

Chapter 1182 The Only Solution

Liam was utterly perplexed to witness Shayla and Laura in such a state.

What on earth was going on?

Liam gazed at them intently, attempting to assess their condition, but it seemed that they hadn't gained consciousness.

But what had caused this abrupt frenzy?

Liam also noticed something alarming—Shayla's and Laura's eyes were brimming with intense and uncontrolled desire!

To his astonishment, Laura and Shayla began removing their clothes.

In no time, they had shed their outer garments, leaving them only in their undergarments.

Naturally, this exposed more than usual, with both women's chests now partially visible.

Although he preferred not to look, given the gravity of the situation, Liam couldn't avert his gaze.

Liam resorted to using his Origin Technique, "Life Conduction", to manipulate the vines and promptly restrain Laura and Shayla.

However, upon being restrained by the vines, Laura and Shayla began to struggle fiercely, screaming as if in agony.

Liam's concern deepened, evident in his furrowed brow.

He had a strong feeling that something was wrong.

This situation was undoubtedly detrimental to their well-being.

Worried about Laura and Shayla, Liam turned to Emer in desperation and asked, "Emer, can you tell me what is happening here?"

Emer knew the answer. After a brief pause, it provided an explanation.

"Master, these vines function as aphrodisiacs. They nourish themselves until they bloom and release their pollen."

Liam was aware that the pollen was not ordinary; he had experienced a numbing sensation himself upon inhaling it earlier.

However, its actual effect was far more sinister; it functioned as a type of love drug, causing individuals to lose control and succumb to their primal instincts, a perilous form of manipulation.

Emer continued transparently, "In reality, the pollen serves as a love-inducing substance. It induces individuals to abandon reason and pursue their most basic desires. Master, do you understand now?"

Liam now comprehended why Laura and Shayla were behaving this way.

They must have had inhaled an excessive amount of pollen during their stay, resulting in their heightened desires upon waking up.

However, given that he was the only male present, was Liam expected to assist Laura and Shayla in relieving these desires?

Feeling resigned, Liam directed his attention back to Emer, his tone urgent as he inquired, "Can you advise me on how to alleviate the effects of the drug for them?"

Emer took a moment before responding, "Master, there is a solution. There is only one method—help them alleviate their desires. Otherwise, your two friends will become drained and die."

Emer's implication was clear. To aid Shayla and Laura, Liam would need to have sex with them. Otherwise, if their desires remained unfulfilled, they would face a perilous demise.

Concluding its explanation, Emer's voice took on a teasing note. "Master, these ladies are charming. You're quite fortunate!"
