Chapter 2561

“You don’t have to speak for Lucas. I know what kind of person he is.” Cyrus said arrogantly, “He and I are both illegitimate children, but he looks down on me. It’s ridiculous. He can’t study, nor can he have emotional intelligence.

Besides eating and sleeping all day long, what else do he does?”

Siena froze for a moment, then continued: “Young Master Hogan can play games. He plays games very well.”

Although Siena didn’t know how to play games, but seeing Lucas playing games every day, he must be very good at games.

With his proud self-esteem, if he was a rookie at playing games, he would definitely not be able to continue playing.

“Hahaha! Playing games... When did playing games become something to be praised?” Cyrus said, took out his mobile phone, and showed Siena the marriage news he had just seen,

“Look at this news. The daughter of the richest man in Aryadelle is seeking marriage globally. They listed some requirements, but it didn't say that they want to play games, hahaha!"

Siena looked at Cyrus's phone screen.

She saw the two key words 'Elliot' and 'Layla'.

"Elliot's daughter is asking for marriage?" Siena mumbled, "Why is she asking for marriage?"

"Maybe there are no suitable candidates around, so they are looking for marriages around the world, so that they can quickly meet more and better candidates." Cyrus talked non-stop, and Siena took out her mobile phone to search for this news.

Although this was news from Aryadelle, because it was a global marriage call, Bridgedale's headlines also published this explosive news.

"Oh... Layla Tate... she looks so beautiful!" Siena exclaimed when she saw Layla's photo.

"Hahaha! Her father is very handsome, and her mother is also very beautiful, so she is naturally not far behind." Cyrus puffed up his chest, looking for confidence from Siena, "Siena, do you think I am suitable?"

Siena froze for a moment, then glanced at Cyrus:

"Second Young Master, do you want to apply for the recruitment?"

Cyrus responded: “Do you think I have a chance of being selected when I apply?”

Siena quickly found the marriage request and read it again.

After reading it, Siena looked puzzled and said, “Second young master, does your family have more than 10 billion assets? I didn’t know that your family is so rich...”

Cyrus looked embarrassed and turned blue: “Our family doesn’t have that much money. Of course, I don’t know how much money our family has. I think it shouldn’t be that much.”

“Oh... If you don’t have that much money, you won’t be able to meet their requirements! If you apply, you should provide proof of family assets.” Although Siena only read the marriage requirements once, but she has already kept the content in her mind, “It is written on it, and each requirement needs to provide proof.”

Cyrus’s face turned dark immediately.

Siena: “Also, Second Young Master, the second item...”

“Okay, stop talking!” Cyrus said impatiently, “Don’t you just think I’m not good enough for Layla Tate? Although our family is not that rich and my university didn't meet their requirements, but there are also a few items that are up to the mark."

Siena immediately picked up the phone and showed Cyrus the red letter reminder in the content of the marriage application:

"Second young master, it said above that you must meet the standards in every item before you can enter the primary election. If you submit your resume in the past, I'm afraid you won't be able to enter primary."

After Siena finished speaking, her little heart began to tremble...

Cyrus seemed to be getting angry.

In Siena's heart, Cyrus had always been the image of a gentle and graceful young man. She never thought that Cyrus would turn his face because he could not meet the requirements for marriage.

Siena immediately took back the phone, and encouraged: "Second young master, you are so handsome, you have a good personality, and the family conditions are also very good. Plus you study well, so I think you can still submit your resume to try this. If Miss Layla sees your photo and falls in love with you at first sight, maybe she will relax the standard.”
