I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1959-David's voice rang devilishly in their ears.

Originally, they thought that they had escaped after being struck by David's sword.

When they returned to the family, they would tell the grandmaster about the matter and ask the grandmaster to kill David, exterminate David's bloodline, and avenge the family members who had died.

Unexpectedly, David came after them in hot pursuit.

If they were not David's match during their heyday, they would be no match for him now that they were injured.

The aura of death enveloped the three of them.

Anders was completely dumbfounded by the severe physical pain, coupled with the psychological torture.

The fear he felt toward David burst out in his heart, rendering him motionless.

The two True Saints of the Palmore family stopped and looked around for David, but they could not find him.

Just now, they could hear David's voice clearly in their ears, but now they could not find him.

One of them could not stand the strange atmosphere, so he shouted loudly, "David, you bastard! Come out if you have the balls, don't be so sneaky. Come out and fight us!"

"Fight you? Who do you think you are? Forget it! Even if your grandmaster were here, he wouldn't be able to face three of my moves, let alone you."

David's voice continued.

However, the two True Saints still could not find him.

They still did not find him after using all of their mind power and spreading it around.

'What is going on?'

The two True Saints started to panic.

The unknown was the scariest.

They would rather have David show up and fight them.

Even if they could not beat him, it would be much better than what was happening now.

“How shameless! The grandmaster is the strongest person in Star Kingdom and also the head of the Saints

Association. You are just a small True Saint, so you are like an ant in front of him. How dare you say that the grandmaster can't survive three of your moves? How ridiculous! Who gave you the courage to say such whimsical words? You must be crazy!”

The two wanted to find David's specific location through David's voice.

If they could not even find David now, how could they fight him?

As the True Saints of the Palmore family, they still had some trump cards.

Even if they could not beat David, they could desperately play all of their trump cards. That way, even if David was a late True Saint, he would still be hurt.

However, now, they could not even find him.

They wanted to fight but could not even find their opponent.

They did not expect David to have this kind of concealment technique that could even hide from their mind power.

“You're so short-sighted! Anders, I spared you last time, but I didn't expect you to come again this time. Do you really think that I, David, dare not kill you? I'll kill all three of you today and then see what your grandmaster will do to me then!”

David's voice seemed to come from all directions.

They could not discern the source of the sound at all.

This made the trio panic.

Using this move alone, David could tower over all of the powerhouses of the same level.

When Anders heard that David was going to kill him, the fear in his heart escalated again.

Then, he began to speak gibberish.

“Don't kill me! I am the first-in-line heir of the Palmore family, and my grandmaster is the number one in Star Kingdom and the head of TSA. Don't kill me. Don't kill me...”

If David exerted a little more pressure on him, he would be driven to insanity.

“David, come out if you have the guts! Let us see what a late True Saint has! What kind of hero is as sneaky as you?” One of the True Saints said loudly to trigger David.

“Since you want to see me so badly, I’ll fulfill your wish.”

After David said that, the seven-dimensional space a few meters away from the trio opened.
