

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1798

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1798 -When the woman was about to run up to Hayden, she pretended to trip over something, hugged the bouquet of flowers, said "ouch," and ran towards Hayden.

Thinking of the public, Hayden recognized her again. He once praised her for being a good filmmaker. She was such a delicate beauty who threw herself into his arms. Hayden wouldn't push her away, would he?

This woman was a new popular actress in Jensburg. Hugh, who was Hayden's twin brother, admired this actress very much. During the filming period of the actress, Hugh wanted to visit the set, but he couldn't spare the time, so he asked his sister Hayden to go instead of him.

Hayden was a cold person in front of outsiders, but she still loved her twin brother very much. She was so busy with work, and at her brother's repeated requests, she agreed once, went to visit a class, watched the other play, and said something The other party's filming is good.

She never thought that once she visited a class, there would be a scandal, and entertainment reporters were reporting that Mr. Queen of the Queen Enterprise and the young master of the Queen family liked this actress.

The actress fell in love with Hayden at first sight. She knew that it was a false report, but she didn't clarify it. She wanted to raise her status by spreading rumors with Hayden.

Most of the actresses in the entertainment circle aim to marry into wealthy families.

She was no exception.

The Queens were one of the wealthiest families in Jensburg. If they could marry into the Queen family, they would never have to worry about food or clothes and would live in glory and wealth for the rest of their lives.

The main reason was that Mr. Queen was young, handsome and rich. He was the head of the Queen Enterprise. His father, Mr. Donald Queen basically didn't care about things. Mr. Queen was almost everything in the Queen Enterprise.

Young women in Jensburg, as long as they had met Mr. Queen, which one would not regard Mr. Queen as the lover of their dreams?

Hayden continued walking, not caring what happened to the actress who rushed over.

The actress also threw herself into someone's arms as she wished, and the other party responded quickly to support her, preventing her from kissing the ground.

She thought that she had fulfilled her wish and threw herself into the arms of Mr. Queen, with a look of shock, she clung to Mr. Queen's arms and did not want to move.

"Ms. Lia, are you okay?"

A deep voice sounded, but Ms. Lia didn't sound like Mr. Queen's, but a stranger's.

She raised her head abruptly, and met an unfamiliar face, which was not as handsome as Mr. Queen, but a face full of beards.

This, this was a bodyguard next to Mr. Queen, right?

She remembered that the bodyguard next to Mr. Queen had a beard, and everyone called him Hunter.

Lia was so frightened that she quickly stood up straight, and said repeatedly: "I'm sorry, I tripped and didn't hurt you? I'm so sorry."

Hunter said flatly: "I'm good. Ms. Lia, be cautious since it will look bad if no one is there to assist you the next time."

Lia's face turned red, and she was very embarrassed, but fortunately she was an actress, and soon recovered, and apologized to Hunter again.

Seeing Hayden walking away, Lia quickly chased after her with the squeezed bouquet in her arms.

She successfully stopped Hayden, but her confession was rejected by Hayden. Hayden told her very honestly: "Ms. Lia, My brother asked me to visit the class at that time. I don't have any feelings for you. Thank you very much, and please do not disturb me again."

Hayden didn't even let Ms. Lia approach her, and a bodyguard kept Ms. Lia two meters away from her.

"Ms. Lia, remember to clean up those flowers later, so as not to increase the workload of the hotel cleaning lady." As she said, Hayden gracefully got into her luxury car.

A bodyguard assisted her in closing the car door, and the bodyguards swiftly returned to the bodyguard car, and Hayden's luxury car drove away from the Jensburg Hotel under the escort of the bodyguard car within a few minutes.

Leaving Lia standing there like a fool.

Lia confessed to Mr. Queen several times. Formerly, she was the only one and did not cause such a stir. She mustered the resolve to make a public confession this time. She also arranged a large bouquet of flowers and revealed it. The news spread and gained media attention, but Mr. Queen still rejected it.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-