

Married At First Sight Chapter 3733

Married At First Sight Chapter 3733 – After walking for half an hour, Duncan and Liberty returned to the hotel.

At the entrance, they ran into Zachary and Kevin, who had just arrived back.

“Duncan, you’re here,” Zachary greeted as he approached them. He turned to Liberty, adding, “Hello, sister.”

Kevin, following behind, joked with Duncan, “I told my brother you’d show up in the next couple of days. It’s tough missing someone, isn’t it?”

“You know what it’s like,” Duncan replied with a chuckle.

Kevin couldn’t argue—he had indeed felt the pain of missing someone.

“You two went shopping and bought a lot,” Kevin noticed. Seeing the toys Duncan carried, he added, “Sonny’s got more new toys, huh?”

“Yeah, I got Sonny some clothes and new toys. I used to only give him windmills, so I thought I should mix it up a bit.”

Duncan laughed at the memory of always giving Sonny windmills. He had really liked the boy but didn’t know how to connect with him back then.

Seeing Sonny play with a windmill once made Duncan think it was his favorite, so he kept giving him one every day. At first, Sonny had been afraid of Duncan, but after receiving countless windmills, he warmed up to him.

Winning Sonny’s trust had been one of the toughest challenges. But now, Sonny treated Duncan like a father, and Duncan knew he had surpassed Hank’s role in the boy’s heart. Now, it was Hank’s turn to be envious.

The four of them entered the hotel together.

“Kevin, your father-in-law didn’t insist on you staying longer?” Liberty asked with a smile.

Kevin replied, “My brother will pick up my sister-in-law and Sonny tomorrow. It’s closer to the airport from here, so I’ll take him there. I’ll stay at the hotel tonight. Clive is also heading back to Wiltspoon, but your aunt, her husband, and Grandpa Jimenez aren’t in a rush. I think they’ll wait for your holiday before returning to Wiltspoon.”

Kevin himself was also waiting—for Hayden to take a break. After convincing Hayden multiple times, she had finally agreed to spend the New Year in Wiltspoon. His in-laws also planned to bring Hugh to Wildridge Manor on New Year's Day for some fun with the York family.

During the New Year, Wildridge Manor would be full of life, with the whole York family gathering. His mother-in-law joked that seeing all the York brothers together was a treat for the eyes.

"Zack, are you going to pick up Seren tomorrow?" Liberty asked, thinking her brother-in-law would stay a little longer.

Zachary replied, "You and your aunt can handle the rest here. Kathryn is reliable and will take care of the Farrell family's matters. I'll leave for now and stay at Johnson's place for a couple of days before returning. Seren went to her parents' house with Jane today. She'll stay there for two days before coming back to FC Manor."

Liberty smiled. "Then go be with her. Your brothers are managing the company, so there's no rush for you to get home. Sonny's having so much fun that he hardly misses me—he only video calls me before bed."

Of course, Liberty was busy too, and Sonny didn't want to bother her during the day.

Sonny was a thoughtful boy, which made Liberty worry less.

Zachary nodded in agreement.

They all entered the elevator. Zachary and Kevin headed to the top floor, while Liberty and Duncan got off on the twelfth floor.

There wasn't much talk that night.

The next morning, after breakfast, Kevin drove Zachary and his bodyguard to the Jensburg airport to catch a flight to Annenburg.
