradually began to get crooked.

When Osher Corporation's employees found out that their boss was on the hot search, they hurriedly ran up to look and find that they were scolded again.

Although they didn't want to scold, they were still very uncomfortable after seeing it.

Coupled with the recent downturn in the company, I started talking about it regardless of whether I was still at work.

"It's not me, I think what the netizens said is true, how good our boss was in the past."

"Well, if the boss hadn't divorced Freya, we will all blow it on the Internet. This is Our lady boss, but now..."

"Ms. Freya is really beautiful and generous. She came to see us a year ago and greeted us warmly without being arrogant at all."

"I have long thought I said, our boss has a problem with his eyes so we don't want to put pearls but a fish eye."

"Before I thought that Miss Freya was only attracted by the boss's light to be attracted by the Snow family but I think they have the ability. Even without the boss, she shines more and more."

"If I say that Miss Freya is really prosperous. you can see how good the sales of products were when she worked in our company before. It is said that it broke the highest record since the company was founded. After the divorce, my career is in a slump."

"Yeah, I was just a simple formulator before how long has it been since I founded a brand and attended state banquets, so I have a bright future."

"I think I should submit my resignation earlier . Believe it, I'm not saying that Osher Corporation is not good but the leader is really bad."

"Me too, let's see if I can join Freycatheli."

The discussed group of people in the tea room didn't notice that Rodney was inspecting in tea room and but Rodney heard all these people's comments.

Chapter 2286

The assistant around him also heard it and when he looked at Rodney's hostile expression, his heart was pounding with fright.

"Master Snow..." The assistant called out, mainly to remind the people inside.

Don't say it anymore, it might be even worse if you say it again.

The employees inside suddenly froze one by one with a pale face.

Rodney walked over in a gloomy manner and laughed savagely, "My eyes are not good. My leadership ability is not good and you want to resign? Yes, then get out of here immediately, it just so happens that I don't like your rubbish face. I can't work but there is a trick for me to talk about later. Keep it for you for the New Year, go away."

After Rodney finished speaking, he pulled the collar of a nearby male employee and threw it out. "Go away, you don't look down, I still don't look down on you." The male employee was scolded so cruelly. Rodney was also angrily going out of his mind and said angrily "Get out of here, I think I don't care about this place."

The male employee quickly said, "I wanted to scold you for a long time. If you didn't cheat in your marriage and ruined your reputation and image, how could our company's products be boycotted by the outside world? You have already withdrawn from the cabinet. As the boss, you have no way to deal with it until now. Is there something wrong with your leadership ability?"

"You are courting death." Rodney completely infuriated and stepped on his tie and shook tighten his fists and wanted a punch to the male employee.

The assistant hurriedly stopped him, "Mr. Snow please calm down, the other employees are here."

"I'm not trying to kill me, I'm quitting. You think I don't want to do anything, and many people want to resign."

The male employee angrily Said: "If an entrepreneur doesn't take care of his feathers, no matter how strong his background is, he can only walk a little distance. Look at the ex-wife you don't want. Now she is more beautiful than you. I say you are blind. I still look down on you, you idiot."

He walked away after saying that.

I don't want to endure it any longer.

Why did Rodney call them rubbish?

As a boss, didn't he see them working overtime with that meager salary day and night? Did they work so hard to see that little money? It was the company that was cared for by them like a child to this day, Everyone is emotional.

It's just that Rodney didn't think about how his words and deeds would affect the company when he did anything.

As a boss, he is too selfish.

Even he doesn't want the year-end bonus, he doesn't want to continue.

"Since President Snow said that we are rubbish, let's get out of here."

Several people who participated in the discussion in the tea room also came out.

The assistant was nervous because these people were all excellent employees of the marketing department. Now this is a critical moment. Suddenly so many people have left and the company may....

"Go away, disappear right in front of me." Rodney's eyes were already mad with anger.

Assistant: "... "

When Rodney left, the entire marketing department was like a frying pan in an instant. The supervisor and team leader all left.

Rodney rushed all the way back to the office.

Thinking of being scolded as an idiot by an employee just now, he smashed all the decorations in the office in a fit of rage.

The assistant stood by the side, trembling and afraid to speak. He was tired. If it weren't for the high salary, he would have wanted to quit his job and get out.

It is too tiring to serve this ancestor every day, just like menopause.

Chapter 2287

After waiting for Rodney to finish smashing it, the assistant bit his head and said: "Young Master Snow, you fired several people from the marketing department at once. These people are all old employees of the company and two of them are still in the management. A lot of people have left these days and the manpower is not enough, do you consider letting them stay for a few more days? and then let them go after recruiting new employees."

Rodney's anger had rested a little surged up on the spot, "Let them stay again."

The assistant was embarrassed: "...But many things in the company are now handled by the marketing department. At this time, there is trouble in the marketing department..."

"To recruit people, as long as the salary is high, are you afraid that you won't be able to recruit people?"

Rodney interrupted impatiently. He has never been scolded by employees in public when he grew up, and the matter of Freya made him have a backlog in his chest. Depressed and irritable has been suppressed to the extreme.

The assistant bowed his head and smiled bitterly, nodded and turned to go out.

Since Mr. Snow didn't listen to his advice, he couldn't do anything about it as the company was not his anyway.

For a person like Mr. Snow, even the company is gone. He will not worry about food and clothing but still has to pay off the mortgage and car loan. If the company keeps going downhill, he should make plans earlier.

The office was quiet for a while and Rodney summoned up the courage to pick up the phone and clicked on the news last night. There were very few scenes of Freya, but some enthusiastic netizens edited them all. She occasionally stood in Heidi Beside Mrs. N, she is peaceful and safe in a celadon-colored cheongsam. Her appearance is obviously mixed-race but at this moment, everything has been restrained and frown and smile is noble and dignified.

Is this the woman who once slept next to him?

Is it the woman who used to bicker with herself all the time?

He was a little dazed.

Is it because he doesn't know her well enough?

Even her parents were not qualified to attend such a state banquet, but she went first, and she was not stage fright.

If they hadn't divorced, Rodney must be very proud at this moment as a husband.

Going out, there will definitely be many men who envy Rodney. Now, others will only mock him and scold him behind his back.

The former Sarah, even she didn't have plastic surgery or disability couldn't compare to today's Freya.

Not to mention the current Sarah.....

Rodney frowned deeply and when he met Sarah everytime, she was crying pitifully. He used to feel distressed and ashamed when he saw it but now, he feels more and more bored.

A woman can have many ways to live just like Freya, who was once hurt by Thomas. Her reputation was completely ruined and even she was hurt and divorced by Rodney.

Rodney such an idiot, he really lost so many things. he touched his head dazedly while thinking about this.

The phone on the table rang again and again and Rodney didn't bother to answer it.

In the villa.

Sarah made one call after another but Rodney didn't answer her at all. She grabbed the pillow angrily and smashed it in the direction of the TV. There was playing back a news item on TV from last night. She's going to be pissed off.

Freya was well received for being able to accompany Heidi to the state banquet.

Why?

All of this should have belonged to her originally. She was Rodney's wife and she was the one who was with the prime minister's wife.

Why does Freya, the divorced woman still pester Nathan and his wife.

Sarah was going crazy with anger.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2288 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2288

"Rodney as a spare tire. As a result, she married Rodney a scumbag and now this scumbag doesn't answer her phone calls."

She regretted it.

Seeing that Freya lived so beautifully, Rodney married a lame woman and now he didn't want to pay attention to Sarah at all.

After Sarah calmed down, her eyes were fierce.

Rodney became more and more impatient with her. she couldn't spend it with him all the time and Osher Corporation was getting worse and there was no hope in sight, she might as well....

Sarah's phone rang suddenly, It was Garrett call so she pick up the call, "Honey, I miss you a little bit. Do you want to come out? I'm in the hotel."

"Okay, I'll come over later." Sarah rubbed her voice hastily.

Sarah went upstairs and dressed herself up and on the pretext of telling the housekeeper to asked the nanny to take her out.

Recently, Sarah and Garrett have been dating frequently and the nanny is a little scared, "Madam, you have been dating Mr. Garrett too often recently, will you be discovered by Mr. Garrett?"

Sarah said lonely, "No, Rodney can't come here at all now and also I don't care. I'm also a woman. It's too lonely to be alone. Sister Hans, don't worry, Mr. Garrett has bought a house for your child and the money is not less than you even you are fired in the future. You also have something to rely on." Sister Hans was relieved after hearing this.

If it wasn't hush for the huge money that Mr. Garrett gave her, she wouldn't help Sarah to cover her eyes, "Madam, I think that Mr. Garrett is very rich."

"Of course he is rich, Even if he doesn't work in this life, his money can't be spent in several lifetimes."

After a period of time, Sarah also understood Garrett's identity. Although he was not the heir of the family. His elder brother inherited the family business but Garrett was doted on by his family since he was a child and he also received a lot of money in his hand, which was much stronger than Rodney.

In the past, she would still expect the man she was looking for to have money and power, but now that her legs are not very convenient, she can only lower her requirements.

But she tried several times, but Garrett never thought of marrying her but he agreed to be a lover and keep her outside.

It's just that Sarah doesn't want to be a lover.

In this case, she can only think of other ways.

Sarah looked at the bell on her wrist which had a hypnotic function.

If she wants Garrett, she will pet and love her all her life.

The corners of Sarah's mouth twitched slightly.

as soon as we got to the hotel, the door opened.

Garrett took her in, and the two quickly rolled into a ball on the bed.

Although this was an act for Garrettze, a prodigal son in love, he was quite satisfied with Sarah's skills in bed.

He grew up abroad and is more open in this regard. He doesn't care whether women have slept with many men at all. He cares more about technology.

This game is quite interesting to play.

It's just that different from before, Garrett's ears always ring a bell.

"Garrett, look at me..." Sarah hooked his neck hard.

Garrett, who was sweating profusely was almost lost. Fortunately, he was well prepared before coming.

He secretly took a deep breath, Sarah is really evil but since she wanted to use means, he didn't mind playing with her.

In the office of Freycatheli.

In front of the floor-to-ceiling window, Catherine received a call from Garrett. She was slightly startled, "are you alright?"

Garrett said with a "tsk", "Fortunately, you found an expert in this field for me to take precautions before and then she lost her way. This woman has a lot of skills. First, she put it in my diet or water every day. Stuff, I still want to hypnotize my memory today."
