I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1967-When he thought about this, Cedar could not stay calm anymore.

David was trying to kill off the bloodline of the Fellowes family!

When they learned that David had repelled Anders and others for the sake of the Fellowes family, they were very relieved. They felt that they had put their trust in the right person, so they believed that he would keep his promise and keep the legacy of the Fellowes family alive.

Now, by sending Alba and others back, David had completely exposed his true intentions.

Although Cedar did not want to think about it-it could not be changed anyway.

Apart from wanting to get rid of his burden, Cedar could not think of any other reason for David to do this.

As for what Alba said about David joining forces with the Fellowes family to deal with the Palmore family, this possibility was almost non-existent.

He had lived for so many years, so Cedar understood human nature all too well.

People were selfish and would do whatever it took to benefit themselves.

No one would be willing to give their all in order to help others.

He had seen too many fathers and sons, or even brothers killing each other, and husbands and wives who turned against each other.

It was impossible that someone would risk his life for the so-called friend he just met.

In addition, this person was a top-notch genius with a bright future.

So when Alba said that, Cedar directly rejected the thought in his heart.

It was not that he did not believe it, it was simply not realistic at all.

"Valerio, have you wasted your entire life? Alba is not sensible because she is still young, but don't you understand? How can you believe everything David says? Did you never think that he was trying to get rid of his burden, namely us? After the Fellowes family is dead, who else will ask him for help? He will be free after he throws our family into the abyss," Cedar said with disappointment.

“Grandmaster, no! It’s not like that! Master David is not ungrateful. He really went to work, and once he finishes his work, he will come to rescue us,” Alba shook her head and retorted.

She now completely trusted David.

No one was allowed to speak ill of David, not even her grandmaster.

“Hmph!”

Upon hearing Alba’s words, Cedar snorted heavily, obviously very dissatisfied.

Then he continued, “I think you are infatuated by David! You don’t even believe what I say but instead choose to trust an outsider. How long have you known him? How can you protect him like this?”

“Grandmaster, listen to me. Master David is really not the kind of person you are imagining. He will definitely keep his promise,” Alba continued to explain.

“Keep his promise? Do you know what kind of enemy we are facing? Do you think that the current Palmore family is the same as the Palmore family before? Zenon is the number one in Star Kingdom and the head of the Saints Association, so it’s not an exaggeration to say that they are the number one force in Star Kingdom right now. How will David save us? What method will he use to save us? Will he give up his life to do this?” Cedar roared.

It was no surprise that Alba would favor a young, handsome, and incredibly talented man like David. Cedar understood.

If this was another time, he would definitely have approved.

The Fellowes family was at a dead end now, but as an important direct descendant of the Fellowes family, Alba was still protecting David.

That was why Cedar got angry.

The life and death of the family was not as important as a man whom she just met.

Anyone would be angry about that.

Alba was taken aback.

After being stunned for a few seconds, she whispered, “Grandmaster, actually…”

She wanted to tell him about Master David, but she was interrupted by Cedar before she finished speaking.

“Okay! I don’t want to hear you talking nonsense anymore. You’re infatuated by David so of course you’re speaking on his behalf. Valerio, tell me what’s going on!” Cedar looked at Valerio coldly.

After the grandmaster said that, Alba could only cry silently, not daring to continue.
