

Chapter 1243 Help

The moment the voice stopped talking, a white figure gently landed next to Liam.

Liam turned to find that it was Lindy standing there!

Lindy looked at him with concern and asked urgently, "Liam, are you okay? I sensed you the moment you entered the Cosmic realm. I'm a bit late, but thankfully you're alright!"

Seeing the worry on her face made Liam feel a warmth inside. He said, "Lindy, I'm fine. Don't worry."

In fact, Liam had some doubts in his heart.

The fierce attack from the sword just now had shown that the Human Clan in the Cosmic realm was not afraid of the Blood Clan.

It seemed that even though the Human Clan was at risk in the Cosmic realm, they were not at a critical juncture.

Thinking of this, Liam let out a sigh of relief.

The stronger the Human Clan, the easier his cultivation here would be.

But just as the enemies retreated from Lindy's sword, a massive monster from the Blood Clan appeared.

The monster said in a deep voice, "This is not your territory, human! I suggest you quietly surrender this human and then leave on your own! Otherwise, you will die here with him!"

Liam observed the monster.

This monster didn't appear to be from the Blood Clan. It seemed more like a transformed being from the Saint Society.

This was because the monster had the head of a bull and the body of a human, his eyes were menacing, and his presence was overpowering.

Although Liam only took a quick look at the monster, he noticed a deep scarlet in the monster's eyes.

It seemed to Liam that he wasn't just staring into the eyes of a monster but into a realm filled with death and blood!

In his heart, Liam quickly concluded that this creature's rank and power were no ordinary matter. It must be a formidable enemy.

However, Lindy was not like Liam.

She gazed at the monster without a hint of fear, her eyes radiating confidence.

Lindy whispered to Liam, "Don't worry. My master is here with me this time. We'll be safe!"

True to her words, as soon as Lindy finished speaking, a human master with an imposing presence suddenly appeared between Liam and the bull-headed monster.

The formidable man appeared indifferent, yet his voice carried a chilling harshness. He said to the monster firmly, "You're looking for trouble, aren't you? Feel free to try!"

As soon as the master stopped talking, a burst of colorful lights shone from behind him.

It seemed like he was about to take action at any second!

When the bull-headed monster saw the master of the Human Clan, he didn't give up. He let out a harsh snort and released the terrifying aura of his own.

Now, the air was thick with tension.

Neither side was willing to back down.

A crowd had gathered around Liam before, but they now hurriedly backed away, realizing the danger.

After all, both the bull-headed monster and the Human Clan master were formidable.

A clash between them meant even bystanders might get hurt.

Seeing that a fight was imminent, Lindy said to Liam, "Liam, don't worry! My master is incredibly strong!"

Upon hearing this, Liam gave a slight nod. In truth, he didn't worry about his safety now.

His current concern was assessing the strength of the two opposing figures in front of him.
