Married at First Sight Chapter 1932-He was helping Andrew to prevent disaster, Andrew naturally wanted to help him unconditionally.

Without Julian's reminder, Remy wouldn't spread the word, and it wouldn't do him any good.

Remy stood at the door of the Stones' villa, watching Julian drive away.

He would go back when his nephew's 100-day banquet was held, and he had to ask his parents, brothers, and sister-in-law for help and ask them to come forward to help.

Remy originally wanted to rely on his sincerity and true feelings to slowly make Audrey accept him.

He also told his elder brother that he was not afraid of hardships, and as long as his relationship with Elisa was sincere, one day Audrey could accept the reality.

Remy also felt that chasing his wife was up to him, and he was unwilling to ask his parents, brother and sister-in-law for help unless it was absolutely necessary.

Audrey still refused to accept him, which means that he was not good enough. Even if he asked his parents, brother, and sister-in-law for help, it was useless.

He thought, if one day, his parents, brother and sister-in-law all came to Wiltspoon, just to help him propose marriage to the Stone family.

It wasn't until Julian's car was out of sight that Remy went back to the house.

Audrey was questioning Elisa what was going on.

Elisa repeated: "Mom, don't ask me; I really don't know what's going on. I've been on a business trip for the past few days, and I'm busy discussing business every day, or I'm talking on the phone with Serenity and Jasmine, even though I'm very few contacts with Remy. It's even more impossible to contact Mr. Bucham. To be honest, I don't even know what Mr. Bucham's mobile phone number is now. When I walked out of the airport, Mr. Bucham seemed to be coming out of the ground. The one who came out suddenly took my suitcase and stuffed a bouquet of flowers at me."

I was stunned at the time, and I didn't know what was going on. Mom, just listen to what Mr. Bucham said, and don't take it seriously. It is absolutely impossible for Mr. Bucham to like me. I always feel that he seems to be completing a task."

But She didn't know who asked Mr. Bucham to complete the task.

Who had such a big face and could command Mr. Bucham?

Even a person of Zachary's status had to be polite in front of Julian, and if he wants to see him, he needs Josh's help to arrange it.

Elisa thought about it, but she couldn't think of anyone with such a great ability to make Julian do what he didn't want to do.

Alice said: "Mom, I don't think Mr. Bucham seems sincere to Elisa. In Elisa's words, he seems to be acting. Sending flowers and saying that he wants to pursue Elisa are like completing tasks, not from the heart."

Audrey couldn't tell. She just couldn't figure out Mr. Bucham's motives.

"Mom, I love Remy. In this life, I will believe in Remy. Unless Remy doesn't want me, I will wait with him until Mom fully accepts him and agrees that I will be with him."

Audrey said sternly: "What if Mom takes ten or eight years to agree? Will you ask him to wait?"

Elisa was emotionally unwilling to obey her mother's arrangements, but she also hoped that her marriage would be blessed by her parents and family.

Audrey sighed, "Elisa, there are so many young talents in Wiltspoon, why don't you like the young talents in Wiltspoon, but Remy?"

Elisa: "There are so many young talents in Wiltspoon, they don't like your daughter either."

Mrs. Stone was speechless.
