

Chapter 1124 Shadow Palace

Despite Idris's disdain for Liam, he had to nod obediently upon hearing Susannah's instructions.

Idris then approached Liam, holding a lantern emitting cyan light.

Simultaneously, as Idris approached with the lantern, the shadows on the ground revealed their true forms.

These shadows had turquoise bodies and cyan faces with tusks. They were all primogem beasts!

Concealing themselves in dark environments was a natural skill for these primogem beasts.

Without Idris's Cyan Light Lamp, not even a level-six Primogem Warrior could harm the primogem beasts' actual forms.

Once the primogem beasts revealed their true forms, Idris snorted coldly and attacked immediately.

As a top level-six Primogem Warrior, Idris could effortlessly defeat these primogem beasts.

After killing the primogem beasts, Idris set down the Cyan Light Lamp and directed a mocking gaze at Liam.

He said, "You've overestimated yourself! How could you venture into Shadow Valley alone without any tools to control its creatures? Are you brave or just foolish? I can't tell! If it weren't for Susannah's kindness, you would have surely perished!"

Liam remained silent in response to Idris' words.

Despite enduring hardships in the battle with the shadows, Liam's injuries weren't severe enough to bother him.

More importantly, during his recent encounter with the primogem beasts, Liam noticed an anomaly related to his special power of the light element!

This special power was showing its excitement.

Were it not for Liam's need to conceal his abilities from the Prescott family's team, he would have eagerly experimented with the special power.

Liam had a hunch that his light element might have the power to subdue the creatures of Shadow Valley!

While Liam pondered this, Susannah approached him with a smile. "Ignore Idris' words. He may speak harshly, but he means well. Idris is genuinely a good person."

Liam smiled but remained silent.

Susannah then said, "You seem unfamiliar with Shadow Valley, don't you? The primogem beasts you encountered earlier, transforming into shadows, hail from here. These primogem beasts excel at concealment within their environment and are adept assassins. The lantern Idris carried, known as the Cyan Light Lamp, is designed specifically to deal with them."

Liam nodded appreciatively and said, "I really appreciate your help earlier."

Susannah smiled and explained, "Shadow Valley is among the forbidden regions within the maritime secret realm. A significant number of individuals who unintentionally ventured into the restricted zone met their demise at the hands of the primogem beasts due to their lack of knowledge about these creatures and their inability to handle them effectively. By the way, Liam, what brings you to Shadow Valley?"

Liam was taken aback. He struggled to find an answer to Susannah's question.

He couldn't reveal to Susannah that he had ventured here to evade the Zephyr Ape.

Observing Liam's surprise, Susannah didn't dwell on it. Instead, she openly shared her reason for being in Shadow Valley. "Our team's objective in Shadow Valley is to locate the Shadow Palace. Liam, would you like to join us in this quest?"
