Chapter 2589

Chapter 2589

Accompanied by Xie Yukun's roar, those people in Daqing Village screamed excitedly, and started shooting arrows into Dashi Village!

There are also people constantly attacking the gate of Dashi Village. Although there are formations around the gate of Dashi Village, they are all simple formations, and I'm afraid they won't last long!

The people in Dashi Village also started to fight back, and countless arrows rained down from the tower!

The pillar is also red-eyed, and keeps shooting the arrows in his hand!

Soon, the people in Daqing Village and Dashi Village were injured and people died continuously, but the people in Daqing Village didn't care about death at all, and attacked desperately, while the people in Dashi Village knew that once they were rushed into the village, they would die. It will be beyond redemption, so resist desperately!

Just like this, the two sides were fighting desperately, and Wu Feiyu and Nie Heng, who were not far away, were smiling, watching the fight in front of them as if they were watching the excitement!

Whether it is the people of Dashi Village or Daqing Village, in their eyes, they are the lowest level of untouchables, like ants, so whether they die or not has nothing to do with them!

After more than an hour of fighting, the gate of Dashi Village is already in danger, and the towers on both sides have all collapsed. It will be a matter of time before people from Daqing Village rush into the village!

"Zhuzi, go and tell Yun'er right away, you two took David to escape from the secret road, the farther you escape, the better, don't go back to the village again." The old village chief was also injured at this time, he knew The village could not be kept, so he pulled the pillar to let him escape with David!

"Old village chief, I won't leave, I will stay and fight, and I will die with you..."

Zhuzi cried, but he refused to leave!

"Why are you so disobedient? You and Yun'er took David away and went to look for Ali. David should know where Ali is!" "

As long as you live, you are the future of our Dashi Village. Just avenge us."

The old village chief angrily yelled at the pillar!

Zhu Zi bit his lip, tears kept falling, finally nodded, and ran towards Yun'er's house!

Just as Zhuzi ran away, the gate of Dashi Village collapsed, and people from Daqing Village rushed in!

"Sister Yun'er, sister Yun'er, the village has been breached, the old village chief asked me to take Brother David with you to escape through the secret road!"

Zhu Zi said to Yun'er panting!

When Yun'er heard that the village had been breached, her heart skipped a beat, then she looked at David who was still in a coma, and nodded!

Yun'er and Zhuzi stepped forward and began to move David, intending to carry David to escape from the secret road!

But just when the two of them moved David, David's body suddenly shone with light!

As the light continued to grow, David's body slowly levitated, and soon David opened his eyes!

Seeing that David woke up, Yun'er and Zhuzi shouted excitedly!

"Brother David, you are awake..."

Yun'er stepped forward and threw herself on David and started crying!

Seeing that David woke up, Zhuzi couldn't help but burst into tears!

At this moment, David looked dazed, and carefully recalled everything before he passed out. At this moment, he remembered that the old woman gave him the magic bead, and he fell into a coma after eating it.

David clenched his fist lightly, and found that his strength had not only recovered, it had even hit the strength of the eighth rank of Transformation Realm, and there seemed to be a special power in his body!

This kind of power is different from spiritual power, it seems to be formed by mixing several kinds of power together!

David immersed his spiritual consciousness in his body, and then guided the special power in his body to start to swim in his body!

"This... is this the power of the three clans?"

David was full of surprise, because he found that in addition to the power of the dragon in his body, he was still in the dragon crystal, whether it was spiritual power, power of dao pattern, or even the power of the beast race he had just obtained, all of them were fused together!

Chapter 2590

This kind of power is in an explosive state, much stronger than any kind of pure power. At this time, the power of the three clans popped up in David's mind.

This is the integration of the power of the three races. Although David knows little about the power of the three races, he knows that this power is absolutely powerful!

While David was still in shock, he was suddenly awakened by the sound of fighting outside, and David hurriedly asked, "Yun'er, what happened outside?"

" They have broken through the village and are massacring everywhere..."

Zhuzi hurriedly followed David!

As soon as David heard this, he rushed outside, but was stopped by Yun'er and Zhuzi.

"Brother David, the old village chief asked us two to take you away from the secret road. Don't go out. They are here to look for you. You will die after you go out." "The people from the Jade Cauldron Sect are also there

. They ordered the people of Daqing Village to do this!"

Zhuzi said to David!

When David heard this, he immediately became furious. Now that his strength has recovered and he has been promoted to the eighth rank of Transformation Realm, he will not be afraid of that Wu Feiyu of the Jade Cauldron Sect!

"Don't worry, you two. Now that my strength has recovered, I won't be afraid of them anymore."

David pushed Yun'er and Zhuzi away, and ran out straight away!

When David just ran out of the room, what came into view was a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood. Many people in Dashi Village fell into a pool of blood!

The old village head is still holding on with the rest of the people!

Looking at everything in front of him, David's eye sockets began to get wet, and finally turned from wet to blood red!

The murderous aura enveloped the entire Dashi Village in an instant, the sky suddenly became extremely dark, and the wind and sand began to sweep across the sky!

All the people who were fighting were frightened by this sudden scene, they all stopped, staring at the dim sky in a daze!

David's eyes were scarlet, and he walked forward step by step. Around his body, countless black mist filled the air.

At this moment, David was like a demon walking out of hell, with a pair of eyes emitting red light!

"David..."

The old village chief seemed a little excited when he saw David woke up!

"Old village chief, thank you, take the people to rest, and then leave it to me..."

I will not let a person who hurt Dashi village leave, they must all die..."

The word death came out, and there was a burst of terror The coercion emanated from David's body!

Those people in Daqing Village were terrified, and suddenly found that their bodies could not move, and then it was as if they were pressed tightly by a mountain!

Many people in Daqing Village were crushed to the point of spitting blood, and some were directly crushed to death!

David didn't move, this coercion alone caused heavy casualties to these people in Daqing Village!

This is the gap, the gap in strength...

Xie Yukun was crushed to the ground with a plop, and his legs and knees were instantly shattered!

He looked at David in horror. He never expected that David would be so powerful. If he knew this, he would never agree to Wu Feiyu and the others!

But what's the use of regretting now, it's too late!

"Then David came out..."

Wu Feiyu said, and then followed Nie Heng and jumped up, landing in Dashi Village!

Seeing Wu Feiyu and the others coming, Xie Yukun suddenly had hope, and hurriedly said, "Wu Feiyu save me, save me..."

Xie Yukun was following Wu Feiyu for help, after all, he was doing things for Wu Feiyu!

But who knew that Wu Feiyu didn't even look at Xie Yukun, just waved his hand lightly, Xie Yukun's head moved in an instant, and he died tragically on the spot!

For Wu Feiyu, Xie Yukun had no value at all. A worthless pariah would have to die!
