I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1972-Otherwise, once he showed up, he would surely have a lot of things he wanted to say, and then a lot of time would be wasted.

It would not be too late to meet them again after rescuing Celeste.

Celia and others never noticed that someone was spying on them.

No one in Star Kingdom could spot David as long as David did not show himself, let alone them.

Not even the few Sacred Saints could do this.

Although he was just a partial Pre-Deity, it was an existence that had surpassed Sacred Saint and was entered partially into Divine Realm.

It was not comparable to Saints at all.

A senior-level meeting just ended in the meeting room of the Iridescent Sect.

The other seniors of the Iridescent Sect had just left, and only Nova was still meditating on the main seat.

The current turmoil in the Star Kingdom had naturally affected the Iridescent Sect as well.

The purpose of this meeting was to discuss how to deal with the upcoming chaos in Star Kingdom.

Sid left office and Zenon became the new head of the Saints Association, so the impartiality of the Saints Association right now was in name only.

From now on, the Saints Association would be the private army of the Palmore family.

The policy promoted by Zenon and Sid were two extremes.

Sid, the former head, was very considerate of Star Kingdom. Since he became the head of the Saints Association, he had been respected by all forces and powerful people.

On the contrary, Zenon was always thinking about his own interests.

The two could not be compared at all.

After the Saints Association announced publicly that Zenon became the head of the Saints Association, there was a huge wave in Star Kingdom and all major forces began to call back their forces.

The Iridescent Sect was no exception.

Nova stood up.

She still had to go to the forbidden area and report the results of the discussion to the reputable elders and ask them how the sect should proceed.

In the Iridescent Sect, Nova, the so-called head, was nothing more than a puppet.

She still needed to report to the reputable elders and let them make the decision.

After she just got up, a voice rang in her ear before she had time to move.

“Nova, long time no see!”

After hearing this voice, Nova was shocked and looked up quickly.

Then, she saw a young guy sitting on a chair not far away from her at some point.

Who was he if not David?

“David! No, M-Master David, you... When did you arrive?” Nova stammered.

She still wanted to address David like before, but after she did that, she realized that the person in front of her was no longer who he used to be. He was a True Saint who could stand shoulder to shoulder with the reputable elders.

So, how could she call him by his first name?

Nova was not surprised by David’s sudden arrival.

This was because she knew that the other party would come sooner or later.

Not only his girlfriends were here, but there was also someone waiting for his rescue.

Even so, Nova did not expect it to come so soon.

“Don’t call me that. It’ll make us seem like strangers. Just call me David as before!” David said with a smile.

“No way! Successful people are always put first, those are Star Kingdom’s rules. Master David, you have achieved

Saint Realm, so you should enjoy the treatment of the Saint.

I dare not call you by name,” Nova explained.

“It’s okay! I am not like the others. Between friends, it’s too distant to call me that. Over time, the distance between us will also widen. Besides, you are teacher to Celia and the others. So how will I explain to them if you call me Master David? You should just listen to me, Nova.”

“T-This is not right.” Nova hesitated.

In normal circumstances, he should be called Master David.

However, just like David said, with Celia and the others serving as a link between them, it was indeed a bit strange for her to call David that.

Of course, Nova would kill to have a good relationship with a True Saint.

“What’s not right about this? Since we are friends, we should get along as friends.”

“Oh...Alrightthen! But I can only call you David in private. It’ll be more appropriate to call you Master David in public,” Nova thought for a while and said.

“That’s fine,” David agreed.

“David, have you gone to see Celia and the others?” Nova asked.

“I did. Right, I have to thank you for taking care of them while I was away.”

After saying that, David stood up and bowed to Nova.

He was very thankful for Nova.

If not, he would not know what to do with Celia and the others.

“No! It’s fine! David, you said we’re friends and this is just a very trivial matter. Plus, I really like those girls,” Nova quickly went to help David up.

She could not accept David’s bow.
