

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1841

Chapter 1841

The three children want to drink water, so Avery came over to bring water to the children. Unexpectedly, as soon as she came over, she heard Elliot's remarks.

The moment Elliot saw Avery, a flash of surprise flashed across his eyes, and then his expression returned to calm.

"I'll take Robert away first." Elliot said coldly.

"You can go by yourself." Avery didn't give him face, "Let your bodyguard take him back later."

Elliot, Robert and the bodyguard came in a car.

Avery asked Elliot to go first and let him take a taxi outside by himself?

Otherwise, he drove the car away, how would his son Robert get back later?

Elliot's whole body was cold and cold, he pursed his thin lips, and strode away without saying a word.

Robert probably won't go home for the time being.

After Elliot drives home, let the driver drive to pick Robert up.

After Elliot left, the atmosphere in the villa suddenly resumed lively.

"Avery, come here!" Tammy beckoned to her, "You're not angry with him because of the Tate Industries, so why are you angry?"

Avery didn't want to say.

It's not a glorious thing after all.

"The children want to drink water, and I'll bring it to them." Avery took a pot of water and held several glasses in her hand.

"Do you want to drink water? I brought her a kettle." Wesley immediately walked to the living room and took out the kettle from the bag he brought with him.

"I also brought a kettle for Kara." Tammy went to get the kettle.

As for Robert, Elliot didn't bring him anything.

Because Robert is relatively old, he can already drink water from a water cup.

Avery took two kettles and a glass of water and went back to the bedroom.

“Mike, Chad said you know why Avery is angry, tell me!” Tammy poured Mike a glass of wine and asked, “She was really angry just now. Since Elliot entered the room, her face became gloomy.”

Mike couldn't tell her privacy without Avery's consent.

“Tammy, you have such a good relationship with her, you can just ask her directly, why bother me? You are afraid of her, and I am also afraid of her! Besides, she is angry with Elliot, but it doesn't affect her relationship with us. Don't worry about them. I'll be leaving in two days, so take this meal as yours for me tonight!” Mike raised his glass and wanted to toast everyone.

“Are you going back to Bridgedale? Where's Avery reside in Bridgedale?” Wesley asked.

“She won't leave here.” Mike explained to everyone, “Don't worry, I will arrange for bodyguards to live at home to protect her 24 hours a day.”

In the master bedroom.

Maria and Kara each held their own kettles to drink water.

Avery held a water cup and fed Robert water.

Suddenly, her phone on the bed rang.

She picked up her phone and saw a video call from Hayden.

Without hesitation, she took the video call.

“Hayden, Robert is here with me now, do you want to see Robert?” Although Avery was asking, she couldn't help crouching beside Robert and asked the brothers to meet, “Robert, look! This is your elder brother, Hayden!”

Robert saw his brother's serious face, and nervously grabbed the hem of his clothes.

“Robert, call me brother.” Hayden's voice came from a solemn tone, with the smell of an order.

Robert pursed his mouth and turned to drill into Avery's arms.

Originally, he was not so close to Avery, but because he was less familiar with his brother and more afraid of him, now his mother is also a good safe haven.

Avery hugged Robert into her arms with a happy smile on her face.

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1842

Chapter 1842

Kara took her little hand and walked over to the camera of the mobile phone, staring at Hayden in the video.

When Hayden saw the two little girls appearing, the expression on his face couldn't help softening.

"Kara, Maria, call me brother." Although Hayden had never seen them, he had seen their photos, so he recognized them both.

Kara has a more lively personality, so she shouted obediently: "Brother!"

"Maria, can you speak? If you can, then shout out to brother. When brother comes back to Aryadelle next time, I will buy you a gift!" Hayden coaxed.

Kara pouted: "I called you brother, do you have a gift for me?"

"As long as you call me brother, you will have a gift." After Hayden finished speaking, Robert in Avery's arms felt itchy.

Although he was hiding in his mother's arms, he stared at Hayden in the video with his eyes fixed.

"Brother." Maria shouted shyly and nervously.

Although it was not loud, Hayden heard it.

"Little Maria is really good. Your brother will definitely buy you a big gift!" Hayden promised to look at his brother hiding in his mother's arms, his expression suddenly serious, "Robert, you coward! Both sisters dare to call brother, You dare not! You are really a good son brought out by Elliot!"

Hayden didn't expect his younger brother to be so timid, not like him and Layla at all.

After being yelled at by Hayden, Robert's face flushed, and he quarreled with Hayden: "You are a coward! You bad brother! I don't want you to buy gifts! My father will buy them for me!"

“Then go find your stinky father! Don’t hide in my mother’s arms!” Hayden mocked.

Robert’s eyes were wet with anger, he broke free from Avery’s arms and went to find his father.

Avery didn’t care about anything else, and immediately ran after Robert.

Avery: “Robert, your father is home.”

“Woooooo! I want Dad! I want to go home! I don’t like bad brother! He’s so fierce!” Robert cried with tears streaming down his face very sadly.

Avery watched her son cry and felt very distressed.

She picked Robert up and strode outside and planned to send Robert back.

She had brought Hayden and Layla, and knew that the child would make a fuss, and if it was not coaxed well, the child would cry and gasp for breath.

Everyone heard Robert’s cry and came over to check the situation.

“Robert and Hayden quarreled. I’ll take Robert back first. Don’t worry, let’s go eat!” Avery said, and walked out with Robert in her arms.

When the Foster family bodyguard saw Avery come out with Robert in her arms, the bodyguard immediately greeted her.

“Go in and find Mike and get my car key.” Seeing that the black Rolls-Royce had already driven away, Avery spoke to the Foster family bodyguard.

After the bodyguard entered the house, Avery hugged Robert and coaxed gently: “Robert, mother knows you are not a coward. How good you were with your two younger sisters just now! Youe elder brother didn’t know because he didn’t come back to see you. How good are you...”

Avery cooed patiently, making Robert stop crying quickly.

On the way back, Robert fell asleep in Avery’s arms.

After a while, the car stopped in front of Foster’s villa.

Avery took Robert to Mrs. Cooper, took the car keys from the bodyguard, and drove away alone.

Elliot came down from the upstairs and frowned when he saw the tears on his son’s face.

Mrs. Cooper explained, "Sir, Avery said that Robert and Hayden had a quarrel. The two brothers probably haven't seen each other for three years. They must have no feelings. Hayden won't come back, you can take Robert to Bridgedale to see Hayden. You must miss Hayden too, right?"

Elliot hesitated for a while, then answered.

He really should go to Bridgedale to see Hayden!

Three days later.

Jewelry Auction.

Avery entered the auction site wearing a white casual fisherman hat and a light and elegant purple dress.