

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2586

Chapter 2586

There were several countries between these two countries. So it was a long distance to travel by plane.

“Siena, you don’t need to help the cook here. You can go home and rest. You can also go back to school. After all, you will have a big exam soon.” Mr. Todd said, “If you can be admitted to the University of Thopiavelle, you owe me money, there is no need to pay it back. I know your mother-in-law hoped that you could be admitted to a good university.”

“Uncle Todd, thank you. Regardless of whether I can be admitted to the University of Thopiavelle, I will definitely pay back the money owed to you.” Siena said gratefully and left Hogan’s house.

As Mr. Todd said, the final exam was not long away, so Siena had to hurry up and study.

Back at school, during recess, several students immediately walked to Siena’s desk.

“Siena, I heard that your grandma passed away, and you have been working part-time.”

Naturally, the teacher told the students in the class. Because Siena didn't come to school for such a long time, some students suspected that Siena had dropped out of school.

"Yeah." Siena didn't really want to talk about this, but she also understood everyone's curiosity about this matter.

"Then don't you have to work part-time now?"

"I work part-time. But it's easier to work now. I can rush there after the afternoon class." Siena explained patiently.

"Oh, what do you do part-time work? I heard that you work part-time in a rich family."

"Cooking." After Siena said, she didn't want to answer anything else.

Fortunately, at this time, the head teacher came over and asked Siena to go to the office.

"Siena, your tutor sent me a document and asked me to print it out for you. I have already printed it out. Take it back and take a good look at it." The head teacher gave a bound printout to Siena, "your tutor likes you very much! He hopes that you can get into a good school and not have to work so hard in the future."

"Thank you." Siena didn't know what to say except thank you.

If it wasn't for Lucas, she wouldn't have known the tutor.

If it wasn't for Lucas, she wouldn't be able to return to school while working part-time.

So no matter what Lucas's attitude towards her is, her gratitude to Lucas will not change.

In the evening.

Siena made dinner and waited for Lucas to come back.

At 6:00 p.m., the Hogan family's car stopped at the entrance of the auxiliary building.

Lucas got out of the car.

When Siena heard the sound, she immediately opened the door of the auxiliary building and trotted over, trying to help Lucas carry his schoolbag.

"Young Master, you must be very tired after studying all day, right? Let me help you!"

Seeing her trying to please herself, Lucas couldn't bear it after all: "No need."

"Okay! Young Master I Cooked radish soup. The radish soup is not greasy, you can drink more later."

Siena said cautiously,

"Young Master, I heard that you are going to go to university in Eozambiulle. I checked the map, and Eozambiulle is far away. If you have any difficulties in the past, you must tell your father. I will not be able to help you in the future..."

Siena said here, seeing Lucas frowning, she immediately said: “Young Master, I know you think I’m long-winded, so I won’t say anything after I finish.”

Lucas entered the living room and put down his schoolbag.

Lucas: “Finished?”

Siena shook her head: “I’m afraid you won’t like to hear it, so I’d better not talk.”

Lucas walked towards the dining room.

Siena immediately brought the prepared meals from the kitchen to the table.

“Young Master, I’ll bring you water to wash your hands.” Seeing that he didn’t wash his hands, Siena went to fetch water immediately.

Lucas was so hungry that she forgot to wash her hands
