

Gu Lingfei 231

Gu Lingfei: Married at First Sight Chapter 231

Old Mrs. York looked at her grandson, and her grandson looked at her.

Her lips moved several times to say something, but she did not speak.

In the end, she burst into laughter.

Zachary was exasperated as he watched his nana laugh uncontrollably.

Old Mrs. York grinned and patted his shoulder.

Zachary had to hold his grandmother for fear that she would fall if she laughed too hard.

After a while, she finally stopped laughing and said, "Zack, I was wrong about you.

Serenity learned mixed martial arts, and her skill is quite good, so it's no problem for her to handle a handful of punks.

"My suggestion to you next time is when you see her in trouble, regardless if she needs help or not.

Just go up and save her.

In fact, it's better if you get hurt while saving her.

That way, she'll feel guilty about it and will treat you exceptionally well." Zachary's expression was gloomy, and his thin lips pursed tightly.

"You need to know a few tricks if you want to chase after your wife.

Of course, the most important thing is your sincerity." He said coldly, "Nana, I won't chase after my wife." "Fine fine fine, you won't.

Just continue being stubborn.

The day will come when you beg me for help, hehe." TN Zachary's expression was dark.

'Is this really my nana? 'Why do I feel like she's just waiting to laugh at me? 'It's like she's taking pleasure in my misfortune.' Old Mrs. York's driver had arrived.

"I'm leaving now.

You take your (me running.

If you have no appetite for breakfast, learn from me.

My method is proven effective.

I'm way more experienced than you." She patted his shoulder again and walked to the car with a smile on her face.

She asked the driver, "Did Sam tell you to bring the packed breakfast?" "Yes, it's in the car." Old Mrs. York hummed in response.

Zachary opened the door for her and helped her get into the car.

He saw the three insulated lunch boxes lying on the seat and he pursed his lips without a word spoken.

Old Mrs. York left while Zachary stood and watched his grandmother leave.

After a moment, he walked back.

The morning jog ended.

Back at the villa, he changed his clothes and went downstairs to have breakfast.

Since Old Mrs. York told Sam to pack three servings of breakfast for her to take away, the breakfast that the kitchen prepared for Zachary was packed away too.

They quickly prepared another portion for Zachary, but it was not a rich spread due to the lack of time.

Zachary did not have much of an appetite, so he did not bicker with the kitchen staff about the breakfast.

He grabbed a bite or two and drank half a cup of coffee to improve his mental state, before leaving with his group of bodyguards.

The concrete road in front of the villa area was connected to a large expressway.

It was a road the residents had to pass through.

Zachary's motorcade traveled half of this road before it was forced to stop.

There was a car stopped in the middle of the road ahead of them.

This was not a public road.

The road was only wide enough for two cars to pass side to side if they drove very carefully.

Otherwise, it would be easy to collide.

The stationary car happened to be in the middle of the road.

Thus, whether it was from the left or right, the cars behind it did not have enough space to pass by.

Zachary's driver honked.

The driver of the car in front climbed out from under the car and said loudly in embarrassment, "My car broke down." Zachary's driver turned his head and said to Zachary, "Mr.

Zachary, there's a car in front that broke down." No one knew what Zachary was thinking.

After he heard the driver's words, he simply glanced at the car in front and said, " You two get off and take a look.

If it's repairable, then help him.

If it takes too long, tell everyone to help push his car to the side, and then tell him to call for a tow truck.

Don't block other people's way.

Gu Lingfei: Married at First Sight Chapter 232

"Yes, sir." Zachary's driver and Jim got out of the car.

The driver in distress was grateful for the two who got out to help him.

After checking the car, Zachary's driver said, "It'll take several hours for your car to be repaired.

We're in a rush and can't help you.

I'll ask some people to help you push the car to the side so you don't block the incoming traffic.

You can call a tow truck later." The car could be moved to the side with everyone's combined efforts.

As long as the car was moved, it would not block the cars behind.

With gratitude, the driver said, "Of course, then I'll thank you in advance.

Um, the young lady I'm working for has urgent business to attend to.

Could you give her a ride?" Jim and the driver did not dare to agree without permission, but Jim returned to the Rolls-Royce and respectfully asked their boss.

"Mr. Zachary, there's another person in the car in front.

The driver said she's a young lady who he's serving, and she has urgent business to attend to.

His car will need to be towed away for repair, so he asked if we can give his lady a ride?" Zachary asked coldly, "Which family is she from?" Jim replied hesitantly, "I didn't ask." a "Ask him and then arrange for it...

Never mind, there's no need to ask.

I already know who it is." Zachary saw who the young lady was as she came down from the car.

It was none other than Elisa Stone, the woman who would not stop pestering him after publicly confessing her love to him and openly pursuing him.

Serenity told him that Elisa had gone to the beach for a vacation.

Why was she back so soon? Seeing Elisa walking toward his car, Zachary's handsome face tensed up.

He suddenly remembered Serenity telling him that Elisa had asked her for advice on how to pursue him.

Meanwhile, that damned woman Serenity had enthusiastically taught Elisa a method to help take him down.

He had never seen such a generous wife before.

She actually helped another woman chase after her own husband.

Zachary instantly felt that Elisa's car breaking down was deliberate.

In the past, she always drove herself out, but she let a driver drive her this time.

It was clearly to block his way.

Jim saw Elisa and was a little surprised.

However, he did not say anything and simply retreated to the side without a word.

Elisa walked over and bent down slightly to knock on Zachary's window.

Zachary refused to pay her any attention and did not wind down the window.

"Zachary, my car broke down.

Can you give me a ride?" Elisa had to raise her voice since Zachary did not lower the window.

He maintained his posture of looking straight ahead and did not even glance at her.

"Zachary, I promise you that I just want a ride.

It won't affect you in any way.

I can sit with your bodyguards." Jim watched silently.

He wondered if his boss would be soft-hearted enough to let Ms.

Stone get into the car.

Zachary remained quiet.

His bodyguards got out of the car and helped move Elisa's car to the side.

After making sure that other cars would be able to pass through, the bodyguards returned to their own cars.

The driver and Jim got into the car as well.

The driver turned his head to peek at Zachary, but Jim said in a low voice, " Drive." "What about Ms.

Stone?" Were they giving her a ride or not? Jim asked, "Do you want to lose your job?" The driver immediately started the car.

'I don't want to lose my job.

'Although Mr. Zachary is cold, he offers a very good salary.

The amount of money I earn is enough to feed the whole family, so I definitely want to keep my job.'

Gu Lingfei: Married at First Sight Chapter 233

"Zachary! Zachary..."

Elisa chased after Zachary's car for a few steps and gave up.

He refused to let her get into his car.

Even if she lay under his wheels, he would not stop and simply send her to the afterlife.

Elisa watched as his car, followed by his entourage of bodyguards, drove away.

She stomped her feet.

She ran here early in the morning to block his way, which she succeeded, and in return, he helped her a little.

After all, his bodyguards had helped to push the car to the side of the road and prevented it from blocking other cars which were coming from behind.

However, she was still upset that she was unable to ride in his car.

Of course, she would not give up just like that.

She would not give up before half a year.

It had not been long since her public confession.

Hang in there! One day, she would be able to sit in his car.

She would be the only young woman who could sit in his car.

Elisa, who was daydreaming, felt her mood improve.

She called her butler and asked him to arrange for a car to pick her up.

“Is the seafood I brought back last night still alive? They’re not dead, right? If they’re not, pack them up for me and send them over as well.

I want to give them away.” Elisa remembered that she promised Serenity she would send her some seafood after her vacation.

She specially brought back a lot of seafood with her from Seaview Villa.

Elisa’s parents knew that she made friends with Serenity, and they did not look down on Serenity for being unworthy of befriending their daughter.

On the contrary, they were very supportive of her becoming friends with Serenity.

Maybe it was because she had too few friends.

Her parents thought that with Elisa’s picky tastes, if there was someone whom she was willing to make friends with, that person must be a great girl.

When Elisa wanted to bring the abundant seafood back for Serenity, Audrey had even personally helped her daughter pack them.

Audrey had never seen Serenity, whether it was in person or images online.

However, she saw the maneki-neko that Serenity gave her daughter and felt that the former was indeed capable.

Furthermore, after knowing Serenity's life experience, she felt a special affection for this strong and independent girl.

It was most likely because she saw a shadow of her youth in Serenity.

When she left the orphanage, she had to be independent as well and relied on herself to get to where she was today.

Unfortunately, she and her sister were separated, unlike Serenity and her sister who had always been together.

Serenity did not know that Elisa had returned from vacation and actually blocked Zachary's road like how she taught Elisa to.

The couple lived separately because they were having a cold war, with Zachary going back to Regent Residences to stay.

That was why Elisa had the opportunity to block his car.

Liberty had to go job hunting again today.

Serenity woke up late, and Liberty could not wait for her to come and pick Sonny up, so she brought him straight to the shop.

Fortunately, she called her sister and told her that she had already sent Sonny to the shop.

Serenity was already on the way to Liberty's house when she received the latter's call, and she turned back and went to the store instead.

Old Mrs. York did not arrive before her.

She arrived after Serenity had gotten to the store.

Old Mrs. York was thinking about coming to chat with Serenity, so she used a car that matched Zachary's poverty facade.

She went to the used car market and bought a pre-owned car for tens of thousands of dollars.

That way, it would not arouse Serenity's suspicion.

"Nana." Serenity held Sonny and walked over to help Old Mrs. York open the car door.

Old Mrs. York got out with three insulated lunch boxes.

Serenity wanted to help, but the old woman laughed and said, "No need.

They're not heavy, so I can carry them.

Why is Sonny here? Where's your sister?" Old Mrs. York stretched her hand to pinch Sonny's little face, praising, "Your sister raised Sonny really well.

The boy is big and strong." When would she have a fat great-grandson like Sonny?

Gu Lingfei: Married at First Sight Chapter 234

Old Mrs. York peeked at Serenity's stomach, which was flat and plain.

Her proud and awkward grandson said that he had not touched Serenity yet.

The husband and wife were still pure.

It was still too early for her to have a great – grandchild.

Serenity disdained how cold Zachary was and could not bring herself to jump him, let alone sleep naked.

As for Zachary...

Old Mrs. York was worried.

She suddenly had a thought.

'Could the rumors be true? Does Zachary like men, or does he have some sort of physiological problem?

'He's been married to Serenity for more than a month, and they live together, but he has never exercised his right as a husband.' Old Mrs. York decided to tell the cook at home to brew a nourishing soup for Zachary at noon and let Serenity send it to him to nourish his body.

Maybe it would help in conceiving a great – grandchild for Old Mrs. York too.

It would also help to mend the relationship between the couple.

They could not keep up this cold war and live separately forever.

"Sonny, greet Great- grandma." Serenity had a sudden pride for her nephew who was well raised.

"Hello, Great- grandma." Old Mrs. York was Zachary's grandmother, and Serenity was from the same generation as Zachary, so Sonny had to address her as great – grandma.

Old Mrs. York smiled and praised Sonny for his manners.

She went into the store with Serenity.

"Grandma May, you're here." When Jasmine came out and saw the old lady carrying three insulated lunch boxes, she quickly came forward to take the lunch boxes.

"I brought you breakfast.

Come, let's eat together.

I love eating with you two girls.

The food tastes especially good." When Old Mrs. York entered the store, she treated it like her own home and nonchalantly went to wash her hands and get the cutlery.

Jasmine opened the lunch boxes.

When she saw the breakfast inside, she asked Old Mrs. York, who was emerging from the small kitchen, "Grandma May, did you buy this from a five- star restaurant?" The food was exquisite and smelled heavenly.

Jasmine would not believe it if Old Mrs. York said that it was not from a five- Star restaurant.

Her family hired a cook too, but the cook's skills were : nowhere as good.

| Old Mrs. York could not say that it was made by the chef in Zachary's house.

Since Jasmine asked, she played along and lied, 'I took the lunch boxes to Wiltspoon Hotel and told them to pack the food in them so it stays warm.'" Serenity washed her nephew's hands and said, "Nana, you shouldn't have.

Jasmine and I aren't fussy eaters.

Even if you bought plain oatmeal, we would still eat it with pleasure." "My pension for this month just came in, so I wanted to treat you to a nice meal." "Nana, your pension should be used for your retirement." Old Mrs. York laughed.

"I have a lot of children and grandchildren who will support me in my old age.

I don't lack money.

I'm just worried I won't know how to spend all the money I have.

All of them give me an allowance every month.

Don't worry.

I just bought three servings of breakfast.

They didn't cost much." Old Mrs. York indeed had a lot of personal assets, and her only worry was indeed about how she was going to spend the money.

Serenity did not say more.

The three adults and one child sat around the checkout counter and ate the delicious breakfast that Old Mrs. York brought.

"Serenity, Serenity!" Elisa's voice resounded before her arrival.

, Old Mrs. York, who was eating happily, froze when she heard | Elisa's voice.

| 'Elisa knows my real identity.

I can't let her see me!' .

Chapter 235

Old Mrs. York was anxious and wanted to slip away, but thought, 'Wait, I can't slip away.

Elisa is already at the entrance.

If I try to leave, I'll be caught red-handed.

'T need to hide.' Thus, she calmly put down her cutlery and said to Serenity and Jasmine, "I'm full now.

I have to go to the washroom." With that, she got up and walked toward the washroom while saying, "When you get old, every trip to the washroom will take at least half an hour." Serenity and Jasmine were speechless.

“Serenity, are you there?” Elisa appeared just as Old Mrs. York walked away.

She rushed in with a mesh bag of sea shrimps in her left hand and a similar bag of sea crabs in her right hand.

“Serenity, come take them.

They’re too heavy for me!” Elisa was a rich and pampered young lady.

She usually had everything handed over to her on a silver platter and never did any labor, so she felt the two big bags of shrimps and crabs were heavy.

When Serenity and Jasmine saw this, they rushed forward and took the two bags of seafood from her hand.

“Ms.

Stone, what are these?” Elisa shook her arms a few times and said, “Gosh, they were so heavy that my arms are sore.

“Didn’t I tell you that I’d bring you some seafood when I come back from vacation? These are really fresh seafood that we fished out when we went out to sea.

I had someone pack it up and picked the largest ones to raise so I could bring them to you when I came back.” Serenity looked at the two large bags of shrimps and crabs and laughed.

“Ms.

Stone, these are too much for us.” “It’s not much.

You can keep them and eat them sparingly, or you can process them and keep them frozen in the fridge, then eat them when you feel like it.

“There’s more in my car.

You guys can go get it since I don’t have any strength left.

Where’s this boy from? He’s so cute.” Elisa reached out and touched Sonny’s little face.

“He’s my sister’s.

She’s busy, so she sent him over for me to look after.” “He’s adorable.

He looks a little familiar too.

Have I seen your sister before? Oh, I’ve seen photos of you two when you were little.” Serenity smiled.

“Yeah, Sonny takes after my sister.

Photos of my sister and I when we were young were uploaded online and made the trending search, so it’s normal for you to find him familiar.” Elisa hummed and did not think much about it.

After hearing that there was still a lot of seafood in Elisa’s car, Serenity and Jasmine went out to take a look.

Lo and behold, they saw the limousine was truly stuffed with seafood.

Some were fresh, some were sun-dried like cuttlefish and so on, and some could be kept in the freezer to be eaten slowly over time.

“You really shouldn’t have, Ms.

Stone.” Serenity thought that it was too much.

Elisa said nonchalantly, “It’s nothing much.

It wasn’t that expensive anyway.

I’m happy as long as you don’t mind it.

We’re linked by fate, and I think of you as a friend, so you don’t need to be so distant.

Hurry up and move them in.

You have a fridge in your store, right? If you don’t, I’ll call someone to send you two refrigerators right now.” “Thave a fridge.” It was not large but how could Serenity let Elisa send her two more refrigerators? She put the fresh seafood in the kitchen and prepared to have a seafood feast for brunch.

She placed the dried ones in the fridge first.

Elisa saw the dishes sitting on the table that had not been cleaned up, as well as the untouched breakfast.

She asked, “ Are you guys having breakfast now?”

Chapter 236

“We just finished.” Jasmine quickly cleaned up the dishes, and Elisa asked out of curiosity, “There are four sets of cutlery.

Is there someone else?” Jasmine said while cleaning up, “Serenity’s grandmother-in- law came over.

She’s in the washroom now.” Elisa hummed and stopped asking.

She was aware of Serenity’s marriage.

Due to the trending news before, she even told her brother to fire John Hunt.

She understood Serenity and the Hunt family’s disputes more than others, so undoubtedly she knew Serenity was married too.

Not many people from the outside world knew about it.

Elisa was not a nosy person, so she did not ask about Serenity’s love life.

After Jasmine cleaned up the table, Serenity poured a glass of water for Elisa.

“Why are you back from vacation so soon, Ms.

Stone?” “It’s because I’m worried about my sweetheart, of course.

I was with my parents by the beach for two days and came back – to the city last night.

I have something to tell you, Serenity.

This morning, I went to block Mr. York's car the way you taught me, and I actually succeeded!" Elisa could not wait to share her success story with Serenity.

Serenity laughed.

"Really? Did you guys talk? Mr. York helped you, right?" "Yes, but also no." Elisa dimmed for a moment before saying, "I didn't talk with him because he refused to get out of the car.

It's as if he's afraid that I'll eat him up.

My car broke down, so I wanted to ride in his car, but he wouldn't let me in.

"However, he let his bodyguards get out of their cars and helped move my car to the side to not block the way for other cars.

Mind you, it was broken down on purpose.

Anyway, I guess he did help me in that aspect, but he didn't help me all the way.

I used your method, but it was only half a success." Elisa quickly cheered up again.

'At least Zachary didn't leave me and my car there.

He told his bodyguards to help move my car to the side.

'This shows that his heart is actually not made of stone.

'If I keep this method up, one day, he'll let me into his car.' "It's a pity I couldn't get in his car and have a few words with him alone," Elisa lamented.

"I was thinking that I'd have an excuse to buy him dinner and thank him for the ride if I got into his car, but I didn't get the opportunity." Serenity laughed.

"Who said you didn't get the opportunity? Didn't he tell his bodyguards to help you move your car? He helped you, so you can use this excuse to go up to him and invite him to dinner, or send him some gifts as thanks." Elisa's eyes lit up as she heard Serenity's idea.

"You're right.

Why didn't I think of that?" Serenity teased her, "You wanted to reach the finish line at one go, so you neglected the details." Elisa was not offended by the teasing and said magnanimously, "I've had a crush on him for many years.

I was conflicted and forced myself to give up on him in the past, but I like him too much to let him go, so I mustered the courage to chase after him instead.

Loving someone abundantly means wanting more from that person." She was anxious to win Zachary over.

She wanted to get a marriage license with him immediately and become husband and wife.

Old Mrs. York, who was hiding from Elisa in the washroom, could hear the conversation between Serenity and her.

Since the two girls were not on guard against anyone, they spoke openly and did not lower their volume.

Despite her old age, Old Mrs. York's hearing did not deteriorate, so she could hear their conversation clearly.

She never expected Serenity to teach Elisa how to pursue Zachary.

'What a good show this is!' She was not anxious for her grandson but was rejoicing over her grandson's misfortune instead.

: 'It's that little brat's fault for pretending to be poor to deceive Serenity.'

Chapter 237

Serenity had no knowledge that Zachary was the heir of the York family, who was also Elisa's crush.

Elisa only mentioned Mr. York and did not say Zachary's name, so the two did not know that they were talking about the same person.

"Serves him right!" Old Mrs. York snickered in the washroom.

"The show is getting more and more exciting." Old Mrs. York, who had the mindset of watching a good show, perked her ears and continued to eavesdrop on the conversation between the two girls outside.

Serenity had not forgotten about Nana.

After chatting with Elisa for a while, she said to her best friend, "Jasmine, go check up on Nana.

She's been in the washroom for a long time." Jasmine hummed and turned to walk to the washroom.

Sonny was sitting by the side, playing with his toys.

Even if there was no adult looking after him, he would simply play in the store instead of wandering out.

He was a smart boy.

Elisa had thought that her ploy did not work, but after hearing Serenity's idea, she was enlightened and said to Serenity with a grin, "You're really my best advisor.

Thank you.

I'll go find Mr. York now and invite him to dinner.

If he refuses, I'll wait in front of his company.

He won't be able to get rid of me unless he orders takeout.

"By the way, what kind of gifts do you usually give to your husband, Serenity?" Serenity said honestly, "I've only given him a few sets of clothes, and a miniature tree, maneki-neko, and gold dragon to him.

"They're not worth much." She did not know if he even wore the clothes she gave him.

She had only seen him wear the tie once.

If Zachary were to find out that his wife had these thoughts, he would vomit blood.

That day, he deliberately went to work wearing the new clothes and tie she gave him.

All the executives who saw him that day recognized that he was wearing a different label.

However, only the gossipy Josh knew the truth while the others did not.

Nevertheless, at least they could tell that something was different.

On the other hand, Serenity had no inkling for the entire day.

She even thought that he did not wear the clothes she gave him.

“I won’t send him clothes for now since he won’t accept them anyway.

Besides, I don’t know what size he wears.

All his clothes are tailored by senior designers.” The clothing designer responsible for Zachary’s daily wear was particularly tight-lipped.

Elisa had spent a lot of money trying to pry open his mouth, but she failed each time.

_ She had a crush on Zachary for many years, but she still did not know what size of clothes he wore.

“Serenity, do you have any finished products now? | think your crafts are beautiful.

| took home the maneki-neko you gave me, and my mom also said that it looked amazing.

She even said that she’d buy from your online shop when she has the time and help your business.

“If you have ready-made products now, sell me a few.

I’ll take them to him as a gift.” Serenity said, “These goods aren’t worth much.

Are you sure you want to give him such trinkets?” ‘He’s the high and mighty Mr. York.

The York family has assets worth hundreds of billions.

Mr. York might not take a fancy to something even if it’s an exotic treasure, but Elisa wanted to give such little trinkets to him.’ “He doesn’t lack anything, so if I want to give him something, it has to be skillfully made.

He’ll only accept it if it’s to his liking.” Elisa did not think that there was anything wrong with giving handicrafts as gifts.

She was very fond of the crafts Serenity made.

“Since you don’t mind, I have a few finished products here now.

I can let you have two, but not too many.

Some of them are due to be delivered to customers who pre-ordered them." After the previous experience, Serenity would not dare give the goods ordered by other customers to Elisa again.

She was only willing to sell two items in her stock to Elisa.

"That's fine.

Could you take them out and let me see what r) e they are?

Chapter 238

"It's a pair of phoenixes, a male and a female." Serenity got up and walked to the big box where she stored her crafts to bring out a delicate and beautiful box.

She placed the box in front of Elisa and said, "They're inside." Elisa opened the box and retrieved two well-woven phoenixes from it, and complimented, "They're so lifelike.

Serenity, your hands are amazing.

How much are these phoenixes? I'll buy them." "We're close, and you think of me as a friend, so Ill just charge you the cost for the materials." Elisa placed the two phoenixes back into the box and said, " It's precisely because we' re friends that I can't take advantage of you.

I'll pay however much it's worth.

I can't just pay you for the cost of the materials.

I've seen the price of your goods on the online store.

I don't remember the exact number, but these two phoenixes seem to cost a few hundred." She took out her purse from her Hermés bag and withdrew a small stack of cash.

Without even counting, she shoved the bank notes into Serenity's hands and said, "Keep the change and don't count the amount.

Just take it.

If Mr. York accepts my gift, I'll help you market your products.

I guarantee that your sales will increase by several fold." "In that case, I'll thank you in advance." Since Elisa was so firm, Serenity did not refuse.

She did not find change or count the money, and simply husband, Serenity?" Serenity said honestly, "I've only given him a few sets of clothes, and a miniature tree, maneki-neko, and gold dragon to him.

"They're not worth much." She did not know if he even wore the clothes she gave him.

She had only seen him wear the tie once.

If Zachary were to find out that his wife had these thoughts, he would vomit blood.

That day, he deliberately went to work wearing the new clothes and tie she gave him.

All the executives who saw him that day recognized that he was wearing a different label.

However, only the gossipy Josh knew the truth while the others did not.

Nevertheless, at least they could tell that something was different.

On the other hand, Serenity had no inkling for the entire day.

She even thought that he did not wear the clothes she gave him.

“I won’t send him clothes for now since he won’t accept them anyway.

Besides, I don’t know what size he wears.

All his clothes are tailored by senior designers.” The clothing designer responsible for Zachary’s daily wear was particularly tight-lipped.

Elisa had spent a lot of money trying to pry open his mouth, but she failed each time.

_ She had a crush on Zachary for many years, but she still did “I’m fine.

I just got carried away while watching a video and spent too much time inside.” Serenity and Jasmine were speechless.

“Who came just now? I think I heard you guys talking,” Old Mrs. York asked with a curious expression.

“She’s a new friend I made.

She went to the beach for a vacation and sent me a lot of seafood now that she’s back.

Nana, stay here for lunch.

We’ll cook a seafood feast for you.” Elisa sent them an excessive amount of seafood.

Serenity wanted to ask Old Mrs. York to bring some back with her so her in-laws could have a taste as well.

Although she and Zachary were not living together, and she had never been to his old home, Serenity felt she had to offer good food to her in-laws so they remembered her presence.

“Sure.

I’d stay even if you didn’t ask me.

I often eat alone at home, so even the most delicious food doesn’t taste as good.

You can make more.

I’ll call Zachary and ask him to come over for lunch.” Serenity opened her mouth to say something, but in the end, she merely hummed.

Chapter 239

In a hotel not far from Wiltspoon Hospital, Noah Hunt’s parents knocked on the room door of the eldest son of the Hunt family, Stuart Hunt.

When Stuart opened the door and saw his youngest brother with his wife looking worried, he asked with concern, "David, what happened? You two don't look very good." "Stuart, Noah hasn't come back since he went out yesterday.

We're worried something might've happened to him." Noah's father was the youngest among the Hunt siblings, and his parents loved him the most, so they gave him the name David, which meant beloved.

"Did Noah say what he was doing?" As the eldest of the Hunt family, Stuart was good at maintaining his composure.

David hesitated for a moment and said, Noah said he was going to settle the score with Serenity and make her pay for Mom's medical bills, but he hasn't returned since he went out yesterday.

His cell phone is turned off too." Noah's family did not know that he was being detained in the police station now, and his phone automatically shut down because it ran out of battery.

Stuart's expression darkened instantly, and he scolded his brother and his wife, "How could you let Noah go to Serenity by himself? She refused to budge even when the brothers went together last time.

How would he be able to make her bow if he | went alone?" | husband, Serenity?" Serenity said honestly, "I've only given him a few sets of clothes, and a miniature tree, maneki-neko, and gold dragon to him.

"They're not worth much." She did not know if he even wore the clothes she gave him.

She had only seen him wear the tie once.

If Zachary were to find out that his wife had these thoughts, he would vomit blood.

That day, he deliberately went to work wearing the new clothes and tie she gave him.

All the executives who saw him that day recognized that he was wearing a different label.

However, only the gossipy Josh knew the truth while the others did not.

Nevertheless, at least they could tell that something was different.

On the other hand, Serenity had no inkling for the entire day.

She even thought that he did not wear the clothes she gave him.

"I won't send him clothes for now since he won't accept them anyway.

Besides, I don't know what size he wears.

All his clothes are tailored by senior designers." The clothing designer responsible for Zachary's daily wear was particularly tight-lipped.

Elisa had spent a lot of money trying to pry open his mouth, but she failed each time.

_ She had a crush on Zachary for many years, but she still did daughters dearly.

Thus, for his brother's sake, Stuart treated Serenity well when she was a child.

Maybe Serenity would listen to him if he went.

Stuart proclaimed that he was good to Serenity when she was young, but that was only in his head.

However, even if he did treat her well before, he worked together with Serenity's grandparents to share his third brother and his wife's insurance payout after their deaths.

He then drove away his two underage nieces and hogged the family property left by his third brother.

All those actions had erased any shred of Serenity's affection for her eldest uncle.

Wait here. I'll come with you after I change my clothes.

"Stuart, should we call Mike and John too?" David thought they would have strength in numbers.

He would feel more at ease if he called his two most capable nephews.

Chapter 240

"Sure, let's call them." Stuart also felt that it was better to have more people on their side and agreed with David to call his son and nephew.

Unexpectedly, when David called his eldest nephew, Mike, he received news from Mike instead.

"Uncle David, I was just about to call you.

Something happened to Noah." David's face turned ashen, and he quickly asked, "What happened to Noah? He said he went to ask Serenity for money.

Did she beat him up? If that damned girl dares to touch a single hair on my boy, I'll end her! I'll go back and dig up her mother's grave!" Serenity's father was David's third brother, so David would not dig up his grave.

However, his third sister-in-law was not related to him by blood.

Since Serenity angered him, he would dig up his third sister-in-law's grave for real.

"Noah brought a few punks to intercept Serenity's car in the middle of the night.

They also brought iron bars and wanted to smash her car, but she fought back.

The punks and Noah are being detained now.

I just got the news too." "He's detained? It's just a conflict between siblings.

Why did she call the police? That girl is so cruel.

How could she call the cops on Noah? Mike, can you bail Noah out? He's still young.

He's just a child.

He'll be traumatized by this." When David thought that his niece had called the cops to arrest his son, he was first extremely furious.

Then, he was | worried that his son would be frightened and thought of : husband, Serenity?” Serenity said honestly, “I’ve only given him a few sets of clothes, and a miniature tree, maneki-neko, and gold dragon to him.

“They’re not worth much.” She did not know if he even wore the clothes she gave him.

She had only seen him wear the tie once.

If Zachary were to find out that his wife had these thoughts, he would vomit blood.

That day, he deliberately went to work wearing the new clothes and tie she gave him.

All the executives who saw him that day recognized that he was wearing a different label.

However, only the gossipy Josh knew the truth while the others did not.

Nevertheless, at least they could tell that something was different.

On the other hand, Serenity had no inkling for the entire day.

She even thought that he did not wear the clothes she gave him.

“I won’t send him clothes for now since he won’t accept them anyway.

Besides, I don’t know what size he wears.

All his clothes are tailored by senior designers.” The clothing designer responsible for Zachary’s daily wear was particularly tight-lipped.

Elisa had spent a lot of money trying to pry open his mouth, but she failed each time.

_ She had a crush on Zachary for many years, but she still did hundreds of thousands in medical expenses.

What could they do if Serenity refused to fork out the money? They went through with the plan they came up with, but what was the result? It backfired on them.

“I.

can’t persuade him.

Mike, are we going to bail Noah out first?” “Yeah, let’s bail Noah out first and find out if he injured Serenity.

If she’s injured, you have to bring a small gift and visit her.

Apologize to her and ask her not to press charges against Noah, or he’d get into even more trouble later.” Mike was someone who had experienced the world by doing business, so he was much more rational than his youngest uncle.

When Noah’s mother heard Mike, she scolded, “Serenity got my son arrested, but you want us to apologize to her? No way! I’ll get even with her! I’m going to smash up her store and rip her face off.

1 don't care who's supporting her from the shadows, and I don't care about ruining my reputation." Their reputation was already ruined anyway.

The people in the village dug up old scores and pointed fingers at the Hunt family.

In her opinion, the villagers only dared to accuse them of how heartless they were back then because Old Mrs. Hunt was sick , and hospitalized now.

Otherwise, the entire Hunt family would be able to stir the entire village up.

No one would dare talk about them!