

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2074

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2074-When David heard that Azul was from a level 9 civilization, he was a little surprised, let alone Nova and the others.

He originally thought that Azul was from a level 8 civilization, so he did not expect Azul to skip a level and originate from a level 9 civilization.

This was somewhat beyond David's expectations.

Nova and the others were even more shocked.

They were still far from the top in a level 7 civilization like Star Kingdom.

They would be at the bottom tier in a level 9 civilization.

According to Azul, the Feather family was very powerful in Leila.

However, no one knew what the specific situation was.

After all, they had not seen it themselves.

Azul was surely exaggerating.

If the Feather family was as awesome as Azul said, then as a direct descendant of the Feather family, how could he be hunted down back then, resulting in serious injuries and death, forcing him to flee to the Star Kingdom to recover?

Eventually, only waking up more than a million years later.

David did not refute Azul either.

He just quietly listened to Azul brag.

He said he was introducing his hometown, Leila, but he was actually bragging about the Feather family.

After bragging about the Feather family, Azul started bragging about himself.

He said he could exercise his powers in Leila. Moreover, he was extremely talented and no one in the younger generation could match him.

David felt embarrassed when he heard that.

'Would a top talent fall to this point?

'Who would believe him?

'Does he believe it himself?'

As Azul was bragging, he might have also felt that he was bragging too much, and that nor everyone believed him.

Due to this, he said that he was harmed by an evil person back then and was now in this state because of a conspiracy.

The first thing he would do when he went back this time would be to avenge his past.

He wanted to make everyone who hurt him pay the price.

After David and the others listened for a long time, they figured that aside from the fact that he came from the level 9 civilization Leila, nothing else was true.

That was enough. David did not want to listen to this guy's nonsense anymore.

Then he interrupted, "Azul, my master is coming soon."

"Oh? So soon?" Azul was still enjoying himself.

Being a poser was one of his hobbies in life.

He especially liked doing this in front of people who did not know much.

He would feel nice seeing the adoring look on the other side's face.

He would also do this when he was in Leila.

He often liked to go to some corners of the kingdom where information technology was not very developed just so he could brag about his awesome deeds.

In Leila, some busybodies even gave Azul a nickname.

The King of Brags!

Of course, he himself would not recognize this title.

Everyone only dared to call that in private as Azul would definitely destroy anyone who dared to call him that in person.

This title could be said to be a taboo subject around him.

“My master is not too far from here, so he will arrive quickly. Azul, wait a moment, I will go get him,” David said.

“Okay!” Azul replied with one word.

He was not worried that David would run away.

If David escaped, the entire Star Kingdom would suffer.

Plus, Azul did not believe that David was able to run away from in front of his eyes. This was how confident a powerful man like him was.

“Wait for me here,” David said to Lorraine in his arms.

“No!” Lorraine hastily refused.

“I’ll be back soon!”

“I don’t want to! I’ll go with you.”

Lorraine hugged David tightly, afraid that he would abandon her.

This was the warmest and safest place she had ever been in in her life.

If possible, she wanted to stay here forever.

David shook his head helplessly and had no choice but to hold Lorraine before entering the high-dimensional space.

Recommended Novels