Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1780 -Duncan immediately urged Liberty to help him with the discharge procedures.

The doctor slandered in his heart: You make trouble like this every day, which makes their doctors and nurses very tired. Leaving the hospital early will not have a big impact. If you want to leave the hospital, just leave the hospital.

The Lewis family was rich and had their own doctor. After Duncan got out of the hospital, the Lewis family would hire doctors and nurses to take care of him.

“Doctor, can my son really be discharged from the hospital?” Mrs. Lewis was worried that something unexpected would happen to her son after he was discharged from the hospital.

The doctor said: “Mr. Lewis insists on leaving the hospital, so let him leave the hospital and go home to recover from his injuries. Maybe he will feel better. When he is in a good mood, he will recover quickly.”

Now that the doctor said so, Mrs. Lewis called the bodyguards to clean up the ward, she and her husband went to help Duncan go through the discharge procedures, and the angry Duncan was handed over to Liberty to take care of him so that he would not make trouble again.

Finally he could be discharged from the hospital. Duncan’s mood suddenly improved, and he stopped making noises. He just sat in the living room, watching TV quietly, and waited for his parents to help him complete the discharge procedures before going home.

Liberty sat beside him, but he didn’t know what she was thinking.

Duncan paid attention to her expression.

Suddenly asked her: “Is that ex-husband of yours still alive?”

Liberty: “He’s still alive.”

Duncan curled his lips and said, “It’s a fate.”

After a moment of silence, Liberty said, “The doctor said he was seriously injured, and he is still alive now. Those who were not out of danger were transferred to the ICU ward for a period of time to see, the doctor said they had tried their best, and whether he could wake up would depend on his own destiny.”

“What’s going on? Scmbags and scmbags will have their day.” Duncan’s words were ironic.

He could be said to have witnessed the whole process before and after the divorce between Hank and Liberty. Hank was very kind to Jessica. After Liberty’s accident, every time Hank came to visit Liberty, he wanted to intercede for Jessica.

When it came to the safety of his son, Hank still wanted to keep Jessica, which showed that he really loved Jessica.

Liberty: “I don’t know. It happened so suddenly. Except for the person involved, no one knows the reason for the knife.”

Duncan fell silent.

There was a knock on the door.

Then the door of the ward was pushed open.

“Mom, Uncle Duncan.” Sonny shouted cheerfully.

Hearing Sonny’s voice, Duncan’s face looked much better.

“Sonny.”

Liberty hugged his son who ran over, looked at Zachary who followed in, and Zachary explained: “Sonny said that he missed Uncle Duncan and insisted on coming to the hospital. We were on the way again. So I continued to come over.”

“Duncan.” Zachary walked to his friend, “How do you feel today?”

Duncan: “Zachary, I can be discharged from the hospital. My parents are going to help me with the discharge procedures, and they are also helping me pack up my things, I can finally leave the hospital, and if I stay here again, I will really go crazy.”

Maybe he was allowed to leave the hospital, after Duncan saw Zachary, he didn’t show his face to him, nor did he refuse him came in.

Even if he refused to see anyone like before, Zachary and the others would come whenever they wanted after Liberty broke in forcefully, and when Duncan showed them a face, Zachary would say: “If you have the ability, you stand, get up and drive us all out.”

Duncan was so angry that he wanted to jump up and fight with Zachary, but he really couldn’t stand up and chase away people.
