

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2005

Married at First Sight Chapter 2005-Duncan hugged Sonny tightly and said to Liberty: "My pain is not so severe now, only I walk around. It's okay for Sonny to sit like this."

Liberty said to him, "If you feel uncomfortable, just say so, don't bear it."

She took her son out of Duncan's arms. Then, she greeted Zachary and his wife.

"Sister." Serenity gave Liberty a hug.

After the two sisters hugged, Serenity sized up her sister and said, "I haven't seen you for a few days. I always feel that my sister is different."

Liberty laughed: "What's different, it's not like that."

"I'm hungry."

Sonny said to Liberty.

Serenity picked up her nephew and said to her sister, "Sister, Mr. Lewis, let's go eat."

Duncan: "Okay."

Zachary turned to Duncan's back and pushed Duncan away, while the Duncan's bodyguards and Zachary's bodyguard team walk together.

Serenity and Liberty led Sonny to the front.

Zachary asked Duncan softly: "Is there any progress between you and my sister? Seren didn't say that she didn't pay attention, but she did, and she noticed that my sister seems to be more beautiful."

Duncan smiled lowly: "You think it's my credit? Liberty hasn't accepted my love yet. She and I are still friends. Although I really hope that her beauty will bloom for me, unfortunately, it's not.

Now that she has her own career, she is full of self-confidence, and she is not burdened by her family. She lives a peaceful life and is in a good mood. People feel that she has changed a lot and that she is very beautiful. Of course, Liberty has never been ugly."

Zachary smiled, "It seems that our eyes are the same, I think my family Serenity is also like this. Her career is getting better and better, and she is more and more confident, I think she is getting more and more beautiful. The more beautiful it is."

The group went to Wiltspoon Hotel for dinner.

After dinner, Duncan wanted to send Liberty, the mother and son home, but Liberty declined. Considering his inconvenience, Duncan finally gave up.

Liberty drove home with her son, and Zachary and his wife went shopping for a while before returning home.

Zachary spent most of the night with his beloved wife now.

Serenity came back from a trip and rested at home for two days. Kindergarten started on September 1st. She and her sister sent Sonny to kindergarten together. Seeing the little guy wearing a new kindergarten uniform and being led into the kindergarten by the teacher, Serenity couldn't help but feel this way: "Time flies so fast, Sonny seems to be born yesterday, and in a blink of an eye, he is three years old and has gone to kindergarten."

It was not until the little figure of her son could not be seen that Liberty looked back and said: "Sonny grows up day by day, and we are getting old day by day."

Serenity: "Sister, you're not old at all, you're still very young."

Liberty said with a smile: "I mean we will grow old day by day, now I am not old. After 20 years, I will admit that I am old, but I want to be young, I always feel that I am only eighteen years old now."

Serenity laughed. She held her sister's arm affectionately and walked back, saying as she walked, "I don't think I have grown up yet, and I still need my sister to chase after me to feed her."

When she was young, her parents went out to work, and it was her sister who fed her. When she was five or six years old, sometimes her sister would hold the bowl and chase her away, and feed her two bites of food from time to time. It sometimes took half an hour to finish a bowl of rice, and sometimes it took an hour.

Her sister often said that she ate so slowly when she was a child, and she always had to chase after her to feed, but when she grew up, she became a foodie.

Liberty: "In your sister's eyes, you will always be that little sister. Are you going to the bookstore today? Your sister will also let you eat."

Serenity: "Sister, drive slowly."