Married at First Sight Chapter 1968-Zachary said affirmatively: "Impossible! My mother-in-law is also sisters, and her elder sister is Mrs. Audrey Stone. We all know Mrs. Stone's children. Except for Elisa, your sister-in-law has no other cousins. "

Kevin: "Counting up, it's Mrs. Stone's generation. Does she have any other sisters?"

Zachary said again: "Mrs. Stone said that she is only the two sisters. Her parents and family members are all dead. Only the two sisters are alive and have no relatives, so they will be sent to the orphanage."

Kevin: "..."

Zachary: "Kevin, you just said the daughter of the Farrell family?"

Zachary finally caught the point.

"It's Kathryn, the daughter of the Farrell family. There are many topics about the Farrell family. If I talk about them, I'll be talking for days and nights; I won't talk much right now, brother, but to cut a long story short, Kathryn is the daughter of the head of the Farrell family. She was maliciously replaced by the housekeeper, and the housekeeper's daughter became the daughter of the Farrell family, and she is now the second young lady of the Farrell family.

Kathryn, a real daughter, grew up in the housekeeper's old parents. She suffered a lot. I heard that the housekeeper's family treated Kathryn very badly. Later, for some reason, this matter was exposed. The daughter finally returned to the Farrell family and became the young lady of the Farrell family.

It's only been a year since she returned to Farrell's house. She looks weak and deceitful, but she's actually pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger, just like my second sister-in-law Camryn."

Zachary interrupted him, "I don't have time to listen to other people's gossip, but I do know that my mother-in-law's surname was originally Farrell, but she changed her surname to Howden after being adopted, but Mrs. Stone didn't say what her original name was. All I know is that after she was adopted by the Howden family, she changed her name to Lisa Howden."

"I heard from grandma that Mrs. Stone's maiden name is Audrey Farrell(Fisher)."

Kevin patted his thigh, "My sister-in-law must have some connection with the Farrell family. The surname Farrell is very rare, Mrs. Stone's surname is Farrell, maybe she is from the Farrell family. And it is unlikely to be a collateral lineage, and it is very likely to be a direct lineage, because the sister-in-law and sister Liberty are like Kathryn, the future head of the Farrell family.”

After Zachary was silent, he said: “When your sister-in-law comes back, I’ll tell her about it and ask her to ask Mrs. Stone.”

Zachary hoped that Serenity would not be involved in the circle of right and wrong again.

“Well, let my sister-in-law ask. I will go to Jensburg to inquire about the Farrell family and see if there are any children living outside the Farrell family.”

Mrs. Stone was in her fifties now. If her sisters were really members of the Farrell family in Jensburg, something must have happened to the Farrell family decades ago.

Kevin thought that the Queen family was a wealthy family in Jensburg, so he must know the past of the Farrell family.

Come on, he had another excuse to pester Hayden.

Zachary: “Just inquire in private, don’t make a big fuss. Your sister-in-law and sister Liberty are living happily and peacefully now. I don’t want them to be involved in the circle of right and wrong again.”

Kevin said: “That’s natural, brother, I’ll take care of things, don’t worry.”

Zachary said amusedly: “I don’t know if you can keep that mouth of yours.”

“I have a long tongue, but I also know what to say and what not to say. I won’t let my sister-in-law be involved until the investigation is clear. The current Farrell family can be as chaotic as it was back then. Meadspring Lafayette family is like that.”

Of course, the Farrell family was not as powerful as the Lafayette family, and even if it wasn’t as powerful, there were constant squabbles within the family.

The main thing was, who of the two daughters of the Farrell family would be the head of the family in the end?

Kathryn was the true daughter, but she grew up in the countryside, and she had only been back for a year, and her foundation was not stable. Her parents, brothers and sisters-in-law all favored Shiloh, a fake daughter.

Shiloh was trained as a successor for more than 20 years, and suddenly everything will be lost, was she willing?

It’s hard to believe that she would be willing.

Zachary: "How are you and Hayden?"

Kevin: "Just started to act, what can I do? She hates me now. If she hadn't cultivated well enough, I think she might beat me up a few times."

There was a smile in Kevin's words.

Clearly, Kevin didn't care what Hayden thought of him.
