

Chapter111 Chartered Plane

Su Bei was taken aback for a while. Qiu Minxuan took out the contract and waved it in front of her. She also saw Su Huixian smiling behind Qiu Minxuan.

Du Luo glanced at her apologetically, but she didn't look at him at all.

Instead, she looked at Lv Shan and asked, "Lv Shan, what's going on? Are we still going?"

"Jin Xiu always chooses two brand ambassadors. Since they have already chosen one, there is still one opportunity left," Lv Shan said frankly. "Believe me, Su Bei."

"Well, all right. I've decided to accept you as my agent, so I won't doubt you," Su Bei said. "Let's go get our boarding pass then."

Qiu Minxuan also got their boarding pass and went to pick up Su Huixian and Du Luo. Then they walked towards the boarding gate together.

Thinking that she would have to stay on the same plane with them for more than ten hours, Su Bei felt a little uncomfortable.

But she calmed herself down. She was about to go with Lv Shan when a tall figure with a suitcase suddenly appeared in front of her. It was Lu Heting.

He was wearing a suit that didn't show any brand, and it made him a standout among the crowd.

He walked straight towards Su Bei and Lv Shan.

Surprised, Lv Shan asked, "Su Bei, who is he?"

Lu Heting had always kept a low profile. So even in his industry, not many people knew what he really looked like, let alone an outsider like Lv Shan.

"Oh, this is Lu Heting, my husband." Now that they had met, it was no longer necessary to hide his identity from Lv Shan, so Su Bei immediately introduced him to her.

Lv Shan wanted to remind Su Bei about the rule that artists should report their marriage to the company and to their agent.

But Su Bei seemed to have read her mind, so she said, "We got married five years ago. I didn't mean to hide it from you, but I think there's no need to publicize it."

Lv Shan understood. Since it was something that happened before Su Bei came to the company, she couldn't interfere.

She greeted Lu Heting and found that he had a much stronger aura compared to ordinary people. She also felt that he was keeping a low profile deliberately.

He was like those who had been in high positions for a long time.

However, Lv Shan quickly dispelled this idea in her mind. If Lu Heting was really as powerful as he looked, why did Su Bei have to work so hard in the entertainment industry? Why would she especially go to the United States now to audition for Jin Xiu's brand ambassador?

"Lv Shan and I are about to board the plane. Are you on a business trip?" Su Bei said.

"Well, yes. To the United States."

"What a coincidence." Su Bei raised her wrist, looked at her watch, and asked, "Will you be on the same flight with me?"

"No," Lu Heting denied.

Su Bei didn't know why, but she somehow felt disappointed.

Lu Heting reached out his hand, took her suitcase, and said, "My boss chartered a plane, and I'm going there to help him. There are many vacant seats on the plane, so I've told my boss that I will take you with me."

Su Bei knew that many drivers worked as assistants, and they were the most trusted employees of their bosses.

"If that's the case, then I won't refuse." She really didn't want to be on the same plane with Su Huixian and Du Luo. She didn't want to see them show off their love.

Seeing that Su Bei agreed, Lv Shan followed her.

With Lu Heting on the lead, they boarded a large passenger plane. The spacious cabin was luxuriously decorated.

In the huge cabin, there were only a few dozens of seats. And if these seats were put down, they would become beds as comfortable as the luxury Simmons.

Row upon row of red wines were displayed with professional equipment. There was also a fridge that contained various kinds of food.

Indeed, Lu Group was wealthy.

Su Bei couldn't help but feel amazed.

Chapter 112 He Is Just a Driver

Lv Shan was also dazzled by the beauty and breadth of the airplane. She couldn't help asking Su Bei, "Who is your husband's boss?"

"He's working for Lu Weijian, the young master of Lu Group."

"No wonder." Lv Shan had heard of Lu Weijian's name already. It turned out that Lu Heting was his driver.

Lu Heting helped Su Bei put everything in order and arranged a seat for her. She asked curiously, "Where is Mr. Weijian?"

She thought she would see Lu Weijian today.

“He’s already in the United States. He needs to stay there for a few more days, so he asked me to go there urgently. It so happens that it’s also where your destination is.”

Su Bei understood things immediately. Perhaps the purpose of this plane was not only to send Lu Heting there but also to pick up Lu Weijian back. With Lu Weijian’s money, he could really do whatever he wanted. Actually, he could just buy a plane ticket, but he preferred to charter a plane.

The Su family and the Du family were also rich, but they were far from this point.

Lu Heting was very familiar with everything in the cabin. He was considerate and attentive to Su Bei. It was as if she was his distinguished guest.

Su Huixian and Du Luo boarded the plane and sat in the same row with Qiu Minxuan.

There were very few first-class cabins for the passengers going to the United States. They were in a regular cabin, and it was very crowded. However, Su Huixian was so excited.

“Du Luo, thank you for helping me get the spot as the brand ambassador of Jin Xiu,” Su Huixian said gently.

“My cousin who treats me as a brother happens to manage that company, so she has helped me,” Du Luo replied softly.

Actually, when he found that Su Bei was also going to audition, he felt a little guilty. He didn’t know if she could win the remaining spot after traveling this far.

Su Huixian noticed that he was a little absentminded when he spoke, so she guessed that he was thinking of Su Bei.

Su Bei was so vicious that she threw Xu Meiqi into prison, but he was still thinking of her.

“Why didn’t Su Bei get on the plane?” Su Huixian asked, pretending to care about Su Bei.

The cabin door was already closed, and there were still two empty seats.

She thought to herself, ‘Su Bei must have realized that she can’t make it, so she decided not to go. It seems that she is not that stupid.’

Du Luo also saw that there were two empty seats, and Su Bei wasn’t there. He thought that she must have been sad seeing him with Su Huixian, so she gave up the job.

Su Bei was now in the private plane and arrived at the hotel in the United states before them.

Lv Shan had initially booked a cheap hotel for them, but Lu Heting asked Su Bei to stay with him.

Lv Shan just agreed and went with them. After all, it could help reduce their expenses, which was better than expected.

The hotel booked by Lu Heting looked ordinary on outside. It didn’t even have an official name. It seemed worse than the one booked by Lv Shan.

“He’s just a driver, after all.” Lv Shan had already inquired about Lu Heting’s identity from Su Bei, so she was not surprised that he took them to such a hotel.

But when she walked in with Lu Heting and Su Bei, she saw that it was totally different inside.

The yard was full of blooming flowers, showing a splendid summer scene. And the green grass was like a blanket, covering the entire yard.

The small but exquisite room had no exceptional decorations. But one could feel the ingenuity and care of the layout.

It seemed that Lu Heting traveled for business frequently. He could even find such a hidden hotel.

Su Bei was in a good mood. She texted Da Bao and Gun Gun, telling them that she had arrived at the hotel.

“Heting, go ahead with your work. I can already manage from here.”

Lu Group had a branch in the United States. It was true that something had happened here recently, but Lu Heting didn’t need to come and deal with it by himself.

Chapter 113 A Legitimate Couple

But since Lu Heting was already here, he planned to spare two days to stay in the company. In this way, Su Bei would not doubt his purpose in coming here.

“Don’t worry, my schedule is not that full,” he said, not looking at her. He actually came here to mainly accompany her.

He took his suitcase in and began to unpack.

Su Bei was surprised. “You’re staying in the same room with me?”

“What’s wrong with it?” Lu Heting didn’t seem to mind.

At home, he slept in the other room because Gun Gun slept with Su Bei.

Did he really have to book two rooms when they were on a business trip.

Su Bei also felt that she had gone too far. How could she drive Lu Heting to another room after having a busy day?

But she knew too well that she couldn’t develop a relationship with anyone because of her illness. If they fell deeply in love, she was afraid that he would suffer severe pain when she died.

The better he was, the more guilt she would feel.

“I mean, don’t you have a lot of work to do? If we share a room, I may disturb you.”

“Su Bei, our marriage was registered, so we are a legitimate couple.” Lu Heting walked up to her and looked at her beautiful eyes.

She had a pair of black and bright eyes. There seemed to be glittering lights in them that made people easily addicted.

She was his woman, and he was thankful for this countless times. He wanted to make their relationship more solid.

But he wanted to take it slow. He wanted to give her time, and he could patiently wait, afraid that she would leave without telling him again like what she did five years ago.

However, now that she didn't even want to share a room with him, he felt a little disappointed.

Su Bei saw the disappointment in his eyes, but she didn't know how to resolve it. She said, "I... I remember that I still have some work to do. I'll go talk with Lv Shan first. I'm leaving now."

She ran out of the room as fast as she could. She was afraid that if she stayed a little longer, she would really fall for him.

He really had this kind of magic that could make people fascinated by him.

Su Bei rushed to Lv Shan's room.

They discussed work for a while before she returned to her room.

Of course, she couldn't possibly stay with Lv Shan the whole night. They were just colleagues, not friends. It was not appropriate for her to do that.

When she entered the room, Lu Heting had already finished unpacking and putting everything in order. He was sleeping on the sofa, covered with a thin blanket. The light was adjusted to night mode.

Su Bei breathed a sigh of relief. She took a quick shower, climbed into bed, and soon fell asleep.

Lying on the sofa, Lu Heting was actually not asleep. He opened his eyes and looked at the ceiling for a long time. His dark eyes seemed unfathomable. He only closed his eyes again when he heard Su Bei's steady breathing.

The audition was on the next day.

Su Bei and Lv Shan arrived at the audition venue together.

A lot of people came. For the sake of winning, many models from S Country rushed over. Some models from S Country who already lived in the United States also came. All of them arrived at the venue very early.

They took turns to go in.

But most of them only stayed inside the audition room for less than five minutes.

One model came out with a trace of fear on her face. "It's so horrible. Director Baizen is losing his temper."

"He is not satisfied with everyone. It's just a short commercial. Is he looking for an Oscar queen?"

Su Bei realized that this audition would be a little challenging.

Lv Shan said, "No wonder Baizen is not satisfied. These models are not very good at acting. How can they meet his requirements?"

“Since he is very strict, why doesn’t Jin Xiu choose a brand ambassador from actresses?” Su Bei asked.

Chapter 114 I Have the Final Say Here

“The higher-ups of Jin Xiu have agreed to choose Su Huixian as their brand ambassador. With her height and temperament, Baizen can only take another model to be her partner. It seems that he is also not satisfied with her,” Lv Shan answered.

It was only then that Su Bei understood that Su Huixian didn’t get the job through her own ability.

Du Luo must have been behind it. He arranged this job for Su Huixian. Most directors usually hated this kind of setup. It could affect the directors’ filming, positioning, and characteristics of the brand itself. However, they had no choice but to accept it because they needed to make money.

In the past, every time Su Bei thought of Du Luo, she felt bitter in her heart. But now, this feeling had faded that she couldn’t even notice it anymore.

Soon, it was her turn to enter the audition room.

Baizen already looked very impatient. He really hated brand ambassadors who were chosen by the higher-ups. For him, they were beautiful but soulless.

And those models who came in just now were all just beauties. Their faces, eyebrows, noses, and chins were all the same. He felt like they were all born to have the same facial features. This made him feel more annoyed.

But what else could he do? He had to shoot to make money. He couldn’t refuse the person who paid him.

He needed money to do the work he really wanted. And he could only earn if he accepted this job.

As soon as Su Bei came in, Baizen’s eyes lit up. He was tired of seeing those similar types of beauty. But the model in front of him right now looked so different.

She was bright and beautiful. And she looked more natural and unique.

“I want you.” He raised his finger and pointed at her. “Get ready to shoot tomorrow.”

In terms of acting, Baizen knew that these models were almost the same. What mattered was that Su Bei had a good figure and a natural face. As an experienced director, he could say that she was not a man-made beauty.

At least, he could schedule more shots from different angles. He should be able to shoot short videos that fitted his requirements.

Su Bei was stunned for a moment. “Is it over?” she asked in fluent English.

“Of course! I have the final say here,” Baizen answered. He then packed his things and left.

Su Bei came out of the audition room and told Lv Shan the result. Lv Shan was surprised and pleased at the same time. “No matter what his criteria are, you just need to focus on the shooting. Nothing is better than being able to make money.”

“You are right,” Su Bei agreed.

Lv Shan’s phone rang. After answering it, she smiled happily and said, “Su Bei, Manager Fan wants to invite you to lunch. You alone.”

“Only me?”

“Don’t worry, she’s a woman. Her name is Fan Yinfang. Perhaps she’s inviting you to lunch out of kindness.”

The name sounded familiar to Su Bei. It seemed that she had already heard it somewhere.

She and Lv Shan returned to their hotel. After changing her clothes, she went to the place that Lv Shan told her.

In a high-end hotel, Su Bei saw Fan Yinfang at a glance. Now she knew why the name sounded familiar to her.

Fan Yinfang was Du Luo’s cousin, and Su Bei had seen her before.

It had been five years, so Su Bei had almost forgotten Fan Yinfang’s name. But she remembered Fan Yinfang the moment she saw her.

No wonder Su Huixian was chosen as Jin Xiu’s brand ambassador.

“Su Bei, come and sit,” Fan Yinfang politely asked Su Bei to sit down.

She was a woman in her late twenties, and she had a well-maintained appearance. She also smiled when she spoke. Five years ago, Su Bei called her cousin.

“Hello, Manager Fan,” Su Bei greeted and sat down.

Chapter 115 Carried a Lot of Weight

Fan Yinfang didn’t like how Su Bei had greeted her. As Du Luo’s cousin, she thought that Su Bei should also flatter her, just like how Su Huixian bowed to her every time Su Huixian saw her.

Besides, she was also born into a wealthy family. She hated to see loftiness in other women’s faces. For her, only she could appear lofty and arrogant.

But still, she smiled and said, “I didn’t expect you to succeed in the audition. Director Baizen is actually very strict in choosing his talents.”

“It’s an honor for me,” Su Bei said flatly.

“This time, Du Luo is here too. Actually, he asked me to persuade you. Let’s let bygones be bygones. You don’t have to chase him all the time,” Fan Yinfang said with a smile. What she wanted to say was clear.

She used to like Su Bei. But since Su Bei withdrew from the marriage, which put the Du family to shame, all the members of the Du family’s impression of Su Bei changed.

All the fault was put on Su Bei five years ago, and everyone believed it.

Su Bei understood now. Both Fan Yinfang and Du Luo thought that she came to the audition to win Du Luo's heart back.

With a faint smile, she said indifferently, "Manager Fan, I'm here to work, not to pursue a man. Before I came here, I didn't even know that I would meet you, let alone Du Luo."

"Really?" Judging from Fan Yinfang's tone, she obviously didn't believe it. How could Su Bei just give up an excellent and handsome man like Du Luo so easily?

"Manager Fan, will your conclusion affect my work?" Su Bei asked.

It seemed that Fan Yinfang meant that if she still had feelings for Du Luo and interfered with his personal life, her job would be revoked.

Su Bei believed that Fan Yinfang was capable of doing it. If she gave Su Huixian a chance for Du Luo, she could also cut off Su Bei's chance for him.

If this was in the past, Su Bei wouldn't bother to explain to Fan Yinfang and would just leave.

She was not willing to trade love for a job opportunity.

But now was different. She needed to raise money for Da Bao. Her time was running short. If she couldn't make enough money for him, she was worried that he wouldn't live a good life in the future.

And she also had responsibility for Gun Gun now.

After thinking for a while, she said, "I'm already married, so it's impossible for me to go after Du Luo anymore. If you don't believe me, there's nothing I can do about it."

Before Fan Yinfang could say anything, Lu Heting walked straight to Su Bei from a distance. It was as if he was there to prove Su Bei's words.

Su Bei was a little surprised. But then, she realized that it must be Lv Shan who told him she was here. That was why he came.

She stood up, reached out her hand, and pulled Lu Heting to sit beside her. "Manager Fan, this is my husband, Lu Heting. Heting, this is Manager Fan. She is my ex-boyfriend's cousin. We are old friends, so she's just asking about my love life."

This was her second time to introduce him to others as her husband.

This simple title carried a lot of weight in his heart, and he got deeply addicted to it.

Fan Yinfang's gaze fell on Lu Heting. She tried to pry some secrets from his handsome face, but she failed.

"Manager Fan," Lu Heting greeted with a nod.

He heard Su Bei's words just now, so he understood that Fan Yinfang was trying to make things difficult for her.

It seemed that Fan Yinfang still cared about Su Bei's love life. Was she thinking that Su Bei came here for Du Luo?

Chapter 116 A Terrible Choice

Fan Yinfang smiled gently. "Well, let's have lunch together."

If Su Bei was really already married, then so be it. Director Baizen had a hard time choosing the right person to represent their company, so she decided not to interfere.

But she couldn't help looking at Lu Heting up and down. She had seen countless men in the entertainment industry, but she had never seen someone as handsome as him.

None of them had the same aura as him.

Who on earth was he?

"Mr. Lu, what do you do?" Fan Yinfang asked. Since Lu Heting arrived, he had piqued her interest. Her eyes that previously looked indifferent were now filled with enthusiasm.

Although Fan Yinfang was no longer young, she was good-looking. With her long black hair and the embroidered cheongsam she was wearing, she looked like a perfect oriental beauty.

However, Lu Heting was not interested in her. After greeting her, all his attention had been on Su Bei all the time.

When he heard her question, he looked at her and answered, "Just some ordinary job. It's nothing worth mentioning. I work as a driver in Lu Group."

"A driver?" It turned out that he was just a driver. Fan Yinfang was a little disappointed. It was a pity that such an excellent-looking man like him only ended up as a driver.

But then, her lips curved into a charming smile. She thought that Su Bei had abandoned Du Luo and found herself an outstanding man. It turned out that she just married a driver.

She was a little stunned, but she smiled with satisfaction. As long as Su Bei didn't live a good life, she would be satisfied. And now that Jin Xiu had given Su Bei a chance, she felt like it was her who gave this blessing to Su Bei.

Fan Yinfang handed the menu to Lu Heting and said, "Mr. Lu, please order whatever you like."

They were in a high-end French restaurant, and the menu was all in French. Besides, the names of the dishes were complicated. And there were no pictures to give the customers clues.

She was sure that even if he could understand English, he couldn't understand French.

If he was not careful enough, he might end up ordering a bunch of spices, seasonings, or drinks. He would become a laughingstock in the entire restaurant.

Su Bei knew that Fan Yinfang was trying to humiliate Lu Heting. Fan Yinfang must really believe that he was not decent enough, and he didn't know how to order.

"Heting, let me order for you," she said gently, feeling a little guilty for him. Because of her, he was here being looked down upon.

“Oh, I’m sorry. I forgot. Mr. Lu, I didn’t know that you can’t understand French. If I knew, I wouldn’t have chosen this restaurant,” Fan Yinfang said with an apologetic smile.

But the expression on her face became more complicated. Obviously, she looked down upon Lu Heting, and it wasn’t hard for Su Bei to notice it.

Actually, she thought that she didn’t need to step down to Lu Heting and Su Bei’s level and give them a hard time. Her status, age, and cultivation were different from young people.

However, Fan Yinfang only wanted to remind Su Bei that she had made a terrible choice when she gave up Du Luo.

Lu Heting’s expression didn’t change at all. It was as if he didn’t see Fan Yinfang’s malicious intent. He just said to Su Bei in a low voice, “It’s okay. I’ve been here with my boss before, so I know what to order.”

But Su Bei still felt sorry for him. So what if he was just a driver? What mattered was he was making money in a dignified way. Why must he come here to be humiliated?

She didn’t really want to eat, so she suddenly stood up.

But Lu Heting grabbed her wrist and slightly shook his head. He seemed to have seen through her, so his obsidian-like eyes stared at her.

He didn’t want to waste her efforts of coming here. Jin Xiu was a good brand, and this chance was good for her to develop her career overseas.

Chapter 117 She Couldn’t Tolerate

Su Bei’s sense of reason was obviously overcome by her emotions. She sat down again and said in a calm voice, “Manager Fan, although Heting is just a driver, he has nothing to be ashamed of. He doesn’t steal or rob. He earns a living. It’s not a shame to come to a restaurant in a foreign country if he doesn’t know a foreign language. Is there anyone in this world who can speak or read all the languages?”

Fan Yinfang smiled and responded, “Since you know that, then what’s the problem? Su Bei, aren’t you just being too sensitive?”

“I hope I’m not overthinking. Manager Fan, I was selected because I succeeded in the audition. Director Baizen saw that I was qualified. So, I got this job fair and square. I also hope that we will have a pleasant cooperation in the future.” Su Bei stood up, smiled politely, and continued, “I am from S Country. It looks like the food here doesn’t suit my taste. I need to get something else to eat, so I will take my leave.”

She then held Lu Heting’s hand and walked towards the door.

Fan Yinfang shook her head and thought to herself, ‘Su Bei hasn’t changed at all. She still considers herself better than others. But she got herself such a handsome driver. Humph!’

While looking at Lu Heting’s receding back, she also thought, ‘I guess it won’t be difficult to have him drive for me.’

“Heting, I’m sorry. You only came to help me, but I got you in an embarrassing situation.” Su Bei didn’t mind being given a hard time at work, but she couldn’t stand to see Lu Heting suffer for her.

She still didn’t let go of his hand. It was as if she was hand in hand with him naturally.

Lu Heting slowly held her hand lightly. He didn’t dare to hold it tightly in fear that he would scare her away.

He looked calm, but he was so satisfied that Su Bei had stood up for him.

“Let’s get some pancakes rolled with crisp fritter over there. They are not authentic because the locals who have learned making them in S Country are the ones making them. But they’re more delicious than French food.”

Su Bei strode towards the pancake shop beside the street, bought two, and gave one to Lu Heting.

That moment she pulled her hand away, Lu Heting immediately felt that something was missing.

Soon, Lv Shan joined them. And when she saw that Su Bei was eating a pancake, she got angry. She frowned and said, “Su Bei, are you here to make money or what? You’ve wasted the chance to dine with Fan Yinfang, and here you are, eating a pancake along the street.”

She also wanted to scold Lu Heting. But when she made eye contact with him, she lost the courage to do so. It was like his vibe scared her so much that she didn’t dare to mess with him.

“I have some problems with Fan Yinfang. If she really wants to fire me, she will not change her mind even if I try everything to please her and sacrifice my pride.” Su Bei had made up her mind.

She could bear any insult, but she couldn’t tolerate Lu Heting being humiliated because of her.

Su Bei had tried very hard not to turn the table upside down in the restaurant. She was able to control her emotions and even said goodbye to Fan Yinfang politely.

“Okay, never mind.” Lv Shan decided to stop the topic after hearing Su Bei’s words. And also, she felt like Lu Heting’s momentum was suffocating her. So she said, “Let’s just let nature take its course.”

“If I really lose this job, help me get more work when we get back,” Su Bei said.

She said this not only because she needed to save money, but she also didn’t want Lv Shan’s work to be in vain.

Lv Shan looked at her and said, “Okay.”

She and Su Bei worked together for their own interests. And now that Su Bei was thinking about her welfare, she had no reason to refuse.

Chapter 118 Digging Her Own Grave

“Su Bei, get ready for tomorrow’s shooting. Fan Yinfang will not cancel your endorsement,” Lu Heting said calmly and rationally.

Lv Shan and Su Bei both looked at him.

“Jin Xiu is a big brand. Fan Yinfang can’t possibly make such a decision by herself. She has already appointed Su Huixian as one of the brand ambassadors. I don’t think that she will be able to decide on the other one. Even Director Baizen will not allow her to do that easily. Many eyes are on her in the company. She can’t make mistakes. So she doesn’t dare to cancel your endorsement for the time being.”

Lv Shan and Su Bei both realized that Lu Heting’s words made sense, so they calmed down.

Su Bei nodded and said, “I think so too. So I don’t want to fawn on her anymore. But of course, if she is really stronger than we think, then we will accept the result.”

Stars seemed to shine brightly in her dark eyes, and she looked very beautiful. Although she was anxious to make money, she calmly faced the current situation. She would never give up and feel sorry for herself.

“Heting, you know a lot. What you said makes sense.” She really admired him. He usually didn’t talk much. But every time he opened his mouth, he always got the key points.

“I always listen to my boss when he deals with things, so I’ve learned naturally.”

Su Bei’s bright eyes looked at Lu Heting seriously. He was in a good mood, so he looked down at her and said in a low voice, “There may be some twists and turns in the shooting this time, but don’t worry. Just focus on your job. With Fan Yinfang’s ability, the highest position she can get in her career is just being a manager.”

Lu Heting was always right, so Su Bei believed his words.

Lu Heting wouldn’t do anything to Fan Yinfang because she didn’t deserve it.

But he could already tell from her arrogance that she was digging her own grave.

The next day, Su Bei and Lv Shan arrived at the shooting location on time. Sure enough, no one told them that Su Bei was replaced.

It seemed that Fan Yinfang was not that powerful to do it yet.

Su Huixian arrived at the location with Du Luo. They already knew that Director Baizen had chosen Su Bei.

Su Huixian lost to Su Bei in the Orisa Fashion Show last time. This time, she was determined to beat Su Bei in the advertisement of Jin Xiu.

She must choose the best clothes to show the best oriental costumes.

Jin Xiu’s clothing line was divided into two major categories.

One was called Jiao Yang, and the other was called Ming Yue. They were in accordance with the ancient culture of S country.

In the Jiao Yang category, the embroideries of the clothes were complicated. And the colors were distinct and elegant. They gave the wearers pleasant and colorful feelings, and they were the most eye-catching.

As for the Ming Yue category, the colors were conservative and not very eye-catching. The embroideries were light and elegant but intricate and skillful.

Obviously, the clothes in Jiao Yang were more brilliant and eye-catching in front of the camera.

Su Huixian picked a set with the most outstanding colors and went to the dressing room to change.

Since she had chosen a set of clothes from the Jiao Yang category, of course, Su Bei couldn't choose the same.

So she picked up a moon-white jacket with buttons down the front and a dress of the same color. She then went to the dressing room to change as well.

Su Bei usually dressed simply. And when she changed into these ordinary and light-colored clothes and stood next to Su Huixian, she was obviously overshadowed by Su Huixian.

The staff around them were a little surprised. "It turns out that the one chosen by the higher-ups looks better than the one chosen by Director Baizen. Is this a strategy to use Su Bei as a foil to Su Huixian?"

Chapter 119 Much Better than Expected

Su Huixian felt the gazes around her, so she became more confident.

Du Luo and Fan Yinfang helped her get this job, so she must spare no effort to defeat Su Bei.

Director Baizen was not satisfied with the arrangement of the staff, but he cheered himself up and said, "We will start the shoot as soon as you're ready."

Su Huixian and Su Bei entered the frame together.

Su Huixian's clothes caught everyone's attention first. As soon as the camera started rolling, she began to show her charm.

Baizen looked at her indifferently, thinking that she was too ordinary and not qualified to endorse the Jin Xiu brand. But after she spared no effort to show her charm, coupled with her perfect makeup and clothes, she looked much better.

She did better than he had expected, but she still didn't meet his requirements. The clothes she was wearing were more eye-catching than her.

Then his eyes fell on Su Bei. She chose to wear light-colored clothes, and her makeup was not very good. However, they matched the background very well.

Today's shoot was in the park. And since it was in the early summer, the flowers bloomed brightly and beautifully. The whole park was full of beautiful flowers endowed by nature.

The background was complicated and colorful enough, so Su Bei's white clothes and light makeup complemented it perfectly.

Her calm expression was in line with the oriental charm displayed in her clothes.

Baizen recorded this scene. When he saw Su Bei yesterday, she just barely met his requirements. So he thought that he would make her look better in the lens by using some photography skills. However, after shooting the first part, he realized that she performed almost flawlessly.

He suddenly felt refreshed, so he said, "Okay, change to another set of clothes, and we'll shoot again!"

Su Huixian saw Baizen's satisfaction with Su Bei. It was only then that she noticed that the background was colorful. So when she changed her clothes, she deliberately chose the light-colored ones.

This time, Su Bei chose a light yellow jacket and a bright yellow dress.

"Everyone knows that yellow is the most difficult color to control. Why does Su Bei still choose such a color?" People around, including Su Huixian, were worried about her.

This time, Su Huixian performed much better than earlier after changing into light-colored clothes.

Baizen got more and more satisfied. The situation was much better than he had expected.

With those colorful flowers in the background, Su Bei might look less charming in bright yellow clothes. However, when the background was only the blue sky, the combination of bright yellow and blue was superb.

Su Bei knew that during shootings, Baizen paid attention the most to color matching. She did a lot of research about it last night. So as expected, she could see the appreciation in his eyes every time she changed her clothes today.

This time, not only Baizen but also the staff who were standing aside realized how wonderful Su Bei was. She didn't only match the colors perfectly, but she also adjusted all her expressions according to the color and style of her clothes.

Dressed in elegant clothes, she looked gentle and serene. When she wore bright-colored clothes, her eyes were filled with joy. And those gorgeous clothes made her look so dignified.

Soon, the shoot of all the clothes in the two categories was done.

At this moment, the staff who had some doubts about Su Bei's ability before were completely impressed by her.

"Indeed, Director Baizen has a good eye."

"The model chosen from the audition is really good."

Chapter 120 Petrified

"Very good!" Baizen gave Su Bei a thumbs up. She really surprised him.

During the audition, his only reason for choosing her was her natural appearance. But he didn't expect that her overall understanding and expression of clothes as well as her color matching ability were far beyond his imagination.

As a result, the promotional photos taken were much better than expected.

"Su Bei, let's call it a day. We will shoot the commercial video tomorrow," Baizen said to Su Bei.

Su Bei had no problem with English at all. She didn't need an interpreter to communicate with Baizen. So when she wanted to know if there was anything she needed to improve in her performance, she went and asked him directly.

"You did a very good job today. I hope you can keep it up when we shoot the video." Baizen spoke highly of her.

And she saw his sincerity. "Thank you, Baizen. I'll be here on time tomorrow."

Su Bei and Lv Shan then packed up and left.

Su Huixian also walked towards Baizen and asked, "Director, what about me?"

She was not fluent in English, so she could barely communicate with him. For her to understand complicated words, she needed an interpreter.

The interpreter told Su Huixian that Director Baizen wanted her to stay to continue shooting while Su Bei could go back to rest.

"I need to continue shooting?" Su Huixian asked confusedly.

The interpreter explained, "Director Baizen said that you and Su Bei respectively wore half of the clothes during the photo shoot earlier. Now you are going to wear the other half of the clothes that Su Bei wore. Maybe he thinks that you've performed better, right?"

Su Huixian's face lit up at once. Su Bei had only worn half of the clothes during the photo shoot, and Baizen had already let her go. She, on the other hand, could get a chance to wear all the clothes.

She thought to herself, "The interpreter is right. Obviously, Baizen appreciates my performance, so he wants to take more photos of me."

But actually, the reason why Baizen had sent Su Bei home was that he was already satisfied with her performance. Although she had only worn half of the clothes, he could pick some photos he could use for the promotion.

As for Su Huixian, he asked her to stay and shoot more because her photos earlier were not good enough to be used for the promotion. He hoped that he could get better photos of her if she wore the other half of the clothes.

After a whole day of photo shoot, Su Bei was too tired to say a word. As soon as she entered her hotel room, she changed into slippers, took off her clothes, and threw them on the sofa.

"Su Bei, you're back."

Lu Heting tried hard to hold back his wild imagination in his low and deep voice.

It was only then that Su Bei realized that Lu Heting was there.

And she threw her clothes on his head.

He grabbed her clothes with his slender fingers.

Su Bei was always used to being alone in her bedroom. When she and Da Bao still lived together, they slept in separate rooms. So every time she went home exhausted from work, she just took off her clothes the moment she entered her bedroom.

Seeing what he had caught in his fingers, she reflexively hugged herself.

Her face flushed with embarrassment.

Although they were legally married, he was only her nominal husband in reality.

Looking at Lu Herting grabbing her clothes, she was so petrified.
