

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2489

In the Demon Heart Sect, David regained his calm, and several golden rays of light flashed in his mind, making David's consciousness return to normal!

The scene in front of him was also restored, and the demon envoy looked at David calmed down, and his hanging heart finally relaxed!

"David...David..." The emissary tried to call David twice.

"Let's go..."

David stepped forward, and the second formation was broken so easily!

Looking at David's back, the demon envoy couldn't help being speechless. Fortunately, he didn't fight David head-on, otherwise he would have died a miserable death by now!

The emissary hurriedly walked a few steps, walked in front of David, and led the way for David!

Soon, the entrance of the dungeon was in sight, and at this time, in front of the entrance of the dungeon, a light curtain flickered, blocking the way into the dungeon!

"This is the third formation. After passing this formation, you can enter the dungeon, but I am not qualified to enter the dungeon. There are other people guarding the dungeon." The demon envoy said to David!

David just nodded, then walked to the light curtain, and gently touched the light curtain with one hand!

David closed his eyes slightly, and the spiritual consciousness in his mind instantly spread to the entire formation, and he quickly found the formation's eye!

It only took a few minutes, the light curtain in front of him disappeared, and the third formation was also broken by David!

The demon envoy was so shocked that he couldn't speak, and watched David walk towards the dungeon helplessly!

The magic envoy was about to sound a reminder, but saw the dungeon door slowly opened, and a monster with the body of a bull head came out from inside!

Seeing this scene, the Demon Envoy froze in shock for an instant. He never knew that there were monsters in this dungeon!

He's never been in a dungeon either!

And David was also surprised when he saw the monster with a bull head and a human body!

"Who dares to break into the dungeon of Demon Heart Sect without authorization, isn't it tired of work?" The minotaur asked David harshly, uttering words!

David frowned slightly, and several divine senses penetrated into the body of the minotaur, feeling the aura of the minotaur, David was a little dazed!

Because the aura emanating from this minotaur is fundamentally different from other disciples of the Demon Heart Sect, and even different from other people in the secular world!

This kind of breath is more like coming from the world of heaven and man. David has felt this kind of breath from the armor-piercing beast!

It's just that the minotaur's aura is heavier than that of the armor-piercing beast!

Although the armor-piercing beast can speak human words, it still looks like a spirit beast, and this minotaur has already turned into a human body. It seems that it will not take long before it can completely transform into a human form!

In this way, the aura of the Minotaur is thicker than that of the armor-piercing beast, which is reasonable!

"You are not a monster from the secular world, you are from the celestial world, right?"

David asked the Minotaur!

After all, none of the monsters in the secular world can transform into human bodies, even if they can speak human words, they can generate spiritual wisdom and understand human speech, which is already good!

But the fire phoenix is different, the fire phoenix is not a spirit beast in the secret world of the secular world, she is a fire phoenix spirit beast in the world of heaven and man, and was thrown into the secular world later!

When David asked about the Heaven and Human Realm, the Minotaur was obviously taken aback for a moment, and then roared angrily, "I don't understand what you are talking about. If you break into the Demon Heart Sect's dungeon without permission, you must die..." The Minotaur let out a cry Roaring, suddenly a huge ax slashed at David fiercely!

David didn't dodge or dodge, only to see a golden light flashing on his body, and the sword Ling Zhongli flashed in an instant, directly blocking the heavy axe, and then slapped out with a palm, instantly sending the Minotaur flying out!
