

Stealing Your Heart Chapter 1055

"I think that Jiang Mohan will definitely be upset that you leaked his private information including his preferences, right?"

"Are you threatening me?" A grim expression crossed Nan Cheng's face. He was indeed worried that she would tell Jiang Mohan all these. It was not because he was afraid of her telling him, but rather, he did not want him to over-think.

"Have you thought it through?" Li Xiaohui raised her brows, looking certain of her victory.

Nan Cheng replied, "I understand."

With that, he turned around and left.

Li Xiaohui smirked as she stared at his back.

Nan Cheng headed to the company directly. However, Jiang Mohan did not go to the office today and no one knew where he went.

Flustered, Nan Cheng combed the place for him.

Recalling how Jiang Mohan had asked about Zong Yanxi, he headed to the house he had stayed in with her after they got married.

If he did not go there, he would've been completely oblivious to everything that was going on. When he reached the house, he spotted Jiang Mohan and discovered that he was secretly investigating Zong Yanxi.

The man beside him was reporting the outcome of his investigation. "This is where both of you lived after you got married."

Jiang Mohan stood in front of the villa, his gaze becoming grim. Although he looked calm on the surface, there was already a turmoil of emotions raging within him.

“What else did you discover?” he asked in a low voice.

“Not much for now,” replied the man.

A tinge of disappointment crept into Jiang Mohan’s voice. “Continue the investigation.”

“Yes.” With that, the man left.

Nan Cheng watched as Jiang Mohan entered the estate and stayed there for a long time.

He suddenly realized that he might have been wrong.

What I thought is good for him may not necessarily be the case.

This is his life after all and he has the right to do whatever he wants.

I have no right to intervene.

“Perhaps, I should help you find your happiness again.” Nan Cheng whipped out his phone and called Li Xiaohui. “Wait for my updates.”

She happily replied, “Sure.”

At night, Zong Yanxi brought Zhuang Zijin back to the hotel. Tawan hung his coat over his arm. His face was completely red as if he had an allergic reaction.

“Would you like an ice cream?” Zong Yanxi turned around to look at him.

They ate an extremely spicy hotpot for dinner today.

Tawan finally realized how terrifying it was when she chose the restaurant on their behalf.

“It helps to subdue the spicy after taste.” she said with a smile.

"I'm fine." Although he was teased by Zong Yanxi, he still remained calm. "I don't like sweet stuff."

"Then, should we go for a cold drink?" Zong Yanxi dragged him along. "Come on, let's go. Let's get rid of the burning sensation in our system."

Actually, she was quite thirsty too.

Tawan nodded his head this time, not refusing anymore.

Zhuang Zijin patted Zong Yanxi. "You're not allowed to bully him."

During their trip, Zong Yanxi kept bullying Tawan to the extent that Zhuang Zijin could not bear it anymore.

"Grandma, I'm your granddaughter." Zong Yanxi cutely whined at her.

Tawan gazed at her while a grin spread across his cheeks unknowingly.

She's so mischievous like a kid sometimes.

They ordered two glasses of iced water and a glass of warm water.

Zong Yanxi and Tawan drank the iced water, while Zhuang Zijin drank the warm one.

After sitting in the hotel's restaurant for a while, they returned to their rooms.

Zong Yanxi and Zhuang Zijin stayed in room 1809 on the eighteenth floor, while Tawan stayed in room 2106 on the twenty-first floor.

The hotel rooms located on the eighteenth floor and above were all luxury suites.

Afraid that Zong Yanxi would feel uncomfortable if he stayed too close to her, Tawan deliberately chose a room on the twenty-first floor.

After returning to his room, he tossed his coat aside and prepared to bathe. Feeling that his body was feeling hotter than when he was eating the spicy hotpot, he took off his shirt, revealing his muscular body. Perhaps because he had eaten too much chili, a few red spots appeared on his body.

Not bothered by it, he directly headed to the bathroom. The water splashed down on him as he bathed. However, after bathing, the burning sensation became stronger.

He walked out in his bathrobes, thinking that he had an allergic reaction. Just when he grabbed the phone and was about to dial a number, the doorbell rang.
