

Chapter 1158 Turn The Tables

Liam felt like he was staring death right in the eyes; the pain was real and intense.

He began to wonder again if this was all just an illusion or if he had somehow landed back into reality.

Vogel had told Liam that dying here wouldn't do much to his real body, but Liam wasn't completely convinced Vogel had been telling the truth.

Recalling the warm blood from his last tussle with a member of the Blood Clan, Liam started to think that maybe he was now back in the real world.

Liam's expression turned serious, knowing that winning this battle would be tough.

He also noticed that the creature was incredibly fast. So he didn't see many ways out of this.

It seemed like he had no choice but to fight now.

Liam's brows furrowed as he looked at the creature before him. He believed that since he could take its hits, maybe he had a shot.

With a determined nod, he used ten thousand points to gain the "ordinary-grade" armor from the points store.

He knew that if he could defeat this creature, the points spent on the armor wouldn't be a big deal.

Liam wasn't exactly sure what "ordinary-grade" meant, but he was banking everything on this armor.

He muttered, "I hope this armor will help me win this battle!"

Just then, the creature launched another attack.

Liam sprang into action, focusing on the creature. He used his special power of the earth element to form a shield, bracing for the creature's attack.

With a loud sound, the creature's strike shattered Liam's shield, but the new armor took the hit for him.

The armor held strong; only a faint mark showed where the blow had landed. It had soaked up the rest of the attack.

Because of the hefty hit, Liam still suffered a minor injury.

But thanks to the healing power of the Heart of Life fragment, Liam's injury slowly healed.

Feeling invigorated after surviving the creature's blow, Liam switched gears to a more aggressive fighting stance.

Suddenly, a dark aura domain appeared around him, spreading fast to engulf the creature, too.

The creature's face twisted in disbelief as it felt its strength weakening under the dark aura domain's influence.

It couldn't believe this seemingly average human being had mastered such a power.

Even with its shock, the creature still didn't believe Liam could win the battle.

Liam jumped into action, firing off a gravitational magnetic field straight at the creature.

Thanks to the combo of the field and the dark aura domain, the creature's movement slowed down a lot.

Liam's command over his special power was top-notch, especially after he had mastered the Origin Technique—Rage of the Earth.

He now felt like he had mastered his special power mainly because he had learned the Origin Technique.

But there was no time to think about that now. With the creature in his grip, Liam struck back.

Against a tough foe like this creature, Liam's life-draining power was the ace up his sleeve.

All of a sudden, a vivid green glow burst from Liam, showing off his life-draining power.

He latched onto the creature, sucking away its life force.
