

Chapter 1309 Teaching Jason A Lesson

Jason was momentarily stunned upon hearing Liam's bold words. He hadn't expected Liam to continue his defiance so brazenly.

Anger flashed across his face as he said, "It seems you are determined to die! Very well, I shall oblige! In this planetary system, I, Jason, reign like a God! My word is the law here. What power do you possess to oppose me? Once you depart from this place, you may attempt your feeble retribution. But heed my warning—my family has five mighty Primogem Emperors! Even in the entire Human Clan, my family holds significant influence!"

Jason's face bore an expression of sheer arrogance. With a sharp gesture, he signaled his subordinates to seize Liam's crystal cores.

He even added cruelly, "Kill him. Since he has the audacity to challenge me, he must be prepared to face the consequences."

When Liam heard Jason's ruthless commands, his expression darkened considerably.

Jason's ruthless words took Liam by surprise; he hadn't expected such brutal intent, not only to rob him but also to kill him.

At that moment, any remaining hope Liam had for Jason's remorse completely vanished.

Robbing the crystal cores was one thing, but the intention to murder was utterly unforgivable.

However, Liam was not a man driven by vengeance. Even though fury boiled within him, he had no desire to end Jason's life.

Still, he was determined to teach Jason a lesson he would never forget.

As Jason's two subordinates charged at him, Liam instantly activated his gravitational field.

The terrifying pressure descended instantly, pinning the two Astron family servants in place as if a colossal mountain had pressed down upon them, making even breathing a struggle for them.

Caught off guard and utterly terrified, the men stammered, "Wh-What did you do? What kind of trick is this?"

With a cold sneer, Liam replied, "Just showing you that there's always someone stronger. Scum like you, who rely on your family's power to commit evils, truly deserve to be taught a lesson!"

Ignoring the two servants, Liam walked towards Jason.

"Stop! Don't come any closer!" Jason cried out, panic evident on his face as he retreated.

After witnessing Liam effortlessly subdue his subordinates, Jason realized Liam's strength far surpassed his own.

However, unwilling to show weakness, Jason forced a veneer of calm and shouted, "What do you think you're doing? I'm the young master of the Astron family. If you dare to lay a hand on me, the Astron family won't let you off! If you don't want to offend the Astron family, you'd better leave now. I can forget what happened here today!"

Liam looked at Jason with palpable disgust. He had zero tolerance for bullies who preyed on the weak.

The more he stared at Jason, the more convinced he became that the man deserved a proper lesson.

Without a moment's hesitation, Liam slapped Jason sharply across the face.

The slap left Jason's face swollen and red, his arrogance washed away, replaced by trembling fear. He no longer dared to look Liam in the eyes.

"Shut up!" Liam scolded coldly. "Say one more word, and it won't just be a slap next time!"