

Chapter 1332 The Truth

Tom noticed the looks from Everett and Chad but remained lost in his self-satisfaction. The thought of Liam, an outsider, bringing him down was unthinkable. He was the head of the Astron family, after all!

The Astron family was a prominent family in the No. 75 planetary system.

Besides, Liam's attire suggested he wasn't from a significant family in the Cosmic realm. It was clear he had risen from a Celestial Realm.

Tom was confident that Liam lacked influential connections. How could Liam possibly stand a chance against him?

This time, however, Tom had misjudged the situation again.

Caden scoffed and, with a swift motion, accessed the Network of Human Sovereign of the Rosefinch Galaxy.

Caden's sharp eyes locked onto Tom as he commanded, "Tell me! Where did Liam kill your son? We will see how Liam killed your son. As the Lord of Rosefinch Galaxy, I will not tolerate any harm to our fellow members of the Human Clan, nor will I be manipulated and treated like a fool, Tom. You're clever enough to grasp my meaning!"

Caden's thunderous rebuke made Tom tremble. He understood his son Jason all too well.

Jason must have insulted Liam and tried to snatch his key materials for the mission, which had led to his demise.

However, that wasn't what scared Tom the most.

What truly alarmed him was that Caden had correctly called Liam by his name.

This proved that Caden knew Liam, possibly very well!

With this realization, Tom felt his heart sink. He stammered, unable to respond to Caden's question.

Liam noticed Tom's fear and smiled coldly as he stepped forward. "Jason and I crossed paths in the No. 76 resource planetary system."

Caden nodded and displayed the moment Liam encountered Jason. The scene showed Jason's aggressive behavior as he seized crystal cores from other participants.

As Tom watched Jason's arrogant actions on screen, a chill ran through his limbs. He found himself unable to think of any defense.

Meanwhile, Caden was furious when he saw that Jason had threatened to kill Liam multiple times. His eyes burned with anger.

Both he and Christos cherished Liam as a talent. But just a few days ago, Jason had attempted to kill Liam within the protection of the Network of Human Sovereign.

Liam had shown remarkable restraint by sparing Jason and his two despicable servants initially, clearly not wanting to kill them. And he had only fought back after Jason had repeatedly threatened to kill him.

To Caden, it was clear that Liam's actions were in self-defense, contrary to Tom's accusation of cold-blooded murder.

Caden fumed, slamming the display shut with a loud bang before delivering a stinging slap to Tom's face, causing Tom's cheek to swell immediately.

Caden shouted in anger, "Tom, what more can you say?"

Tom knew the truth of Jason's death was clear now. He was in the wrong, and Caden seemed to know Liam.

This web of connections left Tom pale. He quickly knelt, pleading with remorse, "Forgive me; I see the error of my ways now! The blame lies with me for not raising Jason well! For the countless contributions the Astron family has made for the No. 75 planetary systems, show us mercy! I assure you this will never happen again!"
