

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1905

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1905 -“I don’t want to go home. When I go back, facing my mother’s face full of guilt, I’m also in a bad mood.” Duncan told the truth.

He didn’t blame his mother because it was his own fault. He crashed the car because he was driving too fast. But his mother was always blaming herself, thinking that it was her responsibility that caused him to have a car accident.

When Duncan first found out that he was injured, he couldn’t accept it for a while, and his temper was violent, which aggravated his mother’s self-blame.

“I can understand Mrs. Lewis’s guilt. Don’t say that she is your mother, even if she is just someone else, she will feel guilty. You can talk to your mother more, she will feel good.”

The person who untied the bell had to tie it. Problems between their mother and son.

No matter how much outsiders say, it was useless.

Duncan: “I said, I don’t blame my mother. She is still like that. Watching her feel guilty, blame herself, and secretly shed tears every day made me feel irritated, so I come out to relax, even if I sit with you all day.”

The main reason was that he was disabled, and his temper had become bad.

If his mother behaved like that, Duncan would lose his temper and lose his temper at his parents, which would make the parents even more sad. This repeated cycle would make it difficult for the whole family. He’s out, maybe his parents could have a little easier time.

Duncan: “Liberty, you are busy with your work. I can just sit here.”

Liberty said with a smile: “Then, I’ll go to work. If you need help, call me.”

Duncan said: “Just let my bodyguard come in, you just do your job and don’t worry about me. I’m just an idler who can’t be idle anymore.”

After he was discharged from the hospital, he didn’t even go back to see the Lewis & Co. He wasn’t in the mood to take care of his company yet.

When he realized it and was able to accept it regardless of his ability to stand, he would return to the company, resume business management, and become a wheelchair president.

Liberty did as he said, and let the bodyguards come in to look after Duncan, while she was busy with her work.

....

Jensburg, Queen Enterprise.

Kevin's car stopped at the gate of Queen Enterprise, and then he called Hayden.

After Hayden answered the phone, he said to Hayden: "Mr. Queen, come out for a while, I have something to give you."

Hayden frowned — does this guy not have to go to work every day?

Kevin didn't have to go to work, but Hayden was very busy.

"Mr. York, I'm in a meeting." Hayden said in a low voice, "Mr. York, there's no way to go out now, what's the matter with you, come in and talk about it."

Kevin smiled and said: "Mr. Queen. I'm sorry to bother you. Now you go in and attend your meeting, and I'll deliver the gift that I've carefully prepared for you."

Hearing this, Hayden's eyelids twitched On the surface, he was still very calm, with a low voice, she said, "Mr. York, why do you want to give me a gift?"

Kevin said that she helped him, and he owed her a favor, so please repay her.

Yesterday and Sunday, Hayden gave Kevin a chance to repay the favor and Kevin invited her to dinner.

They've settled the matter, so what gift did he give?

Hayden was a little annoyed with Kevin, thinking that Kevin was difficult and clingy.

"There is no reason, I just want to send it off. Mr. Queen, please do your work first, and I will drive into your company first." Saying that, Kevin hung up the phone.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-