

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1934

Married at First Sight Chapter 1934-It's not enough, it's not good enough, and I can't make Auntie trust you to me. I will continue to work hard."

The two got into the car, and Remy asked her, "Where do you want to go for dinner?"

Elisa: "Where do you want to go? Wherever you go to eat, I will eat there."

Remy smiled, she had 100% trust in him.

He started the engine and started the car.

Elisa said again: "After dinner, accompany me to Wiltspoon Middle School. Both Ms. Serenity and Ms. Jasmine's bookstores opened recently. Jasmine is bored at home, and the vegetable market is far away from the city. Mr. Josh won't let her go When she went to the vegetable market. She opened the bookstore ahead of time."

Jasmine, the national treasure of the Bucham family, in order to pass the time, even if there was no business in the bookstore, she had to go back to open the door, and visit other people's stores every day to chat.

Remy: "Okay."

"Mr. Josh and Mr. Julian are cousins, and they have a good relationship. Maybe Mr. Josh will know the reason why Mr. Julian did this. As long as Mr. Julian knows, Ms. Jasmine will also know."

Elisa couldn't feel at ease if she didn't understand Julian's purpose.

"Josh may not know about this matter." Remy said while driving the car: "Mr. Julian may not let Mr. Josh know about this matter, so don't ask Ms. Jasmine bluntly, just ask cryptically. As long as there is any movement from Mr. Julian recently."

Elisa thought for a while, then said, "I don't know who asked Mr. Julian to come here to help."

After thinking for a while, Remy said, "Andrew seems to have not shown up for a while."

"Andrew can't invite Mr. Julian, even Mr. Zack can't invite Mr. Julian. How can Andrew be as good as Zachary?" Elisa understood what Remy meant, and immediately denied it.

Andrew was too low-key in Wiltspoon, and many people didn't know him. Even if he was the young master of the Reading family and Zachary's cousin, he didn't have the ability to let Julian come to intervene in her relationship with Remy.

"That's right." Remy said with a smile, "It doesn't matter, Elisa, as long as we don't change our minds and don't get fooled. I'm not worried about Mr. Julian, I'm worried about Patriarch Bucham, if he really came to your house to propose marriage and treat you as his daughter-in-law, I really wouldn't be able to wash it off even if I jumped into the Yellow River."

Since Patriarch Bucham knew his son after his son suffered from apathy, in order to cure his son's illness and want his son to become a real man, he became very crazy.

As long as Julian talked to his mother, Patriarch Bucham would think that the mother was the savior of his son.

Julian couldn't laugh or cry.

Facing his father who was madly trying to save his son, Julian didn't even dare to say a word to the eighty-year-old old woman, for fear that his father would arrange a blind date for the eighty-year-old old woman with him.

Only girls under five years old, he dared to look twice.

He didn't watch anything older than five years old.

Because once Julian saw a six or seven-year-old girl who was very cute, so he took a second look. The girl saw him and called him uncle, and he smiled back at the girl. Let his father know what happened.

As a result, within three days, the girl was taken back to the Bucham family's mansion by his father, who told him that letting him raise the girl and be his child bride-in-law made him feel dizzy.

That bullsh*t master said that his destined daughter called him uncle because there was a ten-year age difference between the two and it made sense for people to call him uncle.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-