I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1850-Even though he knew David was comforting him, there was nothing Amadi could do.

How would David have the chance to escape while so many powerhouses from the Lightfoot family had him surrounded?

If he could escape, he would have already done so.

Why would he wait until now?

Amadi wanted to help David, but in this situation, he was also self-aware.

He knew he was not qualified to do so.

He was not only weak, but he also did not have a Sacred Saint behind him. Thus, he did not know where to start.

The only thing he could do for David was to blend in with the crowd while sending some outside news to him.

Alba was in full swing for the final calculation.

She had to finish it within the deadline since she promised David this would be the last day.

She told him three days. Since she had said that, she had to keep her promise and not postpone it any longer.

After learning that Anders came here with a team of a thousand geniuses, Alba was stunned.

Then, waves of panic washed over her, causing her body to tremble.

'Didn't Anders invite all the geniuses of Star Kingdom to his party?

'Why did he come here suddenly with so many geniuses from Star Kingdom?

'What is he trying to do with such a big fanfare?

"Could it be... that he came to publicly marry me?

'It's possible!'

Aside from that, Alba could not think of a reason why Anders would come here.

'What should I do? What should I do? What should I do?'

Alba asked herself over and over again.

She did not want to be the Fellowes family's sacrificial lamb to win over the Palmore family. Furthermore, she had been working so hard and now, there was a glimmer of hope.

As a result, everything would go to waste at this last critical moment.

Alba could not accept this reality.

'No! I will not marry Anders. If not, my life will be ruined.'

Moreover, Alba did not understand.

Anders did not genuinely like her. He wanted to marry her just so he could use this way to slowly devour the Fellowes family, eventually taking over Treasure Trove completely.

Once the Palmore family took action against the Fellowes family, the initial relationship between the two families would be ruined.

When that happened, she would be stuck in the middle, which would be the worst situation to be in.

Alba knew David was the only one who could save her from Anders.

However, David had not yet completed his mission.

Hence, she could only ask him for help once she helped him finish his mission.

She did not have much left, but she could still make it.

After calming herself down, Alba continued working.

The news of Anders' arrival caused her to feel an intense sense of crisis.

Since she now had something on her mind, she was not as efficient as before.

Alba had no idea that Anders had never once thought about his fiancé ever since he came out.

After preparing for the party and suffering a major flop, Anders got so mad that he decided to shift his target to David and the other five of the Star Kingdom Six.

He wanted to get rid of David to vent some of his anger.

Women would just be burdens to someone mad about cultivation like Anders.

They would only affect the speed of his improvement.

The only reason he agreed to marry Alba back then was so that he could use the opening to intervene in the Fellowes family's internal affairs.
