

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2082

Married at First Sight Chapter 2082-Kevin: "Ghosts exist, but not everyone can see them. In fact, it's a time reversal, but the time is very short, just one second, so you can't see them in the blink of an eye."

Hayden pursed her lips and remained silent.

The two walked out of the hotel through Hayden's secret passage. There were indeed fewer people on the street and less traffic. The street that was still bustling two hours ago gradually calmed down.

"It's so late, I don't want you to take it for shopping. Their store has closed." Kevin muttered.

Hayden warned him coldly: "You are not allowed to send skirts, high heels and jewelry to my office!"

Kevin: "I just want to see how amazing you are when you change back into women's clothes."

Hayden's face darkened, "I wear men's clothes."

Her closet was full of men's clothes. She had never worn skirts since she was a child, let alone high-heeled shoes. For a person like her who is used to walking and striding, wearing high-heeled shoes probably won't be able to walk.

Jewelry that girls like, she didn't like either.

She did use skin care products.

Cosmetics, she had never used.

"Hayden, you are not a real man." Kevin said very quietly.

She was still unwilling to restore her real body for Kevin, and he didn't expose her in public, anyway, he had already pursued her, and everyone treated him as a homos*xual, and he didn't mind. He should restore her identity as a woman earlier.

With her good looks, wearing a skirt would definitely be so beautiful.

After Hayden was silent, she said coldly, "I'm used to being a man."

Kevin looked at her sideways and smiled, "However, I like you whether you wear men's clothes or women's clothes. I like you and don't mind your gender. We will hold a wedding in the future, and we both wear suits, must be so handsome."

“I won’t marry you!” Hayden said in a low voice. “Kevin, I’ve told you countless times that I can’t be with you, I don’t like you, I even hate you.”

Kevin: “You hate me, that means I haven’t done enough, and I haven’t done well enough. I will try my best to do more things for you and treat you better.”

Hayden: “... Kevin, we are out for a walk, don’t talk about feelings with me anymore, I have no feelings for you.”

Kevin: “You don’t have feelings for me, but I have feelings for you.”

Hayden reached out and grabbed Kevin’s collar, drawing him closer. Kevin smiled at Hayden and pretended he wanted to kiss and sleep with her, causing Hayden to shake his hand and release her hold on his collar.

Hayden: “Kevin, why did you approach me? You know very well in your heart. Do you dare to say that you are sincere to me? Do you really have feelings?”

Kevin approached her and pursued her because of the task his grandma gave him.

He thought she didn’t know?

Grandma May gave him the task of chasing his wife after the New Year.

Now that Callum was engaged, he started to act, which meant that he didn’t like her, but because of the task his grandma had given him, he only started to act when he saw that the time to finish the task was approaching.

Kevin admitted honestly: “At the beginning, I was really not interested in you, because you disguised yourself as a man, when I saw you, it was like seeing a man. I am also a normal man, it is impossible to be tempted by a man.

Although grandma told me that you are a woman, you are more like a man than a man. It is difficult for me to treat you as a woman. I approached you at first to prove that you are a woman and to convince myself that I am interested in you.”

Recommended Novels