

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2084

Married at First Sight Chapter 2084-Hugh continued: "Brother, why didn't your phone answer my call?"

Hayden: "For d*mn Kevin, I kept it on silent."

Hayden scolded Kevin, and then asked his younger brother: "How can you use the hotel's internal phone at home?"

"I'm at the hotel. I'm at the front desk. York's Brown Candy is also there. The two of us came to pick you up for lunch. Also, bro, you and York's Brown Candy are on Jensburg's hot search again. If you're in the mood, you want to see, just go and see."

Hayden immediately hung up the phone, and after putting down the receiver, she also sat up from the bed, took the phone, turned off the mute first, and changed it to ringtone.

Then she went to see Jensburg's trending searches.

She's really on the hot search again.

The photo was taken last night when she went for a walk with Kevin.

Those paparazzi were really awesome. The two of them left the hotel through a secret passage. At that time, it was already dark and no one was walking around on the street. Paparazzi even took a photo of the two of them together.

The content of the report was that she and Kevin secretly went out on a date in the dead of night without even bringing bodyguards.

Said that she might have been captured by Kevin, but changed the subject and said that the two had conflicts. She kept a cold face the whole time, and her attitude towards Kevin was also very bad, as if she was arguing.

He also said that maybe she hadn't been captured by Kevin, but she was so entangled by Kevin that she had to take advantage of the dead of night to talk to Kevin, so she had a bad attitude and a bad face the whole time.

After reading the content of the report, Hayden heaved a sigh of relief.

The paparazzi captured her and Kevin, but they didn't dare to get too close, so they didn't hear the content of the conversation between her and Kevin, so they could only rely on speculation to report this gossip news.

At the same time, Hayden felt that paparazzi had nothing to report, why did they keep staring at her and Kevin?

Had they ever seen two men fall in love?

It's all Kevin, if it wasn't for Kevin, she wouldn't be involved.

Although, in the past, she often appeared on news, such as how many admirers she had, how many crazy things those admirers did for her, and so on.

But those reports rarely hit the trending searches.

Since Kevin publicly pursued her, she had been frequently searched.

Hayden also knew that everyone was waiting for the result of her and Kevin.

In the rest area on the first floor, Hugh and Kevin were sitting together on a sofa, their heads leaning together and looking at something.

Not long after, a hotel employee came in with two bags containing disposable lunch boxes.

This hotel employee was not from Greenrest Hotel, but an employee from Fortress Hotel diagonally opposite.

After the staff of Fortress Hotel came in, they first looked around, and when he saw Kevin sitting on the sofa in the rest area, he immediately walked over.

"Boss York." After the employee came over, he respectfully called Kevin. Then he handed the two bags to Kevin, and said, "Boss York, you ordered the bags to be packed early, and I'll bring them to you."

Kevin got up, took the two bags, and nodded. "It's okay, you can go back to work."

Hotel employees leave quickly.

As soon as he left, Hayden appeared on the first floor, followed by several of her bodyguards.

She accompanied by bodyguards, she became the focus as soon as she appeared on the first floor, and everyone looked at her.

Recommended Novels