

Avery embarrassed: “Robert, mother is not sick. But don’t be angry with mother, because mother is looking for a way to treat your father.”

Robert: “Okay...then I’ll be a little stingy.”

“Mmmm! You are really your mother’s good baby!” Avery thought her son was too cute, so she hugged him and kissed him on the cheek.

The kindergarten that Robert attends was in the commercial district of the community.

Drive there in five minutes.

After sending Robert to school, Avery asked the driver to drive the car to the hospital.

Elliot’s attending doctor said that if Elliot woke up, she would be notified as soon as possible.

She had been looking forward to it, looking forward to the good news that Elliot woke up when the phone rang the next second.

...

On the outskirts of the city, a guest bedroom on the second floor of a self-built building. On the bedside table, there were several bottles of melatonin.

Norah barely slept all night.

Melatonin was completely useless for her.

She was leaning against the window, a lady’s cigarette between her fingers.

Soot fell to the ground. Her nightgown was also full of ashes.

Ever since she knew Elliot was returning to Aryadelle, she had been paying close attention to Elliot's movements.

Until she found out that Elliot had surgery, her heart was up and down, and she began to wait for the follow-up news.

Unfortunately, after Elliot's surgery, there was no news.

At the same time, she also pays attention to the news of Travis from Bridgedale.

She knew that Travis hated her to the bone now, and as long as Travis found her, she would definitely die.

She doesn't want to die. So she sent her parents abroad immediately after returning home.

As long as Travis couldn't find her parents, she couldn't be threatened.

Aryadelle was not Travis's territory. As long as she kept her whereabouts hidden, she should be able to hide for a while.

In her dreams, she hoped that Travis would die suddenly, or that Elliot woke up after the operation and killed Travis.

As long as Travis died, she would be able to live an ordinary life in the future.

Unfortunately, God did not wish.

Sometimes the more afraid of something, the more something comes.

There was a sudden knock on the door, followed by a squeak, and the door was pushed open.

"Norah, I'm afraid you have to live in another place." It was the owner of the house who was also a friend of Norah's aunt, "Travis has already sent someone to your aunt's place. Did your aunt call you? Listen? Said that your aunt's house was smashed. I'm really afraid... why don't you go to a more remote place to avoid the limelight!"

Norah lived there and paid the owner a high room rate...

It's just that she also understood that although the other party wanted to make money, she didn't want to cause more trouble.

"Do you have any recommended places?" Norah took out a wad of money from her bag and handed it to the other party, "I won't hide forever. When Travis dies, I can make a comeback. You help me now, I'll remember in my heart."

"I'm afraid that Travis will not die in a while. I heard that he has some way of immortality..." The owner took the money and gave her advice, "You still have to think of a way or keep hiding, I'm afraid of your mental problems."

The owner looked at the cigarette butts all over the floor, and at her haggard face, worried that before Travis died, she would have problems first.

"I'm thinking of a way... I can definitely think of a way." Norah actually already had a solution in her heart.

It's just that Elliot didn't wake up, and this plan was not easy to implement.

If she wants to fight against Travis, either she has the chips to let Travis disregard the past, or she has the chips to let Elliot help him fight against Travis.

She thought about it, Travis suspected that he was seriously ill, cruel and inhuman, and he would definitely not trust her again.

Even if she has chips, Travis will kill her after getting the chips.

So she might as well put her bet on Elliot.

This was her only way out right now.

Although this so-called way out might be a dead end, she had no other choice.

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2216

Bridgedale.

Emilio told his father what Avery told him.

He didn't like his father, and like Norah, he also looked forward to the news of his father's death when he woke up one day.

Aside from this, he and his father were a community of interests.

He couldn't watch Jones's family have an accident.

When Travis heard the news, his face turned black and blue if he was hit hard.

He didn't care whether Elliot was dead or not, what he cared about was whether his new project could progress smoothly.

If Avery was really determined to stop him from making a lot of money, he didn't seem to be able to resist.

Although Avery had not won the March Medical Award, Avery had an extraordinary influence in the medical field.

"Dad, stop!" Emilio looked at his father's hideous face and persuaded, "Even if we don't do new projects, we can continue to rely on our own industries to maintain our current life as before. If we continue to do new projects, There will definitely be no good results."

"Emilio, what is your relationship with Avery? Why does she tell you everything!" Travis lit a cigarette, took a puff, exhaled a thick ring of smoke, and stared at him Looking at his son, "Didn't you say it's okay to have nothing to do with her? If it doesn't matter, she will tell you this? She can wait for me to invest a lot of money before hitting me hard, so I will lose everything."

Emilio's face flushed.

He must not let his father know that he had repeatedly tipped off Avery before.

"Avery asked me before and asked me to help her deal with you together. But I refused." Emilio looked calm and weaved lies, "Dad, I have never told you about this. Because I think it is my duties. Now she and Elliot are finally no longer under your control, so she can't help showing off to me."

"Is that so?" Travis looked at his son and discerned the truth from his words.

"Yes. Dad, if I betrayed you, Avery wouldn't be passive until now." Emilio continued to explain, "I heard that Elliot's surgery was done secretly behind Avery's back after returning to Aryadelle. Avery knew about this. Before the incident, she was still trying to crack the device in Elliot's head. She can only say that Elliot is too cruel. He is not afraid of death, what can he do that can't be successful?"

"Okay, don't say it!" Travis didn't want to listen to Emilio How arrogant.

This time, it was just Elliot's bet.

If Elliot really lived off the device in his head, he'd be dead by now.

People who didn't even care about their lives, in Travis's view, were complete idiots!

As long as people were alive, there were infinite possibilities.

When he die, he's nothing!

"Dad, let's return Uncle Sirois's investment money to him! Take advantage of the fact that you haven't invested too much yet." Emilio continued to persuade, “I know you are not reconciled, and I am not reconciled. But instead of losing more in the future, It’s better to stop the loss in time.”

“Emilio, do you know how Leland Sirois will laugh at us behind our backs when we do this?” Travis’s face turned blue, and his voice trembled, “People live with their faces and trees live with their skin... “

“Dad, I’ll come forward. You can rest at home for a while. Or go outside for a relaxing vacation. If we insist on investing and wait for Avery to come forward and point out that what we are doing is a scam, we will lose even more, and the entire Bridgedale will lose more and People will laugh at us.”

Travis gritted his teeth and rubbed his head with one hand: “Avery... I really want to kill her immediately! Emilio, is there anything you can do? If you can kill Avery immediately, I can make a will immediately that after I die, I will give you all my property!”

Emilio’s palms broke out in cold sweat.

“Dad, Avery is now in Aryadelle. Aryadelle is Elliot’s territory. Even if Elliot is lying in the hospital, his life and death are uncertain, but Elliot’s power is still there. We have no chance to attack at all.” Emilio pointed out the reality and let his father gave up.

“You useless thing! Let you kill Avery, you are afraid of death, let you find Norah, you have been looking for so long, why haven’t you found her yet? Could Norah also pose a threat to you?” Travis All dissatisfaction, vented on the son’s head.

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2217

Emilio lowered his head and let his father insult: “Dad, now it is basically certain that Norah is in Aryadelle.

“Now that she is sure that she is in Aryadelle, why can't she be caught? Don't tell me that Aryadelle is too big... If you and Norah's identities were swapped, I'm sure Norah would have caught her long ago You!” Travis said in disgust, “Emilio, if you want me to really reuse you and hand over the industry to you, you have to do something! Don't think you have my blood on your body, and I will give everything to you. You're dreaming.”

Emilio's reprimanded breathing became heavier: “Dad, why don't I go to Aryadelle. Let's see if I can find her.”

“Didn't you just say you want to help me clean up the mess? You go to Aryadelle. Who will help me clean up the mess?” Travis has decided to stop the new project, but he is not reconciled, “Wait first. Isn't Elliot still awake? What if Elliot can't wake up and dies? If Elliot dies, We can say that Elliot died because he took out the device! This proves the effect of the device even more!”

At this point, Travis became excited.

“Okay, then wait.” Emilio said, “I'll go to Aryadelle first. This will also make it easier to inquire about Elliot's news.”

“Okay. You can go now. Emilio, if you can't do anything well this time, Even if I donate all my property, I will not give you this incompetent waste!” Travis put pressure on his son.

Aryadelle.

In the evening.

Hayden went to school to pick up Layla from school.

As soon as Layla came out of the school, she saw the tall, thin figure of her brother Hayden.

“Brother!” Layla exclaimed, attracting the attention of the surrounding students and their parents.

Layla didn’t run towards her brother immediately after calling out her brother.

Instead, she introduced Hayden to her good friends: “That’s my brother. Didn’t you say that you didn’t see him clearly in the morning? See him now! Is my brother super handsome? My brother is not only handsome, but also very good at studying!”

All the little girls showed their admiration to Hayden.

“Layla, why is your brother studying abroad?”

“Layla, aren’t you and your brother twins? You two should be the same age! Why are you still in elementary school and your brother has already gone to college?”

“Layla, your brother’s jumping is too fierce!”

Facing the chirping questions from her good friends, Layla felt a little pricked.

“My brother isn’t in college! The middle school he went to is an affiliated school of the university.” Layla blushed in embarrassment, but on second thought, it wasn’t a shame that her brother was better than herself.

Layla walked towards her brother. Several of her good friends also walked over with them.

“Brother, they are my good friends.” Layla introduced her good friends to her brother.

“Brother Hayden, can I add you as a friend?” a girl said, turning on her pink children’s watch.

Immediately following, other girls also opened their children’s watches.

Hayden: “.....”

In the Hospital.

Elliot woke up after a few days of painful coma.
