Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1741 -Serenity hastily withdrew the hand held by Zachary.

Zachary was dissatisfied.

Serenity reminded him in a low voice: "Kevin and Sonny are both here."

Zachary looked at his younger brother and nephew.

Kevin gave Sonny something to eat, and Sonny was struggling with the dishes in the bowl with his chopsticks, not paying attention to the affairs between the adults.

"Sonny, can you catch it? How about, uncle Kevin feed you?"

Kevin asked Sonny beside him nonchalantly, not looking at his brother and sister-in-law opposite.

He knew that he had become a light bulb.

The eldest brother complained that he was a light bulb, and he also complained that the eldest brother always sprinkled dog food to stimulate him.

"Uncle Kevin, I'll do it myself." Sonny refused Kevin to feed him.

Serenity filled a bowl of soup for Sonny and put it in front of him, "Sonny, have a bowl of soup."

Sonny: "Thank you, auntie."

Serenity smiled and said, "If you want to eat, ask your uncle Kevin for help."

Afterwards, Serenity looked at Zachary beside her and asked, "Husband, you haven't eaten yet."

When Serenity arrived, the food on the table had been barely touched.

"No, we all only drank a bowl of soup." Zachary picked up vegetables for Serenity.

Serenity knew this was the case.

After eating and drinking, Zachary did not stay in the hotel to rest, but went back to the company directly.

Now that Sonny's fever had subsided, Serenity brought Sonny and Zachary back to the company for a look.

Mr. Dawson returned to his villa, and when he entered the door, he asked the maid: "Where is Analia?"

The maid replied: "Miss is swimming in the swimming pool."

After sitting on the sofa, Mr. Dawson turned around and went to the indoor swimming pool.

Analia swam around like a fish in the swimming pool, and when she saw her father coming, she swam to the edge of the pool.

"Dad, you're back so soon?" Analia asked with a smile, "How's the project going?"

If the two groups cooperated, she would have a legitimate reason to enter and exit the York Corporation openly.

As long as there were more chances to get in touch with Analia, Zachary would understand that only a woman like her was suitable for him and a perfect match for him.

Analia could exit the hallway and enter the kitchen, catch inside and outside, and assist Zachary, unlike Serenity, who was unable to assist Zachary.

What did Serenity do in addition to warming Zachary's bed?

A bed warmer that won't even lay an egg!

Serenity had not been pregnant thus far, and this fact had become a potent weapon for her enemies.

Mr. Dawson: "Analia, get up, Dad has something to show you."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1742 -Mr. Dawson gave Analia a dry towel, left a sentence, turned and left.

Analia caught the towel, looked at his father who turned and left, and guessed that something happened.

Maybe Zachary canceled the cooperation plan because Analia hooked his palm?

Their project with Dawsons could bring in a lot of money for the two companies. It was a project that was good for everyone, so many companies wanted to work with them. Zachary was in business, and businesspeople wanted to make money. Was he ready to give up?

Analia got up from the swimming pool, entered the locker room, changed her clothes, and then left. Back in the hall, she saw her father sitting on the sofa with suppressed anger on his face.

In front of her father, there was a bouquet of flowers and several bags.

“Dad, who gave this to you? Or did you buy it for me?” Analia walked over and asked, “If someone else gave it to Dad, I will tell my mother.”

Analia followed with her father, It was done to get ready to take over the business and to help the mother keep an eye on the father and stop him from incurring outside romantic debts.

Her mother was worried that her father wanted a son and would have a son with someone else outside. The mother was too old to have another child, and felt sorry for her father because she was the only one born.

Despite the fact that her father had health issues, the mother claimed that the father had been recovering for a long time and that she was too old to have another child. Who knew if her mother and the father would become parents together?

Mrs. Dawson could only have one child, Analia, and she was still a daughter. She was afraid that her husband would listen to other people’s persuasion to have a son outside and trained him to take over the Dawson Group.

“You have no impression of this bouquet of flowers? You also have no impression of these clothes?” Mr. Dawson picked up the bouquet of flowers and threw it at Analia.

Analia instinctively caught the bouquet of flowers.

Thinking of what she had done today, Analia’s complexion changed, and she quickly returned to normal. She said openly, “Dad, do you know? This bouquet of flowers looks familiar. I sent someone to the villa on the top of the mountain for Zachary’s, right?”

Analia took the bags and looked at them, “I also bought these clothes and ties, and I sent them to Zachary’s residence because of my heart for him. Why are these things here, Dad?”

Mr. Dawson was so angry at his daughter's words that his face turned livid. He stood up abruptly, and wanted to slap her, but he raised his hand high and couldn't slap her.

He never lifted a finger of his daughter.

For his daughter, Mr. Dawson had seen so many doctors, took so many medicines, and painstakingly recuperated his body. The daughter was very similar to him, and he really regarded her as his sweetheart.

Mr. Dawson finally put down his hand.

It was like this, which also frightened Analia.

She thought that her father was really going to beat her to death.

Mr. Dawson didn't slap Analia across the face, but couldn't help poking her forehead with his finger, and said angrily and helplessly: "You turned a deaf ear to what Dad said, didn't you? Zachary is married, he is a man with a wife, and he adores and spoils his wife. You don't want to miss him because that would be self-inflicted humiliation. You ignore me and send him flowers, clothes, and ties. I'm your father; why didn't I notice you buying new clothes and ties for your father?"

And do you think that if you send it to Mr. York's house, his wife will misunderstand and quarrel with him? How can the couple trust each other so easily fall for it?"

Mr. Dawson continued to scold his daughter, "You should also be thankful that his wife trusted Mr. York and didn't misinterpret him; otherwise, would you be able to bear the consequences if Mr. York was enraged? Do you believe that because our Dawson family isn't in Wiltspoon, we don't have to worry about Mr. York's revenge?"

Analia said: "Zachary likes Serenity, right? What else would she do? Zachary is cool, and I want to be with him. he's married—so what? I'll pursue someone I like. I'm 100x better than Serenity. I can defeat Serenity if Zachary understands and gives me a chance."

Mr. Dawson was so angry that he raised his hand again to slap her across the face.

"You don't decide whether Miss Serenity is deserving or not. The York family has never objected and has always believed she is deserving."

Mr. Dawson continued: Do you know how you got here, Analia? How could you be there if Dad hadn't visited countless doctors and taken countless medications? Analia, be dependable; having another child is challenging for your mother and me."

Analia: "..."

Mr. Dawson: "Zachary will not give you a chance, regardless of whether he is married or not. If he is not married, it would be simple to catch him, but it is not your turn. The daughter of the Stone family at the time was deeply enamored of him, and Ms. Stone is no worse than you."

Analia curled her lips and muttered softly: "Ms. Stone is not as good as I am; she is erratic and brutal. Her reputation at Wiltspoon isn't great, except for the fact that her background is similar to mine and she's not as good as me in other ways."

Mr. Dawson: "..."

He took a deep breath, then another, telling himself that his daughter is his!

After a long while, he sat down weakly, stared at his daughter for a long time, and said, "Dad insisted on working on the project with Mr. York. If Mr. York does not keep his word, we must give York Corporation an additional 10% of the profit. That's a concession you don't want to give up on. However, this is Dawson Group's first and final collaboration with York Corporation. You can't follow me in and out of York Corporation while the two companies are working together. I also promised Mr. York that you would never appear in front of him and that I would not allow you to harass or pester him. Analia, dad said the worst things first: if you don't listen to dad and go to harass Zachary in private and keep pestering him, Dad will give all the shares of the Dawson family to your cousins, who are also the flesh and blood of my Dawson family.

You don't own any Dawson's shares. Anyway, I won't let you inherit my property. Despite the fact that I only have you as a child, my property does not have to be given to you. I can donate it all or give it to your cousins, cousins, who are all blood relatives of mine."

Analia's face turned dark. She didn't expect her father to even say such words in order to prevent her from pursuing Zachary.

She would be worse off than Serenity if she couldn't inherit her father's shares in Dawson's and her father's property. What was her advantage?

Having worked with his father for so many years, Analia was also reluctant, let alone reconciled, that his father's nearly 10 billion property was divided among his cousins.

Those people usually flattered her father, especially her cousins. They wanted to change his father's decision and let them take over the Dawson Group.

In the company, her cousins also had a lot of followers, and their abilities were not inferior to hers.

Her advantage was the biological daughter of her parents.

“Analia, you, too, believe you are excellent. Why bother getting involved in other people’s marriages when we’re so good? You have the right to freely like someone, but do not like other people’s husbands.

You’re not looking for true love; you’re looking for a mistress. Your parents worked hard to prepare you to be a mistress.

“Regardless of your motivation for interfering in other people’s marriages, you are still a mistress!” You are notorious for having been a mistress once, and this stain will follow you for the rest of your life and when others mention you in the future, they’ll call you a mistress, a s-l-u-t, a v!xen, and a shmeless bstard, Analia.

Would you like to hear such swearing, Analia?”

Analia’s expression was ugly.

“There are so many good men in the world. Let’s not Zachary, we can definitely find better ones. Look at Ms. Stone. After she put down Zachary, she is now getting close to the fifth young master of Johnson’s family in Annenburg. The two of them will become a happy couple sooner or later.

Why hang on a tree? That tree is not yours yet, if you want to hang there, the owner of the tree thinks you dirty his place.”

Analia remained silent.

Mr. Dawson persuaded his daughter earnestly for a while, and seeing that her daughter had listened, he said, “Consider this: Dad is now asking someone to purchase a plane ticket. Or return by plane at night; on the way back, I have already informed your big brother to come over, and I will delegate responsibility for cooperation to your big brother.”

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1744 -Analia kept a dark face and did not speak.

Was the first time she had feelings for a man doomed from the start?

She was very unwilling!

Why did Serenity get such an excellent man as Zachary?

...

York Corporation, President's Office.

In the lounge, after Serenity helped her sleeping nephew cover the air-conditioning quilt, he asked Zachary: "When he returns, will Mr. Dawson be able to care for his daughter? His daughter is still young, so he ought to spoil her a lot."

Zachary immediately passed by Sonny squeezed beside her, put one hand under her head as a pillow, and lightly pinched Serenity's face with the other.

Zachary: "Serenity, are you jealous?"

She rarely felt jealousy. Since receiving the certificate, it must be stated that she has never been jealous.

She had heard a lot about the girls who liked Zachary, and she had also heard it from Josh. However, Josh said that Elisa was the only girl who had the courage to publicly confess her feelings for Zachary and pursue him.

Knowing that Zachary and Serenity were husband and wife, they immediately broke up with each other with a sword.

Therefore, Serenity had never been jealous, she just felt sorry for Elisa, and felt that she stole Elisa's sweetheart without knowing it.

Fortunately, now that Elisa had Remy, the apology hidden in Serenity's heart could be resolved.

But Zachary was often jealous, and he also wanted Serenity to be jealous for him.

Serenity said, "I'm not jealous, but my husband is being targeted by other women, and I'm still very upset."

Serenity slipped into his arms, put one hand on his waist, and said domineeringly: "Husband, you are mine! You said, I am yours, and you are mine!"

Zachary said dotingly: "Yes, yes, I am yours, and I will always be yours! I will only yours!"

Serenity words were not too sour, but she said that she was upset, and somehow she felt a little jealous.

This was the expression of her deep love for him!

“Mr. Dawson is a very committed person. He has a very good reputation. Maybe Ms. Dawson will not compromise, and she will think of ways to sabotage us. I believe that Mr. Dawson will have a way to shock his daughter. He is in charge of such a big company. How can a person who has spent half his life in the business world without means and ruthlessness get to where he is today?”

Serenity also felt that Ms. Dawson would not give up easily.

Serenity would initially believe Zachary when he claimed that Mr. Dawson had a way of keeping Ms. Dawson under control and wouldn't allow her to bother him again.

Even if Mr. Dawson really couldn't control his daughter anymore, Serenity had never been afraid.

Whether it's Ms. Dawson or someone else, she wouldn't lose because Zachary's heart was with her!
