Novel Chapter 1735 -After Sonny was fine, Serenity took out her mobile phone, took photos of flowers and clothes, and sent them to Zachary.

Zachary called her soon.

“Wife, who gave you the bouquet? Zachary asked aggressively, who dared to send flowers to his wife?”

Serenity: “Didn’t you see that those clothes are suits? There are also ties, which are for you, and the bouquet of flowers is also for you.”

Zachary: “...for me?”

All of a sudden, his aggressive aura went away.

It was actually given to him!

That idiot, playing pranks, sending him flowers and clothes, trying to make him have conflicts with Serenity, right?

He quickly explained: “Honey, I definitely didn’t provoke anyone outside, and I never did anything wrong to you. Does it say who gave it to you on the card? I’ll ask her to settle the score!”

“The person didn’t write the signature, I don’t know who sent it.” Serenity guessed it should be Ms. Dawson.

Last night, Zachary told her that Ms. Dawson fell in love with him and hooked his palm. Today, someone sent flowers and clothes to Zachary. Except for Ms. Dawson, Serenity couldn’t think of anyone else.

In Wiltspoon, who didn’t know that Zachary was married?

Who didn’t know that Zachary loved his wife? Even if there were still people who weren’t happy with Zachary and secretly admired him, no one was brave enough to openly pursue Zachary because that would be a bad idea.

In Wiltspoon, among the daughters of famous families, how many people have a status comparable to Elisa’s?

When Elisa pursued Zachary, how did Zachary treat Elisa?

So in Wiltspoon, no one would be so stupid as to fight Serenity, they couldn't compete.

"Which one is so full that he treats me like this? Wife, don't get me wrong, I really didn't flirt outside." Zachary was most afraid that Serenity would misunderstand him, so he explained repeatedly.

Serenity: "I believe you didn't mess around, I just sent it to you to see what you mean. Do you want to accept these things?"

Zachary: "Throw them all into the trash can, I except the clothes you gave me, I don't wear what others give me!"

Without thinking about it, Zachary asked Serenity to throw the bouquet and those suits into the trash can.

"They're all branded goods, and they're quite valuable." Serenity said intentionally, "It's a pity to throw them away. It's someone else's intention anyway. Maybe they will send them over tomorrow."

Zachary: "...Serenity, don't laugh at me right now. I really don't like the clothes other people give me. I told Sam not to accept anything that will be given to me in the future before the time comes. I can't take all of it, so throw it out!

I mean throw it away, and she didn't know you threw it away, so she thought you accepted it, and gave it to you every day, You'd better return the things to her and let her know that you won't be moved by her gifts, let alone accept her gifts.

It will slap her in the face, which will make her give up and stop giving us gifts."

Zachary felt that his wife was right, but he didn't know who gave it to him.

He had always kept himself clean and clean before marriage, and he had never been ambiguous with other women after marriage.

"How is your chat with Mr. Dawson going?"

Serenity didn't express her suspicion directly, but suddenly changed the question, and Zachary thought of Analia.

Zachary and Mr. Dawson were already having dinner at the hotel, and they had a good chat. Serenity sent him a photo, and he hurried out of the private room to make a phone call.

Now he was talking with Mr. Dawson.

Mr. Dawson did what he said, and he was the only one who went to the appointment, not bringing that annoying Analia with him.
