Married At First Sight Chapter 3635

Married At First Sight Chapter 3635 – Pedro responded to Kathryn, “If we start investigating now, we probably won’t find much because there’s just not enough time.”

“Madam Farrell has asked the butler to visit the Queen family to invite Mrs. Stone and others for dinner tomorrow night. She’s also invited some skilled members of the clan. If she’s planning anything, it’ll likely happen during that dinner.”

This family dinner hosted by Clarissa was different from the first one.

The first time, Liberty was invited, and Kevin and Hayden showed up. Although Clarissa had plans to get rid of Liberty during the event, she failed.

Since then, even though Clarissa and Liberty had crossed paths multiple times, she never invited Liberty back to the Farrell mansion.

This time, a lot of influential figures from Wiltspoon came, many from major wealthy families. They were there to support Liberty.

Liberty’s company had been backed by these powerful families from the start. They invested heavily, ensuring Liberty could compete with the Farrell Group.

Was it Liberty’s skills alone that allowed her new company to take business from Farrell Group? No—it was the strength of the families behind her.

Seeing her strong backers, others felt confident in partnering with Liberty’s company, knowing it wouldn’t go under. This led them to abandon the Farrell Group in favor of Liberty.

Without this support, Liberty’s business would’ve likely been crushed by the Farrell Group before it even had a chance to grow.

Now, these powerful people were here not only to support Liberty but also to seek justice for the death of the previous matriarch. The group that gathered was full of important players.

By inviting them to this dinner, Clarissa might be planning to eliminate them all at once. The skilled members of the Farrell Group were also invited, perhaps so Clarissa could use the opportunity to get rid of them, too.

If her plan worked, Liberty would no longer be a competitor for Kathryn, and there would be no one left in the clan capable of opposing her. Kathryn could then take over as matriarch from her mother without resistance.

Pedro continued, “Miss, we shouldn’t get involved in this. Even if we try, we won’t find anything, and it could provoke Madam Farrell, which wouldn’t be good for you. You need to be cautious—Madam Farrell might target you before the dinner even begins.”

Kathryn replied, “I understand. I’m prepared.”

Kathryn knew exactly what kind of person her mother was.

Though her mother didn’t want her involved too deeply, Kathryn was still her daughter. If her mother had committed crimes like killing her two aunts and hiding illegal weapons, Kathryn couldn’t completely distance herself.

Even if she didn’t end up in jail, her reputation and future would be tarnished.

Her mother had already arranged an escape route for her, with Pedro set to take her out of Jensburg.

But Kathryn wasn’t willing to leave like that. She wanted to wait until everything was settled and leave openly, not in secret.

She was ready to face whatever consequences were coming and wouldn’t run away.

“Did you find out what was in the drug?”

Pedro answered, “Most of it is made of sleeping pills and cartilage powder. These are the main ingredients. They were probably tested at the hospital, but the doctor never revealed the results. When asked, he just said they weren’t ready yet.”
