

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2490

Chapter 2490

“Bang!”

Another explosive impact echoed in the ring.

Venerable Jeffrey’s punch sent Father Adam back three meters.

However, Jeffrey began to breathe heavily.

The Arhat Golden Robe flickered, struggling to maintain its protection.

“Hehehe... Come again!”

Father Adam looked at his rapidly healing wounds and grinned.

Without hesitation, he raised his claws and lunged again.

“Monster! Do you really think I can’t deal with you? Today, I’ll show you supreme supernatural power!”

Venerable Jeffrey, furious at Father Adam’s persistence, knew his strength was waning.

He decided to fight desperately.

Jeffrey clasped his hands together, his body radiating golden light that repelled Father Adam.

Simultaneously, a ten-foot-tall golden Arhat statue materialized behind Jeffrey.

Majestic and awe-inspiring, it loomed like a golden mountain.

“Vajra’s angry eyes!”

Venerable Jeffrey opened his eyes wide, then raised his palm and struck at Father Adam.

The golden Arhat mimicked his movement, raising a colossal palm and slamming it down on Father Adam.

Though the palm seemed slow, it moved with incredible speed.

Before Father Adam could react, he was struck by the giant golden hand.

“Bang!” A loud noise followed.

Golden light exploded, and dust rose.

Violent winds swept out from the impact, creating a terrifying spectacle.

“Hu, hu, hu...”

After delivering the strike, a deep pit appeared in the hard ring.

Venerable Jeffrey, drenched in sweat and panting heavily, staggered as the Arhat Golden Robe faded.

He could barely stand.

Using this ultimate move was a last resort due to its high energy cost.

Even if he won, it would affect his performance in subsequent matches.

But at this moment, victory in this fight was all that mattered.
