

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2504

Chapter 2504

Siena suddenly stood up from her chair, planning to intercede with Mr. Todd.

“What are you going to do?” Lucas called to stop her.

Siena: “I’ll go find Mr. Todd.”

“What’s the use of you looking for him. Do you think my dad will listen to him?” Lucas said indifferently.

“That’s better than not explaining anything, right?”

Siena still planned to go to Mr. Todd.

Lucas originally just wanted to see her reaction, but he didn’t expect her to be so nervous.

“I explained it to my dad.” Lucas thought of the speed with which she rushed into the rainy night last night. If he didn’t explain clearly, he’s afraid this silly girl would run out soon, “I said I asked you to buy it.”

Siena froze for a moment, and at the same time breathed a sigh of relief: “What did your dad say? Did he blame me?”

Lucas: “He didn’t say anything. Watch me leave after eating the pork ribs.”

“Oh, then you just said that on purpose Your father wants to punish me. Young master, you are really bad. I kindly bring you food, but you still scare me.” Siena frowned and criticized. “Who told you that I was wrong sometimes?” Lucas never regretted any decision he made, so naturally he didn’t think he was wrong.

“You’re right, I was wrong.” Seeing that Lucas didn’t betray to her, Siena compromised, “Did you rub the medicine I bought for you? Did it work?”

“Why are you so wordy? Mom doesn’t have so many questions like you.” Lucas finished the mutton pie, then picked up the soup bowl, and drank it.

“Because the people in the pharmacy said that if it doesn’t work, you can change to another medicine.” Siena felt that she was disgusted, so after saying this, she didn’t speak again. Lucas saw her shrugging her head, as if she had been wronged, and felt a strange feeling in his heart.

He thought she was a little pitiful... not a little pitiful, but very pitiful.

He had never seen a more pitiful person than her.

“You don’t need to read tonight?” Lucas finished the soup and broke the silence.

“I’ll read when I get home.” Siena put the disposable soup bowl and the empty beef patty bag in the trash bag.

“How is your academic performance?” Lucas asked. Siena didn’t expect him to ask this question, and suddenly she felt a little embarrassed: “General.” Before her mother-in-law was sick in bed, her grades were very good in class.

After her mother-in-law was bedridden, she did not go to school for a year.

Self-study at home was definitely not as good as listening to teachers at school. So her academic performance dropped.

“Can you still get into university?” Lucas continued to ask, “If you can’t...”

“I’m sure I can get into university. Young master, thank you for caring about me, I’m leaving now.” Siena changed the garbage bag and prepared to leave.

“Don’t you think your rental house is a bit cold?” Lucas showed great kindness, “You can read here. Close the door when you leave.”

After finishing speaking, Lucas strode back to the room. Siena watched his slender back disappear from sight, the unreal feeling made her in a trance.

Lucas asked her to stay there and read because there was heating there.

The poisonous young master was actually so kind!

Siena immediately walked to the dining table and sat down.

She took out the books, materials and homework and started to study.

After an unknown amount of time, Lucas came out of the room with a glass of water, and was a little surprised to see that Siena was still there.

“It’s already 10:00 p.m., why didn’t Siena go back?”

Suddenly hearing Lucas’s voice, Siena was startled:

“Young Master, am I bothering you? I’m leaving now.”
