Chapter 1096 Tormenting Garrett

Knocked off the lotus platform, Huxley suffered severe injuries, blood staining his mouth. But the oppressive gravitational force that had tormented him subsided at last.

Huxley took heavy gasps, fear etched across his face and chills running down his spine as he directed his gaze toward Liam.

The intensity of the pressure from Liam surpassed even that of his own brother, Doug!

Doug assisted Huxley to his feet, checking on him with relief upon discovering no life-threatening wounds.

Subsequently, Doug and Mateo cast cold glances at Rodney, their voices deep with sarcasm as they remarked, "Impressive, Rodney!"

Meanwhile, atop the lotus platform, Garrett came to the realization that Huxley's incapacity wasn't a ploy but the result of Liam's actions.

Despite being aware of Liam's immense power, Garrett remained composed, not out of overconfidence in his own abilities but due to the unwavering assurance in his own powerful background.

Garrett said to Liam directly, "I acknowledge your skills. But you should know who I am. I'm the young master of the Glyn family, son of the guardian Cillian! If you lose to me in this battle, once we leave the maritime secret realm, I'll have you join the Glyn family. Then, you'll gain access to endless resources for cultivation! It's a better option than remaining under Carlden's command!"

Garrett spoke with confidence, locking eyes with Liam.

He believed that the allure of extensive cultivation resources was irresistible, ensuring his victory in the battle!

Liam regarded Garrett with amusement, his chuckle carrying a hint of mockery. "Garrett, you're merely a loser, parading under your father's shadow. Do you think anyone here truly respects you? Your terms are far from enticing! In fact, they sicken me!"

Garrett's rage surged as Liam's taunts struck home. His glare was intense and focused on where Mateo held Shayla. He sneered, "You better take my deal. Or you'll suffer just like her, leashed and controlled!"

Garrett brought up Shayla, fueling Liam's already boiling rage. Without hesitation, Liam attacked!

Liam opted against using his life-consuming power, choosing his earth element special power to restrain Garrett and engage him in hand-to-hand combat.

He believed he could only release his pent-up anger through physical confrontation.

He was resolute in exacting a heavy price for Garrett's deeds.

Liam's direct assault caught Garrett off guard, leaving him dazed by successive punches.

Garrett's expression soon turned to rage and a desire for revenge, stunned that Liam had the audacity to openly attack him.

"You're finished!" Garrett bellowed, attempting to retaliate but finding himself too weak in front of Liam.

He could do nothing but endure the one-sided assault.

Meanwhile, Mateo observed Liam pummeling Garrett, a hint of discomfort crossing his face. Despite feeling satisfied, Mateo understood his responsibility to safeguard Garrett.

Therefore, Mateo urgently yelled, "Stop! Kolton, if you continue striking Mr. Glyn, I'll make sure you won't leave the maritime secret realm alive!"

Facing Mateo's threat, Liam's response was straightforward, launching Garrett across the platform with another powerful blow.

However, just before Garrett would fall off the platform, Liam intentionally caught hold of Garrett's legs, preventing his expulsion.

Liam's deliberate actions left no doubt that he was intentionally tormenting Garrett.
