

Married At First Sight Chapter 3569

Married At First Sight Chapter 3569 – Zachary said, “Sister, I’ll make the arrangements, but I need to inform you.”

After all, this concerns the Farrell family, and Liberty will soon take their name. It also involves his wife Serenity’s family.

Liberty worried Zachary might overthink and quickly explained, “Zachary, I don’t mean anything by it. I just know that you and Clive are the most reliable. I trust your decisions.”

Even though Liberty was once very strong in her career, she recognized she was still a junior in front of these two presidents. Compared to Hayden, who was younger but took over her family business early and led the Queen Group to great success, Liberty felt humbled.

Zachary reassured her, “Sister, I understand. We’re all working towards the same goal.”

Zachary trusted Liberty’s intentions and said, “You should visit Kathryn at the hospital tomorrow. Even though she’s there, she’s still the Farrell family’s heir and will know things faster than us. Pedro, who’s always by her side, is as capable as Grandpa Jimenez—he’s not to be underestimated.”

Luckily, Kathryn is a good person.

Liberty nodded. “I plan to visit Kathryn too. She should be ready for discharge soon.”

If Clarissa hadn’t caused so much harm, the Farrell family might have had a more peaceful relationship.

Liberty admired Kathryn, and Kathryn felt the same about her. Despite their age difference, they got along like sisters and friends.

“Mr. York, what should I do?” Hayden asked Zachary.

Kevin also looked at him.

Zachary replied, “Ms. Queen, please help us protect Grandpa Jimenez and keep us informed.”

The priority was to protect Grandpa Jimenez from Clarissa’s schemes.

Hayden agreed, having already done one of the two favors Zachary asked of her.

After the brief meeting, Kevin insisted on escorting Hayden home, even though she planned to stay at her hotel nearby.

“It’s late, I’ll stay at the hotel tonight,” Hayden said, “It’s only a few steps away, so you don’t need to walk me back. You should rest early.”

Kevin responded, “Even if it’s just a step away, I’ll still escort you home, see you upstairs, and make sure you’re safe inside.”

Hayden finally agreed.

The two walked hand in hand, closely followed by the Queen family’s bodyguards.

Ever since they discovered Hayden was a woman, the bodyguards still followed her but kept their distance, knowing that Kevin was fiercely protective. He wouldn’t tolerate any other man around her, not even a mosquito.

Kevin’s bold nature was only encouraged by Hayden’s affection.

The bodyguards, comparing him to Zachary, thought Kevin couldn’t match Zachary’s maturity and authority. But Kevin was still highly capable, managing all the York Corporation hotels with a smile, earning him the nickname “smiling tiger.”

Kevin secretly thought that the bodyguards had never seen Zachary in love. When it comes to doting on his wife, even Zachary sets the standard.
