

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2083

Married at First Sight Chapter 2083-Kevin continued: "But I really couldn't find the flaw that you are a woman. Later, my second brother and my sister-in-law both suggested that I pursue you directly. I felt that time was running out, so I took their advice, that is, I will lay down for you that day. In the sea of flowers, I will formally pursue you.

Your reaction made me find it very interesting. Then, I liked to do this thing. I don't know if I am in love with you now, but my heart to pursue you and want to marry you is true."

Hayden: "..."

It was Serenity and Callum who made Kevin pursue her directly.

The two of them really screwed her up.

Her peaceful life was broken like this.

If according to Kevin's plan, he found the flaw that she was a woman first, he might not be able to find the flaw after spending several years.

She played the man for more than 20 years, which could be said to be very perfect.

"Hayden, this is the first time I'm interested in a woman, so I won't give up on you. You want me to give up on you and stop pursuing you. Unless I have the ability to make me fall in love with other women, I will never give up on you in this life. I'm all married to you."

In the beginning, she was arranged by grandma for Kevin.

Now, she was what Kevin identified.

Hayden looked at him quietly for a while, but strode forward without saying a word.

Kevin first looked at her back as she was striding forward, and after a while, he smiled softly and followed her up.

What else did he say to Hayden, but Hayden stopped talking to him.

Hayden was thinking of a way to save herself.

Kevin said that unless she could make him fall in love with other women, then she could jump out.

Then she would arrange a blind date for him, arrange all kinds of beauties to approach him, let him see the real femininity, and he would no longer pester her, a fake man who had no femininity.

Kevin himself said that he didn't know if he fell in love with her, but he only said that he wanted to marry her because he thought she was very interesting and she was the wife candidate chosen by his grandma.

But a marriage based on no feelings would not last long, and it would be very painful. The main reason was that she did not intend to marry him.

If he got in touch with other girls more and found out how good they were, he would dislike her appearance as a masculine woman.

The two went for a walk until 2 o'clock in the morning before returning to the hotel.

Hayden entered Greenrest Hotel, while Kevin returned to Fortress Hotel.

The following day was Saturday, there was no need to go to work, and the two of them could sleep in. Hayden was worried that this piece of brown sugar would call her back early, so she turned her phone to silent before going to bed.

The next day, although Hayden was not woken up by the phone ringing, she was woken up by the internal phone ringing in the room.

She opened her eyes and looked towards the window. Although she drew the heavy curtains, she could still see that the sky outside was already bright.

Turning around, she reached out and took the intercom phone receiver on the bedside table.

"Brother, are you awake?"

The voice on the phone belonged to her younger brother Hugh.

"Hugh, you are looking for death. Why are you calling early in the morning? I didn't sleep until two or three in the morning." Hearing her younger brother's voice, Hayden immediately scolded him.

She couldn't even sleep in if she wanted to.

Hugh was not angry when he was scolded, he grinned, "Brother, it's not too early in the morning, it's already 10 o'clock in the morning. Mom asked me to tell you, come back for lunch at noon, and stay at home this weekend, York's Brown Candy is here again."

Kevin entangled Hayden tightly, and his face was comparable to a city wall, so Hugh gave Kevin the title of York's Brown Candy.

Hugh said: "I intended to call you sooner. However, I discovered that you went to bed very late last night. He does not allow me to call you too early, so as not to wake you. He will allow you at least seven hours of sleep. "

Recommended Novels