Married at First Sight Chapter 1989-Hayden's eyes flickered, and she asked him: "What do you mean by that? Your sister-in-law and sister look very similar to Kathryn? Does your sister-in-law have lost sister?"

"I'm sure my sister-in-law has only one older sister, Liberty. She doesn't have a real sister, but she does have a cousin, but her cousin is not like Sister Liberty." Kevin said: "I just think it's too strange. people I don't know, how can they look so similar, so I want to ask you if there are any children in Farrell family living outside, not recently, but a few years ago."

"My sister-in-law and sisters can't be children of the Farrell family living outside. I know very well about the Hunt family."

But my sister-in-law's deceased mother was an orphan. She was sent to the orphanage at a certain age, and was adopted later. It's just that she was unlucky. After the adoptive parents had their own children, they gave her to others After raising her, others will give her to other people, and change hands several times.

As a result, Mrs. Stone spent a lot of effort looking for her younger sister. It took decades, until she met Sonny, and finally found my sister-in-law and sister. Sonny is my sister-in-law's nephew. He's very similar."

Hayden asked him: "You suspect that your sister-in-law's mother is from the Farrell family... The last head of the Farrell family is the elder sister of the current head, but she has two daughters who disappeared decades ago. "

Kevin knew there was a story as soon as he heard it, so he quickly asked Hayden.

Hayden didn't hide anything, and told Kevin everything she knew about the Farrell family history.

After Kevin finished listening, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called his mother. After his mother answered the phone, he asked his mother, "Mom, what's Mrs. Stone's last name?"

"What's Mrs. Stone's last name? Why are you asking this question all of a sudden? What does her last name have to do with you? You chase your wife well in Jensburg, don't give me all that I have."

Kevin: "Mom, I'm chasing my wife, but it's not easy to chase your future daughter-in-law."

Hayden was listening on the other side, completely speechless.

Kevin's own mother knew what Kevin did in Jensburg.

Unexpectedly, tacitly agreed, and even urged Kevin to chase his wife well.

"Mom, please tell me what Mrs. Stone's last name is."

"Mrs. Stone's surname is Farrell(Fisher). Few people ask her what her surname is. Why do you suddenly ask her surname?"

Mrs. York was suspicious and didn't understand why her son asked such a question.

Kevin: "It's okay, Mom, go ahead, I'll hang up first."

"Don't hang up first, mom told you, your aunt and second aunt both have daughters-in-law, but I don't, you can cheer me up and bring me a daughter-in-law back sooner, you said you and your second brother are to receive a photo from your grandma together, the second brother engaged, and you are still single!"

Her own son, Kevin could speak well, but he was not as good as Callum.

Callum was engaged, but her son hadn't made any progress yet.

Mrs. York reminded her parents: "Kevin, there are only a few months left for your grandma to give you. If you don't work harder, you won't come back during the New Year."

Kevin: "Mom, I get it, don't rush me any more, I know it well."

Didn't he rush to catch up with the second brother?

The oldest brother couldn't catch up, so he could only follow in the footsteps of the second brother. Maybe he could hold the wedding before the second brother.

Hayden really wanted to snatch Kevin's phone and complain to Mrs. York. After listening to the conversation between the mother and son, she finally endured it and didn't even say a word.

Soon, Kevin ended the call, put his mobile phone on the desk casually, and said to Hayden: "I dare not contact my mother. Every time I do, my mother always urges the marriage. My head is getting bigger."
