Married at First Sight Chapter 2011-Serenity smiled understandingly: "Jasmine said the same thing."

"Elisa, is my aunt at home?"

Serenity carried the bag and walked into the house with Elisa.

"My mother is in the house." Elisa replied, and then said in a low voice: "My mother has calmed down a bit recently, but she still doesn't accept me being with Remy. Serenity, take the opportunity and help me stay here and say more good things about Remy in front of my mother.

No matter how much we talk, my mother won't listen, but what you and Sister Liberty say, my mother can still listen to it."

Serenity readily agreed. After that, she asked again: "Auntie calmed down a little? Did something happen that she doesn't know about? I won't let her know, if she finds out, I will have a bad life."

Jasmine was now Julian's sister-in-law, if she were to let her know about Julian these two days, he would always give her a secret, Jasmine would definitely tell Josh about all kinds of gifts, and Josh would tell his uncle, and then the whole Bucham family would know.

The craziest thing Patriarch Bucham wanted to do now was to find the girl who could save his son Julian. Once he knew what Julian had done, might be he would come over overnight to propose marriage.

Mrs. Stone wholeheartedly wanted her daughter to marry a local man in Wiltspoon, but Mrs. Stone didn't want her daughter to marry with the Bucham family.

The main reason was that Julian looked at Elisa without any love in his eyes, and was very calm.

Julian must have ulterior motives in doing that.

After having Julian as a comparison, Mrs. Stone saw Remy's goodness, so she calmed down a lot in the past two days. Seeing Remy's visit, she looked a little better.

After listening to Elisa's words, Serenity was worried that during her trip, the two friends had a conflict. She asked with concern: "Can't Jasmine know? Are you and Jasmine having a conflict?"

“No, we didn’t have a conflict. It’s a major marriage event, let’s not talk about it now that I’ve entered the house, lest my mother overhear.”

Elisa changed the subject.

Serenity’s curiosity was aroused by Elisa. Seeing that Elisa didn’t want to talk about it, she couldn’t ask any more questions.

She came here now mainly to tell her aunt about the Farrell family in Jensburg.

Mrs. Stone was reading the newspaper, and when she heard footsteps, she looked up and saw that Serenity was coming, so she closed the newspaper, looked at Serenity approaching with a smile, and asked with a smile, “Serenity, when did you come back?”

She knew that Serenity was coming.

She felt that her niece was under a lot of pressure, and it was also a good thing to travel and relax.

Serenity: “I came back before the start of kindergarten. I have been busy, so I didn’t come to see my aunt. Now I have some time to come and see my aunt. Don’t blame me for not coming here.”

“I’m very happy, even if you can’t come, your aunt can understand. Sonny is in kindergarten today, is he crying?”

Mrs. Stone loves Sonny the most.
