

Chapter 1241 Become A Level-ten Primogem Warrior

Liam decided to experiment with fusing the special powers of the five elements, believing it would simplify the creation of his own Origin Technique.

When Lancy noticed Liam's resolve, she generously offered him an assortment of Ten-Color Element Stones.

"Liam, take these Ten-Color Element Stones. They should suffice for your needs!" she said.

Touched by Lancy's wholehearted support, warmth spread through Liam's heart. He resolved more firmly than ever that once he attained the exalted status of a Primogem Deity, he would return to Blue Star to bring Lancy with him.

With the stones in hand, Liam began to focus on his cultivation again.

This time, with a clear direction for his cultivation, Liam felt no confusion and worked diligently towards his goal.

He spent another full year in the earth's core, using the plentiful Ten-Color Element Stones and his own innate talent for cultivation. Eventually, Liam awakened the special power of the metal and water elements, mastering these abilities with finesse.

He had finally harnessed all five special powers!

Liam then started the task of creating his own Origin Technique.

As he extracted these powers, a change occurred—his spiritual power had significantly improved.

It felt as though he had not only unlocked the special powers but also a profound opportunity for a whole new transformation.

With no time to ponder further, an epiphany struck him.

At that moment, every movement Liam made was ethereal, as if he floated in outer space.

He concentrated intensely on mastering the skill to forge his Origin Technique.

After six months, Liam's eyes flew open, wide with surprise.

He had succeeded!

He named his own Origin Technique the "Power of Five Elements".

This Origin Technique had assimilated all the characteristics of the five elements. It could harness the power of these elements to unleash a variety of attacks against Liam's enemies.

This Power of Five Elements was the most formidable Origin Technique Liam had mastered to date.

Once Liam created his own Origin Technique, his level naturally ascended to the tenth tier of Primogem Warrior.

At that moment, the core of the earth began to tremble with ferocity.

It felt as though the world was ending.

Liam's newfound strength was so immense that it burst through the confines of the earth's core, spilling out from the sea and enveloping the sky!

Suddenly, a colossal tidal wave, tens of thousands of meters high, rose from the sea as if to swallow the world whole.

Sea creatures all fled in terror, overwhelmed by a primal fear.

On Genesis Island.

The president, deep in secluded cultivation, also felt the overpowering aura and was jolted awake.

"Who is it?" As he pondered the source of such daunting power, he quickly sensed it emanated from his apprentice, Liam.

With a nod and a smile of relief, the president looked at the sky and whispered, "Liam, congratulations on your success!"

Meanwhile, Liam also woke up.

Feeling the surge in his strength upon becoming a level-ten Primogem Warrior, he gently roused Shayla and Laura.

"You made it?" Shayla and Laura, surprised and devoid of any regret, congratulated him.

Yet, Liam still caught a glimpse of the deep-seated loneliness in their eyes.

He knew they were aware that the gap between his abilities and theirs would only widen.

Although Liam noticed the subtle shift in emotions in Shayla and Laura, he chose to remain silent.

After all, reality can be harsh. It was impossible for Liam to look after everyone.

Liam, along with Laura and Shayla, returned to Genesis Island. He took them to meet all the elders of the Salvation Society.

The news of Liam's advancement to level ten of Primogem Warrior quickly spread throughout the Salvation Society. Everyone expressed genuine joy for Liam.

Liam struck a heartfelt agreement with Shayla and Laura. He said earnestly, "Since you've made your choice, I won't try to change it. Don't worry. I will definitely wait for you to come to the Cosmic realm. When that time comes, I'll be there to welcome you personally!"

Overwhelmed with emotions, Shayla and Laura embraced Liam tightly...

A week passed.

Liam had spent his last few days on Blue Star.

Today marked the day he had arranged to depart with Lancy.

After bidding farewell to everyone, Liam went to the earth's core. Guided by Lancy, he made his way to the passage that led deep within the core.

He was prepared to embark on his journey to the Cosmic realm!
