

Guardian Wolf

Chapter 126

Informing The Pack.

Informing The Pack

Jax POV:

Waiting outside the dining hall as the pack members arrive I note that many, although looking apprehensive for the meeting, don't seem overly nervous. Showing that their faith in my Luna and I's leadership is strong.

"What did you think of the dorms?" I ask Nova quietly as she stands by my side.

"Impressive" she commends. "It will work well to house many. I'll speak to the warriors as they arrive and ensure they know we don't want any provocation between them and everyone is to be amicable whilst staying there."

"Good idea, warriors can be rather loud and cocky at times" I muse.

"Show offs you mean" she smirks at me.

"Show offs" I confirm with a grin as we continue waiting for a moment.

Jax we forgot the White Mountain Pack!" Nova exclaims looks horrified as she turns.

to face me

"They don't need housing" I explain calmly. "They have mobile housing they are bringing with them for the warriors. They also haven't confirmed how many just yet but they will be calling tonight to confirm. Don't worry I didn't want to stress you out. earlier by pointing it out but Alex was aware of it. That's probably why he didn't.

mention it."

"They have mobile housing?" Nova asks confused.

"Axton knew we would need options so I believe he has hired, or bought, mobile homes for them to use. It's not something I've seen before but I have to admit, it will work" I say with a smile.

"I can't believe I forgot my old pack coming" she mutters embarrassed.

"Don't be, goddess knows we have enough to remember. If you forget something I'll remember and vice versa..hopefully" I laugh.

"I won't tell Luca" I smirk at her teasingly.

"Phew" she whispers with a little chuckle..

Seeing the last of the pack members arrive I square my shoulders and take my Lunas hand as we stride in, our auras oozing confidence to ease any concerns the pack members may have.

"Good evening everyone" I shout as everyb*dy quietens immediately. "As you all will most likely have realised this is not a normal pack meeting. I've called this meeting to inform you all that on Saturday, the night of the full moon we will be experiencing an attack of a large proportion. You may wonder how we know and I am going to explain that but first let me explain who and why this attack will be taking place."

I

Looking around I see everyb*dy staying calm as they listen to my every word intently. "As you know with your Luna being a Guardian Wolf she experiences threats much more regularly than we do ourselves. Unfortunately.." with this I feel Novas gentle hand grasp my arm lightly.

"Perhaps I could explain this bit?" She asks quietly as I smile at her idea and guide her in front of me as I hold her side supportingly.

"I'm sorry to interrupt" she calls to everyone, "but I'd like you to hear this from me personally and I ask you all to be patient. My father, who you have all met, and my mother experienced a hard time in the lead up to when I was born. What many of your don't know is my mother was a human, not only a human but she was a daughter of hunters." Hearing that there are a few gasps from the crowd but when looking at those who reacted they don't look scared they looked pained. "My mother didn't share in their views or values and my father and her were happily mated. When I was born my grandparents went after them, intent on ridding myself and my dad from this world, and most likely my mother at the time as well despite her being their daughter. That's how I came to be adopted by my brothers family, I'm sure many of you have met Luca while he's visited so I'm sure you can see the love I was brought up with. Unfortunately my grandfather is still after us and with the help of many hunters under his leadership they will be attacking on Saturday. My father is also a Guardian Wolf but not only that he is the new Rogue King" Nova says looking around the pack. members. Seeing them not react she furrows her brows slightly.

"Which you don't look too surprised by?" She asks.

With that a warrior steps forward scratching the back of his neck slightly, "Luna speak?"

"Of course Anton" she says as the warrior smiles widely at her use of his name.

"While many of us don't understand Guardian Wolves and much about the history, we could all sense the power your father wields. We assumed he was a rogue as his scent, although not out right horrible, it does hold the undertone of a rogue which I'm sure our Alpha can agree?" He asks looking to me as I nod in understanding, knowing that with the family bond his scent will differ to Nova. "We assumed he was a Rogue, admittedly him being the Rogue King is surprising, but we are aware of the lack of attacks in the last few years and I and many others assume it has something to do with him. We know how caring and protective you are of us in your pack Luna, your father must be the same."

Seeing tears threatening to fall from Nova's eyes she grips my hand tightly. "Did you all assume the same?" She whispers however everyb*dy heard and smiles or nods.

their agreement.

Clasping her free hand over her heart she smiles softly to them all, "you are all fabulous pack members. You're observant, far more observant than I gave you credit for and I apologise for that, I won't make that mistake again. But not only that I want to thank you for your understanding and patience with this..it truly means the world."

With that the pack members all bow low whilst murmuring "our Luna" as Nova so bs in relief.

"They love you Nova" I whisper in her ear as I tuck her into my side..

"Thank you pack" I call appreciatively, "you can see how much this means to our Luna and I am more grateful than ever to be Alpha to this wonderful pack. I'd like to explain how we know the attack will take place on Saturday. As you know we have Alpha King Alexander staying with us, and with the help of his pack witches we have been able to confirm the date and place of the attack with a vision they had, your Luna also shared this vision and saw it for herself. Unfortunately the hunters will be bringing the attack here, as much as it pains me to admit it, we can't locate the hunters..they also have the help of witches, albeit not the good kind. So I believe letting them come here is the only option we have, but it is also one that we can work in our favour."

Looking around I see the pack members looking concerned but the fact they're not. panicking fills me with hope. "We have help coming from other packs so tomorrow we will be expecting many warriors to arrive and they have housing organised already. Finally for now, I want to confirm all elderly, pups, pregnant females and vulnerable will be leaving the pack."

Seeing confused looks I explained further, "my Luna and myself want you in no way to be near any fighting or be put at risk. As you know our Beta Female and Gam ma Female, Naomi and Alice are pregnant. They will be travelling with you all to the council buildings tomorrow, along with Luna Ophelia. If you have any questions or concerns please approach them and they will be happy to help, myself and Nova also.

We have arranged transport with warriors escorting you and Elder Martin is expecting you all along with my Aunt Sophia which many of you know personally. Does this all sound ok for know?" I ask looking around.

"Yes Alpha" they chorus loudly making me smile.

"Thank you all" I shout with pride. "I will have training programs for warriors issued first thing along with border patrols organised by your Gam mas Theo and Florence.

Omeegas please report to Brea in the morning to get your rotas for food and housing preparations. But for now, please go fetch your pups and loved ones at home, I have organised for us all to enjoy a pack dinner together. One last time thank you for trusting in us and I am more proud than you know for the way in which you all conduct yourselves. The coming days will be tough but please don't hesitate to approach any of us if you would like to. Enjoy this evening with your families."

With that a large round of applause sounds as the hall fills with pack members bowing to us.

"Brilliant Boss" Laurence says as I reach him

"I hope so" I sigh as I k*ss Novas temple.

"that was perfect."

"Let's eat" he smiles at us as we head to join the pack members.
