

Chapter 91 Mrs. Lu

Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou were both honored, but they were also confused. They didn't know what Lu Heting was doing.

It was Lu Weijian who told them that they had to treat Lu Heting as a company driver.

Although they didn't understand why they had to do it, they didn't dare to ask. It was their boss' order, so they just had to follow.

But of course, sitting in the same room with Lu Heting made the two lawyers feel very uneasy. It seemed like the atmosphere inside the private room was somewhat depressing.

Until Su Bei came in.

She looked so pure and refreshing in her outfit, comparable to a spring rain or a newly-bloomed lotus flower. Without even wearing makeup, her face was so gentle and fair.

As soon as she came in, she walked to Lu Heting naturally.

Lu Heting immediately started the introduction. "Su Bei, these are Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou. Lawyers, this is Su Bei, my wife."

There was pride in his voice when he introduced Su Bei to his employees.

How could he not be proud of her? She was beautiful, excellent, generous, lovely, and loving. Her good character was something every man would want.

Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou stood up at the same time and greeted, "Mrs. Lu!"

It turned out that the woman they helped last time was Lu Heting's wife. No wonder it was him who called them personally.

He actually had a wife!

They had heard of Su Bei before, but none of them had seen her face. So everyone in the outside world thought that Lu Heting just created such a rumor to keep women away from him.

But now that they finally met her, they felt so lucky.

When Su Bei heard the word "wife," her face flushed. But since it was true, she didn't object. "I want to thank the two of you for helping me last time, so I asked Heting to invite you here. I hope this dinner is enough to show you my gratitude. Thank you so much."

"It's our pleasure, Mrs. Lu," Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou replied hurriedly.

"Lu Heting told me that he has a good relationship with the two of you in the company," Su Bei said politely.

Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou were about to stand up again, but Lu Heting cast them a glance, so they had to remain on their seats.

Lu Heting was aloof, but Su Bei was very friendly. In fact, she always looked for topics she could talk about with them. Finally, they became comfortable. They kept saying that Lu Heting was a good man, and he got along well with everyone.

Actually, they only met him at the company's general meeting, so they didn't know much about him in private. But anyway, wasn't it always right to say something nice about someone?

Hearing that the two lawyers had been complimenting Lu Heting, Su Bei couldn't help but turn to look at him with a smile. She thought to herself, 'It turns out that he is really a good man. Even the employees from another department have a high evaluation of him. Since people are willing to help him, it only means that they like his character.'

She thought that having dinner with them right now was truly valuable.

After eating, Su Bei went out to pay the bill.

Knowing that eating in the private room of this restaurant cost an arm and a leg, she took out two credit cards.

"Miss Su, your total bill is eight hundred eighty yuan."

"Huh? Are you sure about that? Why it's so small?" She couldn't hide the surprise on her face. They had abalone and shark fins on their table just now. And the king crab alone was even more expensive.

So she had already anticipated that she would pay a huge bill.

"Miss Su, today is our restaurant's anniversary, and we have a promotion that our 880th customer will get a discount. And it happens to be you." The waiter then took out a shiny golden leaflet and handed it to her. Everything about the anniversary event was clearly written in there. Indeed, they had a promotion today.

"Congratulations, Miss Su. You are the lucky one!"

Chapter 92 It Was His Honor

Su Bei didn't expect her luck tonight.

So after paying the bill, she excitedly went back to Lu Heting and told him about the promotion.

Lu Heting listened to her, looking at her bright smile.

He knew that the watch she bought for him already cost her a lot of money, so he didn't want her to spend anything on this dinner.

But not letting her pay at all would only make her doubt him. So he thought of a way to help her save money. Besides, it was not a burden for a female model to pay such an amount.

Sitting at the other side of the table, Lawyer Tian and Lawyer Zhou couldn't help but observe Lu Heting and Su Bei. Although the couple didn't have any intimate gestures, they could feel their harmonious vibe.

It was rare for their Mr. Lu to show such a spoiled expression.

It was undeniable that Su Bei was really the wife of the CEO of Lu Group.

After their dinner, Su Bei politely bade farewell to the two lawyers.

She was a model, a public figure. But although Lu Heting didn't specially ask the two lawyers to keep their meeting a secret, they knew very well that they couldn't talk or gossip about her.

When they got home, Su Bei sat on the sofa and joined Gun Gun, looking at some pictures of cars in a magazine.

The little boy liked cars so much. In fact, he had so many toy cars now. And he enjoyed reading magazines about cars a lot.

"Is this color good?" Su Bei asked.

"Hmm... it's okay."

"How about this model?"

Gun Gun's eyes shone brightly. "Anything you like is good."

"Then how about I choose one from these?"

Gun Gun couldn't agree more. "Okay!"

For Gun Gun, Su Bei was a goddess. She was a light shining in his heart. So he agreed to whatever she said.

"You are cute, so you are right in everything." This was what his eyes were saying.

Su Bei lovingly planted a kiss on his forehead.

Glancing at Gun Gun enviously, Lu Heting served each of them a glass of milk. He then asked, "What are you doing?"

"Daddy, Bei Bei is going to buy a car," Gun Gun immediately reported.

Lu Heting raised his head and looked at Su Bei. "You want to buy a car?"

Su Bei nodded. "Yes. All the cars you are using are owned by Lu Group. It's not appropriate to use them in my private affairs. But since we always need a car, I want to buy one. I still have enough money from the talent fee I've gotten from Orisa Fashion Show."

She also thought that it would be more convenient for Lu Heting to pick up Da Bao and Gun Gun from school if they had their own car.

Actually, the number of cars parked in Lu Heting's villa was larger than that of Gun Gun's toy cars.

However, he had regarded himself as a driver now. He couldn't possibly tell Su Bei that she could just choose from the many cars he currently owned.

So he asked, "How much is your budget for the car?"

“Around half a million yuan,” Su Bei answered. “The talent fee from Orisa Fashion Show plus my savings from my other big shows and advertisements are about this amount. By the way, Heting, you are a driver. So you surely know a lot about cars. Do you have any recommendations?”

Lu Heting didn't really know much about cars that cost around five hundred thousand yuan. How could he give any recommendations?

Eventually, he said, “I know a car dealership that sells at a fair price. We can go there and have a look if you want.”

When Su Bei heard this, she smiled happily. “Okay, take me there then. Lu Heting, you are really something. You can help me with anything.”

A trace of pride was written all over Lu Heting's face. It was always his honor to be able to help her.

“I will call you after work tomorrow.” Still wearing a bright smile, Su Bei looked at his dazzling face.

Chapter93 Tough New Agent

Why did she feel like he was getting more and more handsome? Was it just her illusion?

He didn't say anything special. But she wanted to look at him more.

She quickly looked away and told herself, ‘Forget it! Don't think too much.’

When Lu Heting entered the bedroom he was using in Su Bei's apartment, he called his assistant. He told his assistant to prepare some cars for Su Bei to choose from.

The next day, Su Bei went straight to Qian Yu Entertainment Company early in the morning.

Inside the office of her director, Song Ruinian, she put forward her request in front of him and Qiu Minxuan. “I want to change my agent.”

The expression on Qiu Minxuan's face changed slightly. “Su Bei, we don't have any problems with our current cooperation. Don't you think that your request is a slap in my face?”

“Miss Qiu, I won't talk about the problems during the interview for Orisa Fashion Show. But on the day of the show itself, you've arranged a ribbon-cutting ceremony of a KTV for me. Don't you think it's a problem? And on the night of Orisa Fashion Show, you and Su Huixian have falsely accused me of drugging her. Is there nothing wrong with it?” Su Bei asked.

“Su Bei, there have been some misunderstandings.” Qiu Minxuan tried to defend herself.

“Then have you clarified those misunderstandings for me?” Su Bei questioned again.

Of course, Qiu Minxuan didn't. Instead, she kept adding insult to injury, intending to put Su Bei's career to an end.

She felt guilty.

Strictly speaking, everything that happened that day was not arranged by her.

Su Huixian was behind all those. But as her agent, she had to take responsibility since she chose to stand on Su Huixian's side.

"Director Song, I believe that Qian Yu Entertainment Company gives justice to its artists. Am I right?" Su Bei said as she put the contract of that ribbon-cutting ceremony on Song Ruinian's desk.

During the event, the manager of the KTV threw this document at her. She kept it because she wanted to use it against Qiu Minxuan.

After all, Qiu Minxuan's signature was there.

It only meant that she was the one who made a deal with the KTV and accepted the job for Su Bei.

As much as possible, Song Ruinian didn't want to be involved because he was quite familiar with Su Xingfu.

However, he couldn't just ignore Su Bei's request to change her agent.

So he turned to Qiu Minxuan and said, "Minxuan, you didn't consider this matter thoroughly. For the meantime, you are not Su Bei's agent anymore."

Since Qiu Minxuan was in the wrong, she had no choice but to take the blame for what Su Xingfu and Su Huixian had done.

Song Ruinian thought for a while and said, "Su Bei, I'll assign Lv Shan to be your agent for the time being. I'll give her a call now and ask her to take over the job."

Upon hearing this, an evil grin appeared on Qiu Minxuan's face.

Lv Shan was the toughest agent in Qian Yu Entertainment Company. As an experienced agent, she usually made things difficult for newcomers.

She was not a good choice for Su Bei at all.

Qiu Minxuan thought to herself, 'Song Ruinian is really a cunning man. He knows what kind of agent Lv Shan is, but he let her handle Su Bei. In this case, he will not offend Su Huixian while granting Su Bei's request.'

She secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Finally, she didn't need to continue being Su Bei's enemy.

Su Bei agreed to Song Ruinian's arrangement. But judging from Qiu Minxuan's expression, she could tell that Lv Shan was not the best choice for her.

After coming out of Song Ruinian's office, Su Bei made a phone call.

She worked in the United States for a few years, so she made lots of friends there. And some of them were in Jingdu City right now.

It wouldn't be difficult for her to inquire about Lv Shan.

This time, she had to take the initiative.

Soon, the friend she called sent the information about Lv Shan to her phone.

Chapter94 Secret

Qiu Minxuan immediately went to Su Huixian to report the matter.

“Now that her agent is Lv Shan, I don’t know if Su Bei will be fine in the future. But her interview this afternoon will definitely not go well,” Su Huixian surmised.

Qiu Minxuan nodded in agreement. “That’s right. Everyone knows that Lv Shan is an experienced but arrogant agent. She has always been unfriendly to newcomers. Since Director Song transferred Su Bei to her, Su Bei will have a hard time then.”

Su Huixian smiled gently. She had always been polite to Song Ruinian. She also treated him to meals and gave him gifts often. Now she realized that everything she did to him was not in vain.

Even if Su Bei had connections in the entertainment industry, Qian Yu Entertainment Company might not have much room for her.

Su Bei had an interview with the reporters in the afternoon.

Before that, she needed to put on some makeup and change her clothes.

She went straight to Lv Shan’s office. Lv Shan was in her thirties. She looked mature and capable. Her short hair and nails, which were painted red, showed her sophisticated taste.

Her sharp eyes looked at Su Bei up and down.

“Su Bei, right? It’s lunchtime, so let’s talk about your problem this afternoon.” Lv Shan raised her wrist and glanced at the time on her watch. “Come back to me at half past twelve.”

The lunch break in Qian Yu Entertainment Company started at twelve o’clock. It wasn’t even half past eleven yet.

What was more, artists and agents often had to hurriedly prepare for activities and interviews, so they barely lingered over their meals. How could Lv Shan eat so slowly and only finish it at half past twelve?

The information Su Bei had gotten from her friend was right. Lv Shan liked to suppress newcomers, so she wanted to deal Su Bei a head-on blow at the first encounter.

Su Bei pursed her red lips slightly and reminded, “Lv Shan, my interview will start at one o’clock. If I come to you at half past twelve, I won’t have enough time to prepare.”

“Who has the final say, you or me?” Lv Shan asked with a smile that did not reach her eyes.

She looked at Su Bei up and down. Su Bei had only been in the company for a few days, but she already requested to change her agent. Lv Shan didn’t like what she did at all.

She would let Su Bei know who the boss was.

In such a refreshing outfit, Su Bei looked like a fledgling college student. She didn’t seem to have the temperament of an international supermodel.

However, when her red lips slightly curled, she naturally looked powerful. “Lv Shan, I work in the company to make money. I believe you do too, right?”

“What do you mean?” Lv Shan asked.

“If I’m not mistaken, you are getting married half a year from now. Right? I’m just wondering if your fiancé knows what you have done before,” Su Bei said with a pure and innocent smile on her face.

The look on Lv Shan’s face suddenly changed. She was indeed getting married soon.

But before she had a relationship with her fiancé, she was a mistress of a big shot in the entertainment industry.

She was getting older, and she didn’t want to continue such a hopeless relationship and life, so she chose to settle down.

She saw from Su Bei’s eyes that Su Bei knew many things about her.

“How did you know that?” Shock was written all over Lv Shan’s face. It was a deep, dark secret from her past that even her friends didn’t know. She didn’t expect that Su Bei knew about it.

Seeing that Lv Shan didn’t deny it, Su Bei smiled. But she didn’t continue to point it out bluntly. Instead, she said, “Lv Shan, everyone in this industry has some well-informed friends. And what I said just now is also true. I work here to make a living, not to make enemies. So I hope that we can work and cooperate smoothly.”

Chapter95 A Man Willing to Pay for Her

Lv Shan calmed herself down and quickly weighed the pros and cons. Then she said flatly, “I’ll accompany you to the dressing room now. Let’s get everything ready for your interview.”

Su Bei nodded and said politely, “Thank you, Lv Shan.”

They were both smart, so there was no need to say anything else.

Lv Shan accompanied Su Bei to the dressing room and talked to the stylist and makeup artist. She also chose clothes for Su Bei according to the requirements of the interview.

Everything went smoothly.

Even Su Bei’s interview in the afternoon didn’t have any problems at all.

After the interview, she left the company briskly.

Qiu Minxuan and Su Huixian were in disbelief. Lv Shan always liked to make things difficult for newcomers to assert authority. But she could always balance all aspects of the relationship. That was why she had the reputation of being the toughest agent in the company.

But this time, she didn’t make things difficult for Su Bei.

They couldn’t do anything but just watch Su Bei finish her work and leave happily.

How did Su Bei handle Lv Shan remained a question in their minds.

After finishing her work, Su Bei was in a good mood. She went straight to Lin Moli’s house to see Da Bao. She showed him a lot of car models and asked him to choose one.

“In the future, your daddy will drive the car we will choose to send you to school.”

“Aren’t you driving it?” Da Bao asked.

“Of course, I will too,” Su Bei replied with a smile.

Da Bao started to give some professional advices. “I like this kind of car. You can choose which color you like.”

Su Bei felt more confident now and made a rough choice.

Since she didn’t have any work the next day, she went straight to the car dealership that Lu Heting recommended.

She didn’t know that it was such a huge store until she walked inside. It was filled with all kinds of luxury cars, which were dazzling and dizzying.

It seemed that after working in Lu Group for too long, Lu Heting’s taste had been cultivated. Did he think she could afford one of these cars?

But anyway, she was already there, so she decided to have a look.

These cars, which had streamlined bodies and were exquisitely painted with high-end paints, were indeed much more eye-catching than those that were worth only hundreds of thousands of yuan.

Upon seeing Su Bei, a stout man with a round face wearing a white shirt and a suit, came over and warmly greeted, “Beauty, which car do you want to see?” He was the store manager.

When Su Bei was not working, she wore simple and casual clothes.

Even if she walked on the street without the disguise of sunglasses and scarf, others wouldn’t recognize her as the new supermodel.

However, her long chestnut curly hair that was casually tied into a bun revealed her fair and beautiful face, which was very eye-catching.

The store manager had served countless customers, so he could roughly figure out their income and consumption. Seeing Su Bei’s outstanding appearance and figure, he guessed that she must be able to afford a luxury car.

Such a young woman was most likely a top online celebrity and must have a lot of money. And even if she didn’t have so much money, there must be a man behind her, willing to pay for her.

Su Bei’s gaze swept the luxury cars, and she shook her head slightly. “Sorry, I’ll take a look first.”

“The luxury cars in our store have concessions and large discounts. For some cars that originally cost millions of yuan, you can get a discount of almost two hundred thousand,” the store manager explained. “Have a look first. If you get interested in any of them, just let me know.”

“Almost two hundred thousand yuan discount? In that case, I can get a car for only seven or eight hundred thousand, right?” What the store manager had said somehow piqued Su Bei’s interest.

Chapter96 Come in and Humiliate Herself

Su Bei had only allotted five hundred thousand yuan to buy a new car. But she could afford to add two or three hundred thousand as long as it was worth it.

The most important thing was the car's quality and the safety it could provide.

When the store manager heard Su Bei's words, he looked at her up and down and said, "Oh, I'm talking about the two million yuan models. If you buy any of them, you can get a two hundred thousand discount. You can't get a luxury car at the price of seven or eight hundred thousand."

Su Bei smiled awkwardly. "It's okay. These cars are too expensive for me. My budget is not enough. Let me look at some other cars."

"How much is your budget then?" The store manager could already tell that she didn't have enough money to buy a car from them, but he still had a slim hope.

"Five hundred thousand," Su Bei answered.

The store manager's passion cooled in an instant. She was young and beautiful, so he didn't expect that she couldn't afford to buy herself a good car.

Although he didn't show it on his face, his voice became cold when he said, "Beauty, we sell luxury cars here. They are worth millions of yuan. If your budget is only five hundred thousand yuan, I suggest you go to other car dealerships and have a look."

He had spent so much time talking to her. He didn't expect that it was a complete waste.

Their shop always sold high-end cars worth millions of yuan. The customers he met every day were all wealthy. People who didn't have enough money were usually scared away by the names of the luxury cars posted at the door of their shop, and they didn't dare to come in.

Judging from Su Bei's appearance, the store manager thought that he could make a big deal with her.

Seeing that she was still looking around, he said in a somewhat ridiculous and careless tone, "Okay, you can have a look, but don't touch any of the cars here. Their paints are very high-end, so you can't just scratch them."

If cars had some scratches, they had to send them back to their manufacturers to be repainted. And most of the manufacturers were overseas, so it would cost them a lot of money.

Thus, the store manager was always rude to customers who came to their shop to only have a look. He just hoped that Su Bei would leave as soon as possible, so she wouldn't cause trouble for him.

Su Bei didn't have plans of touching the cars there. Even if she couldn't afford to buy any of them, she just wanted to have a look because of Gun Gun. The little boy liked cars so much.

When she saw him later, she could understand him better when he talked about cars to her in the evening.

"Hey, look who's looking at the cars here! A luxury car worth millions of yuan is not something everyone can afford. Besides, the cars here are all imported, and the cheapest model is worth two million yuan.

Those who are not blind can clearly see the prices posted at the door. Why does someone still have to come in and humiliate herself?"

While Su Bei was attentively observing each car, a group of young women came in. They talked and laughed, looking in her direction.

When she looked at the woman who said those harsh words, she recognized her. It was Xu Meiqi, Xu Zhiqin's niece, and Su Huixian's cousin.

Xu Meiqi used to be a dumb freeloader in the Su family's villa and had always been mean and acerbic. Su Bei didn't like her and didn't want to talk to her at all.

She was now working as Su Huixian's assistant. And with Su Huixian's backing, she became more arrogant and meaner to Su Bei.

Su Bei's expression didn't change. With a frown, she looked in Xu Meiqi's direction.

Leading the group was Su Huixian. She was wearing a customized dress from a high-end brand, and she was carrying a handbag from a famous brand.

With her were Xu Meiqi and Luo Lili, a model of Qian Yu Entertainment Company.

Xu Meiqi and Luo Lili were both bitter because Su Huixian missed the chance of walking on the stage of the Orisa Fashion Show.

They both believed that Su Bei had really played some tricks.

Chapter 97 Things That Su Bei Can't Take Away

Xu Meiqi hated Su Bei more. Even when she still went to the Su family's villa, she didn't like Su Bei's arrogant look. And she also hated the fact that Su Bei was the legitimate daughter of the head of Su family.

She smiled and said, "Huixian, look! It's Su Bei over there. She has been kicked out of the Su family, right? No wonder she can't even afford to buy a car here."

"With her current income? Of course, she can't afford it. But who knows if there's an old man paying for her?" Luo Lili said with a smile.

Su Huixian was in a good mood today, so she just said, "Don't talk nonsense. Let's go around and have a look."

Xu Meiqi smiled and complimented Su Huixian, "Huixian, even if Su Bei has taken away your chance in the Orisa Fashion Show, it's nothing. Uncle loves you, and Mr. Luo spoils you. Uncle even let you go out to relax and choose any luxury car you want here. These are the things that Su Bei can't take away from you."

Hearing these words made Su Huixian happier. Indeed, Su Xingfu was worried that she was in a bad mood, so he asked her to go out and buy whatever she wanted.

Su Bei would never get their father's love.

When Su Bei overheard their conversation, the expression on her face slightly changed for a moment, then it returned to normal.

She looked at the cars in front of her casually with a relaxed expression on her face, admiring the masterpieces produced by industrial technology.

The store manager was very angry at Su Bei.

But when he raised his eyes and saw Su Huixian, a smile appeared on his plump round face. He immediately walked up to her and said, "Miss Su, what brings you here today? Come in, please. We are so honored that you visit our store today. What kind of car would you like to see?"

Su Xingfu and Du Luo were regular customers of this car dealership. Everyone here knew who Su Huixian was, so they gave her the VIP treatment.

The store manager was flattering Su Huixian all year round.

Her family background alone was already extraordinary. And if she really married into the Du family in the future, he would have to work harder to compliment her.

"I'll just look around first," Su Huixian replied with a reserved smile. "I'm tired of roadsters, so I want to see if there's any big car with better safety performance."

"Yes, of course! Miss Su, you're a tall, long-legged woman with an outstanding figure. You will definitely feel uncomfortable when you drive the roadster for a long time. Look at this SUV. It suits your international supermodel temperament," the store manager said to Su Huixian in a very flattering tone.

Su Huixian's face lit up.

Xu Meiqi also smiled and said, "The store manager surely knows how to compliment his customers. Cousin, I think we might as well check this SUV. It may really suit you since you have long legs."

With a smile, the store manager said, "I'm telling the truth. Every time Miss Su appears on the stage, she's really like an International supermodel. And with such long legs, she deserves to drive a big luxury car that matches her looks and temperament. An ordinary woman's face will remain unseen even if she gets into this kind of car. Only Miss Su's figure fits into this kind of car."

"Okay, then. Tell me all the details while I'm taking a look," Su Huixian said as her gaze swept over the neatly arranged luxury cars.

"This SUV here is the latest model of Mercedes-Benz. It has the most advanced brake system. The moment it senses danger, it will automatically brake for you to avoid hitting pedestrians. Its safety performance is really high, but it is very fast. Its speed can be changed to one hundred kilometers per hour in a second. You will surely have a very good driving experience. Miss Su, come, check it."

The store manager led Su Huixian to a tall and eye-catching car.

Chapter 98 Shame on Her

Su Huixian looked at the SUV with satisfaction, but she still asked, "Is there anything better?"

“Oh, this Cayenne. This car is equipped with a top twin-turbo supercharged engine, which can produce 550 horsepower and a peak torque of 770N·m. It is the fastest SUV so far.” The store manager mentioned some terminologies that only professionals understood. Then he said, “Miss Su, a beauty like you matches well to a luxury car.”

Su Huixian glanced at the car and in Su Bei’s direction.

Su Bei was shuttling between cars with a trace of appreciation and regret in her eyes.

Su Huixian thought proudly to herself, ‘When Su Bei was the lofty legitimate daughter of the head of Su family, she seized all the resources in the family. And I was only regarded as the mistress’ daughter that everyone bullied. Well, we have our own turn. She can no longer win Dad’s and Du Luo’s hearts now. Such a fool! She has offended them, so she can’t even afford a car now.’

She really hoped that Su Bei would continue to be stupid for the rest of her life and would never come back to compete with her again.

When Xu Meiqi noticed that Su Huixian had been looking at Su Bei, she said, “Hey, Su Bei! You’re here too. Haven’t seen this kind of car for a long time?”

Su Bei just wanted to take a look at the cars alone, so she didn’t mind Su Huixian and the others.

But she didn’t expect that Xu Meiqi would really provoke her.

So she raised her eyes, looked at Xu Meiqi indifferently, and smiled. “Xu Meiqi, it’s you. I haven’t been back to the Su family’s villa for a long time, so I haven’t seen you eat our food for a long time too. I actually almost didn’t recognize you.”

Xu Meiqi came from an ordinary family, while the Su family was wealthy. She used to go to the Su family’s villa from time to time. Su Bei was right. She went there to have some good meals.

Xu Meiqi hated to be looked down upon by others, and she didn’t admit that everything she had was from the Su family. She snapped angrily, “Su Bei, you are the lofty and arrogant daughter of the head of Su family, but you are narrow-minded. I am a relative of the Su family, so it’s only natural for me to come and visit them. But the way you say it sounds so annoying.”

“Oh? Well, if you say so,” Su Bei said with a faint smile.

Xu Meiqi hated Su Bei’s indifference the most. Su Bei was so calm and unconcerned with her provocation, and it made her look like a real troublemaker.

She wanted to say something more, but Su Huixian stopped her. Su Huixian then turned to Su Bei and said tolerantly, “Su Bei, you need your own car for work now. Come back home so that you can drive your own cars. It’s really inconvenient without a car, isn’t it?”

Before Su Bei left the Su family, she had her own cars. But since she hadn’t reached the age of eighteen at that time yet, those cars were registered under Su Xingfu’s name.

Xu Meiqi reminded Su Huixian, “Cousin, have you forgotten? Uncle has given us Su Bei’s cars. So what else can she drive?”

“Oh, yeah. Sorry, I really forgot. Su Bei, how about I give them back to you?” Su Huixian said as if she had just remembered something.

Xu Meiqi said at once, “Cousin, what are you talking about? She did something wrong and ran away from the Su family. She made Uncle so angry because she embarrassed both the Su family and the Du family. Why do you have to be nice to her?”

Luo Lili also chimed in, “That’s right. She also ruined the engagement five years ago. Shame on her!”

But Su Huixian interrupted them. “Girls, don’t say that. Those cars had always been driven by Su Bei before. If she still wants them, she can take them back.”

Chapter 99 Even the General Manager Came

Su Huixian was willing to give Su Bei’s cars back because she had used them for a long time anyway. And she knew that if Su Xingfu found out that Su Bei took her cars, he would feel guilty and would definitely buy her new ones.

Su Bei knew that Su Huixian was good at pretending and hiding.

So with a faint smile on her red lips, she said lightly, “Actually, I’ve been wondering who has picked up the things I’ve thrown away. It turns out that it’s you. Since you’ve picked them up, you can keep them to yourself. After all, garbage has to be sorted, right? Now I don’t have to worry where to throw them away.”

The look on Su Huixian’s face slightly changed. Su Bei’s words were obviously hinting that Du Luo was part of her garbage. The irony in her voice was too obvious.

Xu Meiqi angrily said, “Su Bei, you’re going too far! Who are you mocking overtly?”

“Am I mocking anyone?” The smile on Su Bei’s face still looked so natural. Her slightly flushed face didn’t show any trace of mockery at all. People who didn’t know them would think that she was simply chatting with her old acquaintances.

She looked at Xu Meiqi calmly. “If a dog bites me, I don’t need to bite it back, right? I’m not that stupid!”

Xu Meiqi was so angry that she almost pounced on Su Bei.

Seeing the stalemate between them, the store manager hurriedly walked over to mediate. He said to Su Huixian, “Miss Su, why don’t you take a look at the other cars? I can give the biggest discount to any car you choose.”

Su Huixian really didn’t want to talk to Su Bei anymore, so she just glanced at Su Bei lazily.

Su Bei also lost interest in looking at the other cars, so she decided to leave. She was about to walk out of the shop when her phone rang.

When she saw Lu Heting’s name flashing on the screen, his calm and dazzling obsidian-like eyes appeared in her mind. She answered the phone at once. “Hello, Heting.”

“Su Bei, I remember you said you are going to buy a car today, right?”

“Yes. I’m actually here in the car dealership you’ve recommended to me. But none of the cars here suits me. I’m about to leave.” She realized that this shop was not a good place to buy a car. But she didn’t blame him for recommending it to her.

As Lu Weijian’s driver, he must have come to this car dealership often for car maintenance. The staff here must have treated him well, so he didn’t know that the snobbish manager actually treated people according to their social status.

Lu Heting said in a deep but mellow voice, “Wait a moment. I’ve contacted the manager I know there. He will be there to assist you. Maybe he can help you find a suitable one.”

Su Bei wanted to refuse because the cars here were too expensive.

But when she thought that Lu Heting must have exerted so much effort to ask for help, she felt that what he did would be in vain if she left.

Besides, it wouldn’t take her much time to take a look at the cars. If she couldn’t afford the car that the said manager would recommend, she could just go away without buying it.

With a gentle smile, she said on the phone, “Okay then, I’ll have a look.”

Lu Heting just hummed softly, but there seemed to be a smile in his voice.

As soon as Su Bei hung up the phone, she saw a tall and thin middle-aged man walking towards her, followed by an assistant. It seemed that he was the general manager here.

The store manager and Su Huixian also saw the general manager walking towards them.

The store manager thought that the general manager must have come here because of Su Huixian. After all, the Su family and the Du family both had high status in Jingdu City. The amount of their consumption was also very high. The general manager probably showed up because the daughter of the head of Su family was here.

A bright smile also appeared on Su Huixian’s face. She thought to herself, ‘The general manager is really respectful to my father and Du Luo. He has come to personally welcome me.’

Xu Meiqi smiled and said, “Huixian, that’s Manager Gao. He must be here to personally assist you. I’m sure he’ll give you a better discount.”

Luo Lili was very envious. She said, “A woman doesn’t only need her own career but also a powerful background. Look at Su Bei. Even though she appeared on the stage of Orisa Fashion Show, it’s nothing. People still look down upon her.”

Chapter 100 Producing Cost of Thirty Million Yuan

The store manager hurriedly stepped forward and said, “Manager Gao! Miss Su is interested in an SUV.”

“Hello, Manager Gao,” Su Huixian also greeted with a smile.

“Hello, Miss Su,” Manager Gao greeted back politely. But he didn’t seem to show any special treatment on her at all.

After saying hello to Su Huixian, he approached Su Bei and bowed respectfully. "Miss Su, I heard that you want to buy a car. This way, please."

"Thank you, Manager Gao," Su Bei said with a gentle smile.

While watching Manager Gao introduced some cars to Su Bei, the store manager was shocked. Surprise was obviously written all over his plump face.

Didn't Manager Gao know Su Huixian's identity?

It couldn't possibly be! She had come to their shop with Su Xingfu and Du Luo before.

Su Huixian's mood changed drastically, but she concealed it well.

In her heart, she couldn't help muttering, 'What does Manager Gao mean by doing this? Has Dad or Du Luo told him that they want to take Su Bei back home? That's impossible! Su Bei has been so unfilial and disobedient. They can't like her again.'

Despite her thoughts, Su Huixian couldn't help but follow them. She wanted to know how Manager Gao would treat Su Bei.

Manager Gao led Su Bei to an SUV. Of course, she also wanted to buy this kind of car. As a supermodel, she was tall and long-legged. An SUV was more suitable to her than a small car or a sports car. Moreover, she also had to take her family into consideration.

Su Bei's eyes lit up upon seeing the car in front of her. Actually, she had been looking at it since she arrived here earlier. This car was taller than the others, majestic, and eye-catching.

The paint was also very exquisite. It could be seen that both the design and the materials were full of unique thoughts.

Besides, not only the model but also the color was ideal for her. It was not easy to find such a car.

It was as if what stood in front of her was not a car but her dream lover. Everything was taken from her mind and built bit by bit according to her thoughts.

The car and her dream were integrated to such a high degree.

Thus, the moment she saw it, she knew at a glance that it was what she wanted.

Yes, she wanted it!

"Miss Su, let me introduce this car to you." Manager Gao saw the light in her eyes, so he smiled.

Su Bei smiled and asked, "How about the safety performance of this car?"

"Oh, it's very safe! This car is equipped with a brake system unique in the world. And its airbag has also been improved on international standards. It will cause very minimal damage and provides maximum protection when it blows out. The steel plate and the glass used in the car's body are bulletproof, and its anti-collision ability is leading in the world.

Its intelligent system and driverless system are also of international standards verified by experts."

As he spoke, Manager Gao's eyes shone brightly. He was the general manager, so he knew the advantages and values of this car too well.

He also loved cars, so he wished he could own such a car.

Actually, two hours was not enough to talk about the benefits of this car. Even its advantages sounded almost exaggerated.

It could be said that as long as this car was available in the market, any rich people who had tried it would definitely buy it despite its high price.

Its producing cost had reached an astonishing price of thirty million yuan.

Therefore, this model couldn't be mass-produced.
